Confirmation of Your Representation: You have accessed the attached offering memorandum on the basis that you have confirmed your representation to the Company and to Guotai Junan Securities (Hong Kong) Limited, Haitong International Securities Company Limited, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, CLSA Limited, CMB International Capital Limited, China CITIC Bank International Limited, SunRiver International Securities Group Limited, DBS Bank Ltd. and Dragonstone Capital Management Limited (the “Initial Purchasers”) that (1) you consent to delivery of the attached offering memorandum and any amendments or supplements thereto by electronic transmission and agree to the terms set forth herein; (2) (i) you are receiving this offering memorandum outside the United States and, to the extent you purchase the securities described in the attached offering memorandum, you will be doing so pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and (ii) the e-mail address to which the attached offering memorandum has been delivered is not located in the United States (including the states and the District of Columbia), its territories, its possessions and other areas subject to its jurisdiction; and (3) you acknowledge that you will make your own assessment regarding any legal, taxation or other economic conditions with respect to your decision to subscribe for or purchase any securities.

The attached offering memorandum has been made available to you in electronic form. You are reminded that documents transmitted via this medium may be altered or changed during the process of transmission and consequently none of the Company, the Initial Purchasers or any person who controls any of them or any of their respective directors, employees, representatives or affiliates accepts any liability or responsibility whatsoever in respect of any discrepancies between the document distributed to you in electronic format and the hard copy version. The Company will provide a hard copy version to you upon request.

Restrictions: The attached offering memorandum is being furnished in connection with an offering exempt from registration under the Securities Act solely for the purpose of enabling prospective investors an opportunity to consider the purchase of the securities described therein. You are reminded that the information in the attached document is not complete and may be changed. Any investment decision should be made on the basis of a complete final offering memorandum.

Nothing in this electronic transmission constitutes an offer of securities for sale in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so. Under no circumstances shall there be any sale of these securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.

THE NOTES HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, OR THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES OR OTHER JURISDICTION, AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED OR SOLD WITHIN THE UNITED STATES, EXCEPT PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM, OR IN A TRANSACTION NOT SUBJECT TO, THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT AND ANY APPLICABLE STATE OR LOCAL SECURITIES LAWS.

This offering Memorandum has been prepared on the basis that any offer of Notes in any Member State of the European Economic Area (“EEA”) will be made pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Regulation from the requirement to publish a prospectus for offers of Notes. The expression “Prospectus Regulation” means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (as amended or superseded).

PRIIPs Regulation/Prohibition of sales to EEA retail investors – The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, “MiFID II”); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2016/97/EU, as amended, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the “PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom (the “UK”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the “EUWA”); (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the “FSMA”) and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement the Insurance Distribution Directive, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA. Consequently no key information document required by the PRIIPs Regulation as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

This document is for distribution only to persons who (i) have professional experience in matters relating to investments falling within Article 19(5) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005 (as amended, the “Financial Promotion Order”), (ii) are persons falling within Article 49(2)(a) to (d) (“high net worth companies, unincorporated associations etc.”) of the Financial Promotion Order, (iii) are outside the United Kingdom, or (iv) are persons to whom an invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) in connection with the issue or sale of any securities may otherwise lawfully be communicated or caused to be communicated (all such persons together being referred to as “relevant persons”). This document is directed only at relevant persons and must not be acted on or relied on by persons who are not relevant persons. Any investment or investment activity to which this document relates is available only to relevant persons and will be engaged in only with relevant persons.

Except with respect to eligible investors in jurisdictions where such offer is permitted by law, nothing in this electronic transmission constitutes an offer or an invitation by or on behalf of the Company or the Initial Purchasers to subscribe for or purchase any of the securities described therein. If a jurisdiction requires that the offering be made by a licensed broker or dealer and any Initial Purchaser or any affiliate of the Initial Purchasers is a licensed broker or dealer in that jurisdiction, the offering shall be deemed to be made by such Initial Purchasers or such affiliate on behalf of the Company in such jurisdiction.

You are reminded that you have accessed the attached offering memorandum on the basis that you are a person into whose possession it may be lawfully delivered in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction in which you are located. If you have gained access to this transmission contrary to the foregoing restrictions, you will be unable to purchase any of the securities described therein.

Actions That You May Not Take: You should not reply by e-mail to this announcement, and you may not purchase any securities by doing so. Any reply e-mail communications, including those you generate by using the “Reply” function on your e-mail software, will be ignored or rejected.

ANY FORWARDING, DISTRIBUTION OR REPRODUCTION OF THE ATTACHED OFFERING MEMORANDUM, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, IS UNAUTHORIZED. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THIS DIRECTIVE MAY RESULT IN A VIOLATION OF THE SECURITIES ACT OR THE APPLICABLE LAWS OF OTHER JURISDICTIONS.

Approval-in-principle has been received for the listing and quotation of the Notes on the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (the “SGX-ST”). The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the correctness of any of the statements made or opinions expressed or reports contained in this offering memorandum. Prospective investors in the Notes should rely only on the information contained in the final offering memorandum. For a description of the restrictions on offers, sales and resales of the Notes, including, and distribution of this offering memorandum, see the sections headed “Transfer Restrictions” and “Plan of Distribution” below.

THE NOTES HAVE NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION, ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION IN THE UNITED STATES OR ANY OTHER UNITED STATES REGULATORY AUTHORITY, NOR HAVE ANY OF THE FOREGOING AUTHORITIES PASSED UPON OR ENDORSED THE MERITS OF THE OFFERING OR THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE IN THE UNITED STATES.

PRIIPs Regulation/Prospectus Directive/Prohibition of sales to EEA retail investors – The securities are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (“EEA”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, “MiFID II”); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2016/97/EU (as amended, the “Insurance Distribution Directive”), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the “PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the securities or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the securities or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom (the “UK”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the “EUWA”); (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the “FSMA”) and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement the Insurance Distribution Directive, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA. Consequently no key information document required by the PRIIPs Regulation as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

Important Notice to Prospective Investors – Prospective investors should be aware that certain intermediaries in the context of this offering of the Notes, including certain Joint Lead Managers, are “capital market intermediaries” (“CMIs” and each a “CMI”) subject to Paragraph 21 of the Code of Conduct for Persons Licensed by or Registered with the Securities and Futures Commission (the “SFC Code”). This notice to prospective investors is a summary of certain obligations the SFC Code imposes on such CMIs, which require the attention and cooperation of prospective investors. Certain CMIs may also be acting as “overall coordinators” (the “OCs”) for this offering and are subject to additional requirements under the SFC Code.

Prospective investors who are the directors, employees or major shareholders of the Company, a CMI or its group companies would be considered under the SFC Code as having an association (an “Association”) with the Company, such CMI or the relevant group company. Prospective investors associated with the Company or any CMI (including its group companies) should specifically disclose this when placing an order for the Notes and should disclose, at the same time, if such orders may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to this offering. Prospective investors who do not disclose their Associations are hereby deemed not to be so associated. Where prospective investors disclose their Associations but do not disclose that such order may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to this offering, such order is hereby deemed not to negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to this offering.

Prospective investors should ensure, and by placing an order prospective investors are deemed to confirm, that orders placed are bona fide, are not inflated and do not constitute duplicated orders (i.e. two or more corresponding or identical orders placed via two or more CMIs). A rebate may be offered by the Company to all private banks for orders they place (other than in relation to Notes subscribed by such private banks as principal whereby it is deploying its own balance sheet for onward selling to investors), payable upon closing of this offering based on the principal amount of the Notes distributed by such private banks to investors. Private banks are deemed to be placing an order on a principal basis unless they inform the CMIs otherwise. As a result, private banks placing an order on a principal basis (including those deemed as placing an order as principal) will not be entitled to, and will not be paid, the rebate. If a prospective investor is an asset management arm affiliated with any Joint Lead Manager, such prospective investor should indicate when placing an order if it is for a fund or portfolio where the Joint Lead Manager or its group company has more than a 50% interest, in which case it will be classified as a “proprietary order” and subject to appropriate handling by CMIs in accordance with the SFC Code and should disclose, at the same time, if such “proprietary order” may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to this offering. Prospective investors who do not indicate this information when placing an order are hereby deemed to confirm that their order is not a “proprietary order”. If a prospective investor is otherwise affiliated with any Joint Lead Manager, such that its order may be considered to be a “proprietary order” (pursuant to the SFC Code), such prospective investor should indicate to the relevant Joint Lead Manager when placing such order. Prospective investors who do not indicate this information when placing an order are hereby deemed to confirm that their order is not a “proprietary order”. Where prospective investors disclose such information but do not disclose that such “proprietary order” may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to this offering, such “proprietary order” is hereby deemed not to negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to this offering.

Prospective investors should be aware that certain information may be disclosed by CMIs (including private banks) which is personal and/or confidential in nature to the prospective investor. By placing an order, prospective investors are deemed to have understood and consented to the collection, disclosure, use and transfer of such information by the Joint Lead Managers and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, including to the Company, any OCs, relevant regulators and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, it being understood and agreed that such information shall only be used for the purpose of complying with the SFC Code, during the bookbuilding process for this offering. Failure to provide such information may result in that order being rejected.

This offering memorandum summarizes certain material documents and other information, and we refer you to them for a more complete understanding of what we discuss in this offering memorandum. In making an investment decision, you must rely on your own examination of us and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. We are not making any representation to you regarding the legality of an investment in the Notes by you under any legal, investment, taxation, or similar laws or regulations. You should not consider any information in this offering memorandum to be legal, business or tax advice. You should consult your own professional advisers for legal, business, tax and other advice regarding an investment in the Notes.

We and the Initial Purchasers reserve the right to reject any offer to purchase any Notes, in whole or in part, for any reason, or to sell less than the aggregate principal amount of the Notes offered by this offering memorandum.

IN CONNECTION WITH THE ISSUE OF THE NOTES, ANY OF THE INITIAL PURCHASERS APPOINTED AND ACTING AS STABILIZING MANAGER (THE “STABILIZING MANAGER”) MAY, SUBJECT TO APPLICABLE LAWS AND REGULATIONS, PURCHASE AND SELL THE NOTES, OVER-ALLOT THE NOTES OR EFFECT TRANSACTIONS IN THE OPEN MARKET WITH A VIEW TO SUPPORTING THE MARKET PRICE OF THE NOTES DURING THE STABILIZATION PERIOD AT A LEVEL HIGHER THAN THAT WHICH MIGHT OTHERWISE PREVAIL FOR A LIMITED PERIOD AFTER THE TIME OF DELIVERY PROVIDED THAT CHINA CITIC BANK INTERNATIONAL LIMITED SHALL NOT BE APPOINTED OR ACTING AS THE STABILIZATION MANAGER. HOWEVER, THERE IS NO OBLIGATION ON THE STABILIZING MANAGER TO DO SO AND STABILIZATION ACTION MAY NOT NECESSARILY OCCUR. ANY STABILIZATION ACTION MAY BEGIN ON OR AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH ADEQUATE PUBLIC DISCLOSURE OF THE TERMS OF THE OFFER OF THE NOTES IS MADE AND, IF BEGUN, MAY CEASE AT ANY TIME, BUT IT MUST END NO LATER THAN 30 DAYS AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH THE COMPANY RECEIVED THE PROCEEDS OF THE ISSUE, OR NO LATER THAN 60 DAYS AFTER THE DATE OF ALLOTMENT OF THE NOTES, WHICHEVER IS THE EARLIER. ANY STABILIZATION ACTION OR OVER-ALLOTMENT MUST BE CONDUCTED BY THE RELEVANT STABILIZING MANAGER (OR ITS AFFILIATES) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE LAWS AND RULES AND WILL BE UNDERTAKEN AT THE OFFICES OF THE STABILIZING MANAGER. THESE ACTIVITIES WILL BE UNDERTAKEN SOLELY FOR THE ACCOUNT OF THE STABILIZING MANAGER AND NOT FOR US OR ON OUR BEHALF.

ENFORCEMENT OF CIVIL LIABILITIES

We are an exempted company incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability. The Cayman Islands has different bodies of securities laws from the United States and protections for investors may differ.

Substantially all of our assets and all of the assets of the Company are located outside the United States. In addition, all of our directors and officers are nationals or residents of countries other than the United States (principally of the PRC), and all or a substantial portion of such persons' assets are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for investors to effect service of process within the United States upon the Company or such directors and officers or to enforce against us or such directors and officers judgments obtained in United States courts, including judgments predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any state thereof.

We expect to appoint Cogency Global Inc. as our agent to receive service of process with respect to any action brought against us in the United States federal courts located in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York under the federal securities laws of the United States or of any state of the United States or any action brought against us in the courts of the State of New York in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York under the securities laws of the State of New York.

We have been advised by our Cayman Islands legal adviser, Maples and Calder (Hong Kong) LLP, that the courts of the Cayman Islands are unlikely (i) to recognize or enforce against the Company judgments of courts of the United States predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any state and (ii) in original actions brought in the Cayman Islands, to impose liabilities against the Company or its directors or officers predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any state, on the grounds that such provisions are penal in nature. However, in the case of laws that are not penal in nature, although there is no statutory enforcement in the Cayman Islands of judgments obtained in the United States, the courts of the Cayman Islands will recognize and enforce a foreign money judgment of a foreign court of competent jurisdiction without retrial on the merits, by an action commenced on the foreign judgment debt in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands, based on the principle that a judgment of a competent foreign court imposes upon the judgment debtor a liability to pay the sum for which judgment has been given provided that such judgment is final and conclusive, for a liquidated sum, not in respect of taxes or a fine or penalty, is not inconsistent with a Cayman Islands' judgment in respect of the same matter, impeachable on the grounds of fraud, and was not obtained in a manner, and is not a kind the enforcement of which is, contrary to the natural justice or public policy of the Cayman Islands (awards of punitive or multiple damages may well be held to be contrary to public policy). A Cayman Islands court may stay enforcement proceedings if concurrent proceedings are being brought elsewhere.

We have also been advised by our PRC legal adviser, Sundial Law Firm, that there is uncertainty as to whether the courts of China would (i) enforce judgments of U.S. courts obtained against us, our directors or officers predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the U.S. federal or state securities laws or (ii) entertain original actions brought in China against us, our directors or officers predicated upon the U.S. federal or state securities laws.

Overview

We are a leading property developer in the Yangtze River Delta, focusing primarily on the development of quality residential properties and mixed-use complex projects. In 2024, we were ranked fourth and second among the top 10 Chinese commercial real estate developers by comprehensive strengths and by operations, respectively, by China Real Estate Industry Federation (中國房地產業協會) and Shanghai E-House Real Estate Research Institute (上海易居房地產研究院). In addition, we received various recognitions from China Index Academy in 2024, including being named among the top 10 commercial real estate developers by operations in the PRC and being recognized as an excellent construction operation enterprise. We also received various recognitions at the Annual Premier Product Strength Conference in 2024 (2024超級產品力年度大會), which was co-organized by EH Consulting (億翰智庫) and AUDG (艾迪格設計) under the guidance of China Real Estate Chamber of Commerce (全聯房地產商會), including being named as a 2024 national model of the fourth generation residential projects and being ranked among the top 20 Chinese real estate enterprises by delivery strength and by product strength, the top 10 national excellent construction projects and the top 10 Chinese construction enterprises by product strength.

As of December 31, 2024, we had 222 real estate projects which were under development and/or held for future development in 92 major cities in the PRC. These projects included approximate 19.7 million sq.m. under development and approximately 19.3 million sq.m. held for future development. As of December 31, 2024, we had land reserves with a total estimated GFA of 31.4 million sq.m., of which 23.6 million sq.m. are attributed to our Group’s interests.

Our Property Development Operations

Property development operations comprise, among other things, land acquisition, product development and construction, property sales and pre-sales and property management. For product development and construction, we engage third-party contractors to provide a wide range of services which include, without limitation, architectural and interior design, construction, electromechanical engineering and landscaping. To shorten the period between site acquisition, pre-sale and completion of our properties, we have adopted a “rapid asset turnover” business model for our property development operations. As a result, we have been able to rapidly replicate our projects, shorten development cycles, maximize investment returns, improve cash flows and mitigate liquidity risks.

Our Diversified Product Offerings

We develop and sell a variety of residential property types, through four residential property series, namely, our “FirstHomes” series, “SweetHomes” series, “DreamHomes” series and “PrestigeHomes” series, to target different customers groups, including first time buyers, young families, mid-to-high income households and high net worth individuals. We also develop large-scale, mixed-use complex projects that typically consist of a combination of shopping malls, offices, hotels, serviced apartments, residential properties and other ancillary facilities. We offer three mixed-use complex project series, namely our “International Plaza” series, “City Plaza” series and “Lifestyle Mall” series, to meet the needs and preferences of customers in different locations, including central business districts and emerging business districts.

(1) EBITDA refers to our operating profit plus depreciation, amortization and capitalized interest under cost of sales, but excluding fair value gains on the investment properties and other gains or losses, net. EBITDA is not a standard measure under HKFRSs. EBITDA is a widely used financial indicator of a company's ability to service and incur debt. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or construed as an alternative to cash flows, net income or any other measure of financial performance or as an indicator of our operating performance, liquidity, profitability or cash flows generated by operating, investing or financing activities. EBITDA does not account for taxes, interest expense or other non-operating items. In evaluating EBITDA, we believe that investors should consider, among other things, the components of EBITDA such as sales and operating expenses and the amount by which EBITDA exceeds capital expenditures and other charges. We have included EBITDA because we believe it is a useful supplement to cash flow data as a measure of our performance and our ability to generate cash flow from operations to cover debt service and taxes. EBITDA presented herein may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other companies. Investors should not compare our EBITDA to EBITDA presented by other companies because not all companies use the same definition. See the section headed "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Non-GAAP Financial Measures" for a reconciliation of our profit for the year under HKFRSs to our definition of EBITDA. Investors should also note that EBITDA as presented herein may be calculated differently from Consolidated EBITDA as defined and used in the Indenture. See the section headed "Description of the Notes – Definitions" for a description of the manner in which Consolidated EBITDA is defined for purposes of the Indenture.

(2) EBITDA margin is calculated by dividing EBITDA by revenue.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the risks and uncertainties described below and all other information contained in this offering memorandum before making an investment decision. The risks and uncertainties described below may not be the only ones that we face. Additional risks and uncertainties that we are not aware of or that we currently believe are immaterial may also adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations or the market price of the Notes. If any of the possible events described below actually occurs, our business, financial condition or results of operations could be materially and adversely affected. In such case, we may not be able to satisfy our obligations under the Notes, and you could lose all or part of your investment.

We believe that there are certain risks and uncertainties involved in our operations, some of which are beyond our control. We have categorized these risks and uncertainties into: (i) risks relating to our business; (ii) risks relating to our industry; (iii) risks relating to doing business in the PRC; (iv) risks relating to the Notes.

Risks Relating to Our Business

Our operations are subject to extensive government policies and regulations and, in particular, we are susceptible to changes in policies affecting the PRC property industry and the regions in which we operate.

Our business is subject to extensive governmental regulations and, in particular, we are susceptible to policy changes in the PRC property industry. In particular, the PRC government exerts considerable direct and indirect influence on the development of the PRC property industry by imposing industry policies and other economic measures, such as control over the supply of land for property development, property financing, taxation and foreign investment. Through these policies and measures, the PRC government may restrict or reduce land available for property development, raise the benchmark interest rates of commercial banks, place additional limitations on the ability of commercial banks to make loans to property developers and property purchasers, impose additional taxes and levies on property sales and restrict foreign investment in the PRC property industry.

From time to time, the PRC government adjusts its regulation of the property market depending on macroeconomic conditions to achieve policy goals, such as preventing the overheating of the property market or stimulating the property market during and after an economic downturn. In recent years, various administrative bodies launched a series of measures to discourage speculation and control the growth of the PRC property market. Demand for properties and property prices in China have fluctuated significantly in recent years, and are expected to continue to be affected by macro-economic control measures implemented by the PRC government from time to time.

During 2020 and 2021, the government regulatory agencies frequently issue documents to regulate real estate enterprise financing, and strictly supervise the standardized and non-standardized financing of the real estate industry. In the first half of 2020, the PBOC emphasized adhering to the principle that “houses are used for living, not for speculation” and the requirements of “not using real estate as a short-term means to stimulate the economy,” so as to maintain the continuity, consistency and stability of real estate financial policies. In August 2020, the PBOC and the Ministry of Housing and Urban-Rural Development of the PRC (MOHURD) jointly held a meeting which emphasized the importance of market-oriented, regular and transparent financing rules applicable to real estate developers in cultivating a sustainable, stable and healthy development of real estate market. The PBOC and the MOHURD formulated the “Three Red Lines” policy to monitor the leverage ratio and regulate the ability of the real estate enterprises to incur additional debt. The “Three Red Lines” refer to certain financial metrics of a real estate enterprise: (i) the liabilities to assets ratio after excluding advances received from customers shall not exceed 70%; (ii) the net gearing ratio shall not exceed 100%; and (iii) cash to short term borrowing ratio shall not be less than 1. The real estate enterprises that fail to meet three targets shall not increase the amount of interest-bearing borrowings; the real estate enterprises that fail to meet two targets may increase the amount of interest-bearing borrowings by 5% each year; the real estate enterprise that fail to meet one target may increase the amount of interest-bearing borrowings by 10% each year; and the real estate enterprises that meet all three targets may increase the amount of interest-bearing borrowings by 15% each year. All real estate enterprises will have to meet all three requirements by the end of 2023.

Since 2022, in response to the industry-wide adjustment, the regulatory agencies of the PRC government have subsequently issued a series of policies and measures to optimize the operation of the real estate market, aiming to support the reasonable financing needs of real estate projects and promote the stable and healthy development of the real estate market. In November 2022, the PBOC and the China Banking and Insurance Regulatory Commission jointly issued the Notice on Leading Financial Support for the Stable and Healthy Development of the Housing Market (《關於做好當前金融支持房地產市場平穩健康發展工作的通知》) which proposed measures and opinions on six major aspects, including maintaining stable and orderly real estate financing, actively providing financial services for “ensuring the completion of housing projects”, actively cooperating in the disposal of distressed real estate enterprises, legally protecting the legitimate rights and interests of housing financial consumers, temporarily adjusting certain financial management policies, and increasing financial support for housing rental. The policy encourages financial institutions to prioritize support for well-governed, business-focused, and creditworthy real estate enterprises to achieve steady development. It also urges financial institutions, on the basis of risk controllability and commercial sustainability, to optimize credit services for construction enterprises by providing necessary loan support to ensure financing continuity and stability. Additionally, the policy supports high-quality real estate enterprises in issuing bonds for financing. It encourages bond issuers to communicate with holders in advance to ensure proper arrangements for bond repayment funds. Bond issuers are also supported in repurchasing bonds in both domestic and overseas markets. Furthermore, trust and other asset management products are encouraged to facilitate reasonable financing needs in the real estate sector. In January 2024, the MOHURD and the National Financial Regulatory Administration issued the Notice on Establishing a Financing Coordination Mechanism for Urban Real Estate Development (《關於建立城市房地產融資協調機制的通知》) which established a real estate financing coordination mechanism with members including local housing and urban-rural development departments and branches of the National Financial Regulatory Administration, which shall regularly organize parties to conduct consultations and promptly assess the local real estate market situation and real estate financing needs, and coordinate to resolve difficulties and problems in real estate financing. Based on the aforementioned notice, the MOHURD and the National Financial Regulatory Administration further jointly issued on Notice on Further Leveraging the Coordination Mechanism for Urban Real Estate Financing to Meet the Reasonable Financing Needs of Real Estate Projects (《關於進一步發揮城市房地產融資協調機制作用滿足房地產項目合理融資需求的通知》) in June 2024, which required the financial institutions to actively meet the reasonable financing needs of “white list” projects and provide financing to eligible projects to the fullest extent possible. In July 2024, the NDRC issued the Notice on Supporting the Borrowing of Medium- and Long-term Foreign Debt by High-quality Enterprises to Promote High-quality Development of the Real Economy (《關於支持優質企業借用中長期外債促進實體經濟高質量發展的通知》) which supported high-quality enterprises to better integrate domestic and international markets and resources, and fully leverage the positive role of foreign debt funds in serving high-quality development and enhance the quality and level of international circulation. On September 24, 2024, the People’s Bank of China and the National Financial Regulatory Administration issued the “Notice on Extending the Duration of Certain Real Estate Financial Policies,” (《關於延長部分房地產金融政策期限的通知》), which extends the application period of policies regarding reasonable extensions for outstanding financing such as development loans and trust loans under the “Notice on Providing Current Financial Support for the Stable and Healthy Development of the Real Estate Market” (《關於做好當前金融支持房地產市場平穩健康發展工作的通知》(銀發[2022]254號)).

We cannot assure you that the PRC government will not adopt more stringent industry policies and measures in the future. It is difficult to predict the impact these policies and measures may have on our sales volume and revenue. If we fail to adapt our operations to new policies or measures that may come into effect from time to time, or if our marketing and pricing strategies are not effective, our contracted sales and selling prices may decline, or we may incur additional costs, in which case our operating cash flows, gross profit margin, business prospects, results of operations and financial condition may be materially adversely affected.

Our business and prospects are heavily dependent on the performance of the PRC property markets, particularly in various major cities in Jiangsu Province and Shanghai.

We principally develop and sell properties in cities along the Shanghai-Nanjing Economic Corridor in the Yangtze River Delta. Our business will continue to be heavily dependent on the property markets in the Yangtze River Delta. These property markets may be affected by factors in local, regional, national and global markets, including prevailing economic conditions, speculative activities in local markets, demand and supply dynamics in the property market, availability of alternative investment choices for property buyers, inflation, government policies, interest rates and availability of capital.

Since the third quarter of 2021, there has been a downturn of the PRC real estate market. Since then, property developers in China have experienced more restrictions in accessing PRC bank lending for real estate development. The negative reaction to the credit tightening and certain credit events relating to PRC real estate developer also adversely affected PRC real estate developer's ability to refinance their indebtedness outside of the PRC. In addition, the broader slowdown in China's economy, exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic, reduced the consumer's disposable income and spending pattern, which led to decreased demand for and sales of real estate properties. Such decrease in demand is also compounded by oversupply of housing, particularly in lower-tier cities, as a result of years of rapid development. Several notable PRC real estate developers have faced severe liquidity crises, as a result of the reduction in demand, which led to their default on international indebtedness and ongoing restructuring efforts. The defaults of major developers also had a ripple effect on the consumer's confidence, the industry outlook and the broader economy. As a result of the industry-wide adjustment, the overall property investment has seen significant declines, and the sales of new property have also fallen significantly both in terms of property prices and number of units sold. The results of operations of PRC real estate developers have also been negative impacted by the industry headwinds, including ours. Since 2023, the PRC government has announced monetary policy adjustments, more proactive fiscal policy and other specific measures to support the real estate sector and boost consumer confidence. There can be no assurance that the consumer confidence in the PRC real estate market and the overall demand for real properties in China will improve in the near future, and if the industry headwind persists or worsens, there is no assurance that we will be able to continue maintain our growth and profitability, which could have material and adverse effects on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

In addition, the PRC property market will continue to be affected by economic, monetary, fiscal or other policies and measures of the PRC government. If economic conditions in the PRC deteriorate, if the PRC government implements macro-economic control or other measures that aim to curtail, or have the effect of curtailing, property demand or property development in China and particularly in the regions where we operate, or if we fail to respond to changes in market conditions and government policies, in particular those related to our target markets, in a timely manner, our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations would be materially and adversely affected. Any decreased property demand is likely to affect the selling prices of our properties as well as the time it will take us to pre-sell or sell our properties. Lower selling prices, without a corresponding decrease in costs, will adversely affect our gross profit and reduce cash flows generated from the sale of our properties, which may increase our reliance on external financing and adversely impact our ability to finance the growth of our business. Delays in selling properties will increase our selling and distribution costs as well as reduce the cash flows generated from the sale of our properties, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

We are subject to risks associated with certain covenants or restrictions under our bank borrowings which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

As of the date of this offering memorandum, we are subject to certain restrictive covenants in the loan contracts between us and certain banks. Some of our loan agreements with financial institutions contain cross-default clauses. If any cross-default occurs, such banks will be entitled to accelerate repayment of all or any part of the loans from such banks and to take action against all or any of the security for such indebtedness. In addition, some of our PRC operating subsidiaries are subject to certain material covenants that restrict them from carrying out any merger, restructuring, spin-off, reduction of registered share capital, material asset transfer, liquidation, change in shareholding or management structure, establishment of any joint venture, issuance of bonds or substantive increase of debt financing without the lenders' written consent. Furthermore, as long as such loans are outstanding, some of our relevant operating subsidiaries may not be able to provide guarantees to any third parties that would impair their ability to repay the relevant loans. We cannot assure you that we will be able to abide by all restrictive covenants and cross-default provisions of any of our loan contracts in the future. Should we fail to abide by these provisions, our lenders may be entitled to accelerate repayment of our loans, in which case our business, financial condition and results of operations will be adversely affected.

We may not have adequate financing to fund our future land acquisitions and property developments, and such capital resources may not be available on commercially reasonable terms, or at all.

Property development is capital-intensive, and we expect to continue to incur significant capital expenditures for construction and land acquisition. We finance our property projects primarily through a combination of internally generated funds, including proceeds from pre-sales and sales of our properties, and external financing, such as borrowings from financial institutions comprising China Banking Regulatory Commission (the “CBRC”) licensed commercial banks. Our ability to obtain external financing in the future and the cost of such financing are subject to uncertainties, some of which are beyond our control, including:

- requirements to obtain PRC government approvals necessary for obtaining financing in the domestic or international markets;
- our future results of operations, financial condition and cash flows;
- the condition of the international and domestic financial markets and financing availability thereof;
- changes in the monetary policies of the PRC government with respect to bank interest rates and lending practices; and
- changes in policies regarding regulation and control of the real estate market.

The PRC government has implemented a number of measures to manage money supply growth and credit availability, especially with respect to the property development sector. For example:

- the People’s Bank of China (the “PBOC”) has adjusted the Renminbi deposit reserve ratio several times since 2010;
- the PBOC has adjusted the benchmark one-year bank lending rate many times since 2008;
- commercial banks may not grant loans to property developers to pay land premiums; and
- the CBRC has issued guidelines that require at least 25% of the total investment in a property project to be funded by the developer’s own capital.

The above measures and other similar government actions and policy initiatives have limited our ability and flexibility in incurring additional indebtedness to finance our property projects. We cannot assure you that the PRC government will not introduce other initiatives that may further limit our access to capital, or that we will be able to secure adequate financing or renew our existing credit facilities on commercially reasonable terms, or at all.

Our financing costs are subject to changes in interest rates.

We have incurred and expect to continue to incur significant interest expenses relating to our borrowings. Accordingly, changes in interest rates have affected and will continue to affect our financing costs. Because the majority of our borrowings are in Renminbi, the interest rates on our borrowings are primarily affected by the benchmark interest rates set by the PBOC, which have fluctuated significantly in recent years. As of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, the weighted average interest rate for our total borrowings was 6.45%, 6.15% and 5.88%, respectively. Our interest costs incurred in the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 were RMB5,643.2 million, RMB4,368.5 million and RMB3,581.5 million (US$490.7 million), respectively. Future increases in the PBOC benchmark interest rate may lead to higher lending rates, which may increase our financing costs and thereby adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We may not be able to acquire land reserves in desirable locations that are suitable for development at commercially acceptable prices in the future.

The growth and success of our business depend on our ability to continue to acquire land reserves in desirable locations that are suitable for our projects at commercially reasonable prices.

Our ability to acquire land may depend on a variety of factors, such as overall economic conditions, our effectiveness in identifying and acquiring land parcels suitable for development and competition for such land parcels. Our land reserves were primarily acquired in land auctions held by local governments and through the acquisition of property development companies or property development rights from other developers. The availability and price of land sold at auctions depend on factors beyond our control, including government land policies and competition. The PRC government and relevant local authorities control the supply and price of new land parcels and approve the planning and use of such land parcels. Furthermore, the rapid development of the cities in Jiangsu Province and Shanghai in recent years has resulted in a shortage in the supply of undeveloped land in desirable locations and increased land acquisition costs, which is one of the largest components of our cost of sales.

We may not successfully manage our growth and expansion.

In recent years, we have diversified our product portfolio by expanding into the development of mixed-use complex projects. In addition to growing our presence in Shanghai, Nanjing, Hangzhou, Wuxi, Suzhou, Nantong, Zhenjiang, Taizhou and Jiaxing in the Yangtze River Delta, we have been expanding our geographic coverage to Changsha in Hunan Province, Wuhan in Hubei Province, Nanchang in Jiangxi Province, Changchun in Jilin Province, Anqing in Anhui Province, Haikou in Hainan Province, Qingdao and Jinan in Shandong Province, Chengdu in Sichuan Province, Quanzhou in Fujian Province, Xi'an in Shaanxi Province, Zhengzhou in Henan Province, Kunming in Yunnan Province, Chongqing and Tianjin. We are also expanding into the development and operation of hotels and offices and engaging in commercial leasing. We intend to continue to diversify our business.

Expanding into new business segments and geographical locations involves uncertainties and challenges due to our unfamiliarity with new business segments or local regulatory practices and customs, customer preferences and behavior, the reliability of local contractors and suppliers, business practices, business environments and municipal-planning policies. In addition, expanding our business into new geographical locations would entail competition with developers who have a stronger local presence, greater familiarity with local regulatory and business practices and customs, and stronger ties with local suppliers, contractors and purchasers.

As we may face challenges not previously encountered, we may fail to recognize or properly assess risks or take full advantage of opportunities, or otherwise fail to adequately leverage our past experience to meet challenges encountered in these new activities. We may also have difficulty in promoting and maintaining high occupancy rates and/or rental rates in the investment properties that we are currently developing after these properties are completed and commence operations.

Expanding our business requires significant capital and management resources. We will also need to increase our workforce to match the expansion of our business. We may also face considerable reputational and financial risks if any new sector of our business is mismanaged or does not meet the expectations of our customers. Any of these factors could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our business may be adversely affected if we fail to obtain, or experience material delays in obtaining, necessary government approvals in carrying out our property development and management operations.

The property industry in the PRC is heavily regulated. Property developers must abide by various laws and regulations, including rules stipulated by national and local governments to enforce these laws and regulations. To engage in property development and management operations, we must satisfy certain requirements to obtain (and renew for those relating to on-going operations) various licenses, permits, certificates and approvals, including but not limited to, qualification certificates, land use rights certificates, construction work commencement permits, construction work planning permits, construction land planning permits, pre-sale permits and completion certificates.

We cannot guarantee that we will be able to adapt to new rules and regulations that may come into effect from time to time with respect to the property industry or that we will not encounter other material delays or difficulties in fulfilling the necessary conditions to obtain and/or renew all necessary certificates or permits for our operations in a timely manner, or at all. Therefore, in the event that we fail to obtain or renew, or encounter significant delays in obtaining or renewing, the necessary government approvals for any of our major property projects, we will not be able to continue with our development plans, and our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

Our results of operations may vary significantly from period to period as we derive our revenue principally from the sale of properties.

We derive the majority of our revenue from the sale of properties that we have developed. Our results of operations may fluctuate in the future due to a combination of factors, including the overall schedule of our property development projects, the level of acceptance of our properties by prospective customers, the timing of the sale of properties that we have developed, our revenue recognition policies and any changes in costs and in expenses, such as land acquisition and construction costs. In addition, our property developments are often developed in multiple phases over the course of several years. Typically, as the overall development approaches completion, the sale prices of the properties in such developments tend to increase because a more marketable property is available to purchasers. Furthermore, according to our accounting policy for revenue recognition, we recognize revenue from the sale and pre-sale of our properties upon delivery to purchasers. Generally, there is a timing difference, typically ranging from one year to one and a half years, between the time we commence pre-sale of properties under development and completion of properties. Because the timing of completion of our properties varies according to our construction timetable, our results of operations may vary significantly from period to period depending on the GFA sold or pre-sold and the timing of completion of the properties we sell. Periods in which we pre-sell a large amount of aggregate GFA, however, may not be periods in which we generate a correspondingly high level of revenue, if the properties pre-sold are not completed and delivered within the same period. The effect of timing of delivery on our operational results is accentuated by the fact that during any particular period of time we can only undertake a limited number of projects due to our substantial capital requirements for land acquisition and construction costs as well as the limited supply of land.

Accordingly, our interim results for a certain period may not be indicative of our performance for that financial year or otherwise comparable to our results in previous periods. In light of the above, period-to-period comparisons of our operating results may not be as meaningful as they would be for a company with a greater proportion of recurring revenues.

We rely on third-party contractors to develop our projects.

We engage third-party contractors to carry out various services relating to our property development projects, including design, foundation building, construction, equipment installation, engineering and landscaping. We generally select third-party contractors through a tender process based on their reputation and track record, reliability and financial strength. If the performance of any third-party contractor is not satisfactory, we may need to replace such contractor or take other remedial actions, which could adversely affect the cost structure and development schedule of our projects and could have a negative impact on our reputation, credibility, financial position and business operations. In addition, as we are expanding our business into new geographical locations in the PRC, we may have difficulty hiring contractors that meet our quality standards.

We may engage third-party contractors or management companies to manage the daily operations of our hotels and offices. If the performance of our third-party contractors or management companies is not satisfactory to our customers, our investment properties may experience lower occupancy rates, which would lead to a loss of income or have an adverse impact on our reputation. If we are unable to successfully manage our investment properties, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects could be materially adversely affected.

We may not be able to complete our development projects on time, or at all.

Property development projects require substantial capital expenditures prior to and during the construction period for, among other things, land acquisition and construction. The construction of property projects may take a year or longer before they generate positive net cash flow through sales, pre-sales, leasing or rentals. Depending on the type of investment properties and the revenue generated, it may take a year or more after the completion of these properties before we recognize revenue from such projects. As a result, our cash flows and results of operations may be significantly affected by our project development schedules and any changes to those schedules. The schedules of our project developments depend on a number of factors, including the performance and efficiency of our third-party contractors and our ability to finance construction. Other factors that could adversely affect our project development schedules include:

- natural catastrophes and adverse weather conditions;
- changes in market conditions, economic downturns, and decreases in business and consumer sentiment in general;
- changes in relevant regulations and government policies;
- relocation of existing residents and/or demolition of existing constructions;
- shortages of materials, equipment, contractors and skilled labor;
- labor disputes;
- construction accidents; and
- errors in judgment on the selection and acquisition criteria for potential sites.

Construction delays or failure to complete the construction of a project according to its planned specifications, schedule and budget may harm our reputation as a property developer, lead to loss of or delay in recognizing revenues and lower returns. If a property project is not completed on time, the purchasers of pre-sold units within the project may be entitled to compensation for late delivery. If the delay extends beyond a certain period, the purchasers may be entitled to terminate their pre-sale agreements and claim damages. We cannot assure you that we will not experience any significant delays in completing or delivering our projects in the future or that we will not be subject to any liabilities for any such delays.

We may forfeit land to the PRC government if we fail to develop properties in accordance with the terms and timeframe set out in the land grant contracts.

Under PRC law, if we fail to develop a property project according to the terms of the land grant contract, including those relating to the payment of land grant premium, demolition and resettlement costs and other fees, the designated use of the land and the time for commencement and completion of the property development, the PRC government may issue a warning, impose a penalty, and order us to forfeit the land. Specifically, under current PRC laws, if we fail to commence development for more than one year but less than two years from the commencement date stipulated in the land grant contract, the relevant PRC land bureau may issue a warning to us and impose an idle land fee on the land of up to 20% of the land grant premium. The relevant PRC land bureau also may confiscate our land use rights without compensation if we fail to commence development within two years from the construction commencement date set forth in the land grant contract, unless the delay in the development is caused by government actions or force majeure. Moreover, if a property developer commences development of the land in accordance with the timeframe stipulated in the land grant contract and the developed GFA on the land is less than one-third of the total proposed GFA of the project or the total invested capital is less than one-fourth of the total investment of the project and the development of the land is suspended for more than one year without government approval, the land may be treated as idle land and subject to risk of forfeiture.

In September 2007, the Ministry of Land and Resources issued a notice to strengthen control over the supply of land by requiring developers to develop land according to the terms of the land grant contracts and restricting the participation of non-compliant developers in land auctions. In January 2008, the State Council issued the Notice on Promoting the Land Saving and Efficient Use (關於促進節約集約用地的通知) (國發[2008]3號) to intensify the enforcement of rules on idle land management. Furthermore, the Ministry of Land and Resources issued the Notice on Restricting the Administration of Construction Land and Promoting the Use of Approved Land (關於嚴格建設用地管理促進批而未用土地利用的通知) (國土資發[2009]106號) in August 2009, which reiterated then existing rules on idle land management. On June 1, 2012, the Ministry of Land and Resources promulgated the revised Measures on the Disposal of Idle Land (閒置土地處置辦法) (國土資源部令第53號), which became effective on July 1, 2012.

These measures require the competent land authorities not to accept any application for new land use rights or process any title transfer transaction, lease transaction, mortgage transaction or land registration application in respect of any idle land before the completion of the required rectification procedures. Our business operations are subject to these measures, which may restrict our development plans and materially and adversely affect our results of operations, prospects and financial condition.

The illiquidity of property investments and the lack of alternative use for investment properties could limit our ability to respond to adverse changes in the performance of our properties.

Any form of real estate investment is illiquid and, as a result, our ability to sell our investment properties in response to changing economic, financial and investment conditions is limited. We also cannot predict the length of time needed to find purchasers to purchase such investment properties. In addition, we may also need to incur capital expenditure to manage and maintain our properties, or to correct defects or make improvements to these properties before selling them. We cannot assure you that financing for such expenditures would be available when needed, or at all.

Furthermore, aging of investment properties, changes in economic and financial condition or changes in the competitive landscape in the PRC property market may adversely affect the amount of rentals and revenue we generate from, as well as the fair value of, our investment properties. However, our ability to convert any of our investment properties to alternative use is limited as such conversion requires extensive governmental approvals in the PRC and involves substantial capital expenditures for the purpose of renovation, reconfiguration and refurbishment. We cannot assure you that such approvals and financing can be obtained when needed. These and other factors that impact our ability to respond to adverse changes in the performance of our investment in properties may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The relevant PRC tax authorities may challenge the basis on which we calculate our LAT obligations.

In accordance with PRC regulations on LAT, companies that receive income from the sale or transfer of land use rights, buildings and their attached facilities are subject to LAT at progressive rates ranging from 30% to 60% of the appreciated value of the property.

We make provisions for the full amount of applicable LAT in accordance with the relevant PRC tax laws and regulations from time to time pending settlement of the same with the relevant tax authorities. As we often develop our projects in phases, deductible items for calculation of LAT, such as land costs, are apportioned among such different phases of development. Provisions for LAT are made on our own estimates based on, among others, our own apportionment of deductible expenses which is subject to final confirmation by the relevant tax authorities upon settlement of the LAT. We believe that our overall provisions for LAT are sufficient. However, given the time gap between the point at which we make provision for and the point at which we settle the full amount of LAT payable, the relevant tax authorities may not necessarily agree with our apportionment of deductible expenses or other bases on which we calculate LAT. Hence, our LAT expenses as recorded in our financial statements of a particular period may require subsequent adjustments. For the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, we recorded approximately RMB1,378.9 million, RMB1,443.8 million and RMB1,227.9 million (US$168.2 million), respectively, as LAT expenses. If we substantially underestimate LAT for a particular period, a payment of the actual LAT assessed and levied on us by the tax authorities could adversely affect our financial results for a subsequent period.

The property development business is subject to claims under statutory quality warranties.

All property developers in the PRC must provide certain quality warranties for the properties they construct or sell. We are required to provide these warranties to our customers. Generally, we receive quality warranties from our third-party contractors with respect to our property projects. If a significant number of claims were brought against us under our warranties and if we were unable to obtain reimbursement for such claims from third-party contractors in a timely manner or at all, or if the money retained by us to cover our payment obligations under the quality warranties was not sufficient, we could incur significant expenses to resolve such claims or face delays in remedying the related defects, which could in turn harm our reputation, and materially adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our property development schedule may be delayed and our development costs may increase as a result of delayed governmental re-zoning, demolition and resettlement processes.

According to the Regulation on Expropriation and Compensation Related to Buildings on State-owned Land (國有土地上房屋徵收與補償條例) (國務院令第590號), buildings can be expropriated under certain circumstances for public interests but only governmental authorities are permitted to conduct resettlement activities. Real estate developers are prohibited from involvement in the demolition and relocation procedures. If the owners of properties to be demolished are not satisfied with the expropriation decision, they may apply for an administrative review or initiate a lawsuit against the relevant governmental authorities. Compensation for expropriation shall be paid before the resettlement and no less than the market value of similar properties at the time of an expropriation. The occurrence of the foregoing may affect our reputation, increase our costs and delay the pre-sales of the relevant project, which may in turn adversely affect our business, financial position and operational performance.

To the extent demolition and resettlement are required in any of our future property developments, we will be required to compensate existing residents an amount calculated in accordance with local resettlement compensation standards. These local standards may change from time to time without advance notice. If such compensation standards are changed to increase the compensation we are required to pay, our land acquisition costs may increase, which could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations. In respect of projects in which the resettlement costs are borne by us, if we or the local government fail to reach an agreement over the amount of compensation with any existing owner or resident, any party may apply to the relevant authorities for a ruling on the compensation amount. Dissenting owners and residents may also refuse to relocate. Any administrative process or resistance or refusal to relocate may delay our future project development schedules, and an unfavorable final ruling may result in us paying more than the amount required by the local standards. Any occurrence of the above factors may result in increases in our future development costs, which can adversely affect our cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Fluctuations in the price of construction materials and contractors' labor costs could adversely affect our business and financial performance.

The cost of construction materials such as steel as well as labor costs, which constitute a significant portion of our payments to our construction contractors, may fluctuate. Any increase in the cost of construction materials may result in additional costs to us and may lead to future increases in construction contract costs. Construction material costs have fluctuated in recent years. Any increase in the cost of any significant construction materials will adversely impact our overall construction costs, which is generally one of the largest components of our cost of sales. If we cannot pass any or all of the increased costs on to our customers, our profitability will be adversely affected.

If we were unable to successfully retain the services of our current personnel and hire, train and retain senior executives or key personnel, our ability to develop and successfully market our products could be harmed.

The growth and success of our business has depended significantly on certain members of our senior management. Several other members of our management have worked for us for many years and have played, and are expected to continue to play, key roles in making major business decisions. If we were to lose the services of any of our senior management for any reason, we may not be able to find suitable replacements for them. As competition in the PRC for senior management and key personnel with experience in property development is intense and the pool of qualified candidates is limited, we may not be able to retain the services of key personnel, or hire, train and retain high quality senior executives or key personnel in the future. In addition, if any member of our senior management team or any of our other key personnel were to join a competitor or carry on a competing business, we may lose customers and key professionals and staff members. Furthermore, as our business continues to grow, we will need to recruit and train additional qualified persons. If any of such incidents occurred, our ability to develop and successfully market our products could be harmed and our business and prospects could be adversely affected.

Potential liability for health and environmental problems could result in substantial costs.

We are subject to a variety of laws and regulations concerning the protection of health and the environment. Environmental laws can prohibit or severely restrict property development activities in environmentally sensitive regions or areas. Compliance with health and environmental laws and conditions may result in delays, may cause us to incur substantial compliance and other costs and can severely restrict project development activities in environmentally sensitive regions or areas.

As required by PRC laws, independent environmental consultants have conducted environmental impact assessments on all of our construction projects, and the environmental impact assessment documents for our projects were approved by the relevant government authorities before commencement of construction. Local authorities may suspend the construction activities of and impose penalties on project companies that commence construction of a project before the approval of the project's environmental impact assessment documents. It is possible that there may be material environmental liabilities of which we are unaware, and which may have a material adverse impact on our business.

We may be involved in legal and other disputes from time to time arising out of our operations and may face significant liabilities as a result.

We may from time to time be involved in disputes with various parties involved in the development and the sale of our properties, including contractors, suppliers, construction companies, original inhabitants who are resettled, business partners and purchasers of our properties. These disputes may lead to protests or legal or other proceedings and may result in damage to our reputation, substantial costs and diversion of resources and management's attention from our core business activities. Purchasers of our properties may take legal action against us if our developed properties are perceived to be inconsistent with our representations and warranties made to such purchasers. In addition, we may have compliance issues with regulatory bodies in the course of our operations, in respect of which we may face administrative proceedings and unfavorable decisions that may result in liabilities and cause delays to our property developments. We may be involved in other proceedings or disputes in the future that may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

False, inaccurate or negative media reports about us, our directors and management, our related parties or our projects, including the negative news of our previous chairman, whether substantiated or not, may cause harm to our reputation, divert our management's attention and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The development and future trends in the PRC property industry, including business strategies of major property developers, have been the focus of numerous media reports. We are aware of some inaccurate or negative media reports about us, our related parties and our projects. On July 3, 2019, we received a notice from the Putuo Branch of the Shanghai Public Security Bureau informing us that Mr. Wang Zhenhua, our then chairman, was being held in criminal custody for personal reasons. Since then, we have faced media coverage on misconduct allegations against Mr. Wang Zhenhua and inaccurate market speculation of our Group. Mr. Wang Zhenhua no longer holds any official position or take any managerial or operational role in our Company and our operations and business have remained normal since the incident. Furthermore, negative news or publicity concerning our related parties may arise, which may have an adverse impact on us. For example, one of our related parties, S-Enjoy Service Group Co., Limited ("S-Enjoy") has recently publicly announced a delay in publication of its 2024 annual results because its then auditors identified certain fund transfer transactions with a related party and subsequently resigned. S-Enjoy has established an independent investigation committee and engaged an independent investigation counsel in this regard. There is no assurance whether such fund transfer transactions are related to us and whether the results of such independent investigation would have a material adverse effect on us. However, upon such negative or inaccurate publicity, our business partners and collaborators, financial institutions that provide us with loans or credit facilities and other parties may suspend, delay or terminate the collaboration with us in the future, which may in turn adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, we cannot assure you that the dissemination of any negative media reports or public allegations about us, our directors and management, our related parties or our projects, whether or not substantiated, will not adversely harm our reputation and affect public opinion about us and our projects in the future. Any of the foregoing could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations, which may in turn lead to lenders invoking the acceleration clause in relation to our outstanding borrowings.

Furthermore, such inaccurate or negative media reports may require us to engage in defensive actions, which may divert our management's attention and adversely affect our business and results of operations. We cannot assure you that there will not be any other false, inaccurate or negative media reports about us or our projects in the future. We do not make any representations as to the appropriateness, accuracy, completeness or reliability of the information in such reports. To the extent that the information in such reports is inconsistent or conflicts with this offering memorandum, you should not rely on such information in making an investment decision.

The appraised value of our properties may be different from their actual realizable value and are subject to change.

The appraised value of our properties is based on multiple assumptions that include elements of subjectivity and uncertainty. The assumptions, on which the appraised value of our properties and land reserves are based, include that:

- we will develop and complete projects in accordance with our latest development proposals;
- we have obtained or will obtain on a timely basis all approvals from regulators necessary for the development of the projects, absence of delays caused by weather and natural disasters, and the timely completion of demolition and relocation; and
- we have paid all the land premiums and demolition and resettlement costs and obtained all land use rights certificates and transferable land use rights without any obligation to pay additional land premium or demolition and resettlement costs.

Some assumptions used to reach the appraised value of our properties may prove inaccurate. Therefore, the appraised value of our properties should not be taken as their actual realizable value or a forecast of their realizable value. Unforeseeable changes to the development of our property projects as well as national and local economic conditions may affect the market value of our property holdings.

Our operating results include the change in fair value of our investment properties, which may fluctuate significantly over financial periods and may materially and adversely affect our business, financial position and results of operations.

For the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2023, the fair value gains of our investment properties were RMB1,455.3 million and RMB23.4 million, respectively, of our profit before tax in those financial periods. For the year ended December 31, 2024, we recorded fair value losses of investment properties of RMB39.0 million (US$5.3 million), which was mainly attributable to the slight decrease in valuation of certain investment properties under certain segment due to intensified market competition in 2024 as compared to 2023. The change in fair value in relation to our investment properties may fluctuate in the future. Our business, financial position and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected by any significant change in the fair value of our investment properties that are completed or under development or any transfer of properties held for sale/under development to investment properties.

Fair value (loss)/gain of investment properties is an accounting treatment and does not represent any actual cash inflow that the Company is able to receive. It is determined by reference to valuations conducted on the investment properties by independent property valuers using property valuation techniques which involve certain assumptions of prevailing market conditions. Changes to these assumptions may result in changes in the fair value of the investment properties, which in turn may lead to changes in our business, financial position and results of operations. Investors must exercise their own judgment when reviewing such financial statement items.

Our current insurance coverage may not be adequate to cover all risks related to our operations.

Under PRC law, construction companies bear the primary civil liability for personal injuries arising out of their construction work. The owner of a property under construction may also bear liability supplementary to the liability of the construction company if the latter is not able to fully compensate the injured. The owner of the property may also bear civil liability for personal injuries, accidents and death if such personal injuries, accidents or death are caused by the fault of such owner.

In respect of the properties we hold for commercial leasing or investment, we do not have a unified policy of procuring insurance policies for all such properties. While some of our commercial properties are covered by property all-risk, equipment damage and public liability insurance, each of our subsidiaries holding an interest in and/or managing commercial properties is at liberty to adopt its own insurance policy from different insurance companies with different coverage. The level of insurance coverage acquired for each of the commercial properties we own and/or manage may not be adequate to cover all losses. In addition, none of the properties held or managed by us for investment were covered by loss of profits insurance. Furthermore, there are certain types of losses, such as losses due to earthquakes, typhoons, floods, wars and civil disorders, for which insurance is not available on what we believe to be commercially reasonable terms in China. As a result, we have not purchased insurance to cover any such losses.

If we suffer any losses, damages or liabilities in the course of our business operations, we may not have adequate insurance coverage to provide sufficient funds to cover any such losses, damages or liabilities or to replace any property that has been destroyed. Therefore, there may be instances when we will sustain losses, damages and liabilities because of our lack of insurance coverage, which may in turn materially adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

We guarantee mortgage loans of our customers and may become liable to mortgagee banks if customers default on their mortgage loans.

In accordance with industry practice, banks require us to guarantee mortgage loans taken by purchasers of the properties that we develop. Typically, we guarantee mortgage loans taken out by purchasers up until the time we complete the relevant properties and (i) the property ownership certificates and the mortgage are registered in favor of the mortgagee bank or (ii) the mortgage loans between the mortgage bank and the purchaser are settled. If a purchaser defaults on a mortgage loan, we may be required to repurchase the underlying property by paying off the mortgage. If we fail to do so, the mortgagee bank may auction the underlying property and recover any additional amount outstanding from us as the guarantor of the mortgage loans. In line with industry practice, we do not conduct any independent credit checks on our customers and rely on the credit evaluation conducted by the mortgagee banks on such customers. These are contingent liabilities not recognized in our consolidated statements of financial position.

As of December 31, 2024, our outstanding guarantees in respect of the mortgages of our customers amounted to RMB21,775.3 million (US$2,983.2 million). Should any material default occur and if we were called upon to honor our guarantees, our financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Certain important decisions regarding Seazen Holdings may require approval by its independent directors and/or the consent of its shareholders' meeting and we cannot assure you that our strategies, policies and objectives will be adopted by the shareholders' meeting.

A substantial part of our business is carried out through Seazen Holdings, whose A shares are listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange since November 3, 2015 through a restructuring, for details, please refer to “Business – Restructuring”. As of the date of this offering memorandum, Seazen Holdings’ issued capital was held as to 67.2% by us and as to 32.8% by other shareholders. Seazen Holdings has historically contributed a significant portion of our Group’s total revenue. See “Relationship with Seazen Holdings.” Although Seazen Holdings is majority owned by us, it is a public company and thus required under relevant PRC laws and regulations to observe the applicable corporate governance rules that require its operations to be conducted independently of its controlling shareholders. Certain important decisions that may materially affect the interests of the A-shareholders of Seazen Holdings as a whole, including but not limited to, any decision to issue new securities of the company, undergo material restructuring of assets, acquire substantial assets, procure overseas listing of material subsidiaries or repurchase shares from shareholders as repayment of any loan extended to such shareholders, require approval of the independent directors and/or the shareholders of Seazen Holdings who are independent from its controlling shareholders, in accordance with the terms of its articles of association. We cannot assure you that the strategies, policies and objectives that we support regarding Seazen Holdings will align with the interests of its independent directors and/or shareholders.

Risks Relating to Our Industry

The PRC property market is heavily regulated and subject to frequent introduction of new regulations, including further measures by the PRC government to slow down the growth of the property sector, which may adversely affect property developers.

The PRC government exerts considerable direct and indirect influence on the growth and development of the PRC property market through industry policies and other economic measures such as setting interest rates, controlling the supply of credit by changing bank reserve ratios and implementing lending restrictions, increasing tax and duties on property transfers and imposing foreign investment and currency exchange restrictions. In response to concerns over the increase in property investments, the PRC government introduced various policies and measures to curtail property developments, including:

- requiring real estate developers to finance, with their internal resources, at least 30% of the total investment (excluding affordable housing projects and common commodity housing projects where the relevant threshold shall be 20%);
- limiting the monthly mortgage payment to 50% of an individual borrower's monthly income and limiting all monthly debt service payments of an individual borrower to 55% of his or her monthly income;
- suspending land supply for villa construction and restricting land supply for high-end residential property construction;
- requiring that at least 70% of the land supply approved by any local government for residential property development during any given year must be used for developing low- to medium-cost and small- to medium-size units for sale or as low-cost rental properties;
- requiring that at least 70% of the total development and construction area of residential projects approved or constructed on or after June 1, 2006 in any administrative jurisdiction must consist of units with a unit floor area of less than 90 sq.m. and that projects which have received project approvals prior to this date but have not obtained construction permits must adjust their planning in order to comply with this new requirement, with the exception that municipalities under direct administration of the PRC government and provincial capitals and certain cities may deviate from such ratio under special circumstances upon approval from the MOHURD;
- requiring any first-time home owner using housing reserves (住房公積金) to pay the minimum amount of down-payment at 20% of the purchase price of the underlying property if the underlying property has a unit floor area of less than 90 sq.m. and the purchaser is buying the property as a primary residence, or 30% of the purchase price if the underlying property has a unit floor area of larger than 90 sq.m.;
- requiring any second-time home buyer taking commercial loans for such personal housing purpose to pay a minimum amount of down payment of no less than 30% of the purchase price of the underlying property with a minimum interest rate on such commercial loan of no less than the corresponding term Loan Prime Rate (LPR) plus 20 basis points;
- for a commercial property buyer, (i) requiring banks not to finance any purchase of pre-sold properties, (ii) increasing the minimum amount of down payment to 50% of the purchase price of the underlying property, (iii) increasing the minimum mortgage loan interest rate to 110% of the relevant PBOC benchmark interest rate, and (iv) limiting the terms of such bank borrowings to no more than 10 years, with commercial banks allowed flexibility based on their risk assessment;

- for a buyer of commercial/residential dual-purpose properties, increasing the minimum amount of down payment to 45% of the purchase price of the underlying property, with the other terms similar to those for commercial properties;
- limiting the grant or extension of revolving credit facilities to property developers that hold a large amount of idle land and vacant commodity properties;
- imposing more restrictions on the types of property developments that foreign investments may engage in;
- imposing or increasing taxes on short-term gains from second-hand property sales;
- restricting foreign investment in the property sector by, among other things, increasing registered capital and other requirements for establishing foreign-invested real estate enterprises (FIREEs), tightening foreign exchange control and imposing restrictions on purchases of properties in China by foreigners;
- requiring commercial banks to suspend mortgage loans to customers for purchase of a third or further residential property, or to non-residents who cannot provide proof of local tax or social security insurance payments for more than a one-year period;
- regulating the benchmark one-year lending rate published by the PBOC;
- adjusting the PBOC Renminbi deposit reserve requirement ratio for all PRC deposit-taking financial institutions several times;
- further increasing down payment ratios and interest rates for loans to purchase second properties in accordance with the price control policies and targets of the corresponding local governments for those cities with excessive growth in housing prices; and
- imposing individual income tax payable on the sales of owner-occupied houses at 20% of the transfer income.

On December 28, 2020, PBOC and China Banking and Insurance Regulatory Commission (CBIRC) jointly promulgated the December 2020 PBOC-CBIRC Notice, which requires a PRC financial institution (excluding its overseas branches), starting from January 1, 2021, to limit the ratio of its real estate loans and personal housing mortgage loans portfolio to its total RMB loan portfolio to a pre-determined ratio (the “Housing Loan Concentration Management” policy).

In late 2020, the PBOC and the MOHURD formulated the “Three Red Lines” policy to monitor the leverage ratio and regulate the abilities of the real estate enterprises to incur additional debt, with reference to certain modified liabilities to asset ratio, net gearing ratio and cash to short-term borrowing ratio. For more information, please see “— We may not always be able to obtain land reserves that are suitable for development.”

In February 2021, the Ministry of Natural Resources required 22 cities in a pilot program to implement the two-pronged policy on concentrating the housing land supply (the “Centralized Land Supply” policy). The cities are required to issue land assignment announcements no more than three times a year, in principle, and to organize land assignment activities in accordance with the relevant announcements. The 22 pilot cities include four first tier cities, Beijing, Shanghai, Guangzhou and Shenzhen, and 18 second tier cities, such as Hangzhou, Nanjing, Xiamen, Suzhou, Chongqing and Wuhan.

On March 26, 2021, the CBIRC, the MOHURD and the PBOC jointly promulgated the Notice on Preventing Loans for Business Purposes from Illegally flowing into the Real Estate Sector (《關於防止經營用途貸款違規流入房地產領域的通知》), which aims to prevent the proceeds of business loans to flow into the real estate sector through increasing the level of the supervision of the banks over business loans and strengthening the risk management capabilities of the originating banks in pre-loan client screening, post-loan monitoring, internal infrastructure and vetting of third-party vendors.

On May 21, 2021, the MOF, the Ministry of Natural Resources, the STA and the PBOC jointly issued the “Notice on Relevant Issues to Allocate the Tax Administrations to Collect Four Non-tax Governmental Revenues including State-owned Land Use Rights Grant Premiums, Mineral Resources Special Revenues, Sea Area Use Premiums and Uninhabited Islands Use Premiums” (關於將國有土地使用權出讓收入、礦產資源專項收入、海域使用金、無居民海島使用金四項政府非稅收入劃轉稅務部門徵收有關問題的通知) under which, the local branch of STA will be responsible for the collection of, among others, state-owned land use rights premiums. The pilot scheme has taken effect from July 1, 2021 in certain selected provinces and will be carried out nationwide from January 1, 2022.

On July 13, 2021, the MOHURD, the NDRC, the Ministry of Natural Resources and other five departments jointly issued “the Notice on Continuous Rectification and Regulation of the Order of the Real Estate Market” (關於持續整治規範房地產市場秩序的通知), which requires all relevant governmental agencies to focus on, among others, the issues in real estate development, sales, leasing and property management, with an aim to significantly improve the market dynamics of the real estate market within three years.

We cannot assure you that the PRC government will not change or modify these temporary measures in the future. In addition, provincial, municipal and regional or local governments within the PRC may from time to time impose more stringent and/or permanent measures to slow growth in the property sector. Since 2016, the local governments of several cities in the PRC have implemented a series of measures designed to stabilize the growth of the property market on a more sustainable level. For more information on the various restrictive measures taken by the PRC government, see the section entitled “Regulations.” These measures may limit our access to capital resources, reduce market demand for our products and increase our operating costs in complying with these measures. We cannot assure you that the PRC government will not adopt additional and more stringent measures, including but not limited to rules that may restrict the annual increase of interest-bearing indebtedness, which could further slowdown property development in China and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. The PRC government has implemented regulations replacing the current business tax regime, which is levied on the total revenue of a company, with a value-added tax system, which assesses increments of new value created by a company, for the real estate sector as part of China’s major overhaul of its tax structure. In addition, the PRC government may impose a countywide real estate tax in the future. We are not sure when or whether such tax reforms will be imposed and neither can we assess the adverse impact of such new tax policies on our business operations and financial results. If we fail to adapt our operations to such new policies, regulations and measures that may come into effect from time to time with respect to the real property industry, or such policy changes disrupt our business or cause us to incur additional costs, our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

The PRC property market is volatile.

The PRC property market is volatile and may experience undersupply or oversupply of property units and significant property price fluctuations. Our business depends and will continue to depend on the growth of the economy in the PRC. A significant downturn in the PRC economy could adversely affect the demand for commercial and residential properties. Since the third quarter of 2021, there has been a downturn of the PRC real estate market. Since then, property developers in China have experienced more restrictions in accessing PRC bank lending for real estate development. The negative reaction to the credit tightening and certain credit events relating to PRC real estate developers also adversely affected PRC real estate developers’ ability to refinance their indebtedness outside of the PRC. In addition, the broader slowdown in China’s economy, exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic, reduced the consumer’s disposable income and spending pattern, which led to decreased demand for and sales of real estate properties. Such decrease in demand is also compounded by oversupply of housing, particularly in lower-tier cities, as a result of years of rapid development. Several notable PRC real estate developers have faced severe liquidity crises, as a result of the reduction in demand, which led to their default on international indebtedness and ongoing restructuring efforts. The defaults of major developers also had a ripple effect on the consumer confidence, the industry outlook and the broader economy. As a result of the industry-wide adjustment, the overall property investment has seen significant declines, and the sales of new property have also fallen significantly both in terms of property prices and number of units sold. Since 2023, the PRC government has announced monetary policy adjustments, more proactive fiscal policy and other specific measures to support the real estate sector and boost consumer confidence. There can be no assurance that the consumer confidence in the PRC real estate market and the overall demand for real properties in China will improve in the near future, and if the industry headwind persists or worsens, there is no assurance that we will be able to continue maintain our growth and profitability, which could have material and adverse effects on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

In addition, the PRC central and local governments frequently adjust monetary, fiscal or other economic policies to prevent and curtail the overheating of the economy, which may affect the PRC property market. Such policies may lead to changes in market conditions, including price instability and an imbalance of supply and demand in respect of commercial and residential properties, which may materially adversely affect our business and financial condition. We cannot assure you that there will not be overdevelopment in the PRC property markets, which may in turn cause an oversupply of properties that depresses sale prices and rental income, that would result in an undersupply of potential development sites or increases in land acquisition costs in the markets in which we operate. Such effects may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We face intense competition.

The property market in the Yangtze River Delta and major cities along the Shanghai-Nanjing Economic Corridor has been highly competitive in recent years. Property developers from the PRC and overseas have entered the property development markets in the Yangtze River Delta and major cities along the Shanghai-Nanjing Economic Corridor where we have operations and we may expand into. Many of our competitors, including overseas listed foreign developers and top-tier domestic developers, may have more financial or other resources than us and may be more sophisticated than us in terms of engineering and technical skills. Competition among property developers may cause an increase in land costs and raw material costs, shortages in quality construction contractors, surplus in property supply leading to property price decline, further delays in issuance of governmental approvals, and higher costs to attract or retain talented employees. Moreover, property markets across the PRC are influenced by various other factors, including changes in economic conditions, banking practices and consumer sentiment. If we fail to compete effectively, our business operations and financial condition will suffer.

Risks Relating to Doing Business in the PRC

PRC economic, political and social conditions as well as government policies could adversely affect our business and prospects.

The PRC economy differs from the economies of most of the developed countries in many aspects, including:

- political structure;
- the amount and degree of the PRC government involvement and control;
- level of corruption;
- growth rate and degree of development;
- level and control of capital investment and reinvestment;
- control of foreign exchange; and
- allocation of resources.

The PRC economy has been transitioning from a centrally planned economy to a more market-oriented economy. For more than four decades, the PRC government has implemented economic reform measures to utilize market forces in the development of the PRC economy. We cannot predict whether changes in the PRC's economic, political and social conditions and in its laws, regulations and policies will have any adverse effect on our current or future business, financial condition or results of operations.

In addition, many of the economic reforms carried out by the PRC government are unprecedented or experimental and are expected to be refined and improved over time. This refining and adjustment process may not necessarily have a positive effect on our operations and business development. For example, the PRC government has in the past implemented a number of measures intended to slow down certain segments of the economy, including the real estate industry, which the government believed to be overheating. These actions, as well as other actions and policies of the PRC government, could cause a decrease in the overall level of economic activity in the PRC and, in turn, have an adverse impact on our business and financial condition.

The national and regional economies in China and our prospects may be adversely affected by geopolitical tension and conflicts, natural disasters, acts of God, and occurrence of epidemics and pandemics.

Our business is subject to general economic and social conditions in China. Geopolitical tension and conflicts, natural disasters, epidemics, pandemics and other acts of God which are beyond our control may adversely affect the economy, infrastructure and livelihood of the people in China. Geopolitical tension and conflicts have been escalating continuously in recent years. For instance, the U.S.-China trade tensions have led to the introduction of high tariffs on various goods trading between the two countries, such as high-technology goods, semiconductors, and electronics. The trade tensions between the two countries have been rising and there is a possibility that the extent and scale of trade restrictions between the two countries continue to be escalated if the U.S. and China fail to reach any agreement to settle the issues. There is no assurance as to how the U.S.-China trade tensions might develop or whether there will be any changes to the scope and extent of goods that are or will be being subject to such export controls, sanctions, tariffs, or new trade policies introduced by the two countries. Additionally, the Russia-Ukraine conflict has resulted in significant disruptions to supply chains, logistics and business activities in the regions being affected. The conflict has also caused, and continues to intensify, significant geopolitical tensions in Europe and across the globe. The resulting sanctions imposed are expected to have significant impacts on the economic conditions of the countries and markets targeted by such sanctions, and may have unforeseen, unpredictable secondary effects on global energy prices, supply chains and other aspects of the global economy. Any disruptions or continuing or worsening slowdown, whether as a result of the trade tensions, the Russia-Ukraine conflict, the Israel-Hamas conflict or other reasons, could significantly reduce commerce activities in China and globally. Moreover, rising inflation could result in higher costs of services and supplies and a decrease in consumer spending, which could negatively affect our business operations and financial condition. Some regions in China, including the cities where we operate, are under the threat of flood, earthquake, sandstorm, snowstorm, fire, drought, or epidemics such as the Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome, or SARS, the H5N1 avian flu, the human swine flu, also known as Influenza A (H1N1), or, most recently, the novel coronavirus named COVID-19 by the World Health Organization.

Past occurrences of epidemics and pandemics, depending on their scale, have caused different degrees of damage to the national and local economies in China. Another public health crisis in China triggered by a recurrence of SARS or an outbreak of any other epidemics and pandemics, especially in the cities where we have operations, may result in material disruptions to our property development and sales and the operation of commercial properties. In addition, the outbreak of communicable diseases, such as the COVID-19 outbreak on a global scale, may affect investment sentiment and result in sporadic volatility in global capital markets or adversely affect China and other economies. Such outbreak had resulted in restrictions on travel and public transportation and prolonged closures of workplaces, which may have a material adverse effect on the global economy. Any material change in the financial markets, the PRC economy or regional economies as a result of these events or developments may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Interpretation of PRC laws and regulations involves uncertainty and the current legal environment in China could limit the legal protections available to you.

Our business is conducted in China and is governed by PRC laws and regulations. All of our subsidiaries are located in China and are subject to PRC laws and regulations. The PRC legal system is a civil law system based on written statutes, and prior court decisions have little precedential value and can only be used as a reference. Additionally, PRC written statutes are often principle-oriented and require detailed interpretations by the enforcement bodies to further apply and enforce such laws. Since 1979, the PRC legislature has promulgated laws and regulations in relation to economic matters such as foreign investment, corporate organization and governance, commercial transactions, taxation and trade, with a view to developing a comprehensive system of commercial law, including laws relating to property ownership and development. However, because these laws and regulations have not been fully developed, and because of the limited volume of published cases and the non-binding nature of prior court decisions, interpretation of PRC laws and regulations involves a degree, sometimes a significant degree, of uncertainty. If we fail to comply with the relevant requirements due to any change in applicable PRC law or regulation, we may be subjected to penalties or other enforcement actions by relevant PRC government authorities. Depending on the government agency or how or by whom an application or case is presented to such agency, we may receive a less favorable interpretation of laws and regulations than our competitors. In addition, any litigation in China may be protracted and result in substantial costs and diversion of resources and management attention. All these uncertainties may limit the legal protections available to foreign investors, including you.

We may be deemed a PRC resident enterprise under the PRC EIT Law and be subject to PRC taxation on our worldwide income.

Under the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law (“PRC EIT Law”)《中華人民共和國企業所得稅法》(主席令第63號), which came into effect on January 1, 2008, enterprises established outside China whose “de facto management bodies” are located in China are considered “resident enterprises” and their global income will generally be subject to the uniform 25% Enterprise Income Tax (“EIT”) rate. Under the Implementation Rules for the PRC EIT Law, “de facto management bodies” are defined as the bodies that have material and overall management control over the business, personnel, accounts and properties of an enterprise.

Substantially all of our management is currently based in China and may remain in China. In April 2009, the PRC State Administration of Taxation (the “SAT”) promulgated a circular to clarify the definition of “de facto management bodies” for enterprises incorporated overseas with controlling shareholders being onshore enterprises or enterprise groups in China. However, it remains unclear how the tax authorities will treat an overseas enterprise invested or controlled by another overseas enterprise and ultimately controlled by PRC individual residents, as in our case. Therefore, we may be treated as a PRC resident enterprise for PRC EIT purposes. The tax consequences of such treatment are currently unclear as they will depend on how PRC finance and tax authorities apply or enforce the PRC EIT Law and the Implementation Rules.

Facts, forecasts and other statistics in this offering memorandum relating to China, the PRC economy and the PRC real estate industry have been derived from various official government publications generally believed to be reliable. Further, there can be no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy as the case may be in other jurisdictions. Therefore, you should not unduly rely upon the facts, forecasts and statistics with respect to China, the PRC economy and the PRC real estate industry contained in this offering memorandum.

Risks Relating to the Notes

We are a holding company and payments with respect to the Notes are structurally subordinated to liabilities, contingent liabilities and obligations of our subsidiaries.

We are a holding company and conduct a substantial part of our operations through our PRC subsidiaries. The Notes will not be guaranteed by any current or future PRC subsidiaries, and will not be secured by any of our assets, including the capital stock of subsidiary guarantors securing the July 2025 Notes or any Permitted Pari Passu Secured Indebtedness incurred pursuant to the July 2025 Notes. Our primary assets are ownership interests in our PRC subsidiaries. Accordingly, our ability to pay principal and interest on the Notes and our ability to satisfy its obligations under the Notes will depend upon distributions of dividends from our subsidiaries.

Creditors, including trade creditors, of our subsidiaries and any holders of preferred shares in such entities would have a claim on the subsidiaries' assets that would be prior to the claims of holders of the Notes. As a result, our payment obligations under the Notes will be effectively subordinated to all existing and future obligations of our subsidiaries and all claims of creditors of our subsidiaries will have priority as to the assets of such entities over our claims and those of our creditors, including holders of the Notes. As of December 31, 2024, we had total current and non-current borrowings of RMB57,733.1 million (US$7,909.4 million), including outstanding bank borrowings of approximately RMB33,399.4 million (US$4,575.7 million). As of December 31, 2024, our total trade and other payables amounted to RMB88,995.7 million (US$12,192.4 million), and we had provided guarantees of RMB21,775.3 million (US$2,983.2 million) to PRC banks in respect of the mortgage loans provided by the banks to purchasers of our developed properties. The Notes and the indenture permit us to incur additional indebtedness and issue additional guarantees, subject to certain limitations. In addition, our secured creditors or those of any subsidiary would have priority as to our assets or the assets of those of any subsidiary securing the related obligations over claims of holders of the Notes.

We have substantial indebtedness, including that under bank and other borrowings, corporate bonds, middle term notes, senior notes, asset-backed medium term notes and private placement notes, and may incur substantial additional indebtedness in the future, which could adversely affect our financial health and our ability to generate sufficient cash to satisfy our outstanding and future debt obligations.

We now have, and will continue to have after the offering of the Notes, a substantial amount of indebtedness. Our outstanding current and non-current borrowings, which include our borrowings from banks and senior notes were RMB79,537.6 million, RMB63,169.6 million and RMB57,733.1 million (US$7,909.4 million) as of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024.

Our substantial indebtedness could have important consequences to you. For example, it could:

- limit our ability to satisfy our obligations under the Notes and other debt;
- increase our vulnerability to adverse general economic and industry conditions;
- require us to dedicate a substantial portion of our cash flow from operations to servicing and repaying our indebtedness, thereby reducing the availability of our cash flow to fund working capital, capital expenditures and other general corporate purposes;
- limit our flexibility in planning for or reacting to changes in our businesses and the industry in which we operate;
- place us at a competitive disadvantage compared to our competitors that have less debt;
- limit, along with the financial and other restrictive covenants of our indebtedness, among other things, our ability to borrow additional funds; and
- increase the cost of additional financing.

In the future, we may from time to time incur substantial additional indebtedness (including bank borrowings and/or onshore or offshore bond offerings) and contingent liabilities. Under the Indenture, our ability to incur additional debt is subject to limitations on indebtedness and preferred stock covenant. Under such covenant, we may incur (i) certain Permitted Indebtedness or (ii) additional indebtedness if we can, among other things, satisfy the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio. The Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio is derived by dividing Consolidated EBITDA by Consolidated Fixed Charges. Because our definition of Consolidated Net Income (which is a significant component of Consolidated EBITDA) for the Notes includes our unrealized gains on valuation adjustments on our investment properties, our Consolidated EBITDA and therefore our ability to incur additional debt under such covenants could be substantially larger when compared to certain other similarly situated PRC senior notes issuers whose covenants do not typically include such unrealized gains in the definition of consolidated net income. In addition, because our definition of Consolidated Interest Expense for the Notes excludes the interest expense on indebtedness of third parties that we guarantee (except to the extent that such interest expense has become payable by us), our Consolidated Interest Expense and our ability to incur additional debt could be even larger when compared to certain other similarly situated PRC senior notes issuers whose covenants would typically include such interest expense in the definition of consolidated interest expense. If we or our subsidiaries incur additional debt, the risks that we face as a result of our already substantial indebtedness and leverage could intensify.

Our ability to generate sufficient cash to satisfy our outstanding and future debt obligations will depend upon our future operating performance, which will be affected by prevailing economic conditions and financial, business and other factors, many of which are beyond our control. We anticipate that our operating cash flow will be sufficient to meet our anticipated operating expenses and to service our debt obligations as they become due. However, we may not be able to generate sufficient cash flow for these purposes. If we are unable to service our indebtedness, we will be forced to adopt an alternative strategy that may include actions such as reducing or delaying capital expenditures, selling assets, restructuring or refinancing our indebtedness or seeking equity capital. These strategies may not be instituted on satisfactory terms, if at all.

In addition, the terms of the indenture governing the Notes prohibit us from incurring additional indebtedness unless (i) we are able to satisfy certain financial ratios or (ii) we are able to incur such additional indebtedness pursuant to any of the exceptions to the financial ratio requirements, and meet any other applicable restrictions. Our ability to meet our financial ratios may be affected by events beyond our control. We might not be able to meet these ratios. Certain of our existing financing arrangements also impose operating and financial restrictions on our business. See the section headed “Description of Material Indebtedness and Other Obligations.” Such restrictions in the Indenture and our other financing arrangements may negatively affect our ability to react to changes in market conditions, take advantage of business opportunities we believe to be desirable, obtain future financing, fund required capital expenditures, or withstand a continuing or future downturn in our business or the general economy. Any of these factors could materially and adversely affect our ability to satisfy our obligations under the Notes and other debt.

To service our indebtedness, we will require a significant amount of cash. Our ability to generate cash depends on many factors beyond our control.

Our ability to make payments on and to refinance our indebtedness, including these Notes, and to fund planned capital expenditures and project development will depend on our ability to generate cash. This, to a certain extent, is subject to general economic, financial, competitive, legislative, regulatory and other factors that are beyond our control.

Our business might not generate sufficient cash flow from operations to enable us to pay our indebtedness, including the Notes, or to fund our other liquidity needs. We may need to refinance all or a portion of our indebtedness or obtain fundings for our liquidity needs, on or before maturity, from the market and fundings from our connected persons. For example, we have entered into a loan agreement of RMB120 million and a loan framework agreement of RMB1,000 million with one of our related parties, S-Enjoy, to help replenish our working capital. See “Related Party Transactions” for more information. We might not be able to refinance any of our indebtedness on commercially reasonable terms or at all. If we are unable to service our indebtedness or obtain refinancing on terms acceptable to us, we may be forced to adopt an alternative strategy that may include reducing or delaying capital expenditures, selling assets or seeking equity capital. These strategies may not be instituted on satisfactory terms, if at all.

As of December 31, 2024, our current liabilities exceeded our current assets by approximately RMB17,743.1 million. Such a net current liability position may expose us to the risk of shortfalls in liquidity. Any failure to generate sufficient cash flow from operations or to obtain external financing may have a material adverse effect on our ability to refinance our indebtedness, including the Notes, and to meet our other liquidity needs.

Certain investors, including our affiliates, have purchased a majority of the Notes to be issued and may therefore be able to exercise certain rights and powers on behalf of all holders of the Notes. Additionally, this may reduce the liquidity of the Notes in the secondary trading market.

Certain investors, including our affiliates, have purchased a majority of the Notes being offered under this offering memorandum. Any non-affiliate holder of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes will have certain rights and powers under the Indenture and related documents. For example, subject to certain exceptions, the non-affiliate holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for exercising any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on it. In addition, as described in “Description of the Notes — Amendments and Waiver,” the Indenture and the Notes may be amended with the consent of the non-affiliate holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes and the non-affiliate holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes may amend or waive future compliance by the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary with any provision of the Indenture and Notes, subject in each case to certain exceptions. Accordingly, any non-affiliate holder that holds a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes will be able to exercise such rights and powers on behalf of all holders of the Notes and control the outcome of votes on such matters.

In addition, any non-affiliate holder that holds a significant percentage of the Notes, even if less than a majority, will be able to exercise certain rights and powers and will have significant influence on matters voted on by holders of the Notes. For example, non-affiliate holders of at least 25% aggregate principal amount of the Notes may declare all of the Notes to be immediately due and payable if certain types of Events of Default have occurred and are continuing. Further, the existence of any non-affiliate holder that holds a significant percentage of the Notes may reduce the liquidity of the Notes or affect the trading price of the Notes.

Our subsidiaries are subject to restrictions on the payment of dividends and the repayment of intercompany loans or advances to us and our subsidiaries.

The Company currently does not have substantial business operation, and does not plan to do so in the near future. As a result, we depend on the receipt of dividends and the interest and principal payments on intercompany loans or advances from our subsidiaries, including our PRC subsidiaries, to satisfy our obligations. If we are unable to receive dividends and the interest and principal payments on intercompany loans or advances from our subsidiaries, we may not be able to meet our obligations under the Notes. The ability of our subsidiaries to pay dividends and to make payments on intercompany loans or advances to their shareholders is subject to, among other things, their distributable earnings and cash flow conditions, restrictions contained in the articles of association and the financing agreements entered into by our subsidiaries and applicable laws. These restrictions could reduce the amounts that we receive from our subsidiaries, which would restrict our ability to satisfy our obligations under the Notes. Further, some of our subsidiaries are restricted from distributing dividends until their existing indebtedness is paid off and they start to generate profit. In addition, if any of our subsidiaries raises capital by issuing equity securities to third parties, dividends declared and paid with respect to such equity securities would not be available to us to make payments on the Notes. In addition, the shares and assets, including dividends derived from these shares, of certain of our subsidiaries are pledged to secure some of our indebtedness. Furthermore, most of our PRC subsidiaries are held through our A-share listed subsidiary, Seazen Holdings. As an A-share listed company, Seazen Holdings is subject to PRC securities laws and the listing rules of Shanghai Stock Exchange, which may place more restrictions on its ability to declare and issue dividends as compared to our non-public PRC subsidiaries. In addition, given that Seazen Holdings is not 100% controlled by us, we will only be entitled to receive a portion of any dividends issued by Seazen Holdings. These restrictions could reduce the amounts that we receive from our subsidiaries, which would restrict our ability to meet our payment obligations under the Notes.

PRC laws and regulations permit payment of dividends only out of accumulated profits as determined in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations and such profits differ from profits determined in accordance with HKFRSs in certain significant respects, including the use of different bases of recognition of revenue and expenses. Our PRC subsidiaries are also required to set aside a portion of their after-tax profits according to PRC accounting standards and regulations to fund certain reserves that are not distributable as cash dividends. In practice, our PRC project companies may pay dividends only after they have completed the development of the project (or at least the development of a phase or a stand-alone tower or building), collected payment and completed the required government tax clearance and foreign exchange procedures. In addition, dividends paid by our PRC subsidiaries to their non-PRC parent company are subject to a 10% withholding tax, unless there is a tax treaty between the PRC and the jurisdiction in which the overseas parent company is incorporated, which specifically exempts or reduces such withholding tax. Pursuant to arrangements relating to the avoidance of double taxation between Hong Kong and the PRC, if the non-PRC parent company is a Hong Kong resident and directly holds a 25% or more interest in the PRC enterprise, such withholding tax rate may be lowered to 5%. However, according to the Announcement of the State Taxation Administration on Issues Concerning the “Beneficial Owner” in Tax Treaties (《國家稅務總局關於稅收協定中「受益所有人」有關問題的公告》(國家稅務總局公告2018年第9號)) from SAT dated February 3, 2018, tax treaty benefits are not available to conduit or shell companies without substantive business activities. Therefore, it is unclear whether dividend payments made by our PRC subsidiaries to our Hong Kong subsidiary (which holds the equity interests in our PRC subsidiaries) will qualify for the 5% rate in any particular year. As a result of such restrictions, there could be limitations, including timing limitations, on our ability to receive payments from our PRC subsidiaries to meet our payment obligations under the Notes and there could be restrictions on payments required to redeem the Notes at maturity or as required for any early redemption.

Furthermore, we may from time to time provide offshore shareholder loans to our PRC subsidiaries and resort to such offshore lending, rather than equity contributions, to our PRC subsidiaries to finance their operations. In such event, the market interest rates that our PRC subsidiaries can pay with respect to offshore loans generally may not exceed comparable interest rates in the international finance markets. The interest rates on shareholder loans paid by our subsidiaries, therefore, are likely to be lower than the interest rate for the Notes. Our PRC subsidiaries are also required to pay withholding tax at a rate of 10% (or a lower treaty rate, if any) on our behalf on the interest paid under any shareholder loan. Prior to payment of interest and principal on any such shareholder loan, the PRC subsidiaries (as foreign-invested enterprises in China) must present evidence of payment of the withholding tax on the interest payable on any such shareholder loan and evidence of registration with the State Administration of Foreign Exchange of the PRC (“SAFE”), as well as any other documents that SAFE or its local branch may require.

As a result of the foregoing, we cannot assure you that we will have sufficient cash flow from dividends or payments on intercompany loans or advances from our subsidiaries to satisfy our obligations under the Notes.

Under PRC regulations, we may not be able to transfer to our PRC subsidiaries proceeds from this offering, which could impair our ability to make timely payments of interest, or even principal, under the Notes.

According to the existing PRC rules and regulations relating to supervision of foreign debt, loans by foreign companies to companies incorporated in China are considered foreign debt, and such debt must be registered with the relevant local branches of SAFE. In April 2013, the SAFE issued the Administrative Measures for Registration of Foreign Debt (外債登記管理辦法) (匯發 [2013]19號) and Guidelines on the Administration of Registration of Foreign Debt (外債登記管理操作指引) (匯發 [2013]19號), which provide that (inter alia) (i) the SAFE will not process a foreign debt registration of any foreign invested real estate enterprise which obtained its certificate of authorization and completed the filing procedures with MOFCOM on or after June 1, 2007; (ii) foreign invested real estate enterprises established prior to June 1, 2007 may borrow foreign debt up to an amount not exceeding the difference between its total investment and registered capital; and (iii) a foreign invested real estate enterprise that has not fully paid up its registered capital or obtained land use rights certificates, or the paid-in capital of its development projects is less than 35% of the total investment of such projects is not allowed to borrow foreign debt. Our subsidiary, Wealth Zone Development Holdings Co., Ltd. has been a foreign invested-enterprise since August 2003. Therefore, the proceeds of this offering can be transferred to it as loans. However, the amount of the loans shall not exceed the difference between its total investment and registered capital, and such loans are required to be registered with the relevant local branches of SAFE.

In addition, equity contributions by the Company and its non-PRC subsidiaries to our PRC subsidiaries will require approvals from the commerce department of the local government or filing with the local branch of SAFE and MOFCOM, which may take considerable time and result in delays in receiving the contribution. This may in turn adversely affect the financial condition of the PRC subsidiaries and cause delays to the developments undertaken by such PRC subsidiaries. We may not be able to obtain the necessary approvals for our PRC subsidiaries at all. Further, we cannot assure you that the PRC government will not introduce new policies that could further restrict our ability to use funds raised outside China. Therefore, we may not be able to use all or any of the funds that we raise outside China as intended.

Fluctuations in the value of the Renminbi may have a material adverse impact on your investment.

Substantially all of our revenue and expenditures are denominated in Renminbi, while the net proceeds from this offering and any interest we pay on the Notes will be in U.S. dollars. Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Renminbi and U.S. dollars will affect the relative purchasing power in Renminbi terms of the proceeds from this offering. Fluctuations in the exchange rate may also cause us to incur foreign exchange losses and affect the relative value of any dividend issued by our PRC subsidiaries. In addition, appreciation or depreciation in the value of the Renminbi relative to U.S. dollars would affect our financial results in U.S. dollars terms without giving effect to any underlying change in our business or results of operations. Moreover, because the functional currency of the Company and all of its subsidiaries is the Renminbi, the balance and certain amounts due to related parties denominated in a foreign currency are subject to translation at each reporting date, which could affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Movements in Renminbi exchange rates are affected by, among other things, changes in political and economic conditions and China's foreign exchange regime and policy. Since July 2005, the Renminbi has not been pegged to the U.S. dollars. In August 2015, the Renminbi experienced a substantial devaluation as a result of adjustments made by the People's Bank of China to the reference Renminbi to U.S. dollar exchange rate. The Renminbi may appreciate or depreciate significantly in value against the U.S. dollar in the medium to long term. Moreover, it is possible that in the future PRC authorities may lift restrictions on fluctuations in Renminbi exchange rates and lessen intervention in the foreign exchange market.

There are limited hedging instruments available in China to reduce our exposure to exchange rate fluctuations between the Renminbi and other currencies. To date, we have not entered into any hedging transactions in an effort to reduce our exposure to foreign currency exchange risks. In any event, the availability and effectiveness of these hedges may be limited and we may not be able to hedge our exposure successfully, or at all.

Interest payable by us to our foreign investors and gain on the sale of our Notes may become subject to withholding taxes under PRC tax laws.

Under the PRC EIT Law and PRC Individual Income Tax Law, if the Company is deemed a PRC resident enterprise, the interest payable on the Notes will be considered to be sourced within China. Unless there are applicable income tax treaties or agreements, such interest payable by us to investors will be subject to a 10% PRC income tax in the case of nonresident enterprises or 20% in the case of nonresident individuals. Such "nonresident enterprise" refer to investors who do not have an establishment or place of business in China or, if there is such establishment or place of business in China, the relevant income is not effectively connected with such establishment or place of business in China. Such "nonresident individuals" refer to individuals who have no domicile and do not stay in the territory of China or who have no domicile but have stayed in the territory of China for less than one year shall pay individual income tax in accordance with the provisions of this Law for his incomes obtained in the territory of China. Similarly, any gain realized on the transfer of the Notes by such investors will also be subject to PRC income tax if such gain is regarded as income derived from sources within China. It is uncertain whether the Company will be considered a PRC "resident enterprise," so it is unclear whether the interest payable to the foreign investors, or the gain the foreign investors may realize from the transfer of the Notes, would be treated as income sourced within China and be subject to PRC tax. If the Company is required under the PRC EIT Law or PRC Individual Income Tax Law to withhold PRC income tax on the interest payable to the foreign investors who are “nonresident enterprises” or “nonresident individuals”, we will be required to pay such additional amounts as are necessary to ensure receipt by the holder of the full amount which the holder would have received but for such withholding. The requirement to pay additional amounts will increase the cost of servicing interest payments on the Notes and could have a material adverse effect on our ability to pay interest on, and repay the principal amount of, the Notes, as well as our profitability and cash flows. In addition, if you are required to pay PRC income tax on the transfer of our Notes, the value of your investment in our Notes may be materially and adversely affected. It is unclear whether, if we are considered a PRC “resident enterprise,” holders of our Notes might be able to claim the benefit of income tax treaties or agreements entered into between China and other countries or areas.

We may redeem the Notes in whole at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest in the event we are required to pay additional amounts as a result of future changes in law.

As described under “Description of the Notes – Redemption for Taxation Reasons,” in the event we are required to pay additional amounts as a result of future changes in specified tax law or future changes in the existing official position or the stating of an official position regarding the application or interpretation of such law tax that results in our being required to withhold tax on interest payments due to our being treated as a PRC resident enterprise, we may redeem the Notes in whole at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest.

The insolvency laws of Cayman Islands and other local insolvency laws may differ from those of another jurisdiction with which holders of the Notes are familiar.

As the Company was incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands, an insolvency proceeding relating to the Company would likely involve the insolvency laws of the Cayman Islands, the procedural and substantive provisions of which may differ from comparable provisions of other jurisdictions with which the holders of the Notes are familiar.

We conduct substantially all of our business operations through PRC-incorporated subsidiaries in China. The Company and certain of our PRC subsidiaries, as equity holders in our PRC subsidiaries, are necessarily subject to the bankruptcy and insolvency laws of China in a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding involving any such PRC subsidiaries. The PRC laws and regulations relating to bankruptcy and insolvency and the legal proceedings in that regard may significantly differ from those of other jurisdictions with which the holders of the Notes are familiar. You should analyze the risks and uncertainties carefully before you invest in our Notes.

We may be unable to obtain and remit foreign exchange.

The Company was incorporated in the Cayman Islands. Our ability to satisfy our obligations under the Notes depends solely upon the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to obtain and remit sufficient foreign currency to pay dividends to us and, if applicable, to pay interest and principal on shareholder loans. Our PRC subsidiaries must present certain documents to SAFE, its authorized branch, or the designated foreign exchange bank, for approval before they can obtain and remit foreign currencies out of China, including evidence of the registration of the loan with SAFE. Prior to payment of interest and principal on any intergroup loan we make to our PRC subsidiaries, the relevant PRC subsidiary must also present evidence of payment of withholding tax at a rate of 10% or a lower tax treaty rate, if any, on the interest payable in respect of such intergroup loan. If any PRC subsidiary for any reason fails to satisfy any of the PRC legal requirements for remitting foreign currency payments, the PRC subsidiary will be unable to pay us dividends or interest and principal on intergroup loans, which may affect our ability to satisfy our obligations under the Notes.

If we are unable to comply with the restrictions and covenants in our debt agreements or the Indenture governing the Notes, there could be a default under the terms of these agreements or the Indenture governing the Notes, which could cause repayment of our debt to be accelerated.

If we are unable to comply with the restrictions and covenants in the Indenture governing the Notes or our current or future debt obligations and other agreements, there could be a default under the terms of these agreements. In the event of a default under these agreements, the holders of the debt could terminate their commitments to lend to us, accelerate repayment of the debt and declare all outstanding amounts due and payable or terminate the agreements, as the case may be. Furthermore, some of our debt agreements, including the Indenture governing the Notes, contain cross-acceleration or cross-default provisions. As a result, our default under one debt agreement may cause the acceleration of repayment of not only such debt but also other debt, including the Notes, or result in a default under our other debt agreements, including the Indenture governing the Notes. If any of these events occur, we cannot assure you that our assets and cash flow would be sufficient to repay in full all of our indebtedness, or that we would be able to find alternative financing. Even if we could obtain alternative financing, we cannot assure you that it would be on terms that are favorable or acceptable to us. Furthermore, we are permitted to incur indebtedness pursuant to the Indenture if, among other options, we are able to meet the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio. See “– Risks Relating to Our Business – False, inaccurate or negative media reports about us, our directors and management, or our projects, including the negative news of our previous chairman, whether substantiated or not, may cause harm to our reputation, divert our management’s attention and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations” for more information.

The Trustee may request the holders of the Notes to provide an indemnity and/or security to its satisfaction.

In certain circumstances, including without limitation giving of notice to the Company and taking enforcement steps pursuant to terms of the Notes, the Trustee may, at its sole discretion, request the holders of the Notes to provide an indemnity and/or security to its satisfaction before it takes actions on behalf of the holders of the Notes. The Trustee shall not be obliged to take any such actions if not indemnified and/or secured to its satisfaction. Negotiating and agreeing to an indemnity and/or security can be a lengthy process and may impact on when such actions can be taken. The Trustee may not be able to take actions, notwithstanding the provision of an indemnity or security to it, in breach of the terms of the trust deed or the terms of the Notes and, to the extent permitted by the agreements and the applicable law, it will be for the holders of the Notes to take such actions directly.

We may not be able to repurchase the Notes, the Existing Notes upon a Change of Control Triggering Event.

We must offer to purchase the Notes and the Existing Notes upon the occurrence of certain types of changes of control at a purchase price equal to 101% of their respective principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest. See the section headed “Description of the Notes.” The source of funds for any such purchase would be our available cash or third-party financing. However, we may not have sufficient available funds at the time of the occurrence of any change of control to make purchases of the outstanding Notes or the Existing Notes. Our failure to make the offer to purchase or to purchase the outstanding Notes, the Existing Notes would constitute an event of default under the Notes and the Existing Notes. The event of default may, in turn, constitute an event of default under other indebtedness, any of which could cause the related debt to be accelerated after any applicable notice or grace periods. If our other debts were to be accelerated, we may not have sufficient funds to purchase the Notes or the Existing Notes and repay the debt.

In addition, the definition of change of control for purposes of the Indenture governing the Notes and the Existing Notes does not necessarily afford protection for the holders of the Notes and the Existing Notes in the event of some highly-leveraged transactions, including certain acquisitions, mergers, refinancings, restructurings or other recapitalizations. These types of transactions could, however, increase our indebtedness or otherwise affect our capital structure or credit ratings. The definition of change of control for purposes of the indentures governing the Notes and the Existing Notes also includes a phrase relating to the sale of “all or substantially all” of our assets. Although there is a limited body of case law interpreting the phrase “substantially all,” there is no precise established definition under applicable law. Accordingly, our obligation to make an offer to purchase the Notes and the Existing Notes to require us to purchase its notes pursuant to the offer as a result of a highly-leveraged transaction or a sale of less than all of our assets may be uncertain.

The Company may not be able to repurchase the Notes at the option of the Holders of the Notes.

Holders of the notes will have the right to require us to repurchase their Notes, in whole or in part, on June 26, 2027 at a repurchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest as described under “Description of the Notes – Repurchase of Notes at the Option of Holders.” However, we may not have enough available cash or be able to obtain financing at the time it is required to make repurchases of the Notes surrendered therefor. In addition, our ability to repurchase the Notes may be limited by law, by regulatory authority or by agreements governing our future indebtedness. Any failure by us to repurchase the Notes when the repurchase would constitute a default under the indenture governing the Notes. A default under the indenture governing the Notes could also lead to a default under other agreements governing our indebtedness.

Our operations are restricted by the terms of the Notes, which could limit our ability to plan for or to react to market conditions or meet our capital needs, which could increase your credit risk.

The Indenture governing the Notes includes a number of significant restrictive covenants. These covenants restrict, among other things, our ability, and the ability of our Restricted Subsidiaries, to:

- incur or guarantee additional indebtedness and issue disqualified or preferred stock;
- declare dividends on capital stock or purchase or redeem capital stock;
- make investments or other specified restricted payments;
- issue or sell capital stock of Restricted Subsidiaries;
- guarantee indebtedness of Restricted Subsidiaries;
- sell assets;
- create liens;
- enter into sale and leaseback transactions;
- engage in any business other than permitted business;
- enter into agreements that restrict the Restricted Subsidiaries’ ability to pay dividends, transfer assets or make intercompany loans;
- enter into transactions with shareholders or affiliates; and
- effect a consolidation or merger.

These covenants could limit our ability to plan for or react to market conditions or to meet our capital needs. Our ability to comply with these covenants may be affected by events beyond our control, and we may have to curtail some of our operations and growth plans to maintain compliance.

We may designate members of the Restructuring Group (as defined in “Description of the Notes”) as Unrestricted Subsidiaries under the Indenture if and when we decide to proceed with the Restructuring.

Although we do not have any specific plan yet, we may designate members of the Restructuring Group as Unrestricted Subsidiaries under the Indenture, if and when we consider appropriate, subject to certain conditions, including, among others, that our Board of Directors has determined in good faith that the designation of Unrestricted Subsidiaries is necessary to obtain approval from the relevant stock exchange for the Restructuring. Following such designation:

- the business, assets and liabilities of such entity will no longer be part of the credit underlying the Notes;

- such entity will not be subject to the restrictive covenants applicable to Restricted Subsidiaries under the Indenture;
- interest expenses on Indebtedness (as defined in the Indenture) of such entity will not be included in the calculation of our Consolidated Interest Expense (as defined under “Description of the Notes”), other than such interest expenses on Indebtedness that is Guaranteed and payable by us or a Restricted Subsidiary; and
- the net income of the Restructuring Group will not be included in the calculation of our Consolidated Net Income and Consolidated EBITDA under the Indenture except to the extent of the cash actually distributed to us or any Restricted Subsidiary as a dividend or other distribution from the Restructuring Group.

As a result of any such designation, the value of assets subject to the restrictive covenants under the Indenture may decrease and the market price and trading of the Notes may be materially affected. Accordingly, you are cautioned as to our intended initial designation of Unrestricted Subsidiaries under the Indenture, notably the subsidiaries within the Restructuring Group, and our ability to designate further Unrestricted Subsidiaries subject to the conditions set forth in the Indenture.

The terms of the Notes permit us to make investments in Unrestricted Subsidiaries and minority owned joint ventures.

In light of land prices, sizes of projects and other factors, we may from time to time consider developing property developments jointly with third parties, including other PRC property developers. As a result, we may need to make investments in joint ventures (including joint ventures in which we may own more or less than a 50% equity interest) and such joint ventures may or may not be Restricted Subsidiaries. Although the Indenture restricts us and our Restricted Subsidiaries from making investments in Unrestricted Subsidiaries or minority joint ventures, these restrictions are subject to important exceptions and qualifications, including, among others, that we may, subject to certain conditions, make investments in any Unrestricted Subsidiaries and minority owned joint ventures primarily engaged in permitted business up to an aggregate amount equal to 35.0% of our total assets. See “Description of the Notes.”

The terms of the Notes permit us to pay substantial amount of dividends.

We pay dividends to our shareholders from time to time. Under the Indenture, any such dividend payment will be a “Restricted Payment,” which could not be made unless we can, among other things, satisfy the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio. However, such restriction is subject to important exceptions and qualifications. Under the terms of the Notes, we may pay dividends on our common stock in an aggregate amount up to 20.0% of our profit for the year without satisfying the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio. With such an exception, we may be able pay substantial amount of dividends even when we are highly leveraged, which may materially and adversely affect our ability to service our indebtedness, including the Notes.

If we fail to complete the post-issuance report to the NDRC in connection with the Notes, NDRC may impose penalties or other administrative procedures on the Company.

On 5 January 2023, the NDRC issued Order 56. On 9 February 2023, the NDRC published the frequently asked questions on Order 56 and its responses (the “FAQs”), which provided further clarifications on the practical implications of certain provisions in Order 56. We shall comply with the provisions relating to foreign debt risk management and interim and ex-post supervision under Order 56, including, among others, to complete the post-issuance filing to the NDRC within the prescribed timeframe after the completion of the issuance of the Notes and any implementation rules as issued by the NDRC from time to time (together, the “NDRC Reporting Obligations”). According to Order 56, if any enterprise fails to report relevant information according to Order 56, the review and registration authorities shall, depending on the seriousness of the circumstances, order rectification within a limited time period, or impose disciplinary measures such as interviews and public warnings on such enterprise and its principal responsible person. Furthermore, conduct in violation of Order 56 committed by enterprises will be published on, among others, the Credit China (信用中國) website and the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System (國家 企業信用信息公示系統)。In the worst scenario, our non-compliance with the NDRC Reporting Obligations under Order 56 may result in it being unlawful for us to perform or comply with any of our obligations under the Notes. Any failure to complete the relevant filings under Order 56 within the prescribed time frames following the completion of the issue of the Notes may have adverse consequences for us and/or the investors of the Notes. Potential investors of the Notes are advised to exercise due caution when making their investment decisions.

A trading market for the Notes may not develop, and there are restrictions on resale of the Notes.

Approval-in-principle has been received for the listing and quotation of the Notes on the SGX-ST. However, we cannot assure you that we will obtain or be able to maintain a listing on the SGX-ST, or that, if listed, a liquid trading market will develop. We have been advised that the Initial Purchasers intend to make a market in the Notes, but the Initial Purchasers are not obligated to do so and may discontinue such market making activity at any time without notice. In addition, the Notes are being offered pursuant to exemptions from registration under the Securities Act and, as a result, you will only be able to resell your Notes in transactions that have been registered under the Securities Act or in transactions not subject to or exempt from registration under the Securities Act. See the section headed “Transfer Restrictions.” If an active trading market does not develop or is sustained, the market price and liquidity of the Notes could be adversely affected.

The rating assigned to the Notes and our corporate ratings may be lowered or withdrawn in the future.

The Notes are expected to be rated B- by S&P. The rating address our ability to perform our obligations under the terms of the Notes and credit risks in determining the likelihood that payments will be made when due under the Notes. In addition, we have been assigned a corporate rating of B with a negative outlook by S&P and a corporate rating of Caa1 with a negative outlook by Moody's. A rating may not remain for any given period of time and could be lowered or withdrawn entirely by the relevant rating agency. A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision, suspension or withdrawal at any time. We have no obligation to inform holders of the Notes of any such revision, suspension or withdrawal. A reduction, suspension or withdrawal at any time of the rating may adversely affect the market price of the Notes.

Certain transactions that constitute “connected transactions” under the listing rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange will not be subject to the “Limitation on Transactions with Shareholders and Affiliates” covenant.

Our shares are listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and we are required to comply with its listing rules, which provide, among other things, that any transaction between a listed company or any of its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and a “connected person” of such listed company, on the other hand, is a “connected transaction” that, if the value of such transaction exceeds the applicable de minimis thresholds, will require certain procedural requirements to be completed or approvals to be obtained. The “Limitation on Transactions with Shareholders and Affiliates” covenant in the Notes only applies to transactions between the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary, on the one hand, and (x) any holder (or any affiliate of such holder) of 10% or more of the shares of the Company or (y) any affiliate of the Company, on the other hand. As such, transactions between the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary, on the one hand, and an affiliate of any Restricted Subsidiary, on the other hand, will not be captured by such covenants, even though they are subject to the independent shareholders’ requirement under the Listing Rules. As a result, we are not required by the terms of the Notes to ensure that any such transactions are on terms that are fair and reasonable, and we will not need to deliver officers’ certificates or procure the delivery of fairness opinions by accounting, appraisal or investment banking firms to the trustee of the Notes for any such transactions.

The liquidity and price of the Notes following the offering may be volatile.

The price and trading volume of the Notes may be highly volatile. Factors such as variations in our revenues, earnings and cash flows, proposals for new investments, strategic alliances and acquisitions, changes in interest rates, fluctuations in price for comparable companies, government regulations and changes thereof applicable to our industry and general economic conditions nationally or internationally could cause the price of the Notes to change. Any such developments may result in large and sudden changes in the trading volume and price of the Notes.

There may be less publicly available information about us than is available in certain other jurisdictions.

There may be less publicly available information about companies listed in Hong Kong than is regularly made available by public companies in certain other countries. In addition, the financial information in this offering memorandum has been prepared in accordance with HKFRSs, which differ in certain respects from generally accepted accounting principles in other jurisdictions, or other GAAPs, which might be material to the financial information contained in this offering memorandum. We have not prepared a reconciliation of our consolidated financial statements and related footnotes between HKFRSs and other GAAPs. In making an investment decision, you must rely upon your own examination of us, the terms of the offering and our financial information. You should consult your own professional advisers for an understanding of the differences between HKFRSs and other GAAPs and how those differences might affect the financial information contained in this offering memorandum.

We will follow the applicable corporate disclosure standards for debt securities listed on the SGX-ST, which standards may be different from those applicable to companies in certain other countries.

We will be subject to reporting obligations in respect of the Notes to be listed on the SGX-ST. The disclosure standards imposed by the SGX-ST may be different than those imposed by securities exchanges in other countries or regions such as Hong Kong. As a result, the level of information that is available may not correspond to what investors in the Notes are accustomed to.

The Notes will initially be held in book-entry form, and therefore you must rely on the procedures of the relevant clearing systems to exercise any rights and remedies.

The Notes will initially only be issued in global certificate form and held through Euroclear and Clearstream. Interests in the Notes represented by the global certificate will trade in book entry form only, and notes in definitive registered form, or definitive registered notes, will be issued in exchange for book-entry interests only in very limited circumstances. Owners of book entry interests will not be considered owners or holders of the Notes. The nominee of the common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream will be the sole registered holder of the global certificate representing the Notes. Payments of principal, interest and other amounts owing on or in respect of the global certificate representing the Notes will be made to the paying agent, which will make payments to Euroclear and Clearstream. Thereafter, these payments will be credited to accounts of participants that hold book-entry interests in the global certificate representing the Notes and credited by such participants to indirect participants. After payment to the nominee of the common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, we will have no responsibility or liability for the payment of interest, principal or other amounts to the owners of book entry interests. Accordingly, if you own a book-entry interest, you must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream or, if you are not a participant in Euroclear and Clearstream, on the procedures of the participant through which you own your interest, to exercise any rights and obligations of Noteholder under the Indenture.

Unlike the holders of the Notes themselves, owners of book-entry interests will not have the direct right to act upon our solicitations for consents, requests for waivers or other actions from Noteholders. Instead, if you own a book-entry interest, you will be permitted to act only to the extent you have received appropriate proxies to do so from Euroclear and Clearstream. The procedures implemented for the granting of such proxies may not be sufficient to enable you to vote on a timely basis.

Similarly, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Indenture, unless and until definitive registered notes are issued in respect of all book-entry interests, if you own a book-entry interest, you will be restricted to acting through Euroclear and Clearstream. The procedures to be implemented through Euroclear and Clearstream may not be adequate to ensure the timely exercise of rights under the Notes.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The gross proceeds from this offering, before deducting the underwriting discounts and commissions and other estimated expenses payable in connection with this offering, will be approximately US$294.0 million. We intend to use the net proceeds to fund the Concurrent Offers to Purchase.

Pending application of the net proceeds of this offering, we intend to invest such net proceeds in “Temporary Cash Investments” as defined under the section headed “Description of the Notes.”

EXCHANGE RATE INFORMATION

Since 1994, the PBOC has set and published a daily base exchange rate with reference primarily to the supply and demand of Renminbi in the market during the previous day. On July 21, 2005, the PRC government introduced a managed floating exchange rate system to allow the value of the Renminbi to fluctuate within a regulated band based on market supply and demand and by reference to a basket of currencies. The PBOC has authorized the China Foreign Exchange Trading Center to announce the Renminbi's closing price each day, and that rate serves as the midpoint of the next day's trading band. In 2007, the PBOC widened the daily trading band of the Renminbi against the U.S. dollar from 0.3% to 0.5%. On June 20, 2010, the PBOC announced that it intended to further reform the Renminbi exchange rate regime by allowing greater flexibility in the Renminbi exchange rate and on April 16, 2012, the band was expanded to 1.0 per cent. These changes in currency policy resulted in the Renminbi appreciating against the U.S. dollar by approximately 26.9 per cent. from July 21, 2005 to December 31, 2013. On March 17, 2014, the PBOC further widened the floating band against the U.S. dollar to 2.0 per cent. PBOC authorized the China Foreign Exchange Trading Center, effective since January 4, 2006, to announce the central parity exchange rate of certain foreign currencies against the Renminbi on each business day. This rate is set as the central parity for the trading against the Renminbi in the inter-bank foreign exchange spot market and the over-the-counter exchange rate for the business day. On August 11, 2015, the PBOC announced plans to improve the central parity rate of the Renminbi against the U.S. dollar by authorizing market-makers to provide parity to the China Foreign Exchange Trading Center operated by the PBOC with reference to the interbank foreign exchange market closing rate of the previous day, the supply and demand for foreign currencies as well as changes in exchange rates of major international currencies. On the same day, the central parity rate of the Renminbi against the U.S. dollar depreciated by nearly 2.0% as compared to August 10, 2015, and further depreciated by nearly 1.6% on August 12, 2015 as compared to August 11, 2015. The International Monetary Fund announced on September 30, 2016 that the Renminbi joins its Special Drawing Rights currency basket. Since October 2016, the Renminbi against the U.S. dollar continued to depreciate. The PRC government may adopt further reforms of its exchange rate system, including making the Renminbi freely convertible in the future.

For the avoidance of doubt, the as adjusted information in the table above does not give effect to the Concurrent Offers to Purchase. We intend to finance the Concurrent Offers to Purchase with proceeds from internal funding and proceeds from this offering. As a result, if the Concurrent Offers to Purchase is consummated, our cash at bank and on hand and borrowings will decrease.

Except as disclosed or contemplated in this offering memorandum, there has been no material change in our total capitalization since December 31, 2024.

(1) EBITDA refers to our operating profit plus depreciation, amortization and capitalized interest under cost of sales, but excluding fair value gains on the investment properties and other gains or losses, net. EBITDA is not a standard measure under HKFRSs. EBITDA is a widely used financial indicator of a company's ability to service and incur debts. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or construed as an alternative to cash flows, net income or any other measure of financial performance or as an indicator of our operating performance, liquidity, profitability or cash flows generated by operating, investing or financing activities. EBITDA does not account for taxes, interest expense or other non-operating items. In evaluating EBITDA, we believe that investors should consider, among other things, the components of EBITDA such as sales and operating expenses and the amount by which EBITDA exceeds capital expenditures and other charges. We have included EBITDA because we believe it is a useful supplement to cash flow data as a measure of our performance and our ability to generate cash flow from operations to cover debt service and taxes. EBITDA presented herein may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other companies. Investors should not compare our EBITDA to EBITDA presented by other companies because not all companies use the same definition. See the section headed "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Non-GAAP Financial Measures" for a reconciliation of our profit for the year under HKFRSs to our definition of EBITDA. Investors should also note that EBITDA as presented herein may be calculated differently from Consolidated EBITDA as defined and used in the indenture governing the Notes. See the section headed "Description of the Notes – Definitions" for a description of the manner in which Consolidated EBITDA is defined for purposes of the Indenture.

(2) EBITDA margin is calculated by dividing EBITDA by revenue.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion of our financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with our consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, and in each case, the related notes thereto included elsewhere in this offering memorandum. The financial information included in our consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 have been prepared in accordance with HKFRSs, which may differ in material aspects from generally accepted accounting principles in other jurisdictions. For the purpose of this section unless the context otherwise requires references to 2022, 2023 and 2024 refer to our financial year ended December 31 of that year.

The following discussion and analysis contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results and timing of selected events could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including those set forth under “Risk Factors” in this offering memorandum.

Overview

We are a leading property developer in the Yangtze River Delta, focusing primarily on the development of quality residential properties and mixed-use complex projects. In 2024, we were ranked fourth and second among the top 10 Chinese commercial real estate developers by comprehensive strengths and by operations, respectively, by China Real Estate Industry Federation (中國房地產協會) and Shanghai E-House Real Estate Research Institute (上海易居房地產研究院). In addition, we received various recognitions from China Index Academy in 2024, including being named among the top 10 commercial real estate developers by operations in the PRC and being recognized as an excellent construction operation enterprise. We also received various recognitions at the Annual Premier Product Strength Conference in 2024 (2024超級產品力年度大會), which was co-organized by EH Consulting (億翰智庫) and AUDG (艾迪格設計) under the guidance of China Real Estate Chamber of Commerce (全聯房地產商會), including being named as a 2024 national model of the fourth generation residential projects and being ranked among the top 20 Chinese real estate enterprises by delivery strength and by product strength, the top 10 national excellent construction projects and the top 10 Chinese construction enterprises by product strength.

As of December 31, 2024, we had 222 real estate projects which were under development and/or held for future development in 92 major cities in the PRC. These projects included approximate 19.7 million sq.m. under development and approximately 19.3 million sq.m. held for future development. As of December 31, 2024, we had land reserves with a total estimated GFA of 31.4 million sq.m., of which 23.6 million sq.m. are attributed to our Group's interests.

Our Property Development Operations

Property development operations comprise, among other things, land acquisition, product development and construction, property sales and pre-sales and property management. For product development and construction, we engage third-party contractors to provide a wide range of services which include, without limitation, architectural and interior design, construction, electromechanical engineering and landscaping. To shorten the period between site acquisition, pre-sale and completion of our properties, we have adopted a “rapid asset turnover” business model for our property development operations. As a result, we have been able to rapidly replicate our projects, shorten development cycles, maximize investment returns, improve cash flows and mitigate liquidity risks.

Our Diversified Product Offerings

We develop and sell a variety of residential property types, through four residential property series, namely, our “FirstHomes” series, “SweetHomes” series, “DreamHomes” series and “PrestigeHomes” series, to target different customers groups, including first time buyers, young families, mid-to-high income households and high net worth individuals. We also develop large-scale, mixed-use complex projects that typically consist of a combination of shopping malls, offices, hotels, serviced apartments, residential properties and other ancillary facilities. We offer three mixed-use complex project series, namely our “International Plaza” series, “City Plaza” series and “Lifestyle Mall” series, to meet the needs and preferences of customers in different locations, including central business districts and emerging business districts.

Principal Factors Affecting our Results of Operations

Our business, results of operations and financial condition are affected by a number of factors, including those set forth below.

Macroeconomy of PRC and Regulatory Measures for the Property Sector in China

Substantially all of our revenue has been generated from the commercial and residential property markets in the PRC. The conditions of the commercial and residential property markets in the PRC are significantly impacted by governmental policies and regulations.

From time to time, the PRC government adjusts its regulation of the property market depending on macroeconomic conditions to achieve policy goals, such as preventing the overheating of the property market or stimulating the property market during and after an economic downturn. In recent years, various administrative bodies launched a series of measures to discourage speculation and control the growth of the PRC property market. Demand for properties and property prices in China have fluctuated significantly in recent years, and is expected to continue to be affected by macro-economic control measures implemented by the PRC government from time to time.

On November 11, 2022, China's central bank and banking regulator jointly issued the "Notice on Providing Current Financial Support for the Stable and Healthy Development of the Real Estate Market" (《關於做好當前金融支持房地產市場平穩健康發展工作的通知》(銀發[2022]254號)) (the "2022 Notice"), which outlines comprehensive financial support measures including prioritized credit assistance for well-managed, financially sound developers, optimized loan services for construction firms to ensure funding stability, facilitation of bond financing for quality developers with improved investor communication and repayment mechanisms, support for domestic and overseas bond repurchases, and encouragement of trust and asset management products to meet legitimate sector financing needs. On September 24, 2024, the People's Bank of China and the National Financial Regulatory Administration issued the "Notice on Extending the Duration of Certain Real Estate Financial Policies," (《關於延長部分房地產金融政策期限的通知》), which extends the application period of policies regarding reasonable extensions for outstanding financing such as development loans and trust loans under the 2022 Notice.

On September 24, 2024, the People's Bank of China and the National Financial Regulatory Administration also jointly issued the "Notice on Optimizing the Minimum Down Payment Ratio Policy for Individual Housing Loans" (《關於優化個人住房貸款最低首付款比例政策的通知》). The notice establishes a unified national minimum down payment ratio: for families purchasing homes with loans, commercial individual housing loans will no longer differentiate between first-home and second-home purchases, with the minimum down payment ratio uniformly set at no less than 15%. The performance of the property market and our business will continue to be affected by a number of macroeconomic factors, including the growth of the PRC economy, interest rates, RMB exchange rate and the political, economic and regulatory environment in the PRC.

Our business and results of operations may be affected by governmental policies and regulations in the PRC relating to property development, including those that have (i) increased taxes on title transfers and property ownership, (ii) increased down payment requirements for residential mortgages, (iii) tightened credit on financing and mortgage loans and (iv) restricted multiple home ownership and investments in residential property outside one's province of residence.

Ability to Acquire Suitable Land for Future Development

Our growth will depend in large part on our ability to acquire quality land at prices that can yield reasonable returns. In recent years, we have expanded our business geographically. Based on our current development plans, we have sufficient land reserves for development for the next three years. As the PRC economy continues to grow and demand for commercial and residential properties remains relatively strong, we expect competition among developers for land reserves suitable for property development to intensify nationwide and in the cities in which we operate. In addition, the public tender, auction and listing-for-sale practices for granting state-owned land use rights are also likely to increase competition for development land and land acquisition costs. See "Risk Factors – Risks Relating to Our Business – We may not be able to acquire land reserves in desirable locations that are suitable for development at commercially acceptable prices in the future."

Access to Capital and Cost of Financing

Bank and other borrowings are important sources of funding for our property developments. As of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, our outstanding current and non-current bank loans amounted to RMB42,390.2 million, RMB34,617.5 million and RMB33,399.4 million (US$4,575.7 million), respectively. The interest rates of our bank loans and other borrowings are affected by the benchmark interest rates published by the PBOC, which are in turn affected by the general economic conditions in China and the PRC government's monetary policies. Therefore, any increase in the benchmark interest rates will increase the interest costs for our property developments. Our access to capital and cost of financing are also affected by restrictions imposed from time to time by the PRC government and by financial institutions on bank lending for property development. Additionally, an increase in the demand for loans may increase interest rates, resulting in additional interest costs for us, especially in newly raised loans. See "Risk Factors – Risks Relating to Our Business – We may not have adequate financing to fund our future land acquisitions and property developments, and such capital resources may not be available on commercially reasonable terms, or at all."

Product Mix of Our Properties

We derive substantially all of our revenue from the sale of residential and commercial properties. Over the years, we have developed and introduced various products to the market, including large-scale residential properties and mixed-use complexes, which consist of high-end residential flats, retail properties and other properties. Our results of operations and cash flows generated from operating activities may vary from period to period depending on our sales strategy, the types of properties sold and delivered and the average selling prices of these properties. In addition, our results of operations and cash flows generated from operating activities may also vary depending on prevailing market conditions when we sell our properties. The cash flows generated from our investment properties depend on local rental rates, which in turn depend on local supply and demand conditions, as well as the type of property being developed.

Timing of Property Development

The number of property projects that we undertake during any particular period is primarily limited by the substantial capital requirements for land acquisitions and construction, as well as land supply. In addition, the development of property projects may take many months or even years before the commencement of pre-sale or completion and delivery. No revenue is recognized with respect to a property project until it has been completed, sold and delivered to the customers. In addition, as market demand fluctuates, the revenue we recognize in a particular period may also depend on market conditions at the expected completion and delivery time of a particular project. Moreover, delays in construction, regulatory approval and other processes can adversely affect the timetable of our projects. Given the foregoing limitations, timing differences and uncertainties, our results of operations have fluctuated in the past and are likely to continue to fluctuate in the future. To mitigate these fluctuations, we seek to strategically schedule projects so they will be staggered at different stages of development during any particular period.

Land and Construction Costs

Our results of operations are affected by land and construction costs. Land and construction costs constitute the largest items in our cost of sales. Over the years, land premiums have generally been on the rise in China. It is expected that land premiums will continue to rise as the PRC economy continues to grow and demolition and resettlement costs continue to increase. Under our standard construction contracts, we are responsible for key construction materials such as steel and bear any increases in material costs after a contract is entered into. Furthermore, prolonged increases in the price of construction materials will prompt contractors to change their fee quotes for new contracts, thus increasing our cost of sales and overall project cost. If we cannot sell our properties at prices sufficient to cover all our increased costs, we will not be able to achieve our target profit margins, and our profitability will be adversely impacted.

LAT

Our property developments are subject to LAT with respect to the appreciated value of the related land and improvements on such land. LAT applies to both domestic and foreign investors in real estate development in China, and is levied at progressive rates ranging from 30% to 60% of the appreciation of land value. In the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, we recorded total LAT expenses of RMB1,378.9 million, RMB1,443.8 million and RMB1,227.9 million (US$168.2 million), respectively, in our consolidated statements of income. Provisions for LAT are made upon recognition of revenue. As of the date of this offering memorandum, we have made all prepayments and/or full provisions for LAT in compliance with the relevant LAT laws and regulations in China as interpreted and enforced by the relevant local tax authorities. However, we cannot assure you that the relevant tax authorities will agree to the basis on which we have calculated our LAT liabilities for provision purposes, or that such provisions will be sufficient to cover all LAT obligations that tax authorities may ultimately impose on us. Our financial condition and results of operations may be materially adversely affected if our LAT liabilities as calculated by the relevant tax authorities are substantially higher than our provisions. See “Risk Factors – Risks Relating to Our Business – The relevant PRC tax authorities may challenge the basis on which we calculate our LAT obligations.”

Fair Value of Investment Properties

We have designated certain completed properties and properties under development as investment properties, as we intend to hold these properties on a long-term basis for rental income and capital appreciation. Our investment properties are recorded as non-current assets in our consolidated statements of financial position at fair value as of each balance sheet date as determined by independent valuations. Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of our investment properties are accounted for as gains or losses upon revaluation in our consolidated statements of income, which may have a substantial effect on our profits. The valuation of property involves the exercise of professional judgment and requires the use of certain bases and assumptions. The fair value of our investment properties may have been higher or lower if a different set of bases or assumptions were to be used. In addition, upward revaluation adjustments reflect unrealized capital gains on our investment properties as of the relevant balance sheet dates and do not generate any cash inflow for our operations or potential dividend distributions to our shareholders. The amounts of fair value adjustments have been changed and may continue to change based on property market conditions in China and our portfolio of investment properties. In the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2023, we recorded fair value gains of RMB1,455.3 million and RMB23.4 million, respectively. In the year ended December 31, 2024, we recorded fair value losses of RMB39.0 million (US$5.3 million). We recognized substantial gains from fair value changes in our investment properties in 2022 but we cannot assure you that similar levels of fair value gains can be achieved in the future.

Critical Accounting Policies

Some of our accounting policies require subjective or complex judgments by our management, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to our consolidated financial statements. We review our estimates and underlying assumptions on an ongoing basis. We set forth below those accounting policies that we believe are the most critical to our consolidated financial statements.

(a) Accounting policies applied for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2024

(i) Sales of properties

Control of the property under all the property development and sales contract is transferred at a point in time, revenue is recognised when the property is accepted by the customer, or deemed as accepted according to the contract, which is the point in time when the customer has the ability to direct the use of the property and obtain substantially all of the remaining benefits of the property, and the Group has present right to payment and the collection of the consideration is probable.

In determining the transaction price, the Group adjusts the promised amount of consideration for the effect of a financing component.

(ii) Commercial property management service

The Group provides commercial property management services. Revenue from providing services is recognised in the accounting period in which the services are rendered.

For commercial property management services, the Group billed a fixed amount each month for services provided and recognised as revenue in the amount to which the Group has a right to invoice and corresponds directly with value of performance completed.

If contracts involve the sale of multiple services, the transaction price will be allocated to each performance obligation based on their relative stand-alone selling prices. If the stand-alone selling prices are not directly observable, they are estimated based on expected cost plus a margin or adjusted market assessment approach, depending on the availability of observable information.

A receivable is recorded when the Group has an unconditional right to consideration. A right to consideration is unconditional if only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due.

(iii) Other services

The Group provides various services to its customers at fixed or variable amounts. If the consideration is variable, the Group estimates the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for the promised goods or services. The estimated amount of variable consideration is included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved. The Group recognises revenue associated with fixed fees over time where the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group or when the Group's performance do not create an asset with alternative use and the Group has an enforceable right to perform completed to date, by reference to completion of the specific transaction assessed on the basis of the actual costs incurred up to the end of the reporting period as a percentage of total estimated costs for each contract.

(b) Accounting policies applied for the year ended December 31, 2022

(i) Sales of properties

Revenues are recognised when or as the control of the asset is transferred to the customer. Depending on the terms of the contract and the laws and rules that apply to the contract, control of the asset may transfer over time or at a point in time. Control of the asset is transferred over time if the Group's performance:

- provides all of the benefits received and consumed simultaneously by the customer; or
- creates and enhances an asset that the customer controls as the Group performs; or
- do not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

If control of the asset transfers over time, revenue is recognised over the period of the contract by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of that performance obligation. Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the asset.

The progress towards complete satisfaction of the performance obligation is measured based on the Group's efforts or inputs to the satisfaction of the performance obligation, by reference to the contract cost incurred up to the end of reporting period as a percentage of total estimated costs for each contract.

For property development and sales contract for which the control of the property is transferred at a point in time, revenue is recognised when the property is accepted by the customer, or deemed as accepted according to the contract, which is the point in time when the customer has the ability to direct the use of the property and obtain substantially all of the remaining benefits of the property, and the Group has present right to payment and the collection of the consideration is probable.

In determining the transaction price, the Group adjusts the promised amount of consideration for the effect of a financing component.

(ii) Commercial property management service

The Group provides commercial property management services. Revenue from providing services is recognised in the accounting period in which the services are rendered.

For commercial property management services, the Group billed a fixed amount each month for services provided and recognised as revenue in the amount to which the Group has a right to invoice and corresponds directly with value of performance completed.

If contracts involve the sale of multiple services, the transaction price will be allocated to each performance obligation based on their relative stand-alone selling prices. If the stand-alone selling prices are not directly observable, they are estimated based on expected cost plus a margin or adjusted market assessment approach, depending on the availability of observable information.

A receivable is recorded when the Group has an unconditional right to consideration. A right to consideration is unconditional if only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due.

(iii) Other services

The Group provides various services to its customers at fixed or variable amounts. If the consideration is variable, the Group estimates the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for the promised goods or services. The estimated amount of variable consideration is included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved. The Group recognises revenue associated with fixed fees over time where the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group or when the Group's performance do not create an asset with alternative use and the Group has an enforceable right to perform completed to date, by reference to completion of the specific transaction assessed on the basis of the actual costs incurred up to the end of the reporting period as a percentage of total estimated costs for each contract.

Investment Properties

Properties that we do not occupy and hold for long-term rental yields or capital appreciation, or both, are classified as investment properties. Properties that are currently being constructed or developed for future use as investment properties are also classified as investment properties and stated at fair value. An investment property is measured initially at cost, including related transaction costs and, where applicable, borrowing costs. After initial recognition, investment property is carried at fair value. Fair value is based on active market prices and is adjusted, as necessary, for any difference in the nature, location or condition of the specific asset. If this information is not available, we use alternative valuation methods such as recent prices on less active markets or discounted cash flow projections. These valuations are performed at balance sheet date by external valuers.

Properties Held or Under Development for Sale

Properties held or under development for sale are included in current assets at the lower of cost and net realizable value. The costs of properties held or under development consist of costs of leasehold land, construction expenditure, capitalized borrowing costs and other direct costs incurred during the development period. The costs of properties held are determined by apportionment of the total development costs for that development project attributable to the unsold properties. Net realizable value is based on estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business as determined by management with reference to prevailing market conditions, less further costs expected to be incurred before completion and expected selling and marketing costs.

Borrowings Costs

Borrowing costs are capitalized if they are directly attributable to the development of properties for sale or the acquisition, construction or production of other qualifying assets.

Capitalization of borrowing costs commences when the activities to prepare the assets commence and expenditure and borrowing costs are incurred, and capitalization ceases when the assets are substantially completed or ready for their intended use. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period they are incurred.

Deferred Income Tax

Deferred income tax is recognized, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, the deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realized or the deferred income tax liability is settled. Deferred income tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilized.

Joint Arrangements

Under HKFRS 11, investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures depending on the contractual rights and obligations of each investor. We have assessed the nature of our joint arrangements and determined them to be joint ventures. Joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method.

Under the equity method of accounting, interests in joint ventures are initially recognized at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognize our share of the post-acquisition profits or losses and movements in other comprehensive income. When our share of losses in a joint venture equals or exceeds its interests in the joint venture (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of our net investment in the joint venture), we do not recognize further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the joint venture.

Unrealized gains on transactions between us and our joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of our interests in the joint ventures. Unrealized losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of the joint ventures have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by us.

Certain Income Statement Items

Revenue

We derive our revenue primarily from sales of properties and, to a lesser extent, property management, rental income and other property-related services. The following table sets forth our revenue by revenue source for the years indicated.

	Year ended December 31,
	(RMB)	(RMB)	(RMB)	(US$)
		(in thousands)		(unaudited)

Total	116,540,630	119,463,530	89,226,520	12,223,983

As we derive substantially all of our revenue from sales of properties, our results of operations for a given period are dependent upon the amount of total GFA delivered, the location and type of properties we completed and delivered during such period, market conditions and the contracted sales prices of our properties.

Our average selling price per sq.m. sold was RMB7,947, RMB8,255 and RMB7,716 for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, respectively.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales consists primarily of the costs we incur directly in relation to our property development activities as well as our leasing and property management operations. Cost of sales includes construction costs, land use rights costs, tax and surcharges, capitalized interest and other business costs.

Our development costs, which consist of construction costs, land use rights costs and capitalized interest, were RMB91,102.1 million, RMB94,450.3 million and RMB70,060.6 million (US$9,598.3 million) for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024.

Our provision for impairment of properties held (or under development) for sale represents the impairment charge we made in connection with certain properties held (or under development) for sale. For the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, our accrual of provision for properties held (or under development) for sale charged into our consolidated statements of income was RMB5,957.0 million, RMB5,348.2 million and RMB1,635.0 million (US$224.0 million), respectively. Upon recognition of the sales of properties in the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 for which impairment provision had been made previously, we reversed impairment provision of RMB2,392.9 million, RMB2,049.3 million and RMB2,933.6 million (US$401.9 million) in the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, respectively, and credited to cost of sales.

The following table sets forth information relating to our cost of sales for the years indicated:

- (1) Average cost per sq.m. sold refers to the average cost of our property sales (excluding our leasing and property management operations) and is derived by dividing the sum of construction costs, land use rights costs and capitalized interest for a year by the total GFA delivered in that year. The average selling price per sq.m. sold refers to the average selling price of GFA delivered and recognized as sales during the year.

Gross Profit and Gross Profit Margin

Gross profit represents revenue less cost of sales. Our gross profit for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 was RMB15,938.8 million, RMB16,168.0 million and RMB14,984.4 million (US$2,052.9 million), respectively. Our gross profit margin for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 was 13.7%, 13.5% and 16.8%, respectively.

We incurred significant interest expenses in relation to our bank borrowings, corporate bonds and senior notes. Our capitalized interests included in cost of sales were approximately RMB7,540.7 million, RMB7,679.3 million and RMB5,489.4 million (US$752.0 million) for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, respectively. Most of our interest expenses have been or will be capitalized as properties under development rather than being recorded as expenses in our income statement upon their incurrence. Such capitalized interest expenses will be recorded as expenses in our consolidated income statements as a portion of cost of sales upon the sale of the relevant properties. Accordingly, such capitalized interest expenses may adversely affect our gross profit margin upon recognition of the sale of the relevant properties in future periods.

Fair Value (Losses)/Gains on Investment Properties

We develop and hold certain of our commercial properties such as retail shops, shopping malls and car parks for rental income or capital appreciation. Our investment properties are appraised annually by an independent property valuer. Any appreciation or depreciation in our investment property value is recognized as fair value gains or losses in our consolidated statements of income. In the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2023, we recorded fair value gains of RMB1,455.3 million and RMB23.4 million, respectively. In the year ended December 31, 2024, we recorded fair value losses of RMB39.0 million (US$5.3 million).

Selling and Marketing Costs

Selling and marketing costs consist primarily of advertising and publicity expenses, sales commissions, including commissions in relation to our outsourced marketing activities, selling and marketing staff costs, expenses relating to exhibitions and trade fairs and other expenses relating to sales of our properties, including advertisements on television and in newspapers, magazines, and on billboards.

Other Income/Other Expenses/Other Net Gains or Losses

Our other income, other expenses and other net gains or losses primarily consist of government grants, fair value gains upon transfer of properties held for sale to investment properties, compensation for the return of land use rights, cancellation of property sales contracts or relating to law suits, dividend income, donations and expenses relating to third-party services.

Finance Costs – Net

Our finance costs primarily consist of Interest on borrowings, significant financing component of pre-sale contracts, and interest and finance charges paid/payable for lease liabilities less interest capitalised. Interest on borrowings relating to project development is capitalized to the extent it is directly attributable to a particular project and used to finance the development of that project. Because the development period for a project does not necessarily coincide with the interest payment period of the relevant loan, not all of the interest costs related to a project can be capitalized. As a result, our finance costs fluctuate from period to period depending on the amount of interest costs that are capitalized within the reporting period. For the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, our net finance costs amounted to RMB3,389.9 million, RMB2,738.3 million and RMB2,903.9 million (US$397.8 million), respectively.

Our interest expenses (including capitalized interest expenses) incurred in the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 were RMB5,643.2 million, RMB4,368.5 million and RMB3,581.5 million (US$490.7 million), respectively.

Income Tax Expense

Our income tax expense for a given period includes provisions made for LAT, PRC corporate income tax and deferred income tax (including PRC withholding tax) during the year. For the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, our effective corporate income tax rate⁽¹⁾ was 67.9%, 113.1% and 77.0%, respectively.

The following table sets forth our income tax expense for the years indicated:

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Overview

We operate in a capital-intensive industry, and our primary use for cash is to pay for land acquisition costs, construction costs and finance costs and to fund our working capital. To date, we have primarily financed our working capital, capital expenditure and other capital requirements primarily through the offering of our onshore corporate bonds and offshore senior notes, borrowings from banks and other financial institutions, proceeds from the pre-sales and sales of properties and income generated from our property management services and investment properties. Going forward, we believe our liquidity requirements will be satisfied using a combination of bank loans, cash generated from operating activities, proceeds from the offering of the Notes and other funds raised from the capital markets from time to time.

Since 2014, we have been funding our development costs (including land premium) with internal resources and bank borrowings and proceeds from issuance of corporate bonds and senior notes.

Our outstanding current and non-current borrowings, which include our borrowings from banks, corporate bonds and senior notes were RMB79,537.6 million, RMB63,169.6 million and RMB57,733.1 million (US$7,909.4 million) as of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, respectively. Our current and non-current borrowings decreased during the three years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, primarily due to a decrease in construction activities during such periods.

As of December 31, 2024, we had unutilized banking facilities of approximately RMB59.7 billion (US$8.2 billion). Provided that we obtain all necessary permits and licenses for development of our relevant projects as required by the banks and that the funding will be used for the relevant project for which we have applied for the funding, the use of the unutilized banking facilities generally will not be restricted. These conditions are customary for the banks to provide banking facilities to property developers in China.

The following table sets forth the maturity profile of our non-current borrowings as of the dates indicated:

All of our bank borrowings are secured by one or a combination of the following methods: pledges of land to be developed, properties under development, properties held for sale, investment properties, land use rights, property, plant and equipment, shares of our subsidiaries, bank deposits and guarantees by our subsidiaries. Our bank borrowings are from major commercial banks, which are independent third parties. As of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, the weighted average interest rate on our total borrowings was 6.45%, 6.15% and 5.88%, respectively.

As a result of these borrowings, our operations are subject to a wide range of customary restrictive covenants. For further information, see the sections headed “Risk Factors – Risks Relating to Our Business – We are subject to risks associated with certain covenants or restrictions under our bank borrowings which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.”

Financial Guarantees and Contingent Liabilities

We make arrangements with various PRC banks to provide mortgage facilities to purchasers of our pre-sold properties. In accordance with market practice, we are required to provide guarantees to these banks in respect of mortgages provided to such purchasers. Guarantees for mortgages on pre-sold residential properties are generally discharged when: (i) the property ownership certificates are registered in favor of the mortgagee banks, or (ii) the settlement of mortgage loans between the mortgagee banks and the purchasers, whichever occurs first. If a purchaser defaults on the mortgage loan, we are typically required to repurchase the underlying property to pay off the mortgage loan. If we fail to do so, the mortgagee banks will auction the underlying property and recover the balance from us if the outstanding loan amount exceeds the net foreclosure sale proceeds. In line with industry practice, we do not conduct independent credit checks on our purchasers but rely on the credit checks conducted by the mortgagee banks. As of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, our outstanding guarantees for mortgage loans of the purchasers of our pre-sold properties were approximately RMB62,295.9 million, RMB33,026.3 million and RMB21,775.3 million (US$2,983.2 million), respectively. Our general policy is that for purchasers utilizing mortgage loans, if purchasers default on subsequent payments after the down payment, we reserve our rights to seize the full amount of the down payment, unless we are able to resell the property at a price not less than the original amount at which we sold the property to such defaulting purchasers, and that the resale proceeds are sufficient to cover our enforcement costs. Financial guarantees are contingent liabilities not recognized in our financial statements.

The following table sets forth our financial guarantees as of the dates indicated:

Except as disclosed in “– Commitments” and “– Indebtedness” above, we did not have outstanding mortgages, charges, debentures, loan capital, bank overdrafts, loans, debt securities or other similar indebtedness, finance leases or hire purchase commitments, liabilities under acceptances or acceptance credits or any guarantees or other material contingent liabilities outstanding as of December 31, 2024.

Qualitative and Quantitative Disclosure about Market Risk

We are exposed to various types of market risks, including credit risk, interest rate risk, and liquidity risk.

Credit Risk

We considered the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an on-going basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there's a significant increase in credit risk, we compare the risk of a default occurring on the asset at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forward-looking information. Especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- internal credit rating
- external credit rating
- actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the borrower 's ability to meet its obligations
- actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the borrower
- significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same borrower
- significant changes in the expected performance and behavior of the borrower, including changes in the payment status of borrowers in the Group and changes in the operating results of the borrower.

(a) Cash in banks

We expect that there is no significant credit risk associated with cash deposits at banks since they are substantially deposited with state-owned banks and other medium or large size listed banks. Management does not expect that there will be any significant losses from non-performance by these counterparties.

(b) Trade receivables

The Group applies the simplified approach to providing for expected credit losses prescribed by HKFRS 9, which permits the use of the lifetime expected loss provision for all trade receivables. To measure the expected credit losses, trade receivables have been grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics and the days past due. The expected credit loss also incorporates forward looking information.

Trade receivables are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Indicators that there is no reasonable expectation of recovery include, amongst others, the failure of a debtor to engage in a repayment plan with the Group. The Group made a written off for trade receivables of RMB78,187,000 during the year ended December 31, 2024.

(c) Other receivables

The Group uses three categories for other receivables which reflect their credit risk and how the loss provision is determined for each of those categories. These internal credit risk ratings are aligned to external credit ratings.

A summary of the assumptions underpinning the Group's expected credit loss model is as follows:

Category	Group definition of category	Basis for recognition of expected credit loss provision	Basis for calculation of interest revenue
Stage one . . .	Customers have a low risk of default and a strong capacity to meet contractual cash flow	12 months expected losses. Where the expected lifetime of an asset is less than 12 months, expected losses are measured at its expected lifetime.	Gross carrying amount
Stage two . . .	Receivables for which there is a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition	Lifetime expected losses	Gross carrying amount
Stage three . .	Receivables for which there is credit loss since initial recognition	Lifetime expected losses	Amortized cost carrying amount (net of credit allowance)

The Company accounts for its credit risk by appropriately providing for expected losses on a timely basis. In calculating the expected credit loss rates, the Group considers historical loss rates for each category of receivables and adjusts for forward looking macroeconomic data.

Since credit risk has not significantly increased after initial recognition, the loss allowance recognised was therefore limited to 12 months expected losses.

Other receivables are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Indicators that there is no reasonable expectation of recovery include, amongst others, the failure of a debtor to engage in a repayment plan with the Group. The Group made a written off for other receivables of RMB9,093,000 during the year ended December 31, 2024.

(d) Financial assets at amortized cost

All of the entity's debt investments at amortized cost are considered to have low credit risk, and the loss allowance recognized during the period was therefore limited to 12 months expected losses. Our Management considers 'low credit risk' for listed bonds to be an investment grade credit rating with at least one major rating agency. Other instruments are considered to be low credit risk when they have a low risk of default and the issuer has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term.

(e) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

We are also exposed to credit risk in relation to debt investments that are measured at fair value through profit or loss. The maximum exposure at the end of the reporting period is the carrying amount of these investments.

(f) Financial Guarantee

We have policies in place to ensure that sales are made to purchasers with an appropriate financial strength and appropriate percentage of down payments. We have arranged bank financing for certain purchasers of our property units and provided guarantees to secure obligations of such purchasers for repayments. If a purchaser defaults on the payment of its mortgage loan during the guarantee period, the bank holding the guarantee may demand us to repay the outstanding principal of the loan and any interest accrued thereon. Under such circumstances, we are able to forfeit the customer's deposit and resell the property to recover any amounts paid by us to the bank.

We also provide guarantees to our certain related parties to obtain borrowings after assessing the credit history and pledge information of these related parties. We closely monitor the repayment progress of the relevant borrowings by these related parties.

Interest Rate Risk

Our interest rate risk relates primarily to our fixed-rate borrowings and variable-rate borrowings. Borrowings at fixed-rates expose us to fair value interest rate risk and borrowings at variable rates expose us to cash flow interest rate risk. We currently have not entered into interest rate swaps to hedge against our exposure to changes in fair values of our borrowings. It is our policy to maintain an appropriate level between our fixed-rate and variable rate borrowings so as to balance the fair value and cash flow interest rate risk.

In addition, to the extent that we may need to raise debt financing in the future, upward fluctuations in interest rates will increase the cost of new debt. Fluctuations in interest rates can also lead to significant fluctuations in the fair value of our debt obligations.

We currently do not use any derivative instruments to manage our interest rate risk. To the extent we decide to do so in the future, there can be no assurance that any future hedging activities will protect us from fluctuations in interest rates.

Liquidity Risk

The capital-intensive nature of our business exposes us to liquidity risk. We are exposed to liquidity risk if we are unable to raise sufficient funds to meet our capital commitments. To manage the liquidity risk, we monitor and maintain a level of cash and cash equivalents considered adequate by our management to finance our operations and mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows. In doing so, our management monitors capital on the basis of the gearing ratio to ensure adequate undrawn banking facilities and monitors the utilization of borrowings to ensure compliance with loan covenants. We also continue to obtain longer term financing facilities, mainly issuance of senior notes, project bank loans with pledge of our properties or other resources of funding which we consider appropriate.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

Except for the contingent liabilities disclosed, we have not entered into any off-balance sheet arrangements or commitments to guarantee the payment obligations of any third parties. We do not have any variable interest in any unconsolidated entity that provides financing, liquidity, market risk or credit support to us or engages in leasing or hedging services with us.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

We use EBITDA to provide additional information about our operating performance. EBITDA refers to our earnings before the following items:

- finance costs, including capitalized interest under cost of sales;
- income tax expense;
- fair value gains on investment properties;
- other gains-net;
- depreciation; and
- amortization.

EBITDA is not a standard measure under HKFRSs or generally accepted accounting principles in other jurisdictions. As the property development business is capital intensive, capital expenditure requirements and levels of debt and interest expenses may have a significant impact on the profit of companies with similar operating results. Therefore, we believe the investor community commonly use this type of financial measure to assess the operating performance of companies in our market sector.

You should not consider our definition of EBITDA in isolation or construe it as an alternative to profit for the year or as an indicator of operating performance or any other standard measure under HKFRSs or generally accepted accounting principles in other jurisdictions. Our definition of EBITDA does not account for taxes and other non-operating cash expenses. Our EBITDA measures may not be comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies.

The following table reconciles our profit for the year under HKFRS Accounting Standards to our definition of EBITDA for the years indicated.

(1) EBITDA refers to our operating profit plus depreciation, amortization and capitalized interest under cost of sales, but excluding fair value gains on the investment properties and other gains or losses, net. EBITDA is not a standard measure under HKFRSs. EBITDA is a widely used financial indicator of a company's ability to service and incur debts. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or construed as an alternative to cash flows, net income or any other measure of financial performance or as an indicator of our operating performance, liquidity, profitability or cash flows generated by operating, investing or financing activities. EBITDA does not account for taxes, interest expense or other non-operating items. In evaluating EBITDA, we believe that investors should consider, among other things, the components of EBITDA such as sales and operating expenses and the amount by which EBITDA exceeds capital expenditures and other charges. We have included EBITDA because we believe it is a useful supplement to cash flow data as a measure of our performance and our ability to generate cash flow from operations to cover debt service and taxes. EBITDA presented herein may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other companies. Investors should not compare our EBITDA to EBITDA presented by other companies because not all companies use the same definition. See the section headed "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Non-GAAP Financial Measures" for a reconciliation of our profit for the year under HKFRSs to our definition of EBITDA. Investors should also note that EBITDA as presented herein may be calculated differently from Consolidated EBITDA as defined and used in the Indenture. See the section headed "Description of the Notes – Definitions" for a description of the manner in which Consolidated EBITDA is defined for purposes of the Indenture.

BUSINESS

Business Overview

We are a leading property developer in the Yangtze River Delta, focusing primarily on the development of quality residential properties and mixed-use complex projects. In 2024, we were ranked fourth and second among the top 10 Chinese commercial real estate developers by comprehensive strengths and by operations, respectively, by China Real Estate Industry Federation (中國房地產業協會) and Shanghai E-House Real Estate Research Institute (上海易居房地產研究院). In addition, we received various recognitions from China Index Academy in 2024, including being named among the top 10 commercial real estate developers by operations in the PRC and being recognized as an excellent construction operation enterprise. We also received various recognitions at the Annual Premier Product Strength Conference in 2024 (2024超級產品力年度大會), which was co-organized by EH Consulting (億翰智庫) and AUDG (艾迪格設計) under the guidance of China Real Estate Chamber of Commerce (全聯房地產商會), including being named as a 2024 national model of the fourth generation residential projects and being ranked among the top 20 Chinese real estate enterprises by delivery strength and by product strength, the top 10 national excellent construction projects and the top 10 Chinese construction enterprises by product strength.

As of December 31, 2024, we had 222 real estate projects which were under development and/or held for future development in 92 major cities in the PRC. These projects included approximate 19.7 million sq.m. under development and approximately 19.3 million sq.m. held for future development. As of December 31, 2024, we had land reserves with a total estimated GFA of 31.4 million sq.m., of which 23.6 million sq.m. are attributed to our Group's interests.

Our Property Development Operations

Property development operations comprise, among other things, land acquisition, product development and construction, property sales and pre-sales and property management. For product development and construction, we engage third-party contractors to provide a wide range of services which include, without limitation, architectural and interior design, construction, electromechanical engineering and landscaping. To shorten the period between site acquisition, pre-sale and completion of our properties, we have adopted a “rapid asset turnover” business model for our property development operations. As a result, we have been able to rapidly replicate our projects, shorten development cycles, maximize investment returns, improve cash flows and mitigate liquidity risks.

Our Diversified Product Offerings

We develop and sell a variety of residential property types, through four residential property series, namely, our “FirstHomes” series, “SweetHomes” series, “DreamHomes” series and “PrestigeHomes” series, to target different customers groups, including first time buyers, young families, mid-to-high income households and high net worth individuals. We also develop large-scale, mixed-use complex projects that typically consist of a combination of shopping malls, offices, hotels, serviced apartments, residential properties and other ancillary facilities. We offer three mixed-use complex project series, namely our “International Plaza” series, “City Plaza” series and “Lifestyle Mall” series, to meet the needs and preferences of customers in different locations, including central business districts and emerging business districts.

Our Competitive Strengths

One of the leading property developers in the Yangtze River Delta

We are a leading property developer in the Yangtze River Delta, a fast-growing region in the PRC. In 2024, we were ranked fourth and second among the top 10 Chinese commercial real estate developers by comprehensive strengths and by operations, respectively, by China Real Estate Industry Federation (中國房地產業協會) and Shanghai E-House Real Estate Research Institute (上海易居房地產研究院). In addition, we received various recognitions from China Index Academy in 2024, including being named among the top 10 commercial real estate developers by operations in the PRC and being recognized as an excellent construction operation enterprise. We also received various recognitions at the Annual Premier Product Strength Conference in 2024 (2024超級產品力年度大會), which was co-organized by EH Consulting (億翰智庫) and AUDG (艾迪格設計) under the guidance of China Real Estate Chamber of Commerce (全聯房地產商會), including being named as a 2024 national model of the fourth generation residential projects and being ranked among the top 20 Chinese real estate enterprises by delivery strength and by product strength, the top 10 national excellent construction projects and the top 10 Chinese construction enterprises by product strength.

We have a proven track record of developing quality residential properties in Jiangsu Province and in the Yangtze River Delta. As of December 31, 2024, we had 222 real estate projects which were under development and/or held for future development in 92 major cities in the PRC. Leveraging on our premium brand, strong execution capabilities, rapid asset turnover model and property development experience, we have successfully expanded into other cities including, for example, Shanghai, Nanjing, Hangzhou, Wuxi, Suzhou, Nantong, Zhenjiang, Taizhou, Jiaxing, Ningbo, Shaoxing, Jintan, Quzhou and Jinhua in the Yangtze River Delta, Changsha in Hunan Province, Wuhan in Hubei Province, Nanchang in Jiangxi Province, Changchun in Jilin Province, Anqing in Anhui Province, Haikou in Hainan Province, Qingdao and Jinan in Shandong Province, Chengdu in Sichuan Province, Quanzhou in Fujian Province, Xi'an in Shaanxi Province, Zhengzhou in Henan Province, Kunming in Yunnan Province, Chongqing and Tianjin. We believe our strong track record is attributable to our execution capabilities and our ability to identify cities and regions with high growth potential.

Our rapid asset turnover model and standardized development process enable us to maximize our investment returns and improve our operating cash flows

We believe our rapid asset turnover, which we achieve by applying our standardized process for property development, is one of the key factors to our success. Our rapid asset turnover enables us to maximize our investment returns and improve operating cash flows by shortening our property development cycle. We have established a standardized development process for developing property with the use of standardized procedures, components and units since 2005. We established our own architectural design institute in 2007 and possess in-house architectural expertise.

Our standardized development process is designed with our customers' needs and satisfaction in mind and covers the full spectrum of our business operations, including site selection, procurement, property design, construction and quality control, aesthetics, interior design and customer service. As a result, we have been able to efficiently replicate our property projects and consistently deliver high quality properties across various market segments in affluent cities along the Shanghai-Nanjing Economic Corridor. As a result of our standardized development process and operating efficiency, we have the ability to develop projects rapidly, which enhances our profitability and growth potential.

Diversified product portfolio with a strategic focus on middle class customers in the PRC

We offer a wide range of residential properties that primarily target the specific preferences and needs of middle class customers. We believe that there is significant demand in our markets for high quality residential properties, and such demand will continue to increase, as the purchasing power of middle class customers will continue to grow in the future.

Our in-depth knowledge of local markets enables us to offer residential property products to targeted segments within our middle class consumer base. We develop and sell a variety of residential properties, including high-rise apartments, mid-rise apartments, townhouses and luxury stand-alone houses. Our residential properties are divided into four series, namely, our "FirstHomes" series, "SweetHomes" series, "DreamHomes" series and "PrestigeHomes" series, to target different customer groups, including first time buyers, young families, mid-to-high income households and high net worth individuals. These residential property series are designed to meet the evolving needs of middle class customers as their disposable income increases. We believe our focus on middle class customers has enabled us to capitalize on the large population and strong purchasing power of this customer group, and we believe our diversified product offerings have allowed us to penetrate into different segments within our target group of middle class customers.

To further diversify our product portfolio, we started developing commercial properties in 2008. We develop large-scale, mixed-use complex projects that typically consist of a combination of shopping malls, offices, hotels, serviced apartments, high-end residential properties and other ancillary facilities through three mixed-use complex project series, namely, our “International Plaza” series, “City Plaza” series and “Lifestyle Mall” series, to meet the needs and preferences of customers in different types of locations, including central business districts and emerging business districts. For example, we opened 15 new commercial plazas in the year ended December 31, 2024 under the “Wuyue” series and we had opened a total of 173 Wuyue Plazas by December 31, 2024. We hold some of our commercial properties in prime locations for long-term investment and sell the remaining portion. In addition to generating recurring rental income, we are also able to enjoy potential capital appreciation from our commercial properties over the long term.

Strategically located land reserves, which we believe provide strong support on laying a solid foundation for continued growth

Over the years, we have acquired land reserves in selected cities to establish a platform to support our continued growth. The majority of our land reserves are sizeable and concentrated in major cities along the Shanghai-Nanjing Economic Corridor in the Yangtze River Delta. These cities are located close to, and have easy access to, major roads and railway networks, including the Shanghai-Nanjing Expressway, Shanghai-Nanjing Inter-city High Speed Railway and Beijing-Shanghai High Speed Railway, which increase the value and marketability of these properties. As of December 31, 2024, we had land reserves with a total estimated GFA of approximately 31.4 million sq.m., of which around 23% is located in the Yangtze River Delta, around 46% is located in Central and Western China, around 24% is located in the Bohai Rim and around 7% is located in the Great Bay Area.

Our markets are in affluent second and third-tier cities in the Yangtze River Delta where competition is less intense than first-tier cities in China. This has enabled and will continue to enable us to capitalize on the strong economic development and significant demand in these local real estate markets. Further more, some of our markets are not subject to local policy and regulation restrictions.

Highly skilled and experienced management team with proven execution capabilities and a strong commitment to high corporate governance standards

We have a highly experienced and driven senior management team with proven execution capability. The key members of our management team have knowledge and experience that have enabled them to manage and oversee the operation and growth of our business. The members of our management team are highly experienced in the real estate development industry, with an average of over 16 years of relevant experience. We believe our management team’s experience, together with their strong commitment to high corporate governance standards, will help us to achieve sustainable long-term growth and to maximize the value of our business.

Our Business Strategies

Our goal is to become one of the most competitive and profitable property developers in the PRC committed to achieving sustainable growth, adhering to high corporate and managerial standards and maximizing shareholders’ returns. We plan to implement the following strategies to achieve our goal.

Continue to strengthen our leadership position in the Yangtze River Delta region

We intend to strengthen our leadership position in the Yangtze River Delta region and benefit from its economic growth. Leveraging our in-depth understanding of the local markets and our experience in property development, we plan to continue to apply our standardized development process to our product offerings to enhance our reputation and brand awareness. Our strong execution capabilities, combined with our scalable business model, provide a solid base from which to expand quickly in the local markets, and to acquire and develop new projects in an efficient manner. In addition to our primary regional focus in cities such as Changzhou, Shanghai, Nanjing, Wuxi and Suzhou, we intend to expand into other cities that have high growth potential in the Yangtze River Delta region, including Zhenjiang, Hangzhou and Nantong. We also intend to expand into major second-tier cities in the Circum-Bohai Bay Region, Midwestern China and Pearl River Delta Region, including Tianjin, Chongqing and Foshan. We will continue to adopt a prudent and disciplined approach when selecting target cities for expansion, taking into account timing and market conditions to ensure our financial performance and liquidity.

Focus on increasing quality land reserves at competitive prices

We plan to continue to increase our land reserves at competitive prices to sustain our continued growth. We plan to continue to maintain our product positioning and optimize our product offerings, taking into account factors such as project location, access to public transportation and surrounding infrastructure, to enhance the value of the land reserves. We intend to continue to acquire quality land reserves for our residential property development projects. At the same time, we also intend to strategically select high quality sites in the Yangtze River Delta region and other areas with high economic growth potential that are suitable for developing large, mixed-use complexes and integrated residential properties. We believe that our well recognized brand name and experience in developing property projects will continue to allow us to identify opportunities to acquire land reserves in prime locations for both our residential and mixed-use complex projects.

Increase customer satisfaction by improving property management services and enhancing our brand recognition

We believe our provision of property management services will help increase the property value, brand recognition and customer satisfaction of our projects. We intend to continue to expand the scope of services of our property management business and to improve our service quality. To offer an effective communication platform with our customers, we have established the Happiness Club (新城幸福會), through which our own project development team and management team can maintain close contact with our customers, understand their needs and spending preferences, as well as encourage them to make purchase recommendations and refer friends and family. In addition, we plan to further improve our property management business by increasing the number of our property management staff and updating our property management service policies and guidelines. We have engaged The Gallup Organization to conduct a customer satisfaction survey and collect customer feedback to guide our efforts to improve our property management services.

Diversify our project portfolio by further expanding our commercial property development operations

Building upon our strength in residential properties, we have developed mixed-use complex projects comprising offices, retail stores, serviced apartments and other ancillary facilities, which we offer primarily for sale or hold for long-term investment. We believe demand for commercial properties will continue to increase as economic activity grows in China. While steadily developing residential projects, we intend to further increase our presence in the commercial property market. We believe that the commercial properties that we hold will generate sustainable rental income, thereby enhancing the stability of our revenue streams and diversifying the risk we face in the residential property market.

Attract, retain and motivate talented personnel through systematic training programs and competitive remuneration packages

We are committed to building a professional and highly specialized team with strong execution capabilities that shares and approves of our values, vision and corporate culture. We believe our success and future growth strategies depend on our ability to attract and retain talented professionals with experience and growth potential.

We offer systemic and comprehensive training programs to our employees and sponsor many of our senior management personnel to take courses from business schools in China to improve their leadership skills. We plan to continue to offer competitive remuneration packages to attract and retain talented professionals. We will offer our employees a wide range of performance incentives, including bonuses and share-based incentives, to align our employees' interests with ours and to foster a higher level of recognition and approval of our corporate value and culture.

Our Business

Overview of Our Projects

As of December 31, 2024, we had 222 real estate projects which were under development and/or held for future development in 92 major cities in the PRC. These projects included approximately 19.7 million sq.m. under development and approximately 19.3 million sq.m. held for future development. We develop and sell a variety of residential properties, including high-rise apartments, mid-rise apartments, townhouses and luxury stand-alone houses. We develop mixed-use complexes for sale and retain a portion for leasing and long-term investment.

As of December 31, 2024, we had land reserves with a total estimated GFA of 31.4 million sq.m., of which 23.6 million sq.m. are attributed to our Group's interests.

We develop both residential and commercial properties. We classify a property development project as:

- a residential project if 70% or more of the project's total GFA is designated for residential use (excluding hotels) and less than 100,000 sq.m. of its total GFA is designated for commercial use (including financial, wholesale and retail use, offices, serviced apartments and hotels); and
- a mixed-use complex project if (i) more than 30% of the project's total GFA is designated for commercial use, (ii) 100,000 sq.m. or more of its total GFA is designated for commercial use, or (iii) the property does not fall within the parameters of our residential projects.

In addition, we categorize our residential properties and mixed-use complexes into different series to delineate the different positioning of each type of property.

We categorize our residential properties into four series to target different customer groups:

	FirstHomes (啟航)	SweetHomes (樂居)	DreamHomes (圓夢)	PrestigeHomes (尊享)
Unit GFA	60-90 sq.m.	80-120 sq.m.	90-180 sq.m.	180-430 sq.m.
Target customers	First time buyers/ Newlyweds	Young families/ Mid-income households	Mid-to-high income households	High net worth households
Location	Suburban/City periphery	Suburban	City centers	Prime locations

	International Plaza (國際廣場)	City Plaza (城市廣場)	Lifestyle Mall (生活廣場)
Theme/concept	Luxury shopping mall	Convenience shopping centers	Restaurants and leisure goods retail
Location	Central business districts	Emerging business districts	Emerging business districts
Property types addition to retail and residential)	Mid- to high-end hotel, mid- to high-end office and high-end serviced apartments	Mid- to high-end hotel and serviced apartments	Mid-tier office pace, hotel and serviced apartments
Total GFA	Approx. 300,000 sq.m.	Approx. 500,000 sq.m.	Approx. 50,000 sq.m.
Commercial GFA	Approx. 80,000 to 100,000 sq.m.	Approx. 100,000 to 120,000 sq.m.	Approx. 30,000 sq.m.

Classifications of Our Property Projects

We generally classify our property projects into three development stages: projects held for future development, projects under development, and completed projects or project phases.

A property is considered to be held for future development when (i) we have obtained the land use rights certificate, but have not obtained the requisite construction permits or (ii) we have signed a land grant contract for the underlying parcel of land with relevant government authorities. Once a project obtains the required project construction commencement permits, it is classified as being under development until a completion certificate is obtained for every phase of the project. As some of our projects comprise multiple-phase developments that are completed on a rolling basis, a project under development may include different phases at various stages of development. A project or project phase is completed when it is issued a completion certificate by the relevant government construction authorities.

A property is considered “sold” when the purchase contract with a customer is executed and the property is delivered to the customer. A property is treated as “pre-sold” when the purchase contract is executed but the property has not yet been delivered to the customer. Delivery is deemed to take place on the date stated on the property delivery document.

Our classification of properties reflects the basis on which we operate our business and may differ from classifications employed by other developers. Each property project or project phase may require multiple land use rights certificates, construction permits, pre-sale permits and other permits and certificates, which may be issued at different times throughout the development process.

Property Development Management

“Rapid asset turnover” Model and Standardized Development Process

We adopted a “rapid asset turnover” model in managing our property development projects, with the objective of shortening the period between site acquisition and pre-sale of our properties. As an integral part of our rapid asset turnover model, we have implemented a standardized development process, through which we develop our property using standardized procedures, components and units.

The use of standardized designs and modular components helps us efficiently develop a wide range of products (including high-rise apartments, mid-rise apartments, townhouses and luxury stand-alone houses) to meet the needs and preferences of our target customers. We have developed the following standardized designs and modular components for our properties:

Product Designs and Components

Our research and implementation of a standardized property development process has enhanced our execution capability as we are better able to closely monitor our property development processes and rapidly replicate our property projects.

Property Development Process

The following diagram outlines the key work flows of our property development process.

Market Research

The sales and marketing department at our headquarters is responsible for market research, identifying target cities and potential projects. We assess and evaluate the potential of target cities, and potential development sites and position the products to be developed accordingly.

The primary criteria in our project site evaluation include the following:

- location, size, dimensions;
- local population, purchasing power, target customer demand and expected growth of the area/district in which the land is located;
- transportation access and infrastructure support;
- estimated development costs and time, including demolition and resettlement costs and schedule;
- expected financial return;
- development prospects, taking into account social, economic and environmental factors;
- local competitive environment;
- applicable zoning regulations and preferential government policies;
- government development plans for the relevant site and the neighboring area; and

- product positioning.

If we decide to proceed with a particular development, we will prepare an in-depth feasibility study which includes project design, product positioning, financial projection, and return analysis. The feasibility study report will be submitted to our Investment Committee, consisting of senior management members, which will consider and assess the costs, return, capital requirements and resource requirements of the proposed project against the availability of our resources and its compatibility with our strategic direction.

We regularly monitor announcements made by respective local governments in relation to public tenders, auctions or listing-for-sale of land parcels, and maintain good relationships with real estate agents and brokers to obtain information on suitable projects in the secondary market.

Land acquisition

There are two common ways by which we may acquire land for property development in the PRC: (i) bidding in public tenders, auctions or listings-for-sale for land use rights in accordance with the Provisions on the Assignment of State-owned Construction Land Use Right through Bid Invitation, Auction and Quotation (招標拍賣掛牌出讓國有建設用地使用權規定) (國土資源部令第39號), promulgated on September 21, 2007 and effective since November 1, 2007; or (ii) acquire land use rights in the secondary market through the purchase of projects which have not been completed or acquire project companies directly from other developers.

In recent years, we have obtained a substantial majority of our land use rights through listing-for-sale in accordance with the Provisions on Bidding, Auction and Sale of Land Use Rights. The Provisions on Bidding, Auction and Sale of Land Use Rights require all land planned for commercial development (such as retail, residential, and commercial property) to be transferred in one of the following ways: public tenders, auctions or listings-for-sale on the land exchanges. In the case of public tender, the relevant authorities will assess either solely on tender prices or, alternatively, by reference to a matrix of parameters, including tender prices, credit record of the bidders and quality of the development proposals, in determining to whom to grant such rights. On the other hand, where land use rights are granted through auction or listing-for-sale, the highest bidder normally wins.

We have, in the past, voluntarily returned land use rights granted to us through listing-for-sale to ensure we have sufficient working capital. For example, we entered into a rescission agreement with the Jiangning office of the Nanjing Municipal Bureau of State Land and Resources (“Jiangning Land Bureau”) in 2008 to rescind a land grant contract. Pursuant to the rescission contract, we returned to the Jiangning Land Bureau the land use rights of certain land parcels (the “Jiangning Land Parcels”) located in Jiangning with an aggregate GFA of 133,827 sq.m.

The land use rights of the Jiangning Land Parcels were granted to us as a result of our successful bid at the public tender held by the Jiangning local government in December 2007. We paid a total of RMB129.8 million in 2007 as deposit for the Jiangning Land Parcels, of which RMB94.4 million has been returned to us.

Project planning and design

We have strong in-house design capabilities and maintain a dedicated in-house design team who is responsible for the overall planning and design of our projects.

Once the conceptual design of a property development project is established, we contract out the detailed project design work to reputable architectural, interior and landscape design firms, which we select through a tender process. Our departments work closely with these selected architectural and interior design firms to transform the conceptual design into a detailed development proposal (the “Project Design Proposal”) for approval by the relevant PRC government authorities.

Pre-construction

Before construction is commenced on a project, we must obtain the development rights to the relevant parcel(s) of land and the necessary permits and certificates, including a land use rights certificate, construction land planning permit, construction work planning permit and construction work commencement permit.

In recent years, we have not experienced significant delays in obtaining the foregoing certificates and permits.

Compliance with idle land related regulations

Under PRC laws, we may be subject to administrative actions or penalties if we fail to develop a property project according to the terms of the land grant contract. To ensure compliance with these idle land related regulations, we have adopted internal control procedures pursuant to which our project companies are required to closely monitor the progress of development projects, including obtaining the permits and certificates for each project.

Each of our project companies must report to our Board if we fail to complete any Project Design Proposal or obtain any of the necessary permits and certificates for a project at least three months before the expected commencement of construction specified in the project's land grant contract. Our Board would then consider deferring the construction commencement date of the project and approving a deferred construction schedule as appropriate. After obtaining approval from the Board, the project company would then apply to the relevant local governmental authority to delay construction and execute a supplemental land grant contract to amend the land commencement and completion dates as necessary.

If the failure to obtain any necessary permits or certificates of a project is attributed to the local government's failure to complete the demolition of existing buildings, resettlement of existing residents or construction of basic infrastructure as required under the land grant contracts, such incidents are expected to also be reported to the Board for assessment. After obtaining approval from the Board, our strategic investments department and our legal and compliance department are expected to jointly negotiate with the relevant governmental authorities for remedial actions, including but not limited to amending or rescinding the land grant contracts (as appropriate) or entering into new land grant contracts for the acquisition of other equivalent land parcels.

We have not been requested by the PRC authorities to pay idle land fees, nor has any land held by us been reclaimed by the government without compensation.

Project financing

We financed our projects primarily through cash flows from operating activities, including proceeds from pre-sales and sales of our properties and borrowings from banks.

We use the pre-sale and sale proceeds of our properties to fund the remaining construction of the same project and to settle bank loans. According to PRC law, we may pre-sell properties under construction after certain criteria are met and proceeds from pre-sales must be used for the construction of properties in the same project. Our policy is to finance our property developments with internal resources to the extent practicable so as to reduce the level of external funding required.

To the extent necessary and subject to the guidelines issued by CBRC, we finance our projects partially through borrowings from banks. The terms of our bank borrowings generally restrict the application of the borrowing proceeds to specific projects or project phases. Our bank loans are primarily provided by major commercial banks in the PRC.

Our ability to finance our projects also depends on the economic conditions and regulatory measures introduced by the central and local governments. In particular, any decisions to raise the reserve ratio by the PBOC will limit the amount available to commercial banks for lending and our ability to obtain financing from commercial banks.

We have not defaulted on any material provisions (including any cross-default provisions) of any of our bank loans.

Construction and our contractors

Tendering process

We outsource the construction work for our property developments including, among other things, foundation digging, general construction, equipment installation, interior decoration and engineering work to qualified independent contractors, which are selected through a tender process in accordance with relevant laws and regulations. The tender process is managed by our tender committee, which comprise our construction and quality management department, our supply and procurement department and our finance and audit department. As part of the tender process, our tender committee conducts the following due diligence:

- retrieves information from our contract management system and raise queries internally based on our prior experience with a particular bidder;
- conducts interviews with bidders and request confirmations and undertakings with respect to their cash flows, experience and credentials; and
- conducts independent research and investigation to verify the credentials and track record of the bidders.

Our tender committee screens bidders that do not meet our requirements. A winning bidder will be selected based on a pre-determined formula that takes into account both the quality of workmanship and price quoted by the bidder. The selected bidder will be required to enter into a construction contract with us. Based on our records, our PRC legal advisers are of the opinion that we are not in violation with any applicable PRC tender laws and regulations.

Major contractors and design firms

We have access to a wide range of construction contractors and engineering/architectural design firms, and have longstanding relationship with more than 70 construction contractors and 20 design firms. Three of such construction contractors were among our top five materials suppliers and contractors in recent years. All of our major contractors or design firms are sizable and properly qualified in respect of the construction and design work contracted to them. Some of such contractors have worked with us for more than 10 years.

Key terms of agreements

Our contractors must perform their work in accordance with the quality standards and construction schedule set forth in their construction contracts. Under our standard construction contract, contractors are required to pay fines for delays and bear the costs of rectifying any construction defects. We pay contractors in stages in accordance with the terms and conditions as stipulated in the contractor's construction contract. The stage payments vary from case to case. Upon completion of the project, the contractors will have received approximately 75% to 80% of the total payment. At closing and settlement, we will settle 90% to 95% of the total payment, and retain the remaining 5% to 10% as retention money for a period of 6 to 12 months.

Procurement

Our supply and procurement department coordinates the procurement of building materials and is in charge of price negotiations. Our supply and procurement department purchases major construction materials used in our projects, including standardized components of our properties in bulk. All our construction materials are held and used in connection with the construction of our projects. For major construction materials, we select suppliers through a tender process. In addition, we maintain strict quality control procedures for selecting, inspecting and testing materials. Our project management teams inspect all equipment and materials to ensure compliance with the contractual specifications before accepting the materials on site and approving payment. We reject and return to the suppliers any substandard materials or materials that do not comply with our specifications.

Project management

We have a “rapid asset turnover” model for developing property projects. We aim at commencing pre-sale of our properties within a relatively short period following site acquisition in order to reduce our development cycle, maximize investment returns, improve cash flows and mitigate the liquidity risks. To implement this strategy, the project management team of each of our project companies, comprising both project managers and in-house qualified engineers, conducts daily on-site supervision of our projects to monitor the progress of construction and quality of construction workmanship.

Quality control and construction supervision

We emphasize quality control to ensure that our properties comply with relevant regulations and are of high quality. Our quality control policies can be categorized into the following aspects:

- selection of design firms and contractors;
- selection, inspection and testing of building materials and equipment;
- establishment of quality control standards; and
- on-site inspection of construction processes by our local project management team and our construction and quality management team.

We have implemented standardized technical guidelines to ensure the construction of all our projects complies with relevant laws, regulations, and standards promulgated by the relevant PRC governmental authorities and other industry associations. These guidelines form part of the construction contracts we enter into with the construction companies and form a comprehensive reference for our project management and construction and quality management teams in monitoring the construction of our projects.

We closely monitor the entire construction process. In addition to monitoring by our local project management team, our construction and quality management team, comprising qualified engineers and qualified construction technicians, conducts regular inspections of all our construction sites. We also engage independent quality supervisory companies to conduct on-site quality and safety control checks on all workmanship before accepting the completion of major construction phases.

Our sales and property management department, together with the engineers from our construction and quality management team, inspect every unit of our completed property developments to ensure they are in satisfactory condition prior to delivery of such properties to our customers.

Our strict quality control measures are designed to ensure our contractors comply with the relevant rules and regulations including environmental, labor, social and safety regulations. In recent years, we have not been involved in any dispute with our contractors that has had a material and adverse effect on our business nor have there been any serious personal injuries or death involving our contractors.

Contract management system

We established a contract management system to record, among other things, the payment schedule of each construction or procurement contract we entered into and feedback given by our construction and quality management team or any of our project companies in respect of each of the construction contractors and suppliers we engaged. The contract management system helps us manage our payments and cash flows and evaluate suppliers and service providers for future projects.

Sales and marketing

Marketing

We have a dedicated in-house sales and marketing department responsible for the advertising and sales of our products. We also retain external agents including advertising companies and real estate sales agencies to help implement our sales and marketing plans and strategies. Our sales and marketing department is involved throughout the property development process and in the positioning and pricing of our property developments.

Prior to land acquisition and construction of our projects : our sales and marketing department works closely with our strategic development department to collect relevant market data and conduct the feasibility study of each proposed land acquisition. It also participates in developing the optimal positioning and the conceptual design of all of our projects post land acquisition. This helps ensure that the designs of our projects are in line with the preferences of our target customer bases.

During the construction process: our sales and marketing department regularly conducts on-site inspections to ensure the landscaping, floor plans and interior decoration accurately reflect the sales and marketing materials we presented to customers and potential customers.

Prior to launching property pre-sale: our sales and marketing department formulates strategies and plans for marketing our properties, prepares promotional materials, conducts promotional campaigns, recommends unit prices and pricing related policies for our projects and coordinates and monitors our relationship with the media. In addition to our sales and marketing department's recommendation, the selling prices of all of our projects are determined, approved and controlled in accordance with established internal control procedures. For further information, please refer to the paragraph headed "– Marketing expenses and pricing control" in this section.

Throughout and subsequent to the pre-sale period: our sales and marketing department provides comprehensive assistance to our customers and collects feedback from customers and potential customers to modify our marketing plans as appropriate.

Promotional initiatives: our sales and marketing department, together with local project companies and sales team, conducts detailed analysis of market conditions to keep abreast of market developments and changes in macro and social economic conditions. We monitor the marketing and pricing campaigns launched by our competitors, the changes in transaction volumes and contracted ASP, and introduce appropriate sales promotional initiatives to maintain the competitiveness of our projects.

We have in limited circumstances pre-sold less desirable units in a particular project phase below its development costs. Impairment testing is conducted at each financial reporting date to determine whether the carrying value of each project or project phase is below the recoverable amount.

Marketing expenses and pricing control

We have formulated comprehensive and centralized marketing expenses and pricing control policies to strategically determine, flexibly adjust and strictly control marketing expenses and selling prices for all of our projects.

Prior to the commencement of development, our strategic investments department determines and approves the marketing budget for each of our projects and the target ASP for each property type under a project. Such budgets and target ASP are determined based on the recommendation by our sales and marketing department and our finance department, which takes into account a wide range of factors, including but not limited to prevailing market conditions and estimated development costs.

In light of the volatility in the PRC property market, our project companies closely study the changing market conditions and the promotional campaigns launched by our competitors during the property development and pre-sale stages of our projects. Where necessary, a project company may request additional promotional initiatives to be launched or the selling prices of selected units of a project or project phase be reduced or discounted for promotional purposes. Similarly, a project company may also request to revise selling prices upwards in response to thriving market conditions or positive market reception of a particular project. Any unbudgeted marketing expenses and any deviation of the target ASP of our properties must be approved by a committee that comprises senior management members from the relevant regional management team, the sales and marketing department, the finance department and the strategic investment department. Approval for higher budgets or price deviations will only be granted if the committee is satisfied that the relevant initiative is suitable and necessary in view of prevailing market conditions and does not materially affect the overall profitability of the project or the project phase or the financial condition of the our operations as a whole.

Pre-sales

We generally commence pre-sales of our properties prior to completion of construction. We normally launch pre-sales after a fully-furnished replica of each major floor plan in a development project is completed and a majority of the landscaping and ancillary facilities are completed. We generally use pre-sale proceeds to finance the remaining construction of the project.

Various PRC laws and regulations governing pre-sale of properties impose conditions to be fulfilled before the pre-sale of a particular property can commence. These conditions include obtaining the relevant land use rights certificate, construction land planning permit, construction work planning permit, construction work commencement permit and commodity housing pre-sale permit. In the past, we have not experienced any significant delays in obtaining the foregoing certificates and permits. Property developers are also required to use standard pre-sale contracts prescribed by the local authorities.

Completion, delivery, leasing and after-sales services

Customers payment arrangements

Our customers may purchase our properties with cash or by mortgage financing. Customer who choose cash payments must fully settle the purchase price shortly after the execution of sales contract. Customers who choose to use mortgage financing must pay a down payment upon signing the sales contract. The remainder of the purchase price will normally be paid by the mortgagee bank within two to three months, depending on approval process of the relevant mortgagee bank.

In line with market practice, we have arrangements with various banks to provide mortgage financing to our customers. We do not conduct independent credit checks on the purchasers but rely on the credit checks conducted by the relevant banks. As with other property developers in the PRC, we are usually required by the banks to guarantee the obligations to repay the mortgage loans on the property. The guarantee periods normally last until the release or satisfaction of the mortgage loan after the relevant property ownership certificate (房屋所有權證) is delivered. If a purchaser defaults under a mortgage loan, we are obligated to repay all debt owed by the purchaser to the mortgagee bank under the loan. The mortgagee bank will assign their rights under the loan and the mortgage to us and, after registration of change of mortgagee, we will have full recourse to the property. We have suffered immaterial losses as a result of defaults by purchasers in the past. When purchasers default on mortgage payments, our general policy is to keep the down payment unless we manage to resell the property at a price sufficient to cover the original sales price and our enforcement costs.

Delivery of properties for sale

We aim to deliver properties to our customers within the time frame prescribed in the sale and purchase contracts (including the pre-sale contracts). Under PRC law, we are required to obtain a “Record of Acceptance Examination Upon Project Completion” (竣工驗收備案證明) before delivering properties to our customers. We have not experienced any significant delays in the completion of our projects or delivery of relevant title documents after sale.

We also aim to deliver quality properties and satisfactory purchasing experiences to our customers. Prior to delivery of properties to our customers, our construction and quality management department conducts on-site inspections to ensure such properties are in satisfactory condition. Our sales team then arranges for our customers to inspect their purchased property prior to the expected delivery date to ensure the properties meet our prescribed standards as well as our customers’ expectations. Our customer service officers also assist customers in applying for property ownership certificate (房屋所有權證).

After-sales services

Our sales and marketing department is responsible for our after-sales customer services and the formulation of customer service processes and standards. Our dedicated customer service officers provide comprehensive after-sales services, which include assisting customers in obtaining property title certificates and handling customer complaints. In addition, our customer service officers are responsible for collecting and analyzing customer data to identify the latest trends in customer preferences and conducting customer satisfaction surveys to help improve our projects' market positioning, design, marketing strategies and quality of service.

Investment Properties and Commercial Leasing

We retain a portion of the properties we developed for rental use investment. We decide whether our commercial properties will be sold or retained, for investment purposes in the early stage of each project based on various factors such as location, land use plans, regional market conditions and supporting commercial facilities. As of the date of this offering memorandum, we have 148 completed investment properties.

Development of Hotels

As of the date of this offering memorandum, the Hilton Changzhou which was developed by us as a part of our Future Land Emporium (新城帝景) has been in operation.

Commercial Property Leasing and Management

We established a commercial property and leasing department to develop and expand our commercial property development, leasing and management business. With the aim to enhance our brand image as a commercial property developer and operator, our commercial property and leasing department formulates strategic plans, undertakes project management and supervision, carries out in-depth feasibility studies, devises business and marketing plans, and provides operation management services to our commercial property development and operations. To increase recurring income through a diversified portfolio of commercial properties and car parks, we intend to select tenants based on factors such as the positioning of the project, market demand in surrounding areas, level of market rent and needs of the tenants. We intend to attract large-scale anchor tenants such as well-known brands, chain cinema operators, major game centers and top catering operators and enter into long-term lease with them. We believe that our investment strategy will generate steady recurring income and significantly enhance the sales and appreciation of our investment properties.

Corporate Governance and Legal Compliance

Corporate governance and legal compliance management is carried out across our integrated organizational structure through the work of (1) our legal and compliance department that sets out and monitors our corporate governance and compliance standards and (2) all operation departments that implement such standards.

We have a team of in-house lawyers to carry out legal and compliance review of all aspects of our operations. Our legal and compliance department was formally established in September 2011 with the approval of the Jiangsu Judicial Department. Its formal establishment institutionalizes our legal and compliance management, promotes legal training and compliance awareness among our employees, enhances communication with the relevant government authorities and raises our corporate governance standards.

Properties for Own Use

On July 13, 2015, we entered into a commodity housing pre-sale contract with Shanghai Xinhaolong Property Development Co., Ltd., an independent third party, to acquire an office building located at Guoco Changfeng City No. 5, Lane 388, Zhongjiang Road, Shanghai at a consideration of RMB832,508,300. The GFA of the building is 33,300.33 sq.m. In addition, we occupy a number of premises through lease or licensing arrangements.

Suppliers and Customers

Our major suppliers are construction material suppliers and construction contractors, and the five largest suppliers accounted for approximately 9.2%, 7.8% and 10.1% of our total purchases for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, respectively. Our single largest supplier for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 accounted for approximately 2.4%, 2.7% and 2.8% of our purchases, respectively. Our five largest customers accounted for approximately 0.4%, 0.4% and 0.7% of our total revenue for the years ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, respectively.

Competition

The property market in China is highly fragmented. Our existing and potential competitors include major domestic developers and, to a lesser extent, foreign developers primarily from Asia, including leading developers from Hong Kong. We compete with them in relation to a number of factors, including the acquisition of land, brand recognition, financial resources, price, product quality, service quality and other factors. Some of these competitors may have better track records, greater financial, human and other resources, larger sales networks and greater brand recognition.

In particular, the residential property and mixed-use complex markets in the Yangtze River Delta have been highly competitive in recent years. Property developers from the PRC and overseas have entered the property development markets in Changzhou, Nanjing, Suzhou, Kunshan, Wuxi, Shanghai and other cities in the Yangtze River Delta. The rapid development of major cities in Jiangsu Province and Shanghai in recent years has led to a diminishing supply of undeveloped land in desirable locations in the Yangtze River Delta. Moreover, the PRC government has implemented policies tightly controlling the amount of new land available for development. These factors have increased competition and land grant premiums in relation to land made available for development.

We believe that with our rapid asset turnover model, diversified product portfolio and strategic focus on middle class customers, we have demonstrated resiliency to market changes and competition.

Intellectual Property

We conduct our business under various trademarks which we have registered in the PRC and Hong Kong. We are also the registered owner of the domain names such as “seazengroup.com.cn”, “xincheng.com.cn”, “injoyplaza.com.cn”, “xcdc.com.cn” and “www.900950.com”.

We are not aware of any infringement (i) by us of any intellectual property rights owned by third parties; or (ii) by any third parties of any intellectual property rights owned by us.

Insurance

We maintain insurance policies for our properties and assets and carry employer’s liability insurance as required by the relevant local authorities, such as those for medical and related expenses that our employees may incur as a result of personal injuries at their workplaces or on the construction sites of our property developments. We also maintain insurance policies including property all-risk insurance and public liability insurance, with respect to our investment properties, including insurance coverage for damages arising from or in connection with the occurrence of an earthquake.

According to applicable PRC laws and regulations, property developers are not required to maintain insurance coverage in respect of their property development operations. As such, we generally do not maintain and do not require our construction contractors to maintain insurance coverage on our properties developed for sale other than for properties for which we are required to maintain insurance coverage under loan agreements. We do not maintain insurance policies for properties that have been delivered to our customers. Instead, the respective property management companies of each of our projects maintain all property risk insurance and public liability insurance for the common areas and amenities of these properties.

Under PRC laws, construction companies as employers are required to purchase insurance for their construction workers. As we engage third-party contractors to carry out construction for our projects, we currently do not maintain such insurance ourselves.

We believe that our insurance coverage is adequate and is in line with customary industry practices of property developers. However, there are risks for which we do not have sufficient or any insurance coverage for losses, damages and liabilities that may arise in our business operations.

Environmental Matters

Property developers in China are subject to a number of environmental laws and regulations. We expect our environmental compliance costs will remain similar to our historical costs. We have not been imposed any fines or penalties for noncompliance of PRC environmental laws and regulations. As of the date of this offering memorandum, we have not encountered any material issues in passing inspections conducted by the relevant environmental authorities upon completion of our properties.

Labor and Safety

Property developers in China are subject to various PRC laws and regulations with respect to labor, health, safety, insurance, and accidents issued by the relevant governmental authorities from time to time, for our operations in the PRC. We have not been charged any fines or penalties for noncompliance of PRC labor and safety laws and regulations.

Legal Proceedings

As a property developer in the PRC, we are subject to legal or arbitration proceedings, disputes or claims in the ordinary course of business from time to time. Except as disclosed below, we are not, as of the date of this offering memorandum, involved in any litigation, arbitration or claim of material importance pending or threatened by us or against us that would have a material adverse effect on our results of operations or financial condition.

Lawsuit involving Suzhou Seazen Chuangjia Property Limited

As of the date of this offering memorandum, Suzhou Seazen Chuangjia Property Limited* (蘇州新城創佳置業有限公司) (“Suzhou Seazen”), a subsidiary of Seazen Holdings, is involved in a lawsuit in Suzhou, China. Suzhou Seazen is a co-defendant in the lawsuit, which involves a contractual dispute with respect to certain equity transfer arrangements among the plaintiff and the co-defendants. Upon hearing the case, Suzhou Seazen was ordered by Suzhou Intermediate People’s Court to compensate the plaintiff in an amount of approximately RMB130.9 million, part of which shall be shared with other co-defendants. Seazen Holdings has filed an appeal with Jiangsu High People’s Court regarding this case. As a result, the outcome of this lawsuit remains uncertain as of the date of this offering memorandum and it may have a negative material impact on our reputation, financial position and business operations.

REGULATION

Overview

All land in the PRC is either state-owned or collectively-owned, depending on the location of the land. All land in urban areas of a city or town is state-owned, and all land in the rural areas and suburban areas and all farm land are, unless otherwise specified by law, collectively-owned. The State has the right to resume its ownership of land or the land use rights in accordance with law if required for the public interest (and compensation must be paid by the state).

Although all land in the PRC is owned by the State or by collectives, individuals and entities may obtain land use rights and hold such land use rights for development purposes. Individuals and entities may acquire land use rights in different ways, the two most important being land grants from local land authorities and land transfers from land users who have already obtained land use rights.

Land Grants

National and local legislation

In April 1988, the National People's Congress (the "NPC") passed an amendment to the Constitution of the PRC. The amendment, which allowed the transfer of land use rights for value, paved the way for reforms of the legal regime governing the use of land and transfer of land use rights. In December 1988, the Standing Committee of the NPC also amended the Land Administration Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國土地管理法》)(主席令第12號)) (implemented on June 25, 1986, and revised on December 29, 1988, August 28 2004 and August 26, 2019 by the Standing Committee of the NPC) (the "Land Administration Law") to permit the transfer of land use rights for value.

In May 1990, the State Council (國務院) enacted the Provisional Regulations of the PRC Concerning the Grant and Assignment of the Right to Use State-owned Land in Urban Areas (《中華人民共和國城鎮國有土地使用權出讓和轉讓暫行條例》)(國務院令第55號) (revised on November 11, 2020). These regulations, generally referred to as the Urban Land Regulations, formalized the process of the grant and transfer of land use rights for consideration. Under this system, the State retains the ultimate ownership of the land. However, the right to use the land, referred to as land use rights, can be granted by the state and local governments at or above the county level for a maximum period of 70 years for specific purposes pursuant to a land grant contract and upon payment to the State of a premium for the grant of land use rights.

The Urban Land Regulations prescribe different maximum periods of grant for the different uses of land as follows:

Use of land	Maximum period (Years)
Commercial, tourism, entertainment	40
Residential	70
Industrial	50
Educational, scientific, cultural, public health and sports	50
Comprehensive utilization or others	50

Under the Urban Land Regulations, domestic and foreign enterprises are permitted to acquire land use rights unless the law provides otherwise. The state may not resume possession of lawfully-granted land use rights prior to expiration of the term of grant. Should the public interest require the resumption of possession by the State under special circumstances during the term of grant, compensation shall be paid by the State, on the basis of the period of which the land user has used the land and the status with respect to the development and utilization of the land. Subject to compliance with the terms of the land grant contract, a holder of land use rights may exercise substantially the same rights as a land owner during the grant term, including holding, leasing, transferring, mortgaging and developing the land for sale or lease.

Upon paying in full the land premium pursuant to the terms of the contract, a land-grantee may apply to the relevant land bureau for the land use rights certificate. In accordance with the Property Rights Law (《中華人民共和國物權法》) (主席令第62號), which was effective as of October 1, 2007 (superseded by the Civil Code of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國民法典》) (主席令第45號)) (issued on May 28, 2020 and became effective on January 1, 2021)), the term of land use rights for land of residential use will automatically be renewed upon expiry. The renewal of the term of land use rights for other use shall be dealt with according to the then-current relevant laws. In addition, if public interest requires the resumption of possession of land by the State during the term of the relevant land use rights, owners of residential properties and other real estate on the land shall be compensated and the relevant land premium shall be refunded to them.

On March 26, 2005, the General Office of the State Council promulgated the Notice on Effectively Stabilizing House Prices (《關於切實穩定住房價格的通知》) (國辦發明電[2005]8號) to restrain the excessive increase of housing prices and to promote the sound development of the real estate market. The notice provided that housing prices should be stabilized, and the system governing housing supply should be vigorously adjusted and improved. In accordance with the notice, seven departments of the State Council including the Ministry of Construction (建設部) issued the Opinion on the Work of Stabilizing Housing Prices (《關於做好穩定住房價格工作意見的通知》) (國辦發[2005]26號) on May 9, 2005. The Opinion stated, among other things, that: (i) the local government should focus on ensuring the supply of low-to medium-end ordinary residential houses while controlling the construction of high-end residential houses; (ii) the real estate registration department will no longer register the transfer of apartment units which are pre-sold where such units have not obtained the relevant property ownership certificates; and (iii) the government should rigorously enforce the administration on land transfer, prohibit any transfer of land for those real estate development projects that fail to satisfy the requirements as prescribed by law and stop any act of “Quick Buying and Quick Selling”, and reinforce the straightening-out of unused lands, effectively prevent the act of hoarding any land for speculation, strictly implement the provisions of laws and collect the expense of unused lands from any project that hasn't been started for 1 full year as of the date when the construction thereof is stipulated to be initiated in the land transfer contract; where the breach has lasted for 2 full years, the right of land use shall be revoked for free.

Pursuant to these measures, local governments were required to adopt plans, by September 2006, to focus on developing low-to-mid-priced and small-to-medium-size properties to meet demand from owner-occupiers. These measures stipulate that commencing from June 1, 2006, the minimum down payment was 30% of the total purchase price for residential units with floor area exceeding 90 square meters on all existing units and those yet to be completed, or a down payment of 20% on residential units for occupation by the owner with floor areas under 90 square meters. The measures require that at least 70% of the residential units in residential housing projects approved or commenced after June 1, 2006 must be no larger than 90 square meters. The measures continue to prohibit land provision for houses and restrict land provision for development of low density and large residential property.

On May 24, 2006, the General Office of the State Council further issued the Notice on Adjusting the Housing Structure and Stabilizing Housing Prices (《關於調整住房供應結構穩定住房價格意見的通知》) (國辦發[2006]37號). The Notice provided for the following broad directives to, among other things: (i) encourage mass-market residential developments and curb the development of high-end residential properties; (ii) restrict housing mortgage loans to not more than 70% of the total property price (for houses purchased for self-residential purposes and with an area of less than 90 sq.m., the owners are still able to apply for a housing mortgage up to an amount representing 80% of the total property price); (iii) halt land supply for villa projects and restrict land supply for high-end, low-density residential projects; (iv) moderate the progress and scale of demolition of old properties for re-development; (v) require local governments to ensure that at least 70% of the total development and construction area must consist of units of less than 90 sq.m. in size (with any exceptions requiring the approval of the Ministry of Construction); and (vi) prevent banks from providing loans to a property developer whose total capital fund is less than 35% of the total investment amount in an intended development project.

On July 6, 2006, the Ministry of Construction promulgated Certain Opinions regarding the Implementation of the Ratio Requirements for the Structure of Newly Constructed Residential Units (《關於落實新建住房結構比例要求的若干意見》) (建住房[2006]165號), or the New Opinions. The New Opinions stipulate that, the residential units with a floor area of less than 90 square meters shall account for over 70% of the total area of residential units, which are newly approved and constructed in each city or county after June 1, 2006. The relevant local government will have authority to determine the configuration of newly constructed property.

On July 13, 2006, the General Office of the State Council issued the Notice about Relevant Matters on Establishing the State Land Supervision System (《國務院辦公廳關於建立國家土地督察制度有關問題的通知》(國辦發[2006]50號)). In accordance with this notice, the Ministry of Land and Resources established the State Land Supervision General Office (國家土地總督察辦公室) and send its local counterparts State Land Supervision Bureau (國家土地督察局) in order to strengthen supervision and management on land and practice the strictest possible land management system.

On August 31, 2006, the State Council issued a Notice about Relevant Matters on Strengthening Control on Land (《關於加強土地調控有關問題的通知》(國發[2006]31號)) in order to hold back the problems of excessive increases in the aggregate amount of construction land, the excessive expansion of low-cost industrial land, the illegal use of land and abusive occupation of cultivated land. The notice implements the following major measures: (i) adjusting land approval measures for urban construction in accordance with the principle of sharing both rights and responsibilities; (ii) only after guaranteeing the social security fee for the land expropriated from farmers can the approval of land expropriation be granted; (iii) the total amount of money from the sale of state-owned land use rights shall be fully accounted for in the local budget and collected into the local government treasury, and the “line of income and expenditure” shall be administrated separately; (iv) raising the standard for the land use rights fee of newly added construction land as well as the urban land use tax and rural cultivated land use tax; (v) the State formulating and promulgating the unified minimum standard for granting industrial land across the country, and industrial land being granted by tender, auction or putting up for bidding; and (vi) prohibiting conversion of agricultural land into construction land “in the name of leasing while actually expropriating” or other illegal ways.

On November 7, 2006, Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Land and Resources and the PBOC issued a Notice about Relevant Matters on Policy Adjusting Concerning the Land Use Fee for Newly Created Construction Land (《關於調整新增建設用地土地有償使用費政策等問題的通知》(財綜[2006]48號)). The notice requires the land use fee on newly created construction land be doubled from January 1, 2007. On April 22, 2009, Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Land and Resources issued a Notice about Adjusting the Rating and Category of Collecting the Land Use Fee for Newly Created Construction Land in Certain Areas (《關於調整部分地區新增建設用地土地有償使用費徵收等別的通知》(財綜[2009]24號)), which abolishes the rating and category of collecting the land use fee for newly created construction land in certain areas in the Notice issued on November 7, 2006 and stipulates a new standard.

Pursuant to the Opinions on Resolving Difficulties of Housing for Urban Low-income Family (《關於解決城市低收入家庭住房困難的若干意見》(國發[2007]24號)) promulgated by the State Council on August 7, 2007, the authorities of each region will adjust the housing supply structure in order to: (i) implement the Circular on Forwarding Opinions of Ministry of Construction and Other Departments on Adjusting Housing Supply Structure and Stabilizing Housing Prices issued by the General Office of the State Council (《國務院辦公廳轉發建設部等部門關於調整住房供應結構穩定住房價格意見的通知》(國辦發[2006]37號)); (ii) focus on the development of low to medium priced, and small to medium sized commodity housing and (iii) to increase the supply of housing. The approval percentage of new housing construction (with a GFA of less than 90 sq.m.) will be more than 70% of the total housing developed area. The annual supply of low rental housing construction land, economy-sized housing and low to medium price and small to medium sized commodity housings shall not be less than 70% of the total residential housing land.

The administration department of the Ministry of Land and Resources (the “Administration Department”) at both municipality and county levels will implement the Notice on the Implementation of Specific Clearing of the Grant of the State-owned Land Use Rights (《關於開展國有土地使用權出讓情況專項清理工作的通知》(監發[2007]6號)) jointly published by the Ministry of Supervision, Ministry of Land and Resources, Ministry of Finance, National Audit Office of the PRC and the Ministry of Construction on August 8, 2007. Further, it will investigate, on a case by case basis, the development of residential land with an emphasis on the observation of land-use contract by real estate development enterprises. Pursuant to the Urban Real Estate Administration Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國 城市房地產管理法》(主席令第18號)) (implemented on January 1, 1995, and revised on August 30, 2007, August 27, 2009 and August 26, 2019 by the Standing Committee of the NPC) (the “Urban Real Estate Law”), for any developer that neither commences nor completes the construction work in accordance to the land-use contract, the Administration Department will provide comments to ensure that such enterprises complete the development on schedule. Enterprises that do not carry out any measure to resolve the situation will be prohibited from participating in any tenders, auction and putting up for bidding for acquiring new land sites. The Administration Department will strictly enforce the regulations governing idle land and for land where the construction still has not commenced after exceeding one full year from the date of commencement stipulated in the contract, the idle land fee shall be imposed and the respective enterprises will be instructed to commence the construction works and fulfill the completion schedule. The idle land fee, in principle, shall be computed and imposed based on 20% of land premium price of the granted or allocated land. Any land that has not been developed for over two years shall be reclaimed with no compensation. For land where construction works have been commenced on the date stipulated in the contract but the developed area is less than the one-third of the area to be developed or the invested capital is less than one-fourth of the total investment as stipulated in the contract and the development is suspended over a year without any approval, it shall be treated as idle land strictly following the laws.

On December 30, 2007, the General Office of the State Council issued the Notice on the Strict Implementation of the Laws and Policies Regarding Rural Collective Construction Land (《關於嚴格執行有關農村集體建設用地法律和政策的通知》(國辦發[2007]71號)). This notice states that residential land in rural areas shall only be allocated to residents of the relevant village residing in the area and that no urban inhabitants shall be allowed to purchase any homesteads, peasants' dwellings or "houses with limited property rights" in rural areas. No organization or individual shall be allowed to illegally rent or occupy any land collectively owned by peasants for the development of real estate.

According to the Land Investigation Regulations (《土地調查條例》(國務院令第518號)) (implemented on February 7, 2008, and revised on February 6, 2016 and March 19, 2018 by the State Council), a nationwide land investigation shall be carried out once every 10 years and a land status alteration investigation shall be filed for record with the competent department of land and resources of the people's government at the next higher level. The regulation also specifies the qualification requirements that a government department must meet in order to undertake the investigation tasks. The regulation specifies that the purpose of land investigations is to ascertain the land resources that are available and their utilization status.

On January 7, 2010, the General Office of the State Council issued the Notice on Promoting the Steady and Healthy Development of the Real Estate Market (《關於促進房地產市場平穩健康發展的通知》(國辦發[2010]4號)), which, among other things, provides that land resource authorities shall deepen the supervision on the compliance of the contracts and strictly collect the land premiums according to the land grant contracts, and shall:

- effectively increase the supply of social welfare housing and ordinary commodity residential properties, in particular, low and medium-cost and small and medium-sized ordinary commodity residential properties;
- direct consumers to make reasonable purchases of residential properties and discourage investment and speculation in the housing market;
- strengthen credit risk management for real estate projects and market supervision;
- speed up the construction of social welfare housing projects; and
- set or clarify the responsibilities of provincial and local governments.

On March 8, 2010, the Ministry of Land and Resources issued the Notice on Strengthening the Supply and Supervision of Land Use for Real Estate Property (《國土資源部關於加強房地產用地供應和監管有關問題的通知》(國土資發[2010]34號)). The Notice, among other things, provides that:

- the land and resources bureau at the city and county levels shall ensure that the land supply for government-subsidized housing, slum-dwellers reconstruction and small commercial housing units for self-housing shall not be less than 70% of the total residential land supply and strictly control the land supply for large-sized apartments and restrict the land supply for villas;
- land resource authorities shall prohibit property developers who owe land grant premium payments, possess idle land, engage in land speculation and price manipulation, conduct project development exceeding approved scope or fail to conform with the land use rights grant contract from land bidding transactions within a set period of time; and
- the land use rights grant contract must be executed within ten days after a grant of land has been mutually agreed and a down payment of 50% of the land grant premium shall be paid within one month from the execution of the land use rights grant contract with the remaining amount paid no later than one year after the execution of the land use rights grant contract.

On September 21, 2010, the Ministry of Land and Resources and MOHURD jointly promulgated the Notice on Further Strengthening Control and Regulation of Land and Construction of Property Development (《關於進一步加強房地產用地和建設管理調控的通知》(國土資發[2010]151號)), which stipulates, among other things, that: (i) at least 70% of land designated for construction of urban housing must be used for affordable housing, housing for resettlement of shanty towns and small to medium-sized ordinary commercial housing; in areas with high housing prices, the supply of land designated for small to medium-sized, price-capped housing must be increased; (ii) developers and their controlling shareholders are prohibited from participating in land biddings before the rectification of certain misconduct, including (1) illegal transfer of land use rights; (2) failure to commence required construction within one year from the delivery of land under land grant contracts due to such developers' own reasons; (3) noncompliance with the land development requirements specified in land grant contracts; and (4) crimes such as obtaining land by forging official documents and illegal land speculation; (iii) developers are required to commence construction within one year from the date of delivery of land under the relevant land grant contract and complete construction within three years of commencement; (iv) development and construction of projects of low-density and large-sized housing must be strictly limited and the plot ratio of the planned GFA to the total site area of residential projects must be more than 1:1; and (v) the grant of two or more bundled parcels of lands and undeveloped land is prohibited.

On December 19, 2010, the Ministry of Land and Resources promulgated the Notice on Strict Implementation of Policies Regarding Regulation and Control of Real Property Land and Promotion of the Healthy Development of Land Markets (《關於嚴格落實房地產用地調控政策促進土地市場健康發展有關問題的通知》(國土資發[2010]204號)), which, among other things, provides that (i) cities and counties that have less than 70% of their land supply designated for affordable housing, redevelopment housing for shanty towns or small/medium-sized residential units shall not provide land for large-sized and high-end housing before the end of 2010; (ii) local land and resources authorities shall file a transaction report with the Ministry of Land and Resources and provincial land and resources authorities, respectively, in relation to land sold via competitive bidding, auction and listing-for-sale with a 50% or more premium; and (iii) for land designated for affordable housing but used for the development of commodity houses, any illegal income derived therefrom will be confiscated and the relevant land use rights terminated. In addition, unapproved changes to the plot ratio are strictly prohibited.

On January 26, 2011, the General Office of the State Council issued the Notice on Relevant Issues of Further Improvement of the Control in Real Estate Market (《進一步做好房地產市場調控工作有關問題的通知》(國辦發[2011]1號)). This Notice, among other things, provides that:

- the minimum down payment for second home purchases increases from 50% to 60%;
- the developer will forfeit the land use rights and the PRC government will impose an idle land fee of up to 20% of the land premium if a developer fails to obtain the construction permit and commence development for more than two years from the commencement date stipulated in the land grant contract; and
- municipalities directly under the central government, municipalities with independent planning status, provincial capitals and cities with high housing prices shall limit the number of homes local residents can buy in a specific period. In principle, local resident families that own one house and non-local resident families who can provide local tax clearance certificates or local social insurance payment certificates for a required period are permitted to purchase only one additional house (including newly built houses and second-hand houses). Sales of properties to (i) local resident families who own two houses or more, (ii) non-local resident families who own one house or more, and (iii) non-local resident families who cannot provide local tax clearance certificates or local social insurance payment certificates for a required period shall be suspended in local administrative regions.

On February 26, 2013, the General Office of the State Council announced the Notice on Continuing Adjustment and Control of Property Markets (《國務院辦公廳關於繼續做好房地產市場調控工作的通知》(國辦發[2013]17號)). This notice further clarified the requirements of the State Council:

- Improving the stabilization mechanism for housing prices. The provincial and municipal governments shall strengthen their administration on the property market, including increasing the supply of properties and setting annual pricing targets at cities where the property prices rise too fast. The relevant departments of the State Council will strengthen the supervision on the provincial governments with respect to the price stabilization work.
- Restraining speculative investment. The policies require a strict implementation of purchase limits and credit restrictions and set to expand the scope of property tax pilots. The notice requires local governments to strictly implement purchase limits. If the property prices in any cities rise too fast and there is yet any purchase limit policy in place, the relevant provincial governments should require such cities to adopt purchase limit policies promptly. Financial institutions are required to strictly implement credit policies with respect to down-payment ratios and interest rates for mortgages and to review the backgrounds of mortgage applicants more rigorously. The local offices of the People's Bank of China may also increase the interest rates and down-payment ratios for mortgages on second properties if the property prices in any cities rise too fast. The tax authority together with the building and construction authority are required to work closely to impose a 20% individual income tax on the gain from the sale of second-hand properties.
- Increasing the supply of land and ordinary commodity housing units. The notice also encourages the supply of land for residential purposes. The relevant authorities are required to speed up the approval processes for property developments with small-to-medium sized units. Financial institutions are required to give priority to projects where small-to-medium sized units account for more than 70% of the total units.
- Speeding up the planning and construction of affordable housing.
- Strengthening market regulations and managing market expectation.
- Speeding up to establish and perfect a long-term mechanism to guide the healthy development of the real estate market.

In addition to the general framework for transactions relating to land use rights set out in the Urban Land Regulations, local legislation may provide for additional requirements, including those applicable to specific transactions within specific areas relating to the grant and transfer of land use rights. These local regulations are numerous and some of them are deemed to be inconsistent with national legislation. Under PRC laws, national laws and regulations prevail to the extent of such inconsistencies.

On November 24, 2014, the General Office of the State Council issued an order on Interim Regulation on Real Estate Registration (《不動產登記暫行條例》(國務院令第710號)) (implemented on March 1, 1995, and revised on March 24, 2019 and March 10, 2024), specifying that the local government shall appoint a local registration institution to be responsible for the registration of all real estate in the area and shall establish a real estate registration book, which can be shared and searched in the national wide. In addition, the right to use land for construction purposes is required to be registered under the Interim Regulation on Real Estate Registration.

Under “the 13th Five-year Plan” (《國土資源“十三五”規劃綱要》國土資發[2016]38號) promulgated by the Ministry of Land and Resources on April 12, 2016, the total amount of construction land will be effectively controlled, and reduce or even suspend the supply of residential land in high inventory city.

Under the Notice on Strengthening the Management and Regulation of Housing and Land Supply (《關於加強近期住房及用地供應管理和調控有關工作的通知》(建房[2017]80號)) promulgated and implemented on April 1, 2017, the Ministry of Housing and Urban-Rural Construction and the Ministry of Land and Resources pointed out that the contradiction between housing supply and demand is prominent, cities which have heavy housing prices stress shall increase the scale of residential land supply, and cities which have heavy inventory stress shall reduce and even stop the supply of residential land.

On May 19, 2018, the MOHURD issued the Notice on Relevant Issues of Further Improvement of the Control in Real Estate Market (《關於進一步做好房地產市場調控工作有關問題的通知》(建房[2018]49號)). This notice set up some non-binding goals such as the percentage of the residential land in the constructive land of the Key Cities should be no less than 25% and the percentage of the area of residential land which is used for the public rental houses; rental houses and joint ownership houses in the total newly increased residential land should be higher than 50% in the next 3 to 5 years.

Environmental Protection

The laws and regulations governing the environmental requirements for real estate development in the PRC include the Environmental Protection Law (《中華人民共和國環境保護法》(主席令第9號)) (implemented on December 26, 1989, and revised on April 24, 2014 by the Standing Committee of the NPC), Law of the PRC on the Prevention and Control of Environmental Noise Pollution (《中華人民共和國噪聲污染防治法》(主席令第104號)) (implemented on June 5, 2022 by the Standing Committee of the NPC), the Environmental Impact Assessment Law (《中華人民共和國環境影響評價法》(主席令第24號)) (implemented on September 1, 2003, and revised on July 2, 2016 and December 29, 2018 by the Standing Committee of the NPC), the Administrative Regulations on Environmental Protection for Development Projects (《建設項目環境保護管理條例》(國務院令第682號)) (implemented on November 29, 1998, and revised on July 16, 2017 by the State Council) and the Interim Measures of Environmental Protection for Acceptance Examination Upon Completion of Buildings (《建設項目竣工環境保護驗收暫行辦法》(國環規環評[2017]4號)). Pursuant to these laws and regulations, depending on the impact of the project on the environment, for which the environmental impact report or the environmental impact statement is required to be prepared in accordance with the law, the project owner shall, before the commencement of construction, submit the environmental impact report or the environmental impact statement to the environmental protection administrative department with the approval authority for approval. If the environmental impact assessment documents of the construction project have not been examined or approved upon examination by the approval authority in accordance with the law, the project owner shall not commence the construction. For which the environmental impact registration form shall be completed and reported in accordance with the law, the project owner shall, according to the provisions of the environmental protection administrative department of the State Council, submit the environmental impact registration form to the environmental protection administrative department at the county level at the place where the construction project is located for recordation. It is emphasized by the latest revised the Environmental Protection Law, effective on January 1, 2015, that an environmental impact assessment shall be conducted as legally required in the preparation of a relevant development and utilization plan or the construction of a project impacting the environment. A development and utilization plan that has not undergone environmental impact assessment as legally required may not be implemented. The construction project that has not undergone environmental impact assessment as legally required may not be commenced. In addition, upon completion of the property development, the relevant environmental authorities will also inspect the property to ensure compliance with the applicable environmental standards and regulations before the property can be delivered to the purchasers.

According to Energy Conservation Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國節約能源法》(主席令第16號)) (implemented on January 1, 1998, and revised three times on October 28, 2007, July 2, 2016 and October 26, 2018), in house sales, housing development companies shall expressly disclose to buyers such information as energy conservation measures in the house or warranty period for thermal insulation, record such information in the property purchase contracts, quality guarantees and instruction manuals, and shall be responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the information.

According to Renewable Energy Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國可再生能源法》(主席令第23號)) (implemented on January 1, 2006, and revised on December 26, 2009), real estate development enterprises shall provide necessary conditions for the utilization of solar energy in the design and construction of buildings.

The Ministry of Environmental Protection issued the Implementation Opinions of the Ministry of Environmental Protection on Tightening Interim and Ex-Post Regulation of Environmental Impact Assessment of Construction Projects on January 25, 2018 (《環境保護部關於強化建設項目環境影響評價事中事後監管的實施意見》(環評[2018]11號)), requiring various governmental authorities to tighten the interim and ex-post regulation of the environmental impact assessment.

Modes of Land Grant

Pursuant to PRC laws and the stipulations of the State Council, except for land use rights which may be obtained through allocation (劃撥), land use rights for property development are obtained through governmental grant. There are two methods by which land use rights may be granted, namely by private agreement or competitive processes (i.e., tender, auction or listing at a land exchange administered by the local government).

As of July 1, 2002, the grant of land use rights by way of competitive processes is governed by the Regulations on the Grant of Use Right of State-owned Land by Invitation of Tender, Auction or Listing-for-bidding (《招標拍賣掛牌出讓國有土地使用權規定》(國土資源部令第11號)), issued by the Ministry of Land and Resources of the PRC on May 9, 2002 (the “2002 Regulations”) and revised as of September 28, 2007 with the name of Regulations on Granting State-owned Construction Land Use Rights through Tenders, Auction and Putting up for Bidding (《招標拍賣掛牌出讓國有建設用地使用權規定》(國土資源部令第39號)) (the “2007 Regulations”). Following the 2002 Regulations, the Ministry of Land and Resources issued the Notice on Continuing the Review of the Implementation of the Grant of Land use Rights for Commercial Use by Invitation of Bids Auction or Listing (《關於繼續開展經營性土地使用權招標拍賣掛牌出讓情況執法監察工作的通知》(國土資發[2004]71號)) on a Land Exchange on March 31, 2004, requiring all local land administration authorities to strictly enforce the 2002 Regulations. In addition, the Ministry of Land and Resources required that with effect from August 31, 2004, the grant of land use rights must be made pursuant to auctions or listing at a land exchange and that no land use rights for commercial use may be granted by way of agreement. In the Urgent Notice of the General Office of the State Council on Intense Regulation and Rectification of the Land Market and Strict Administration of Land (《關於深入開展土地市場治理整頓嚴格土地管理的緊急通知》(國辦發明電[2004]20號)) issued by the State Council on April 29, 2004, the development of agricultural land was suspended for a period of six months for rectification by the PRC government of irregularities in land development in China. The 2007 Regulations specifically provide that land to be used for industrial, commercial, tourism, entertainment or commodity residential purposes, or where there are two or more intended users for the certain piece of land, must be granted by way of competitive processes. A number of measures are provided by the 2007 Regulations to ensure such grant of land use rights for commercial purposes is conducted openly and fairly. For instance, the local land bureau must take into account various social, economic and planning considerations when deciding on the use of a certain piece of land, and its decision regarding land use designation is subject to approval of the city or provincial government. The grantee shall apply for land registration and obtain the state-owned land use rights certificate upon full payment of the land premium of the granted land according to the state-owned land grant contract. In the event that the land premium of the granted land is not paid in full, the grantee will not receive the land use rights certificate. In addition, the announcement of tender, auction or listing-for bidding must be made 20 days prior to the date on which such competitive process begins. Further, it also stipulated that for listing at a land exchange, the time period for accepting bids must be no less than 10 days.

In the case of tender, the local land bureau granting the land use rights should examine the qualifications of the intended bidders and inform those qualified to participate in the bidding processes by sending out invitations to tender. Bidders are asked to submit sealed bids together with the payment of a security deposit. When land use rights are granted by way of tender, a tender evaluation committee consisting of not less than five members (including a representative of the grantor and other expert), formed by the land bureau is responsible for opening the tenders and deciding on the successful bidder. The successful bidder will then sign the land grant contract with the land bureau and pay the balance of the land premium before obtaining the State land use rights certificate.

Where land use rights are granted by way of auction, a public auction will be held by the relevant local land bureau. The land use rights are granted to the highest bidder. The successful bidder will then be asked to sign the land grant contract with the local land bureau and pay the relevant land premium within a prescribed period.

Where land use rights are granted by way of listing-for-sale administered by the local government, a public notice will be issued by the local land bureau to specify the location, area and purpose of use of land and the initial bidding price, period for receiving bids and terms and conditions upon which the land use rights are proposed to be granted. The land use rights are granted to the bidder with the highest bid who satisfies the terms and conditions. The successful bidder will enter into a land grant contract with the local land bureau and pay the relevant land premium within a prescribed period.

In January 4, 1991, the Implementation Regulations for PRC Law of Land Administration (《中華人民共和國土地管理法實施條例》(國務院令第73號)) was issued by the State Council and revised on July 29, 2014 (國務院令第653號) (“2014 Revision”). According to 2014 Revision, for provision of use right of state-owned land for construction in the form of tender or auction, the competent departments of municipal or county people’s governments shall, in conjunction with the departments concerned, draw up a plan and submit it to the municipal or county people’s government, the competent department of land administration of municipal or county people’s government shall organize its implementation upon approval, and conclude a contract on the paid-for use of the land with the land user. The land user should file an application for land registration according to law.

In June 11, 2003, the Ministry of Land and Resources promulgated the Regulations on Grant of State-owned Land Use Rights by Agreement (《協議出讓國有土地使用權規定》(國土資源部令第21號)), or the 2003 Regulations, to regulate granting of land use rights by agreement when there is only one party interested in the land, the designated use of which is other than for commercial purposes as described above. According to the 2003 Regulations, the local land bureau, together with other relevant government departments, including the city planning authority, will formulate the plan concerning the grant, including the specific location, boundary, purpose of use, area, term of grant, conditions of use, conditions for planning and design as well as the proposed land premium, which shall not be lower than the minimum price regulated by the State, and submit such plan to the relevant government for approval. Afterwards, the local land bureau and the relevant party will negotiate and enter into the land grant contract based on the above-mentioned plan. If two or more parties are interested in the land use rights proposed to be granted, such land use rights shall be granted by way of tender, auction or listing at a land exchange in accordance with the 2007 Regulations.

The grantee is required to pay the land premium pursuant to the terms of the contract and the contract is then submitted to the relevant local bureau for the issue of the land use rights certificate. Upon expiration of the term of grant, the grantee may apply for its renewal. Upon approval by the relevant local land bureau, a new contract is entered into to renew the grant, and a land premium shall be paid.

Under the Circular of the General Office of the State Council on Forwarding the Notice of the Ministry of Construction, the NDRC and the Ministry of Supervision on Adjusting the Housing Supply Structure and Stabilizing the Housing Price (《國務院辦公廳轉發建設部等部門關於調整住房供應結構穩定住房價格意見的通知》(國辦發[2006]37號)) implemented on May 24, 2006, among other things, that: (a) land used for real estate development must be granted through tender, auction or bidding-for-sale and the area of land shall be ascertained reasonably; (b) land supply priority shall be given to ordinary commodity houses at middle to low prices and in medium to small sizes (including affordable housing) and renting affordable housing. The land supply plan shall be known to the public; and (c) the land supply for low-density and large-sized housing shall be strictly controlled, and the rules on ceasing land supply for villa real estate development shall be resolutely implemented.

The “Notice of the State Council on Promoting the Land Saving and Intensive Use” (《國務院關於促進節約集約用地的通知》(國發[2008]3號)) issued by the State Council on January 03, 2008 states that the people’s governments of all provinces, autonomous regions and municipalities directly under the Central Government; all ministries and commissions of the State Council, and all institutions directly under the State Council shall:

- Examine and adjust various types of relevant planning and land use standards on the principle of land saving and intensive use;
- Make full use of existing construction land, and vigorously enhance the construction land use efficiency;
- Give full play the fundamental role of the market in the allocation of land resources, and improve the long-term mechanism of land saving and intensive use;
- Strengthen supervision and inspection, and fulfill the responsibility of land saving and intensive use in an all-round way.

The National Development and Reform Commission issued the Catalogue for Guiding Industrial Restructuring (《產業結構調整指導目錄(2024本)》(《中華人民共和國國家發展和改革委員會令第七號》)) (the “Catalogue”) on August 27, 2019. On November 22, 2019, the National Development and Reform Commission revised several items of the Catalogue in the Negative List for Market Access (2019 Version) (《市場准入負面清單(2019)》(發改體經[2019]1685號)) (the “List”). According to the Catalogue and the List, the real estate projects related to the villa, the golf course and the racecourse is confined.

On December 2, 2024, the Ministry of Natural Resources, National Development and Reform Commission, and National Forestry and Grassland Administration jointly issued the “Guidelines on Supporting High-Quality Industrial Development with Natural Resource Elements (2024 Version)” (《《自然資源要素支撐產業高質量發展指導目錄》(2024本)》), which designates large auto markets, building materials centers, theme parks, imitation ancient towns, racetracks, motor vehicle training grounds and cemeteries as restricted land supply projects (with residential projects subject to maximum plot size limits of 7/14/20 hectares for small/medium/large cities respectively), while expressly prohibiting land supply for villa-style real estate developments and new training centers for Party/state agencies and state-owned enterprises.

The Urban and Rural Planning Law of the People’s Republic of China (《中華人民共和國城鄉規劃法》(主席令第二十三號)) was implemented on January 1, 2008, and revised on April 24, 2015 and April 23, 2019. This law provides, among other things, that if land use rights were obtained by way of allocation, the developer shall apply to the relevant urban and rural planning authorities for a site selection opinion before applying to other relevant authorities for approval or consent. This law also specifies that if the land use rights were obtained by way of allocation within the planning zones of cities or towns, the developer shall, before applying to the land administration authorities at or above the county level for land use rights, apply for the construction land planning permit from the relevant urban and rural planning authorities of that city or town after obtaining the approval or consent of other relevant authorities. Further, if land use rights were obtained by way of grant within the planning zones of cities or towns, relevant urban and rural planning authorities shall, prior to the granting of land use rights, specify the planning conditions such as the location, nature of use and permitted density of the development and integrate the planning conditions into the grant contract of the land use rights. Land without planning conditions cannot be granted. After a grant contract of land use rights is executed, the developer needs to apply to urban and rural planning authorities of the city or county for the construction land planning permit along with the required documents. If a development is within the planning zones of a city or town, the developer needs to apply to urban and rural planning authorities of the particular city or county, or to the township government specified by the provincial level government for a planning permit for construction in a rural area. The development of projects must comply with the planning conditions and an application must be filed with the urban and rural planning authorities of the relevant city or county if any amendments to the planning conditions are necessary. Within six months of the completion of projects, a developer needs to file documents in respect of the inspection and assessment by government authorities of completed project with the urban and rural planning authorities.

Recover State-owned Land Use Rights

In accordance with the Land Administrative Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國土地管理法》(主席令第32號)) promulgated by the Standing Committee of the NPC on June 25, 1986 and amended on December 29, 1988, August 28, 2004 and August 26, 2019, the land administrative authorities may recover state-owned land use rights with the approval of the governments that originally approved the land use rights, under any of the following cases:

- to use the land for public interests (subject to proper compensation);
- to use the land in re-building old city districts in order to implement urban construction plans (subject to proper compensation);
- when the term of the land use rights expires, the holder has failed to apply for extension or failed to obtain approval for extension;
- the use of the land originally allocated has been stopped due to cancellation or removal of units;
- roads, railways, airports and mining sites that have been approved to be abandoned.

Under the Provisional Regulations on Grant and Transfer, the maximize term of the land use rights shall not exceed: (i) 70 years for residential purposes; (ii) 40 years for commercial, tourism and entertainment purposes; or (iii) 50 years for education, science, culture, public health, physical education, industrial, mixed-use or other purposes.

Pursuant to the Implementation Regulations for PRC Law of Land Administration (《中華人民共和國土地管理法實施條例》(國務院令第653號)) (implemented on January 1, 1999, and revised on January 8, 2011 and July 29, 2014 by the State Council), the original land registration organ shall nullify the land registration for withdrawal of the land use right of a land use unit.

Land Transfers from Current Land Users

In addition to a direct grant from the government, an investor may also acquire land use rights from land users that have already obtained the land use rights by entering into an assignment contract or a joint-develop agreement with the land user.

The assignment contract or joint-develop agreement must be registered with the relevant local land bureau at the municipal or county level for land use rights title change purposes. Upon a transfer of land use rights, all rights and obligations contained in the land grant contract are deemed to be incorporated as part of the terms and conditions of such transfer.

The assignment contract or the joint-develop agreement is subject to terms and conditions specified in the land grant contract. For residential construction projects, the Urban Real Estate Law (《中華人民共和國城市房地產管理法》(主席令第32號)) requires that at least 25% of total construction costs, excluding land premiums, be expended and the construction schedule and date of completion and delivery of the project have been determined before assignment can take place. All rights and obligations of the current holder under a land grant contract will be transferred contemporaneously to the assignee of the land use rights. The relevant local government has the right to acquire the land use rights to be assigned if the assignment price is significantly lower than the market price. Relevant local governments may also acquire the land use rights from a land user in the event of a change in town planning. The land user will then be compensated for the loss of his land use rights.

Land Reserve and Primary Development

The Ministry of Finance, Land and Resources and the PBOC jointly promulgated the Measures for Land Reserve Administration (《土地儲備管理辦法》(國土資規[2017]17號)), which became effective on January 3, 2018 and revised on January 10, 2025. Pursuant to the Measure, the land reserve institution may develop state-owned land obtained through government reclamation, priority purchase, rural land conversion, or direct acquisition, conduct primary development prior to market supply using strictly government-budgeted funds, and are prohibited from mortgaging or initial registration of such reserved lands.

Mortgage and Guarantee

The mortgage of real estate in the PRC is governed by the Property Rights Law (《中華人民共和國物權法》(主席令第62號)), Security Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國擔保法》(主席令第50號)) (the Property Rights Law and the Guarantee Law of the PRC were superseded by the Civil Code of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國民法典》(主席令第45號)) (issued on May 28, 2020 and became effective on January 1, 2021)), Urban Real Estate Law (《中華人民共和國城市房地產管理法》(主席令第32號)), the Regulation on Administration of Mortgages of Urban Real Estate (《城市房地產抵押管理辦法》(建設部令第98號)), and other relevant real estate related laws and regulations. When a mortgage is created over the ownership of a completed building, the same will be simultaneously created over the land use rights of the land where the building is erected. The mortgagee and the mortgagor shall enter into a mortgage contract in writing which becomes effective on the date of the registration of such mortgage by the relevant real estate authority. Pursuant to the Security Law, a real estate mortgage agreement shall contain specific provisions including (i) the type and amount of the indebtedness secured, (ii) the period of the obligation by the debtor, (iii) the repayment of the indebtedness, and (iv) the name, quantity, conditions, location, valuation and ownership of the mortgaged property. Pursuant to the Real Estate Law, buildings newly-erected on a piece of urban land after a mortgage contract has been entered into shall not be a mortgaged property. If the mortgaged property is auctioned off, the new buildings added on the land may be auctioned together with the mortgaged property, but the mortgagee shall not be entitled to priority compensation from the proceeds of the auction of the new buildings.

Pursuant to the Property Rights Law, a real estate mortgage becomes effective on the date of registration with the local real estate department. When carrying out mortgaged property registration, the loan contract and the mortgage contract as well as the land use rights certificate or the property ownership certificate in respect of the mortgaged property must be submitted to the registration authority. If the mortgagor cannot repay the loan that is secured by the mortgaged property, the mortgagee may agree with the mortgagor to receive payment by appraising the mortgaged property or through the proceeds of an auction or sale of the property. If no such agreement is reached, the mortgagee may institute proceedings in a People's Court. After the mortgaged property has been appraised or been auctioned or sold, any portion of the proceeds that exceeds the amount of the indebtedness shall belong to the mortgagor and any shortfall shall be paid by the mortgagor.

The Security Law also contains comprehensive provisions dealing with guarantees. Under the Security Law, guarantees may be in two forms: (i) general guarantees whereby the guarantor bears the liability when the debtor fails to perform the payment obligation; and (ii) guarantees with joint and several liabilities whereby the guarantor and debtor are jointly and severally liable for the payment obligation. A guarantee contract must be in writing and, unless agreed otherwise, the guarantee shall remain valid for six months after the expiration of the term for performance of the principal obligation of the debtor.

Idle Land

According to the Measures on Disposing Idle Land (《閒置土地處置辦法》(國土資源部令第5號)) enacted and enforced by the Ministry of Land and Resources on April 28, 1999, the land can be defined as idle land under any of the following circumstances: (i) development and construction of the land is not commenced within the prescribed time limit after obtaining the land use rights without consent from the people's government who approved the use of the land; (ii) where the "Contract on Paid Use of the Right to Use State-Owned Land" or the "Approval Letter on Land Used for Construction" has not prescribed the date of commencing the development and construction, the development and construction of the land is not commenced at the expiry of one year from the date when the "Contract on Paid Use of the Right to Use State-Owned Land" became effective or when the Ministry of Land and Resources issued the "Approval Letter on Land Used for Construction"; (iii) the development and construction of the land has been commenced but the area of the development and construction that has been commenced is less than one-third of the total area to be developed and constructed or the invested amount is less than 25% of the total amount of investment, and the development and construction have been continuously suspended for one year or more without an approval; or (iv) other circumstances prescribed by the laws and the administrative regulations.

On June 1, 2012, the Ministry of Land and Resources promulgated further Measures on the Disposal of Idle Land (《閒置土地處置辦法》(國土資源部令第53號)) ("further measures"), which became effective on July 1, 2012. The Ministry of Land and Resources extended and clarified that the definition of idle land includes any land that became idle as a result of government related or non-government related acts. Government actions may cause land to become idle if (i) the government fails to deliver the land parcels to the grantee in accordance with the time limit specified under the relevant land grant contract or related documents, (ii) the grantee of the land use rights cannot develop the land in accordance with the contracted purposes due to recent land or urban planning adjustments, (iii) there are changes in the land or urban planning conditions due to modification of relevant national policies, and (iv) there are mass petitions, military control, protection of cultural relics, natural disaster and other related issues, which delay the development schedule of the land parcels.

The further measures require land use rights to be granted by the Ministry of Land and Resources to fulfill the following requirements: (i) the land use rights shall be free of encumbrances; (ii) original residents to be resettled (if any) must be compensated; (iii) there must be no legal or economic disputes in connection with the land use rights; and (iv) the relevant land parcels must have a clearly defined premise, nature of use, floor-area ratio and other land planning conditions.

The further measures provide clear procedures for investigation of idle land. Where the municipality or county-level land administrative department suspects the land to constitute idle land, it shall, within 30 days, commence investigation to confirm the status of the land, and issue an "Idle Land Investigation Notification Memorandum" ("notification memorandum") to the grantee of the land use rights. The grantee of the land use rights shall, within 30 days of receiving the notification memorandum, provide materials outlining the state of affairs of the land development, reasons for the land being idle and other related explanatory materials to the abovementioned administrative department. The municipality or county-level land administrative department shall, after a piece of land which has been ascertained as idle land, notify the concerned land user and draft a proposal on methods of disposal of the idle land including but not limited to extending the time period for development and construction (provided that the extension shall be no longer than one year), changing the use of the land, arranging for temporary use, ascertaining a new land user by competitive bidding, public auction. The administrative department of land under the people's government of city or county level shall, after the proposal on disposal has been approved by the original people's government who approved the use of the land, arrange for implementation of the proposal.

With respect to any land parcel obtained under a land grant contract within the scope of city planning and becoming idle due to non-government related acts, if the work has not been commenced after one year from the prescribed date of commencement, a surcharge on idle land equivalent to no more than 20% of the land grant premium may be levied (such land grant premium cannot be listed as manufacturing cost for accounting purposes); if the work has not been commenced after two years from the prescribed date of commencement, the land can be confiscated without any compensation. However, the preceding stipulations shall not apply if the delay is caused by force majeure; acts of government or acts of other relevant departments under the government; or by the indispensable preliminary work. The further measures provide that, with respect to any land parcel becoming “idle” as a result of government-related acts, the grantee of the relevant land use rights shall explain to the municipality or county-level land administrative department the reasons for the land becoming idle, and consult the relevant government authority and rectify the situation accordingly (“rectification procedures”). The means of rectification include but are not limited to the extension of the period permitted for commencing development, the adjustment of the land use and planning requirements or the substitution of the relevant land parcels with other land parcels. To enhance control over land hoarding and land speculating activities, the further measures also require the Ministry of Land and Resources not to accept or process any application for title transfer transaction, lease transaction, mortgage transaction or land registration application in respect of the land use rights over any idle land parcel before the completion of the required rectification procedures. To strengthen the regulation of idle land, the further measures require that the Ministry of Land and Resources to copy the relevant finance authorities in all its communications about idling of government-owned land with the grantee of land use rights.

Property Development

Property development projects in the PRC are generally divided into single projects and large tract development projects. A single project refers to the construction of buildings on a plot of land and the subsequent sale of units. Large tract development projects consist of the comprehensive development of large area and the construction of necessary infrastructure such as water, electricity, road and communications facilities. The developer may either assign the land use rights of the developed area or construct buildings on the land itself and sell or lease the buildings erected on it.

Under the “Regulations on Administration of Development of Urban Real Estate (《城市房地產開發經營管理條例》) (the “Development Regulations”) promulgated by the State Council on July 20, 1998, revised on January 8, 2011, March 19, 2018, March 24, 2019 and March 27, 2020, an enterprise which is to engage in development of real estate shall satisfy certain requirements including (i) its registered capital shall be more than RMB1 million; and (ii) it shall have four or more full-time professional real estate/construction technicians and two or more full-time accounting officers, each of whom shall hold the relevant qualification certificate. People’s governments of the provinces, autonomous regions and municipalities directly under the Central Government may, in the light of the actual conditions prevailing in their respective localities, work out provisions for the conditions of registered capital and specialized technical personnel for the establishment of a real estate development enterprise higher than those in the preceding paragraph.

Where a foreign-invested enterprise is to be established to engage in development and sale of real estate, the relevant requirements of the laws and regulations regarding foreign-invested enterprises must also be observed and relevant approvals be obtained. Pursuant to the Catalogue of Industries for Guiding Foreign Investment (“the Catalogue”) (2007 Revision) (《外商投資產業指導目錄》中華人民共和國國家發展和改革委員會、中華人民共和國商務部令第57號) and the Catalogue (2011 Revision), large tract development projects, construction and operation of upscale hotel, villa, upscale office building and international convention and exhibition center, secondary real estate market transactions, and real estate agencies or brokerage companies were listed in the restricted category. Since the implement of the Catalogue (2015 Revision), real estate industry were removed from the restricted category, which meant there were no longer any restrictions on the scope of business of foreign-invested real estate enterprise.

Pursuant to the Urban Land Regulations, foreign entities may acquire land use rights in the PRC unless the law provides otherwise. However, pursuant to the “Opinions of the Ministry of Construction, the Ministry of Commerce, National Development and Reform Commission, the People’s Bank of China, the State Administration for Industry of Commerce and the State Administration of Foreign Exchange on Regulating the Access to and Administration of Foreign Investment in the Real Estate Market”(《建設部、商務部、國家發展和改革委員會等關於規範房地產市場外資准入和管理的意見》(建住房[2006]171號)) and the “Notice of the Ministry of Housing and Urban-Rural Development, the Ministry of Commerce, the National Development and Reform Commission and Other Departments on Adjusting the Policies on the Market Access and Administration of Foreign Investment in the Real Estate Market” (“Notice on the Market Access” and Administration of Foreign Investment in the Real Estate Market”) (《住房城鄉建設部、商務部、國家發展改革委等部門關於調整房地產市場外資准入和管理有關政策的通知》(建房[2015]122號)), in order to develop the acquired land, the foreign entities need to establish foreign investment enterprises in the PRC as the project companies.

On March 15, 2019, Foreign Investment Law of the PRC (《外商投資法》(主席令第26號)) was promulgated and took effect on January 1, 2020. Law of the PRC on Chinese-Foreign Equity Joint Ventures (《中外合資經營企業法》主席令第51號), Law of the PRC on Wholly Foreign-Owned Enterprises (《外資企業法》主席令第51號) and Law of the PRC on Chinese-Foreign Contractual Joint Ventures (《中外合作經營企業法》主席令第81號) are simultaneously abolished. Pursuant to the Foreign Investment Law, industries outside the negative list for foreign investment access are to be managed according to the principle of consistency between domestic and foreign investment. It seems to illustrate that the establishment of the foreign investment enterprises is no longer a requirement to the foreign real estate enterprises.

In addition, these project companies may be in the form of Sino-foreign equity or cooperative joint ventures or wholly foreign-owned enterprises. The typical scope of business of such project companies includes development, construction, property management, and sales and leasing commodity properties and ancillary facilities on the specific land as approved by the government. The term of the property development company is usually the same as the term of grant of the land use rights in question.

Pursuant to the Measures for Reporting Foreign Investment Information (《外商投資信息報告辦法》商務部、國家市場監督管理總局令2019年第2號) (implemented on January 1, 2020), foreign investors and foreign-invested enterprises shall report and submit investment information in a timely manner in accordance with the law and follow the principles of truthfulness, accuracy and completeness. Foreign investors or foreign-invested enterprises shall submit investment information by submitting initial reports, change reports, cancellation reports, annual reports, etc. in accordance with these Measures. The reporting and submission of investment information is not a prerequisite for foreign investors or foreign-invested enterprises to complete business registration or other formalities, nor is it a new administrative approval for foreign investors or foreign-invested enterprises.

Once a foreign entity developer has established a project company and secured the land use rights to a piece of land for development, it has to apply for and obtain the requisite planning permits from the planning departments and have its design plan approved by and apply for and obtain a construction work commencement permit from, the relevant construction commission for commencement of construction work on the land. When the construction work on the land is completed, the completed buildings and structures must be examined and approved by the government departments before they can be delivered to purchasers or lessors for occupancy.

Under the “Provisions on Administration of Qualification Certificates of Real Estate Developers” (《房地產開發企業資質管理規定》(建設部令[第77號])) (the “Qualification Certificate Regulation”) issued by the Ministry of Construction on November 16, 1993 and revised twice on March 29, 2000 and May 4, 2015, a real estate developer shall apply for its qualifications according to such Regulation. An enterprise may not engage in the development and sale of real estate without the qualification registration certificate. The construction authority under the State Council takes charge of supervising the qualifications of real estate developers throughout China, and the real estate development authority under a local government on or above the county-level shall supervise the qualifications of local real estate developers.

Under the Decision on Amending the Provisions on the Administration of the Qualifications of Real Estate Development Enterprises and Other Departmental Rules (關於修改《房地產開發企業資質管理規定》等部門規章的決定(住房和城鄉建設部令第24號)) promulgated by the Ministry of Housing and Urban-Rural Construction on May 4, 2015, the requirements of registered capital in different levels and capital verification report are cancelled.

In accordance with the Qualification Certificate Regulation, real estate developers are classified into four classes. The approval system is tiered, so that confirmation of class 1 qualification shall be subject to preliminary examination by the construction authority under the people’s government of the relevant province, autonomous region or municipality directly under the central government and then final approval of the construction authority under the State Council. Procedures for approval of developers of class 2, 3 or 4 shall be formulated by the construction authority under the people's government of the relevant province, autonomous region or municipality directly under the central government. A developer that passes the qualification examination will be issued a qualification certificate of the relevant class by the authority.

Under the Qualification Certificate Regulation, the real estate development authorities shall examine applications for registration of qualifications of a real estate developer when it reports its establishment, by considering its assets, professional personnel and business results. A real estate developer shall only undertake real estate development projects in compliance with the approved qualification registration.

After a newly established real estate developer reports its establishment to the property development authority, the latter shall issue a provisional qualification certificate to the eligible developer within 30 days of its receipt of the above report. The real estate developer shall apply for a formal qualification certificate from the real estate development authority within one month before expiry of the provisional one. The provisional qualification certificate shall be effective for one year from the date of its issuance. The real estate development authority can extend the validity period for not more than two years after considering the actual business situation of the enterprise. Failure to obtain the required provisional or formal qualification certificate may result in a fine ranging from RMB50,000 to RMB100,000 and revocation of the developer's business license if such failure to obtain the certificate is not rectified.

A developer of any qualification classification may only engage in the development and sale of real estate within its approved scope of business and may not engage in business exceeding the scope permitted by its classification. A class 1 real estate developer is not restricted as to the scale of real estate project to be developed and may undertake a real estate development project anywhere in the country. A real estate developer of class 2, 3 or 4 may undertake a project with a gross area of less than 250,000 sq.m. and the specific scope of business shall be as confirmed by the construction authority under the people's government of the relevant province, autonomous region or municipality.

The real estate development authorities perform annual inspections of qualified developers. Developers who fail to meet the qualification requirements or violate the relevant rules may have their qualification classification certificates degraded or revoked.

For the purpose of carrying out the construction and development of a real estate project, the real estate developers shall, after signing the land grant contract in accordance with the Regulations on Land Granting and Transfer and the Tender, Auction and Listing Regulations, attend certain procedures and obtain relevant approval documents in relation to the design, planning, construction and development of the land.

Planning and Construction Permits

Under the "Regulations on Planning Administration regarding Granting and Transfer of State-owned Land Use Rights in Urban Area" (《城市國有土地使用權出讓轉讓規劃管理辦法》(建設部令第22號)) promulgated by the Ministry of Construction in December 1992 and revised on January 26, 2011, a real estate developer shall apply for a construction land planning permit (建設用地規劃許可證) from the municipal planning authority. After obtaining the construction land planning permit, the real estate developer shall then organize the necessary planning and design work in accordance with relevant planning and design requirements. A planning and design proposal in respect of the real estate project shall be submitted to the municipal planning authority following the requirements and procedures under the Urban and Rural Planning Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國城鄉規劃法》(主席令第29號)), which was implemented on January 1, 2008 and revised on April 24, 2015 and April 23, 2019, and a construction work planning permit (建設工程規劃許可證) must be obtained from the municipal planning authority.

On January 21, 2011, the State Council promulgated the Regulation on Expropriation and Compensation Related to Buildings on State-owned Land (《國有土地上房屋徵收與補償條例》(國務院令第590號)), which replaces the Regulations for the Administration of Demolition and Removal of Urban Housing (《城市房屋拆遷管理條例》(國務院令第305號)). The new regulation provides, among other things, that:

- buildings can be expropriated under certain circumstances for public interests but only governmental authorities are permitted to conduct resettlement activities. Real estate developers are prohibited from involvement in the demolition and relocation procedures;
- compensation shall be paid before the resettlement;
- compensation to owners of properties to be demolished cannot be less than the market value of similar properties at the time of an expropriation. The market value of properties shall be determined by qualified real estate appraisal institutions in accordance with appraisal rules related to property expropriation. If any owner does not agree with the appraised market value of the property, he can apply to the real estate appraisal institution for re-appraisal; and
- neither violence nor coercion may be used to force homeowners to leave. In addition, certain measures such as illegally cutting water and power supplies cannot be used in relocation work.

Under the Opinion on Further Strengthen the Management of Urban Planning and Construction (《中共中央國務院關於進一步加強城市規劃建設管理工作的若干意見》) promulgated by the State Council on February 6, 2016, new residential project should promote block system in principle, and completed residential community should open gradually for the Intensive Utilization of urban land.

Sales/Pre-sales of Commodity Buildings

Commodity buildings can be sold before or after their completion. These sales are regulated and conducted in accordance with the provisions of the “Regulations for the Administration of Sale of Commodity Buildings” (《商品房銷售管理辦法》(建設部令第88號)), or the Sales Regulations promulgated by the Ministry of Construction in April 2001, the Measures for the Administration of Pre-sale of Commodity Buildings (《城市商品房預售管理辦法》(建設部令第131號)), or the Pre-sales Measures amended by the Ministry of Construction in July 2004 and in accordance with the Development Regulations.

For units of a commodity building sold before completion to occur under the Pre-sale Regulations, a developer must make the necessary pre-sale registration with the real estate development authority of the relevant city or county and obtain a pre-sale permit. A Pre-sale will take place if:

Under the “Regulations for the Administration of Sale of Commodity Buildings” (《商品房銷售管理辦法》(建設部令第88號)), commodity buildings may be put to post-completion sale only when the following preconditions have been satisfied: (a) the real estate development enterprise offering to sell the post-completion buildings shall have an enterprise legal person business license and a qualification certificate of a real estate developer; (b) the enterprise has obtained a land use rights certificate or other approval documents of land use; (c) the enterprise has the permit for construction project planning and the permit for construction; (d) the commodity buildings have been completed and been inspected and accepted as qualified; (e) the relocation of the original residents has been completed; (f) the supplementary essential facilities for supplying water, electricity, heating, gas, communication, etc. have been made ready for use, and other supplementary essential facilities and public facilities have been made ready for use, or the schedule of construction and delivery date of have been specified; (g) the property management plan has been completed. Before the post-completion sale of a commodity building, a real estate developer shall submit the real estate development project manual and other documents showing that the preconditions for post-completion sale have been fulfilled to the real estate development authority for making a record.

According to the Property Rights Law (《中華人民共和國物權法》(主席令第62號)) which was promulgated on March 16, 2007 and implemented on October 1, 2007 (superseded by the Civil Code of the People’s Republic of China (《中華人民共和國民法典》(主席令第45號)) (issued on May 28, 2020 and became effective January 1, 2021)), parties can apply for registration of a caveat by agreement in order to secure that they obtain future property rights. After registration of such caveat, without permission of the persons who enjoy such right of registration of the caveat, any disposal of the relevant real estate shall have no effect to the property rights.

It provides that, among other things, within 10 days after the real estate developers obtain the pre-sale permit for the project for sale, they shall release the information regarding number of properties allowed for pre-sale under such pre-sale permission and the prices of such mentioned pre-sale units to the public in one time. Insurance

There are no mandatory provisions in the PRC laws, regulations and government rules which require a real estate developer to take out insurance policies for its real estate projects.

DESCRIPTION OF MATERIAL INDEBTEDNESS AND OTHER OBLIGATIONS

To fund our existing property projects and to finance our working capital requirements, we have entered into financing agreements with banks. Set forth below is a summary of the material terms and conditions of these loans and other indebtedness.

Project and Working Capital Loan Agreements in PRC

As of December 31, 2024, certain of our PRC subsidiaries have entered into loan agreements with various PRC banks. These loans are typically secured project or secured working capital loans to finance the construction of our projects and have terms ranging from six months to 10 years. As of December 31, 2024, the aggregate outstanding borrowings from banks amounted to approximately RMB33.18 billion (US$4.55 billion). Our project and working capital loans are typically secured by land use rights, properties and/or equity interests held by the PRC subsidiary borrowers and/or our other PRC subsidiaries. The Notes will be structurally subordinated to these loans and any other indebtedness incurred by our PRC Subsidiaries.

Interest

We have both floating rate and fixed rate project and working capital loans. The principal amounts outstanding under the floating rate borrowings generally bear interest at floating rates calculated by reference to the relevant bank's benchmark interest rate per annum. Floating interest rates generally are subject to review by the lending banks annually. Interest payments are payable either monthly or quarterly and must be made on each payment date as provided in the particular loan agreement. As of December 31, 2024, the weighted average interest rate on our total borrowings was 6.13% per annum.

Covenants

Under these project and working capital loans, many of our subsidiary borrowers have agreed, among other things, not to take the following actions without first obtaining the relevant lenders' prior consent:

- create encumbrances on any part of their property or assets or deal with their assets in a way that may adversely affect their ability to repay their loans;
- grant guarantees to any third parties that may adversely affect their ability to repay their loans;
- sell or dispose of assets;
- incurring other material indebtedness;
- make any major changes to their corporate structures, such as entering into joint ventures, mergers and acquisitions and reorganizations or making other changes to the company's status, such as liquidation or dissolution; and
- alter the nature or scope of their business operations in any material respect.

Dividend Restrictions

Pursuant to the project and working capital loan agreements, some of our PRC subsidiaries have agreed not to distribute any dividends (or agreed to give notice to the relevant banks before any distribution of dividends):

- if the borrowers' after-tax net profit is nil or negative or insufficient to cover losses from the previous accounting periods; or
- if the borrower's profit before tax in the relevant accounting period has not been used to pay off the principal, interest or other related expenses due in that accounting period or is insufficient to cover the principal, interest or other related expenses due in next period; or

- before the principal amount of and accrued interest on the relevant loans have been fully paid. We do not believe that the dividend restrictions in such loans will materially and adversely affect our ability to service the repayment obligations under our debt instruments, as most of these loans are required to be repaid when the underlying property projects are completed, and as such, by the time units in the projects are ready for sale, the dividend restrictions should no longer exist.

Events of Default

The project and working capital loans contain certain customary events of default, including insolvency and breaches of the terms of the loan agreements. The banks generally are entitled to terminate their respective agreements and/or demand immediate repayment of the loans and any accrued interest upon the occurrence of an event of default.

Guarantee and Security

Certain of our PRC subsidiaries have entered into guarantee agreements with the PRC banks in connection with some of the project loans pursuant to which these subsidiaries have guaranteed all liabilities of the subsidiary borrowers under these project and working capital loans. Further, as of December 31, 2024, most of the project and working capital loans were secured by land use rights, properties and/or equity interests held by the PRC subsidiary borrowers and/or our other PRC subsidiaries.

July 2025 Notes

On January 13, 2021, we entered into an indenture (as amended and supplemented from time to time, the “July 2025 Indenture”) pursuant to which we issued 4.45% Senior Notes due 2025 in an aggregate principal amount of US$300 million.

Guarantee

The obligations pursuant to the July 2025 Notes are guaranteed by the Existing Notes Guarantors specified in the July 2025 Indenture. Under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, a guarantee by an Existing Notes Guarantor may be replaced by a limited-recourse guarantee, referred to as a JV Subsidiary Guarantee in the July 2025 Indenture. Each of the Existing Notes Guarantors, jointly and severally, guarantees the due and punctual payment of the principal, any premium, and interest on, and all other amounts payable under, the July 2025 Notes.

Collateral

In order to secure the obligations under the July 2025 Notes, the Company under the July 2025 Indenture pledged the capital stock of all such Existing Notes Guarantors owned by the Company for the benefit of the holders of the July 2025 Notes. The collateral may be released or reduced in the event of certain asset sales and certain other circumstances. The holders of the Notes will be entitled to share in the benefit of such pledge of Capital Stock on a pari passu basis with the holders of the July 2025 Notes and any holders of other Permitted Pari Passu Secured Indebtedness.

Interest

The July 2025 Notes bear an interest rate of 4.45% per annum. Interest is payable semi-annually in arrears on January 13 and July 13 of each year, commencing July 13, 2021.

Covenants

Subject to certain conditions and exceptions, the July 2025 Indenture contains certain covenants, restricting us and each of the related restricted subsidiaries from, among other things:

- guaranteeing indebtedness of the related restricted subsidiaries;
- selling assets;

DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

For purposes of this “Description of the Notes,” the term “Company” refers only to Seazen Group Limited, and any successor obligor on the Notes, and not to any of its subsidiaries.

The Notes are to be issued under an indenture (the “Indenture”), to be dated as of the Original Issue Date, among the Company and The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch, as trustee (the “Trustee”, which expression shall include its successor(s) and all persons for the time being are the trustee or trustees under the Indenture).

The following is a summary of certain provisions of the Indenture and the Notes. This summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to all of the provisions of the Indenture and the Notes. It does not restate those agreements in their entirety. Whenever particular sections or defined terms of the Indenture not otherwise defined herein are referred to, such sections or defined terms are incorporated herein by reference.

Copies of the Indenture will be available for inspection following prior written request and satisfactory proof of holding during normal business hours on or after the Original Issue Date at the corporate trust office of the Trustee currently located at 160 Queen Victoria Street, London EC4V 4LA, United Kingdom.

Brief Description of the Notes

The Notes are:

- general obligations of the Company;
- senior in right of payment to any existing and future obligations of the Company expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Notes;
- at least pari passu in right of payment with the May 2026 Guaranteed Senior Notes and all other unsecured, unsubordinated Indebtedness of the Company (subject to any priority rights of such unsecured, unsubordinated Indebtedness pursuant to applicable law); and
- effectively subordinated to the July 2025 Notes and the other secured obligations of the Company, to the extent of the value of the assets serving as security therefor.

The Notes will mature on June 26, 2028, unless earlier redeemed pursuant to the terms thereof and the Indenture.

The Notes will bear interest at 11.88% per annum from the Original Issue Date or from the most recent interest payment date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, payable semiannually in arrears on June 26 and December 26 of each year (each an “Interest Payment Date”), commencing December 26, 2025. Interest on the Notes will be paid to Holders of record at the close of business on June 11 or December 11 immediately preceding an Interest Payment Date (each, a “Record Date”), notwithstanding any transfer, exchange or cancellation thereof after a Record Date and prior to the immediately following Interest Payment Date. Interest on the Notes will be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months. So long as the Notes are held in global form, each payment in respect of the Global Note will be made to the person shown as the holder of the Notes in the Notes register at the close of business (of the relevant clearing system) on the Clearing System Business Day before the due date for such payments, where “Clearing System Business Day” means a weekday (Monday to Friday, inclusive) except December 25 and January 1.

Except as described under “Optional Redemption,” “Redemption for Taxation Reasons,” and otherwise provided in the Indenture, the Notes may not be redeemed prior to maturity (unless they have been repurchased by the Company).

In any case in which the date of the payment of principal of, premium on or interest on the Notes is not a Business Day in the relevant place of payment or in the place of business of the Paying Agent, then payment of such principal, premium or interest need not be made on such date but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day. Any payment made on such Business Day shall have the same force and effect as if made on the date on which such payment is due, and no interest on the Notes shall accrue for the period after such date.

The Indenture allows additional Notes to be issued from time to time (the “Additional Notes”), subject to certain limitations described under “– Further Issues.” Unless the context requires otherwise, references to the “Notes” for all purposes of the Indenture and this “Description of the Notes” include any Additional Notes that are actually issued.

The Notes will be issued only in fully registered form, without coupons, in denominations of US$200,000 and integral multiples of US$1,000 in excess thereof. No service charge will be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes, but the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or other similar governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

All payments on the Notes will be made by wire transfer in U.S. dollars by the Company at the office or agency of the Company maintained for that purpose (which initially will be the specified office of the Paying Agent currently located at 160 Queen Victoria Street, London EC4V 4LA, United Kingdom), and the Notes may be presented for registration of transfer or exchange at such office or agency; provided that, if the Notes are in definitive form and the Company acts as its own paying agent, all payments on the Notes will be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the accounts specified by the Holders thereof or, if no such account is specified, by mailing a check to the address of each Holder as such address appears in the Note register maintained by the Registrar. Interest payable on the Notes held through Euroclear or Clearstream will be available to Euroclear or Clearstream participants (as defined herein) on the Business Day following payment thereof.

As of the date of the Indenture, all of the Company’s Subsidiaries will be “Restricted Subsidiaries.” However, under the circumstances described below under the caption “– Certain Covenants – Designation of Restricted and Unrestricted Subsidiaries,” the Company will be permitted to designate certain of its Subsidiaries as “Unrestricted Subsidiaries.” The Company’s Unrestricted Subsidiaries will generally not be subject to the restrictive covenants in the Indenture.

Further Issues

Subject to the covenants described below and in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, the Company may, from time to time, without notice to or the consent of the Holders, create and issue Additional Notes having the same terms and conditions as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the issue date, issue price and the first payment of interest on them and, to the extent necessary, certain temporary securities law transfer restrictions) (a “Further Issue”) so that such Additional Notes may be consolidated and form a single class with the previously outstanding Notes and vote together as one class on all matters with respect to the Notes; provided that the issuance of any such Additional Notes shall then be permitted under the “Limitation on Indebtedness and Preferred Stock” covenant described below.

Optional Redemption

At any time and from time to time on or after June 26, 2027, the Company may at its option redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, at a redemption price equal to 102.97% of the principal amount of the Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to (but not including) the redemption date.

At any time and from time to time prior to June 26, 2027, the Company may at its option redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes plus the Applicable Premium as of, and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to (but not including), the redemption date. Neither the Trustee nor any of the Agents shall be responsible for calculating or verifying the Applicable Premium.

At any time and from time to time prior to June 26, 2027, the Company may redeem up to 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes with the Net Cash Proceeds of one or more sales of Common Stock of the Company in an Equity Offering at a redemption price of 111.88% of the principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to (but not including) the redemption date; provided that at least 65% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes originally issued on the Original Issue Date remains outstanding after each such redemption and any such redemption takes place within 60 days after the closing of the related Equity Offering.

The Company will give not less than 30 days' nor more than 60 days' notice of any redemption to the Holders and the Trustee. If less than all of the Notes are to be redeemed at any time, the Notes for redemption will be selected as follows:

- (1) if the Notes are listed on any national securities exchange and/or are being held through the clearing systems, in compliance with the requirements of the principal national securities exchange on which the Notes are listed and/or in compliance with the requirements of the applicable clearing systems; or
- (2) if the Notes are not listed on any national securities exchange or held through the clearing systems, on a pro rata basis or by such method as the Trustee in its sole and absolute discretion deems fair and appropriate.

A Note of US$200,000 in principal amount or less shall not be redeemed in part. If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption relating to such Note will state the portion of the principal amount to be redeemed. A new Note in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion will be issued upon cancellation of the original Note. On and after the redemption date, interest will cease to accrue on Notes or portions of them called for redemption.

Repurchase of Notes Upon a Change of Control Triggering Event

Not later than 30 days following a Change of Control Triggering Event, the Company will make an Offer to Purchase all outstanding Notes (a "Change of Control Offer") at a purchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to (but not including) the Offer to Purchase Payment Date.

The Company has agreed in the Indenture that it will timely repay all Indebtedness or obtain consents as necessary under, or terminate, agreements or instruments that would otherwise prohibit a Change of Control Offer required to be made pursuant to the Indenture. Notwithstanding this agreement of the Company, it is important to note that if the Company is unable to repay (or cause to be repaid) all of the Indebtedness, if any, that would prohibit repurchase of the Notes or is unable to obtain the requisite consents of the holders of such Indebtedness, or terminate any agreements or instruments that would otherwise prohibit a Change of Control Offer, it would continue to be prohibited from purchasing the Notes. In that case, the Company's failure to purchase tendered Notes would constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture.

Certain of the events constituting a Change of Control Triggering Event under the Notes will also constitute an event of default under certain other debt instruments of the Company and its Subsidiaries. Future debt of the Company may also (1) prohibit the Company from purchasing Notes in the event of a Change of Control Triggering Event; (2) provide that a Change of Control Triggering Event is a default; or (3) require repurchase of such debt upon a Change of Control Triggering Event. Moreover, the exercise by the Holders of their right to require the Company to purchase the Notes could cause a default under other Indebtedness, even if the Change of Control Triggering Event itself does not, due to the financial effect of the purchase on the Company. The Company's ability to pay cash to the Holders following the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event may be limited by the Company's then-existing financial resources. There can be no assurance that sufficient funds will be available when necessary to make the required purchase of the Notes. See "Risk Factors – Risks Relating to the Notes – We may not be able to repurchase the Notes, the Existing Notes upon a Change of Control Triggering Event."

The phrase "all or substantially all", as used with respect to the assets of the Company in the definition of "Change of Control," will likely be interpreted under applicable law of the relevant jurisdictions and will be dependent upon particular facts and circumstances. As a result, there may be a degree of uncertainty in ascertaining whether a sale or transfer of "all or substantially all" the assets of the Company has occurred.

Notwithstanding the above, the Company will not be required to make a Change of Control Offer following a Change of Control if a third party makes the Change of Control Offer in the same manner, at the same times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in the Indenture applicable to a Change of Control Offer made by the Company and purchases all Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn under such Change of Control Offer.

The Trustee shall not be required to take any steps to ascertain whether a Change of Control Triggering Event or any event which could lead to the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event has occurred and shall not be liable to any person for any failure to do so.

Except as described above with respect to a Change of Control Triggering Event, the Indenture does not contain provisions that permit the Holders to require that the Company purchase or redeem the Notes in the event of a takeover, recapitalization or similar transaction.

Repurchase of Notes at the Option of Holders

Holders may at their option (the “Put Option”) require the Company to repurchase for cash all of their Notes, or any portion of the principal thereof in minimum denominations of US$200,000 and integral multiples of US$1,000 in excess thereof, on June 26, 2027 (the “Put Settlement Date”) at the repurchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to (but not including) the Put Settlement Date; provided that any such accrued and unpaid interest will be paid on the Put Settlement Date to the Holder of record at the close of business on the immediately preceding Record Date.

On or before the thirtieth (30th) Business Day prior to the Put Settlement Date, the Company will provide to the Trustee and all Holders a notice stating, among other things:

- the last date on which a Holder may exercise its Put Option, which is the fifteenth (15th) Business Day prior to the Put Settlement Date;
- the repurchase price (including the accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the Put Settlement Date);
- the Put Settlement Date; and
- the name and address of the Paying Agent.

To exercise the Put Option, a Holder must deliver a written put option exercise notice to the Paying Agent (which shall be irrevocable) during the period beginning at any time from the open of business on the date that is thirtieth (30) Business Days prior to the Put Settlement Date until the close of business on the fifteenth (15) Business Day immediately preceding the Put Settlement Date. Each put option exercise notice must state:

- if individual definitive notes have been issued, the certificate number of such individual definitive notes or, if not issued, the notice must comply with appropriate clearing system procedures;
- the portion of the principal amount of Notes to be repurchased, which must be in minimum denominations of US$200,000 and integral multiples of US$1,000 in excess thereof; and
- the applicable provisions of the Notes and the Indenture pursuant to which the Notes are to be repurchased by the Company.

Holders may not withdraw any put option exercise notice (in whole or in part) after such notice is delivered to the Paying Agent.

Holders must either effect book-entry transfer according to appropriate clearing system procedures, or deliver the individual definitive notes, together with necessary endorsements, to the office of the Paying Agent together with the delivery of the repurchase notice to receive payment of the repurchase price.

The Company will be required to repurchase the Notes presented to the Paying Agent to be repurchased on the later of (i) the Put Settlement Date and (ii) the time of book-entry transfer or the delivery of the Notes to be repurchased. If the Paying Agent holds money sufficient to pay the repurchase price of the Notes on the Put Settlement Date, then, with respect to the Notes that have been properly specified for repurchase to the Paying Agent:

- the Notes will cease to be outstanding and, interest will cease to accrue (whether or not book-entry transfer of the Notes is made or whether or not the individual definitive note is delivered to the Paying Agent); and
- all other rights of the Holder will terminate (other than the right to receive the repurchase price).

No Notes may be repurchased pursuant to the Put Option on the Put Settlement Date if the principal amount of the Notes has been accelerated, and such acceleration has not been rescinded, on or prior to such date (except in the case of an acceleration resulting from an Event of Default by the Company in the payment of the repurchase price with respect to such Notes).

Our ability to satisfy our repurchase obligations may be affected by the factors described in “Risk Factors – Risks Relating to the Notes – The Company may not be able to repurchase the Notes at the option of the Holders of the Notes.” If we fail to repurchase the Notes when required, we will be in default under the Indenture.

Conflicting Instructions with respect to Put Options and Offers to Purchase

Notwithstanding anything set forth in the captions “– Optional Redemption,” “– Repurchase of Notes upon a Change of Control Triggering Event” or “– Repurchase of Notes at the Option of Holders,” (1) in the event that two or more notices with respect to any of the Put Options and Offers to Purchase are sent to the Paying Agent on the same date, the notice with the earliest of Put Settlement Dates and Offer to Purchase Payment Dates shall prevail; (2) in the event that any two or more of the Put Settlement Dates with respect to any Put Options and the Offer to Purchase Payment Dates with respect to any Offers to Purchase fall on the same date, the notice sent to the Paying Agent first shall prevail; and (3) in the event that one or more notices with respect to any of the Put Options and Offers to Purchase are sent the Paying Agent on the same date and the relevant Put Settlement Dates and/or the relevant Offer to Purchase Payment Dates fall on the same date, then the Put Option and/or the Offer to Purchase that will provide Holders with a higher purchase price shall prevail.

No Mandatory Redemption or Sinking Fund

There will be no mandatory redemption or sinking fund payments for the Notes.

Additional Amounts

All payments of principal of, and premium (if any) and interest on the Notes, will be made without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed or levied by or within any jurisdiction in which the Company or a Surviving Person (as defined under the caption “– Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets”), is organized or resident for tax purposes (or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein), including, without limitation, if applicable, the PRC (each, as applicable, a “Relevant Jurisdiction”), or any jurisdiction through which payments are made by or on behalf of the Company or a Surviving Person, unless such withholding or deduction is required by law or by regulation or governmental policy having the force of law. In the event that any such withholding or deduction is so required, the Company or a Surviving Person, as the case may be, will pay such additional amounts (“Additional Amounts”) as will result in receipt by the Holder of each Note of such amounts as would have been received by such Holder had no such withholding or deduction been required, except that no Additional Amounts shall be payable:

- (1) for or on account of:
 - (a) any tax, duty, assessment or other governmental charge that would not have been imposed but for:
 - (i) the existence of any present or former connection between the Holder or beneficial owner of such Note and the Relevant Jurisdiction or the jurisdiction through which payments are made, other than merely holding such Note or the receipt of payments thereunder, including, without limitation, such Holder or beneficial owner being or having been a national, domiciliary or resident of such Relevant Jurisdiction or treated as a resident thereof or being or having been physically present or engaged in a trade or business therein or having or having had a permanent establishment therein;

- (ii) the presentation of such Note (in cases in which presentation is required) more than 30 days after the later of the date on which the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, such Note became due and payable pursuant to the terms thereof or was made or duly provided for, except to the extent that the Holder thereof would have been entitled to such Additional Amounts if it had presented such Note for payment on any date within such 30-day period;
 - (iii) the failure of the Holder or beneficial owner to comply with a timely request of the Company or a Surviving Person addressed to the Holder, to provide information concerning such Holder's or its beneficial owner's nationality, residence, identity or connection with any Relevant Jurisdiction or the jurisdiction through which payments are made, if and to the extent that due and timely compliance with such request is required under the tax laws of such jurisdiction in order to reduce or eliminate any withholding or deduction as to which Additional Amounts would have otherwise been payable to such Holder; or
 - (iv) the presentation of such Note (in cases in which presentation is required) for payment in the Relevant Jurisdiction or the jurisdiction through which payments are made, unless such Note could not have been presented for payment elsewhere;
- (b) any estate, inheritance, gift, sale, transfer, personal property or similar tax, assessment or other governmental charge;
 - (c) any tax, assessment, withholding or deduction required by sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("FATCA"), any current or future Treasury Regulations or rulings promulgated thereunder, any law, regulation or other official guidance enacted in any jurisdiction implementing FATCA, any intergovernmental agreement between the United States and any other jurisdiction to implement FATCA, or any agreement with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service under FATCA; or
 - (d) any combination of taxes, duties, assessments or other governmental charges referred to in the preceding clauses (a), (b) and (c); or
- (2) to a Holder that is a fiduciary, partnership or person other than the sole beneficial owner of any payment to the extent that such payment would be required to be included in the income under the laws of a Relevant Jurisdiction or the jurisdiction through which payments are made, for tax purposes, of a beneficiary or settlor with respect to the fiduciary, or a member of that partnership or a beneficial owner who would not have been entitled to such Additional Amounts had that beneficiary, settlor, partner or beneficial owner been the Holder thereof.

Whenever there is mentioned in any context the payment of principal of, and any premium or interest on, any Note, such mention shall be deemed to include payment of Additional Amounts provided for in the Indenture to the extent that, in such context, Additional Amounts are, were or would be payable in respect thereof.

Redemption for Taxation Reasons

The Notes may be redeemed, at the option of the Company or a Surviving Person with respect to the Company, as a whole but not in part, upon giving not less than 30 days' nor more than 60 days' notice to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable) and the Trustee, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest (including any Additional Amounts), if any, to the date fixed by the Company or the Surviving Person, as the case may be, for redemption (the "Tax Redemption Date") if, as a result of:

- (1) any change in, or amendment to, the laws (or any regulations or rulings promulgated thereunder) of a Relevant Jurisdiction affecting taxation; or
- (2) any change in the existing official position or the stating of an official position regarding the application or interpretation of such laws, regulations or rulings (including a holding, judgment or order by a court of competent jurisdiction), which change or amendment is proposed and becomes effective (i) with respect to the Company on or after the Original Issue Date, or (ii) with respect to any Surviving Person, on or after the date such Surviving Person becomes a Surviving Person, with respect to any payment due or to become due under the Notes or the Indenture, the Company or a Surviving Person, as the case may be, is, or on the next Interest Payment Date would be, required to pay Additional Amounts, and such requirement cannot be avoided by the taking of reasonable measures by the Company or a Surviving Person, as the case may be; provided that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Company or a Surviving Person, as the case may be, would be obligated to pay such Additional Amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due.

Prior to the mailing of any notice of redemption of the Notes pursuant to the foregoing, the Company or a Surviving Person, as the case may be, will deliver to the Trustee at least 30 days but not more than 60 days before a redemption date:

- (1) an Officers' Certificate stating that such change or amendment referred to in the prior paragraph has occurred, describing the facts related thereto and stating that such requirement cannot be avoided by the Company or a Surviving Person as the case may be, taking reasonable measures available to it; and
- (2) an Opinion of Counsel or an opinion of a tax consultant, in either case of recognized standing with respect to tax matters of the Relevant Jurisdiction, stating that the requirement to pay such Additional Amounts results from such change or amendment referred to in the prior paragraph.

The Trustee shall be entitled to accept such Officers' Certificate and Opinion of Counsel as sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of the conditions precedent described above, in which event it shall be conclusive and binding on the Holders. The Trustee will not be responsible for any loss occasioned by acting in reliance on such Officers' Certificate and Opinion of Counsel. The Trustee is not obligated to investigate or verify any information contained in such Officers' Certificate and Opinion of Counsel.

Any Notes that are redeemed will be cancelled.

- (f) with respect to any Restricted Subsidiary and imposed pursuant to an agreement that has been entered into for the Incurrence of Indebtedness of the type described under the “– Limitation on Indebtedness and Preferred Stock” covenant if, as determined by the Board of Directors, the encumbrances or restrictions are (i) customary for such types of agreements and (ii) would not, at the time agreed to, be expected to materially and adversely affect the ability of the Company to make required payment on the Notes and any extensions, refinancings, renewals or replacements of any of the foregoing agreements; provided that the encumbrances and restrictions in any such extension, refinancing, renewal or replacement, taken as a whole, are no more restrictive in any material respect to the Holders than those encumbrances or restrictions that are then in effect and that are being extended, refinanced, renewed or replaced;
- (g) existing in customary provisions in joint venture agreements and other similar agreements, to the extent such encumbrance or restriction relates to the activities or assets of the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary that is a party to such joint venture and if (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors) (i) the encumbrances or restrictions are customary for a joint venture or similar agreement of that type and (ii) the encumbrances or restrictions would not, at the time agreed to, be expected to materially and adversely affect the ability of the Company to make the required payments on the Notes; or
- (h) existing with respect to any Unrestricted Subsidiary or the property or assets of such Unrestricted Subsidiary that is designated as a Restricted Subsidiary in

Limitation on Sales and Issuances of Capital Stock in Restricted Subsidiaries

The Company will not sell, and the Company will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary, directly or indirectly, to issue or sell any shares of Capital Stock of a Restricted Subsidiary (including options, warrants or other rights to purchase shares of such Capital Stock) except:

- (1) to the Company or a Wholly Owned Restricted Subsidiary, or in the case of a Restricted Subsidiary that is not Wholly Owned, pro rata to its shareholders or incorporators or on a basis more favorable to the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries;
- (2) to the extent such Capital Stock represents director's qualifying shares or is required by applicable law to be held by a Person other than the Company or a Wholly Owned Restricted Subsidiary;
- (3) the sale or issuance of Capital Stock of a Restricted Subsidiary if, immediately after giving effect to such sale or issuance, such Restricted Subsidiary would no longer constitute a Restricted Subsidiary and any remaining Investment in such Person would have been permitted to be made under the "Limitation on Restricted Payments" covenant if made on the date of such sale or issuance and provided that the Company complies with the "– Limitation on Asset Sales" covenant; or
- (4) the issuance or sale of Capital Stock of a Restricted Subsidiary (which remains a Restricted Subsidiary after any such issuance or sale); provided that the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary applies the Net Cash Proceeds of such issuance or sale in accordance with the "– Limitation on Asset Sales" covenant.

Limitation on Issuances of Guarantees by Restricted Subsidiaries

The Company will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary (other than Seazen Holdings, Seazen Resources, any Existing Notes Guarantor or any other Finance Subsidiary), directly or indirectly, to Guarantee any Indebtedness ("Guaranteed Indebtedness") of the Company, unless (1)(a) such Restricted Subsidiary simultaneously executes and delivers a supplemental indenture to the Indenture providing for an unsubordinated Guarantee (in substantially the same terms and conditions as the Guarantee by such Restricted Subsidiary on such Guaranteed Indebtedness) of payment of the Notes by such Restricted Subsidiary and (b) such Restricted Subsidiary waives and will not in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any rights of reimbursement, indemnity or subrogation or any other rights against the Company or any other Restricted Subsidiary as a result of any payment by such Restricted Subsidiary under such Guarantee of the Notes, until the Notes have been paid in full or (2) such Guarantee is permitted by clauses (2)(c), (d), (m)(ii) or (r) (in the case of (2)(r), with respect to the Guarantee provided by such Restricted Subsidiary through the pledge of cash deposits, bank accounts or other assets to secure (or the use of any Guarantee, letter of credit or similar instrument to Guarantee), directly, or indirectly, any Bank Deposit Secured Indebtedness of the Company), under the "– Limitation on Indebtedness and Preferred Stock" covenant.

Limitation on Transactions with Shareholders and Affiliates

The Company will, and will procure the Restricted Subsidiaries to, comply with the rules of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited governing transactions between the Company and/or its Restricted Subsidiaries on one hand and their respective related parties on the other, as amended, supplemented and restated from time to time (the “Listing Rules”), except to the extent that failure so to comply would not constitute a material breach of the Listing Rules (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors).

Limitation on Liens

The Company will not, and the Company will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, incur, assume or permit to exist any Lien of any nature whatsoever on any of its assets or properties of any kind, whether owned at the Original Issue Date or thereafter acquired, except Permitted Liens, unless the Notes are secured equally and ratably with (or, if the obligation or liability to be secured by such Lien is subordinated in right of payment to the Notes, prior to) the obligation or liability secured by such Lien, for so long as such obligation or liability is secured by such Lien.

Limitation on Sale and Leaseback Transactions

The Company will not, and the Company will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, enter into any Sale and Leaseback Transaction; provided that the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary may enter into a Sale and Leaseback Transaction if:

- (1) the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary could have (a) incurred Indebtedness in an amount equal to the Attributable Indebtedness relating to such Sale and Leaseback Transaction under the covenant described under the caption “– Limitation on Indebtedness and Preferred Stock” and (b) incurred a Lien to secure such Indebtedness pursuant to the covenant described under the caption “– Limitation on Liens,” in which case, the corresponding Indebtedness and Lien will be deemed incurred pursuant to those provisions;
- (2) the gross cash proceeds of such Sale and Leaseback Transaction are at least equal to the Fair Market Value of the property that is the subject of such Sale and Leaseback Transaction; and
- (3) the transfer of assets in such Sale and Leaseback Transaction is permitted by, and the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary applies the proceeds of such transaction in compliance with, the covenant described under the caption “– Limitation on Asset Sales.”

Limitation on Asset Sales

The Company will not, and the Company will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, consummate any Asset Sale, unless:

- (1) no Default shall have occurred and be continuing or would occur as a result of such Asset Sale;
- (2) the consideration received by the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, is at least equal to the Fair Market Value of the assets sold or disposed of; and
- (3) at least 75% of the consideration received consists of cash, Temporary Cash Investments or Replacement Assets; provided that in the case of an Asset Sale in which the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary receives Replacement Assets involving aggregate consideration in excess of US$10.0 million (or the Dollar Equivalent thereof), the Company shall deliver to the Trustee an opinion as to the fairness to the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary of such Asset Sale from a financial point of view issued by an accounting, appraisal or investment banking firm of recognized international standing. For purposes of this provision, each of the following will be deemed to be cash:
 - (a) any liabilities, as shown on the Company’s most recent consolidated statement of financial position, of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than contingent liabilities and liabilities that are by their terms subordinated to the Notes) that are assumed by the transferee of any such assets pursuant to a customary assumption, assignment, novation or similar agreement that releases the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary from further liability; and

- (b) any securities, notes or other obligations received by the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary from such transferee that are promptly, but in any event within 30 days of closing, converted by the Company or such Restricted Subsidiary into cash, to the extent of the cash received in that conversion;

Within 360 days after the receipt of any Net Cash Proceeds from an Asset Sale, the Company (or any Restricted Subsidiary) may apply such Net Cash Proceeds to:

- (1) permanently repay Senior Indebtedness of the Company or any Indebtedness of a Restricted Subsidiary (and, if such Senior Indebtedness repaid is revolving credit Indebtedness, to correspondingly reduce commitments with respect thereto) in each case owing to a Person other than the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary;
- (2) acquire properties and assets that replace the properties and assets that were the subject of such Asset Sale or in properties or assets that will be used in the Permitted Businesses (“Replacement Assets”); or
- (3) facilitate property delivery or ensure social stability as required by PRC government bodies and/or under applicable PRC laws, rules, regulations, government policies or measures.

Any Net Cash Proceeds from Asset Sales that are not applied or invested as provided in clauses (1) and (2) in the immediately preceding paragraph will constitute “Excess Proceeds.” Excess Proceeds of less than US$10.0 million (or the Dollar Equivalent thereof) will be carried forward and accumulated. When accumulated Excess Proceeds exceeds US$10.0 million (or the Dollar Equivalent thereof), within 10 days thereof, the Company must make an Offer to Purchase Notes having a principal amount equal to:

- (1) accumulated Excess Proceeds, multiplied by
- (2) a fraction (x) the numerator of which is equal to the outstanding principal amount of the Notes and (y) the denominator of which is equal to the outstanding principal amount of the Notes and all pari passu Indebtedness similarly required to be repaid, redeemed or tendered for in connection with the Asset Sale, rounded down to the nearest US$1,000.

The offer price in any Offer to Purchase will be equal to 100% of the principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of purchase, and will be payable in cash.

If any Excess Proceeds remain after consummation of an Offer to Purchase, the Company may use such Excess Proceeds for any purpose not otherwise prohibited by the Indenture. If the aggregate principal amount of Notes (and any other pari passu Indebtedness) tendered in (or required to be prepaid or redeemed in connection with) such Offer to Purchase exceeds the amount of Excess Proceeds, the Trustee will select the Notes (and such other pari passu Indebtedness) to be purchased on a pro rata basis based on the principal amount of Notes and such other pari passu Indebtedness tendered (or required to be prepaid or redeemed). Upon completion of each Offer to Purchase, the amount of Excess Proceeds will be reset at zero.

Limitation on the Company’s Business Activities

The Company will not, and the Company will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, engage in any business other than Permitted Businesses; provided, however, that the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary may own Capital Stock of an Unrestricted Subsidiary or joint venture or other entity that is engaged in a business other than Permitted Businesses as long as any Investment therein was not prohibited when made by the covenant described under the caption “– Limitation on Restricted Payments.”

Use of Proceeds

The Company will not, and the Company will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, use the net proceeds from the sale of the Notes, in any amount, for any purpose other than (1) in the approximate amounts and for the purposes specified, including any adjustment in response to changes in acquisition or development plans as contemplated, under the caption “Use of Proceeds” in this offering memorandum (or in the case of Additional Notes, the offering document relating to the sale of such Additional Notes, if any) and (2) pending the application of all of such net proceeds in such manner, to invest the portion of such net proceeds not yet so applied in Temporary Cash Investments.

Designation of Restricted and Unrestricted Subsidiaries

The Board of Directors may designate any Restricted Subsidiary to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary; provided that (1) no Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of or after giving effect to such designation; (2) neither the Company nor any Restricted Subsidiary provides credit support for the Indebtedness of such Restricted Subsidiary (other than any Restricted Subsidiary in the Restructuring Group), if such credit support, at the time of or after giving effect to such designation, would not be permitted to be made under the covenant described under “– Limitation on Indebtedness and Preferred Stock” and the covenant described under “– Limitation on Restricted Payments”; (3) such Restricted Subsidiary does not own any Disqualified Stock of the Company or Disqualified or Preferred Stock of another Restricted Subsidiary or hold any Indebtedness of, or any Lien on any property of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary, if such Disqualified or Preferred Stock or Indebtedness could not be Incurred under the covenant described under the caption “– Limitation on Indebtedness and Preferred Stock” or such Lien would violate the covenant described under the caption “– Limitation on Liens”; (4) such Restricted Subsidiary does not own any Voting Stock of another Restricted Subsidiary, and all of its Subsidiaries are Unrestricted Subsidiaries or are being concurrently designated to be Unrestricted Subsidiaries in accordance with this paragraph; and (5) the Investment deemed to have been made thereby in such newly-designated Unrestricted Subsidiary and each other newly-designated Unrestricted Subsidiary being concurrently redesignated would be permitted to be made by the covenant described under the caption “– Limitation on Restricted Payments” other than any Investment deemed to have been made by the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary in the Restructuring Group upon the designation of the Subsidiaries in the Restructuring Group as Unrestricted Subsidiaries in connection with the Restructuring, provided that (A) the Board of Directors has determined in good faith that the designation of such Subsidiaries as Unrestricted Subsidiaries is necessary to obtain approval from a Qualified Exchange for the Restructuring and (B) immediately prior to the designation of the Restructuring Group as Unrestricted Subsidiaries, the Consolidated Assets of the Restructuring Group shall be no more than 10% of the Total Assets of the Company.

The Board of Directors may designate any Unrestricted Subsidiary to be a Restricted Subsidiary; provided that (1) no Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of or after giving effect to such designation; (2) any Indebtedness of such Unrestricted Subsidiary outstanding at the time of such designation which will be deemed to have been Incurred by such newly-designated Restricted Subsidiary as a result of such designation would be permitted to be Incurred by the covenant described under the caption “– Limitation on Indebtedness and Preferred Stock”; (3) any Lien on the property of such Unrestricted Subsidiary at the time of such designation which will be deemed to have been incurred by such newly-designated Restricted Subsidiary as a result of such designation would be permitted to be incurred by the covenant described under the caption “– Limitation on Liens”; and (4) such Unrestricted Subsidiary is not a Subsidiary of another Unrestricted Subsidiary (that is not concurrently being designated as a Restricted Subsidiary).

Government Approvals and Licenses; Compliance with Law

The Company will, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary to, (1) obtain and maintain in full force and effect all governmental approvals, authorizations, consents, permits, concessions and licenses as are necessary to engage in the Permitted Businesses; (2) preserve and maintain good and valid title to its properties and assets (including land-use rights) free and clear of any Liens other than Permitted Liens; and (3) comply with all laws, regulations, orders, judgments and decrees of any governmental body, except to the extent that failure so to obtain, maintain, preserve and comply would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on (a) the business, results of operations or prospects of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (b) the ability of the Company to perform its obligations under the Notes or the Indenture.

Anti-Layering

The Company will not Incur, any Indebtedness if such Indebtedness is contractually subordinated in right of payment to any other Indebtedness of the Company, unless such Indebtedness is also contractually subordinated in right of payment to the Notes, on substantially identical terms. This does not apply to distinctions between categories of Indebtedness that exist by reason of any Liens or Guarantees securing or in favor of some but not all of such Indebtedness.

Suspension of Certain Covenants

If, on any date following the date of the Indenture, the Notes have a rating of Investment Grade from both of the Rating Agencies and no Default has occurred and is continuing (a “Suspension Event”), then, beginning on that day and continuing until such time, if any, at which the Notes cease to have a rating of Investment Grade from either Rating Agency, the provisions of the Indenture summarized under the following captions will be suspended:

- (1) “– Certain Covenants – Limitation on Indebtedness and Preferred Stock”;
- (2) “– Certain Covenants – Limitation on Restricted Payments”;
- (3) “– Certain Covenants – Limitation on Dividend and Other Payment Restrictions Affecting Restricted Subsidiaries”;
- (4) “– Certain Covenants – Limitation on Sales and Issuances of Capital Stock in Restricted Subsidiaries”;
- (5) “– Certain Covenants – Limitation on Issuances of Guarantees by Restricted Subsidiaries”;
- (6) “– Certain Covenants – Limitation on the Company’s Business Activities”;
- (7) “– Certain Covenants – Limitation on Sale and Leaseback Transactions”;
- (8) “– Certain Covenants – Limitation on Asset Sales”;
- (9) “– Certain Covenants – Limitation on Transactions with Shareholder and Affiliates”;
- (10) the covenants described in clauses (3), (4) and 5(x) under the first paragraph, and clauses (3), (4) and 5(x) under the second paragraph, under the caption “– Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets”; and
- (11) the covenant described in clause (2)(a) under the caption “– Provision of Financial Statements and Reports”.

During any period that the foregoing covenants have been suspended, the Board of Directors may not designate any Restricted Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary pursuant to the covenant described under the caption “– Certain Covenants – Designation of Restricted and Unrestricted Subsidiaries” or the definition of “Unrestricted Subsidiary.”

Such covenants will be reinstituted and apply according to their terms as of and from the first day on which a Suspension Event ceases to be in effect. Such covenants will not, however, be of any effect with regard to actions of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary properly taken in compliance with the provisions of the Indenture during the continuance of the Suspension Event, and following reinstatement the calculations under the covenant described under the caption “– Certain Covenants – Limitation on Restricted Payments” will be made as if such covenant had been in effect since the date of the Indenture except that no Default will be deemed to have occurred solely by reason of a Restricted Payment made while that covenant was suspended. There can be no assurance that the Notes will ever achieve a rating of Investment Grade or that any such rating will be maintained.

Provision of Financial Statements and Reports

- (1) So long as any of the Notes remain outstanding, the Company will file with the Trustee and furnish to the Holders upon request, as soon as they are available but in any event not more than 60 calendar days after they are filed with any recognized securities exchange on which the Company's ordinary shares are at any time listed for trading, true and correct copies in the English language of any financial or other report filed with such exchange; provided that if at any time the Common Stock of the Company ceases to be listed for trading on a recognized securities exchange, the Company will file with the Trustee and furnish to the Holders:

- (2) In addition, so long as any of the Notes remain outstanding, the Company will provide to the Trustee (a) within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year ending after the Original Issue Date, an Officers' Certificate stating the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio with respect to the four most recent fiscal quarter periods and showing in reasonable detail the calculation of the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio, including the arithmetic computations of each component of the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio, with a certificate from the Company's external auditors verifying the accuracy and correctness of the calculation and arithmetic computation; provided, that, the Company shall not be required to provide such auditor certificate if its external auditors refuse to provide such certificate as a result of a policy of such external auditors; and (b) as soon as possible and in any event within 10 days after the Company becomes aware or should reasonably become aware of the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default, an Officers' Certificate setting forth the details of the Default or the Event of Default, and the action which the Company proposes to take with respect thereto.

Events of Default

The following events will be defined as "Events of Default" in the Indenture:

- (1) default in the payment of principal of (or premium, if any, on) the Notes when the same becomes due and payable at maturity, upon acceleration, redemption or otherwise;
- (2) default in the payment of interest on any Note when the same becomes due and payable, and such default continues for a period of 30 consecutive days;

- (4) the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary defaults in the performance of or breaches any other covenant or agreement in the Indenture or under the Notes (other than a default specified in clause (1), (2) or (3) above) and such default or breach continues for a period of 30 consecutive days after written notice by the Trustee or the Holders of 25% or more in aggregate principal amount of the Notes;
- (5) there occurs with respect to any Indebtedness of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary having an outstanding principal amount of US$20.0 million (or the Dollar Equivalent thereof) or more in the aggregate for all such Indebtedness of all such Persons, whether such Indebtedness now exists or shall hereafter be created, (a) an event of default that has caused the holder thereof to declare such Indebtedness to be due and payable prior to its Stated Maturity and/or (b) the failure to make a principal payment when due;
- (6) one or more final judgments or orders for the payment of money are rendered against the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary and are not paid or discharged, and there is a period of 60 consecutive days following entry of the final judgment or order that causes the aggregate amount for all such final judgments or orders outstanding and not paid or discharged against all such Persons to exceed US$20.0 million (or the Dollar Equivalent thereof) (in excess of amounts which the Company's insurance carriers have agreed to pay under applicable policies) during which a stay of enforcement, by reason of a pending appeal or otherwise, is not in effect;
- (7) an involuntary case or other proceeding is commenced against the Company or any Significant Restricted Subsidiary with respect to it or its debts under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law now or hereafter in effect seeking the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator or similar official of the Company or any Significant Restricted Subsidiary or for any substantial part of the property and assets of the Company or any Significant Restricted Subsidiary and such involuntary case or other proceeding remains undismissed and unstayed for a period of 60 consecutive days; or an order for relief is entered against the Company or any Significant Restricted Subsidiary under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law as now or hereafter in effect; or
- (8) the Company or any Significant Restricted Subsidiary (a) commences a voluntary case under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law now or hereafter in effect, or consents to the entry of an order for relief in an involuntary case under any such law, (b) consents to the appointment of or taking possession by a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator or similar official of the Company or any Significant Restricted Subsidiary or for all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Company or any Significant Restricted Subsidiary or (c) effects any general assignment for the benefit of creditors.

If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in clause (7) or (8) above) occurs and is continuing under the Indenture, the Trustee or the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, by written notice to the Company (and to the Trustee if such notice is given by the Holders), may, and the Trustee at the request of such Holders (subject to being indemnified and/or secured to its satisfaction) shall, declare the principal of, premium, if any, and accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes to be immediately due and payable or to enforce the performance of any provision of the Notes or the Indenture. Upon a declaration of acceleration, such principal of, premium, if any, and accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes shall be immediately due and payable. If an Event of Default specified in clause (7) or (8) above occurs with respect to the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary, the principal of, premium, if any, and accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes then outstanding shall automatically become and be immediately due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Holder.

The Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes by written notice to the Company and to the Trustee may on behalf of the Holders of Notes waive all past defaults and rescind and annul a declaration of acceleration and its consequences if:

- (1) all existing Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes that have become due solely by such declaration of acceleration, have been cured or waived, and
- (2) the rescission would not conflict with any judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Upon such waiver, the Default will cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom will be deemed to have been cured, but no such waiver will extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may (subject to being indemnified and/or secured to its satisfaction) pursue, in its own name or as trustee of an express trust, any available remedy by proceeding at law or in equity to collect the payment of principal of and interest on the Notes or enforce the performance of any provision of the Notes or the Indenture. The Trustee may maintain a proceeding even if it does not possess any of the Notes or does not produce any of them in the proceeding.

The Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee. However, the Trustee may refuse to follow any direction that is unclear, conflicting or equivocal, conflicts with law or the Indenture, that may involve the Trustee in personal liability, or that the Trustee determines in good faith may be unduly prejudicial to the rights of Holders not joining in the giving of such direction and may take any other action it deems proper that is not inconsistent with any such direction received from Holders.

A Holder of Notes may not institute any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, with respect to the Indenture or the Notes, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under the Indenture or the Notes, unless:

- (1) the Holder has previously given the Trustee written notice of a continuing Event of Default;
- (2) the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes make a written request to the Trustee to pursue the remedy;
- (3) such Holder or Holders offer the Trustee indemnity and/or security satisfactory to the Trustee against any costs, liability or expense to be incurred in compliance with such written request;
- (4) the Trustee does not comply with the request within 60 days after receipt of the written request and the offer of indemnity and/or security; and
- (5) during such 60-day period, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes do not give the Trustee a written direction that is inconsistent with the request.

However, such limitations do not apply to the right of any Holder to receive payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on, such Note, or to bring suit for the enforcement of any such payment, on or after the due date expressed in the Notes, which right shall not be impaired or affected without the consent of the Holder.

Officers of the Company must certify, on or before a date not more than 120 days after the end of each fiscal year, that a review has been conducted of the activities of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries and the Company's and its Restricted Subsidiaries' performance under the Indenture that the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries have fulfilled all obligations thereunder, or, if there has been a default in the fulfillment of any such obligation, specifying each such default and the nature and status thereof. The Company will also be obligated to notify the Trustee in writing of any default or defaults in the performance of any covenants or agreements under the Indenture. See "– Provision of Financial Statements and Reports."

The Trustee and the Agents need not do anything to ascertain whether any Default or Event of Default has occurred or is continuing and may assume that no such Default or Event of Default has occurred and that the Company are performing all of their respective obligations under the Indenture and the Notes unless a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has received written notice of the occurrence of such Default or Event of Default.

Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets

The Company will not consolidate with, merge with or into another Person, permit any Person to merge with or into it, or sell, convey, transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its and its Restricted Subsidiaries' properties and assets (computed on a consolidated basis) (as an entirety or substantially an entirety in one transaction or a series of related transactions) to another Person, unless:

- (1) the Company shall be the continuing Person, or the Person (if other than it) formed by such consolidation or merger or that acquired or leased such property and assets (the "Surviving Person") shall be a corporation organized and validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands, the British Virgin Islands or Hong Kong and shall expressly assume, by a supplemental indenture to the Indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee, all the obligations of the Company under the Indenture and the Notes, as the case may be, including the obligation to pay Additional Amounts with respect to any jurisdiction in which it is organized or resident for tax purposes or through which it makes payments, and the Indenture and the Notes, as the case may be, shall remain in full force and effect;
- (2) immediately after giving effect to such transaction, no Default shall have occurred and be continuing;
- (3) immediately after giving effect to such transaction on a pro forma basis, the Company or the Surviving Person, as the case may be, shall have a Consolidated Net Worth equal to or greater than the Consolidated Net Worth of the Company immediately prior to such transaction;
- (4) immediately after giving effect to such transaction on a pro forma basis the Company or the Surviving Person, as the case may be, could Incur at least US$1.00 of Indebtedness under paragraph (1) of the covenant described under the caption "– Limitation on Indebtedness and Preferred Stock";
- (5) the Company delivers to the Trustee (x) an Officers' Certificate (attaching the arithmetic computations to demonstrate compliance with clauses (3) and (4)) and (y) an Opinion of Counsel, in each case stating that such consolidation, merger or transfer and the relevant supplemental indenture complies with this provision and that all conditions precedent provided for in the Indenture relating to such transaction have been complied with; and
- (6) no Rating Decline shall have occurred.

The Company will not consolidate with, merge with or into another Person, permit any Person to merge with or into it, or sell, convey, transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its and its Restricted Subsidiaries' properties and assets (computed on a consolidated basis) (as an entirety or substantially an entirety in one transaction or a series of related transactions) to another Person, unless:

- (1) the Company shall be the continuing Person, or the Surviving Person shall be a corporation organized and validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands, the British Virgin Islands or Hong Kong; and shall expressly assume, by a supplemental indenture to the Indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee, all the obligations of the Company under the Indenture and the Notes, as the case may be, including the obligation to pay Additional Amounts with respect to any jurisdiction in which it is organized or resident for tax purposes or through which it makes payments, and the Indenture, and the Notes, as the case may be, shall remain in full force and effect;
- (2) immediately after giving effect to such transaction, no Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

- (3) immediately after giving effect to such transaction on a pro forma basis, the Company or the Surviving Person of the Company, as the case may be, shall have a Consolidated Net Worth equal to or greater than the Consolidated Net Worth of the Company immediately prior to such transaction;
- (4) immediately after giving effect to such transaction on a pro forma basis, the Company or the Surviving Person of the Company, as the case may be, could Incur at least US$1.00 of Indebtedness under paragraph (1) of the covenant described under the caption “– Limitation on Indebtedness and Preferred Stock”;
- (5) the Company delivers to the Trustee (x) an Officers’ Certificate (attaching the arithmetic computations to demonstrate compliance with clauses (3) and (4)) and (y) an Opinion of Counsel, in each case stating that such consolidation, merger or transfer and the relevant supplemental indenture complies with this provision and that all conditions precedent provided for in the Indenture relating to such transaction have been complied with; and
- (6) no Rating Decline shall have occurred;

provided that this paragraph shall not apply to any sale or other disposition that complies with the “– Limitation on Asset Sales” covenant.

Although there is a limited body of case law interpreting the phrase “substantially all,” there is no precise established definition of the phrase under applicable law. Accordingly, in certain circumstances there may be a degree of uncertainty as to whether a particular transaction would involve “all or substantially all” of the property or assets of a Person.

For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of the covenants described under this caption “Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets,” a sale of shares of Capital Stock of a Restricted Subsidiary which holds all or substantially all properties and assets of the Company to Independent Third Parties in an initial public offering and listing on a stock exchange of the shares of Capital Stock of such Restricted Subsidiary where such Restricted Subsidiary (i) remains a Restricted Subsidiary immediately after such sale and (ii) the Company, immediately after such sale, owns at least 30.0% of the Voting Stock of such Restricted Subsidiary shall not constitute a sale of substantially all properties and assets of the Company. The foregoing requirements shall not apply to a consolidation or merger of any Subsidiary Guarantor or JV Subsidiary Guarantor with and into the Company or any other Subsidiary Guarantor or JV Subsidiary Guarantor, so long as the Company or such Subsidiary Guarantor or JV Subsidiary Guarantor survives such consolidation or merger.

The foregoing provisions would not necessarily afford Holders protection in the event of highly-leveraged or other transactions involving the Company that may adversely affect Holders.

No Payments for Consents

The Company will not, and the Company shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, pay or cause to be paid any consideration, whether by way of interest, fee or otherwise, to any Holder for or as an inducement to any consent, waiver or amendment of any of the terms or provisions of the Indenture or the Notes unless such consideration is offered to be paid or is paid to all Holders that consent, waive or agree to amend such term or provision within the time period set forth in the solicitation documents relating to such consent, waiver or amendment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in any offer or payment of consideration for, or as an inducement to, any consent, waiver or amendment of any of the terms or provisions of the Indenture or the Notes in connection with an exchange or tender offer, the Company and any Restricted Subsidiary may exclude (i) Holders or beneficial owners of the Notes that are not institutional “accredited investors” as defined in Rule 501 under the Securities Act, and (ii) Holders or beneficial owners of the Notes in any jurisdiction where the inclusion of such Holders or beneficial owners would require the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary to comply with the registration requirements or other similar requirements under any securities laws of such jurisdiction, or the solicitation of such consent, waiver or amendment from, or the granting of such consent or waiver, or the approval of such amendment by, Holders or beneficial owners in such jurisdiction would be unlawful, in each case as determined by the Company in its sole discretion.

Defeasance

Defeasance and Discharge

The Indenture will provide that the Company will be deemed to have paid and will be discharged from any and all obligations in respect of the Notes on the 183rd day after the deposit referred to below, and the provisions of the Indenture will no longer be in effect with respect to the Notes (except for, among other matters, certain obligations to register the transfer or exchange of the Notes, to replace stolen, lost or mutilated Notes, to maintain paying agencies, to pay Additional Amounts and to hold monies for payment in trust) if, among other things:

- (1) the Company (a) has deposited with the Trustee (or its agent), in trust, money and/or U.S. Government Obligations that through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof in accordance with their terms will provide money in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and accrued interest on the Notes on the Stated Maturity for such payments in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and the Notes and (b) has delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel or a certificate of an internationally-recognized firm of independent accountants to the effect that the amount deposited by the Company is sufficient to provide payment for the principal of, premium, if any, and accrued interest on, the Notes on the Stated Maturity for such payment in accordance with the terms of the Indenture;
- (2) the Company has delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel of recognized international standing to the effect that the creation of the defeasance trust does not violate the U.S. Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and after the passage of 123 days following the deposit, the trust fund will not be subject to the effect of Section 547 of the United States Bankruptcy Code or Section 15 of the New York Debtor and Creditor Law; and
- (3) immediately after giving effect to such deposit on a pro forma basis, no Event of Default, or event that after the giving of notice or lapse of time or both would become an Event of Default, shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or during the period ending on the 183rd day after the date of such deposit, and such defeasance shall not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any other agreement or instrument to which the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary is a party or by which the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary is bound.

Defeasance of Certain Covenants

The Indenture will further provide that the provisions of the Indenture applicable to the Notes will no longer be in effect with respect to clauses (3), (4), (5)(x) and (7) under the first paragraph, and clauses (3), (4), (5)(x) and (6) under the second paragraph under “– Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets” and all the covenants described herein under “– Certain Covenants,” other than as described under “– Certain Covenants-Government Approvals and Licenses; Compliance with Law” and “– Certain Covenants-Anti-Layering,” clause (3) under “Events of Default” with respect to clauses (3), (4), (5)(x) and (7) under the first paragraph, and clauses (3), (4), (5)(x) and (6) under the second paragraph under “Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets” and with respect to the other events set forth in such clause, clause (4) under “Events of Default” with respect to such other covenants and clauses (5) and (6) under “Events of Default” shall be deemed not to be Events of Default upon, among other things, the deposit with the Trustee (or its agent), in trust, of money, U.S. Government Obligations or a combination thereof that through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof in accordance with their terms will provide money in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and accrued interest on the Notes on the Stated Maturity of such payments in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and the Notes and the satisfaction of the provisions described in clause (2) of the preceding paragraph.

Defeasance and Certain Other Events of Default

In the event that the Company exercises its option to omit compliance with certain covenants and provisions of the Indenture as described in the immediately preceding paragraph and the Notes are declared due and payable because of the occurrence of an Event of Default that remains applicable, the amount of money and/or U.S. Government Obligations on deposit with the Trustee (or its agent) will be sufficient to pay amounts due on the Notes at the time of their Stated Maturity but may not be sufficient to pay amounts due on the Notes at the time of the acceleration resulting from such Event of Default. However, the Company will remain liable for such payments.

Amendments and Waiver

Amendments Without Consent of Holders

The Indenture and the Notes may be amended, without the consent of any Holder, to:

- (1) cure any ambiguity, defect, omission or inconsistency in the Indenture or the Notes;
- (2) comply with the provisions described under “– Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets”;
- (3) evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment by a successor Trustee;
- (4) add any guarantee with respect to the Notes;
- (5) provide for the issuance of Additional Notes in accordance with the limitations set forth in the Indenture;
- (6) add security to secure the Notes
- (7) in any other case where a supplemental indenture to the Indenture is required or permitted to be entered into pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture without the consent of any Holder;
- (8) effect any changes to the Indenture in a manner necessary to comply with the procedures of Euroclear or Clearstream or any applicable clearing system;
- (9) make any other change that does not materially and adversely affect the rights of any Holder;
- (9) permit Permitted Pari Passu Secured Indebtedness and any action to permit the creation and registration of Liens on assets of the Company or the Existing Notes Guarantors to secure Permitted Pari Passu Secured Indebtedness in accordance with the Existing Notes; or
- (10) conform the text of the Indenture or the Notes to any provision of this “Description of the Notes” to the extent that such provision in this “Description of the Notes” was intended to be a verbatim recitation of a provision in the Indenture or the Notes.

Amendments With Consent of Holders

The Indenture and the Notes may be amended with the consent of the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes and the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes may amend or waive future compliance by the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary with any provision thereof; provided, however, that no such amendment or waiver may, without the consent of each Holder affected thereby:

- (1) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of, or any installment of interest on, any Note;
- (2) reduce the principal amount of, or premium, if any, or interest on, any Note;
- (3) change the currency, time or place of payment of principal of, or premium, if any, or interest on, any Note;
- (4) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or after the Stated Maturity (or, in the case of a redemption, on or after the redemption date) of any Note;

- (5) reduce the above-stated percentage of outstanding Notes the consent of whose Holders is necessary to modify or amend the Indenture;
- (6) waive a default in the payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Notes;
- (7) reduce the percentage or aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes the consent of whose Holders is necessary for waiver of compliance with certain provisions of the Indenture or for waiver of certain defaults;
- (8) amend, change or modify any provision of the Indenture in a manner that adversely affects the Holders, except in accordance with the other provisions of the Indenture;
- (9) reduce the amount payable upon a Change of Control Offer or an Offer to Purchase with the Excess Proceeds from any Asset Sale or change the time or manner by which a Change of Control Offer or an Offer to Purchase with the Excess Proceeds or other proceeds from any Asset Sale may be made or by which the Notes must be repurchased pursuant to a Change of Control Offer or an Offer to Purchase with the Excess Proceeds or other proceeds from any Asset Sale, whether through an amendment, waiver or modification of provisions in the covenants, definitions or otherwise, unless such amendment, waiver or modification shall be in effect prior to the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event or an event giving rise to the repurchase of the Notes under “– Certain Covenants – Limitation on Asset Sales”;
- (10) reduce the amount payable upon repurchase of the Notes or change the time or manner by which repurchase of the Notes may be made as described under the caption “– Repurchase of Notes at the Option of the Holders”;
- (11) change the redemption date or the redemption price of the Notes from that stated under the caption “– Optional Redemption” or “– Redemption for Taxation Reasons”;
- (12) amend, change or modify the obligation of the Company to pay Additional Amounts; or
- (13) amend, change or modify any provision of the Indenture or the related definition affecting the ranking of the Notes in a manner which adversely affects the Holders.

Unclaimed Money

Claims against the Company for the payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest, on the Notes will become void unless presentation for payment is made as required in the Indenture within a period of six years.

No Personal Liability of Incorporators, Stockholders, Officers, Directors or Employees

No recourse for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any of the Notes or for any claim based thereon or otherwise in respect thereof, and no recourse under or upon any obligation, covenant or agreement of the Company in the Indenture, or in any of the Notes, or because of the creation of any Indebtedness represented thereby, shall be had against any incorporator, stockholder, officer, director, employee or controlling person of the Company, or of any successor Person thereof. Each Holder, by accepting the Notes, waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for the issuance of the Notes. Such waiver may not be effective to waive liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Concerning the Trustee and the Agents

The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch, a banking corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with limited liability and operating through its branch in London at 160 Queen Victoria Street, London EC4V 4LA, United Kingdom, is to be appointed as Trustee under the Indenture and as paying agent (the “Paying Agent”, including any successor paying agent) with regard to the Notes. The Bank of New York Mellon SA/NV, Dublin Branch, a banking corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York with limited liability and operating through its branch in Dublin, Ireland at Riverside II, Sir John Rogerson's Quay, Grand Canal Dock, Dublin 2, Ireland, is to be appointed as note registrar (the "Registrar", including any successor registrar) and transfer agent (the "Transfer Agent", including any successor transfer agent, and together with the Paying Agent and Registrar, the "Agents", including any successor agent appointed from time to time under the Agent Appointment Letter (as defined in the Indenture)) with regard to the Notes. Except during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Indenture, and no implied covenant or obligation shall be read into the Indenture against the Trustee. If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee will use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise of the rights and powers vested in it under the Indenture as a prudent person would exercise under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

The Indenture contains limitations on the rights of the Trustee, should it become a creditor of the Company, to obtain payment of claims in certain cases or to realize on certain property received by it in respect of any such claims, as security or otherwise. The Trustee is permitted to engage in other transactions, including normal banking and trustee relationships, with the Company and its Affiliates; provided, however, that if it acquires any conflicting interest, it must eliminate such conflict or resign.

The Trustee will not be under any obligation to exercise any rights or powers conferred under the Indenture for the benefit of the Holders unless the requisite number of Holders have instructed the Trustee in writing and offered to the Trustee indemnity and/or security satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expense. Furthermore, each Holder, by accepting the Notes will agree, for the benefit of the Trustee and the Agents that it is solely responsible for its own independent appraisal of and investigation into all risks arising under or in connection with the Indenture and the Notes and has not relied on and will not at any time rely on the Trustee and the Agents in respect of such risks.

Book-Entry; Delivery and Form

The Notes will be represented by one or more global notes in registered form without interest coupons attached (each a "Global Note"). On the Original Issue Date, the Global Note will be deposited with a common depositary and registered in the name of the common depositary or its nominee for the accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream.

Global Note

Ownership of beneficial interests in the Global Note (the "book-entry interests") will be limited to persons that have accounts with Euroclear and/or Clearstream or persons that may hold interests through such participants. Book-entry interests will be shown on, and transfers thereof will be effected only through, records maintained in book-entry form by Euroclear and Clearstream and their participants.

Except as set forth below under "– Individual Definitive Notes," the book-entry interests will not be held in definitive form. Instead, Euroclear and/or Clearstream will credit on their respective book-entry registration and transfer systems a participant's account with the interest beneficially owned by such participant. The laws of some jurisdictions may require that certain purchasers of securities take physical delivery of such securities in definitive form. The foregoing limitations may impair the ability to own, transfer or pledge book-entry interests.

So long as the Notes are held in global form, the common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream (or its nominee) will be considered the sole holder of the Global Note for all purposes under the Indenture and "holders" of book-entry interests will not be considered the owners or "Holders" of Notes for any purpose. As such, participants must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream and indirect participants must rely on the procedures of the participants through which they own book-entry interests in order to transfer their interests in the Notes or to exercise any rights of Holders under the Indenture.

None of the Company, the Trustee or any of their respective agents will have any responsibility or be liable for any aspect of the records relating to the book-entry interests. The Notes are not issuable in bearer form.

Payments on the Global Note

Payments of any amounts owing in respect of the Global Note (including principal, premium, interest and additional amounts) will be made to the Paying Agent. The Paying Agent will, in turn, make such payments to the common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, which will distribute such payments to participants in accordance with their procedures. The Company will make payments of all such amounts without deduction or withholding for, or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature, except as may be required by law and as described under “– Additional Amounts.”

Under the terms of the Indenture, the Company, the Agents and the Trustee will treat the registered holder of the Global Note (i.e., the common depositary or its nominee) as the owner thereof for the purpose of receiving payments and for all other purposes. Consequently, none of the Company, the Trustee or any of their respective agents has or will have any responsibility or liability for:

- any aspect of the records of Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant relating to or payments made on account of a book-entry interest, for any such payments made by Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participants, or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any of the records of Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant relating to or payments made on account of a book-entry interest; or
- any action or failure to take any action by Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant.

Payments by participants to owners of book-entry interests held through participants are the responsibility of such participants.

Redemption of Global Note

In the event the Global Note, or any portion thereof, is redeemed, the common depositary will distribute the amount received by it in respect of the Global Note so redeemed to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, as applicable, who will distribute such amount to the holders of the book-entry interests in such Global Note. The redemption price payable in connection with the redemption of such book-entry interests will be equal to the amount received by the common depositary, Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, in connection with the redemption of such Global Note (or any portion thereof). The Company understands that under existing practices of Euroclear and Clearstream, if fewer than all of the Notes are to be redeemed at any time, Euroclear and Clearstream will credit their respective participants' accounts on a proportionate basis (with adjustments to prevent fractions) or by lot or on such other basis as they deem fair and appropriate; provided, however, that no book-entry interest of US$200,000 principal amount, or less, as the case may be, will be redeemed in part.

Action by Owners of Book-Entry Interests

Euroclear and Clearstream have advised that they will take any action permitted to be taken by a Holder only at the direction of one or more participants to whose account the book-entry interests in the Global Note are credited and only in respect of such portion of the aggregate principal amount of Notes as to which such participant or participants has or have given such direction. Euroclear and Clearstream will not exercise any discretion in the granting of consents, waivers or the taking of any other action in respect of the Global Note.

Transfers

Transfers between participants in Euroclear and Clearstream will be effected in accordance with Euroclear and Clearstream's rules and will be settled in immediately available funds. If a Holder requires physical delivery of individual definitive notes for any reason, including to sell the Notes to persons in jurisdictions which require physical delivery of such securities or to pledge such securities, such Holder must transfer its interest in the Global Note in accordance with the normal procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture.

Book-entry interests in the Global Note will be subject to the restrictions on transfer discussed under “Transfer Restrictions.”

Any book-entry interest in a Global Note that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of a book-entry interest in another Global Note will, upon transfer, cease to be a book-entry interest in the first-mentioned Global Note and become a book-entry interest in the other Global Note and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions, if any, and other procedures applicable to book-entry interests in such other Global Note for as long as it retains such a book-entry interest.

Global Clearance and Settlement Under the Book-Entry System

Book-entry interests owned through Euroclear or Clearstream accounts will follow the settlement procedures applicable. Book-entry interests will be credited to the securities custody accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream holders on the business day following the settlement date against payment for value on the settlement date.

The book-entry interests will trade through participants of Euroclear or Clearstream, and will settle in immediately available funds. Since the purchaser determines the place of delivery, it is important to establish at the time of trading of any book-entry interests where both the purchaser’s and seller’s accounts are located to ensure that settlement can be made on the desired value date.

Information Concerning Euroclear and Clearstream

The Company understands as follows with respect to Euroclear and Clearstream:

Euroclear and Clearstream hold securities for participating organizations and facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between their respective participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of such participants. Euroclear and Clearstream provide to their participants, among other things, services for safekeeping, administration, clearance and settlement of internationally traded securities and securities lending and borrowing. Euroclear and Clearstream interface with domestic securities markets. Euroclear and Clearstream participants are financial institutions, such as underwriters, securities brokers and dealers, banks and trust companies, and certain other organizations. Indirect access to Euroclear or Clearstream is also available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodian relationship with a Euroclear or Clearstream participant, either directly or indirectly.

Although the foregoing sets out the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream in order to facilitate the original issue and subsequent transfers of interests in the Notes among participants of Euroclear and Clearstream, neither Euroclear nor Clearstream is under any obligation to perform or continue to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time.

None of the Company, the Trustee or any of their respective agents will have responsibility for the performance of Euroclear or Clearstream or their respective participants of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations, including, without limitation, rules and procedures relating to book-entry interests.

Individual Definitive Notes

TAXATION

The following summary of certain Cayman Islands, Hong Kong and PRC tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Notes is based upon applicable laws, regulations, rulings and decisions as of the date of this offering memorandum, all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect). This discussion does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to purchase, own or dispose of the Notes and does not purport to deal with consequences applicable to all categories or investors, some of which may be subject to special rules. Persons considering the purchase of Notes should consult their own tax advisers concerning the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of Notes, including such possible consequences under the laws of their country of citizenship, residence or domicile.

Cayman Islands Taxation

The following is a discussion on certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the Notes. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

Under the laws of the Cayman Islands, payments of interest, premium and principal on the Notes will not be subject to taxation in the Cayman Islands and no withholding will be required on the payment of interest and principal or premium to any holder of the Notes, as the case may be, nor will gains derived from the disposal of the Notes be subject to Cayman Islands income or corporation tax. The Cayman Islands currently have no income, corporation or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax. The Cayman Islands are not party to any double taxation treaties that are applicable to any payments made by or to the Company.

No stamp duty is payable in respect of the issue of the Notes. An instrument of transfer in respect of a Note is stampable if executed in or brought into the Cayman Islands.

The Company has been incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands as an exempted company with limited liability and, as such, has obtained an undertaking from the Governor in Cabinet of the Cayman Islands as to tax concessions under the Tax Concessions Law (2011 Revision). In accordance with the provision of section 6 of the Tax Concessions Law (2011 Revision), the Governor in Cabinet undertakes with Seazen Group Limited (新城發展控股有限公司):

- That no law which is hereafter enacted in the Cayman Islands imposing any tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations shall apply to the Company or its operations.
- In addition, that no tax to be levied on profits, income, gains or appreciations or which is in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax shall be payable, on or in respect of the shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company, or by way of the withholding, in whole or part, of any relevant payment as defined in Section 6(3) of the Tax Concessions Law (2011 Revision).
- These concessions shall be for a period of 20 years from November 6, 2012.

Hong Kong Taxation

Withholding Tax. No withholding tax in Hong Kong is payable on payments of principal (including any premium payable on redemption of the Notes) or interest in respect of the Notes.

Profits Tax. Hong Kong profits tax is charged on every person carrying on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong in respect of assessable profits arising in or derived from Hong Kong from such trade, profession or business. Under the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Chapter 112 of the Laws of Hong Kong), or the Inland Revenue Ordinance, as it is currently applied, Hong Kong profits tax may be charged on revenue profits arising on the sale, disposal or redemption of the Notes where such sale, disposal or redemption is or forms part of a trade, profession or business carried on in Hong Kong.

Interest on the Notes will be subject to Hong Kong profits tax where such interest has a Hong Kong source, and is received by or accrues to:

- a financial institution (as defined in the Inland Revenue Ordinance) and arises through or from the carrying on by the financial institution of its business in Hong Kong;
- a corporation carrying on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong; or
- a person, other than a corporation, carrying on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong and such interest is in respect of the funds of the trade, profession or business.

Although no tax is imposed in Hong Kong in respect of capital gains, Hong Kong profits tax may be chargeable on trading gains arising on the sale or disposal of the Notes where such transactions are or form part of a trade, profession or business carried on in Hong Kong.

Stamp Duty. No Hong Kong stamp duty will be chargeable upon the issue or transfer (for so long as the register of holders of the Notes is maintained outside Hong Kong) of a Note.

PRC Taxation

As described under “Risks Relating to Doing Business in the PRC – We may be deemed a PRC resident enterprise under the PRC EIT Law and be subject to PRC taxation on our worldwide income,” we may be deemed a PRC resident enterprise.

Taxation on Interest. The PRC EIT Law and its implementation regulations, effective January 1, 2008, impose a withholding tax at the rate of 10% on interest paid to holders of the Notes that are “non-resident enterprises”, so long as such “non-resident enterprise” holder does not have an establishment or place of business in China or, if there is an establishment or place of business in China, the relevant income is not effectively connected with such establishment or place of business in China, to the extent such interest is sourced within China. Pursuant to these provisions of the PRC tax law, despite many uncertainties with respect to their application, if we are considered a PRC resident enterprise, interest paid to the non-resident enterprise holders on the Notes may be treated as income derived from sources within China and be subject to the PRC withholding tax.

Taxation on Capital Gains. The PRC EIT Law and its implementation regulations impose a tax at the rate of 10% on capital gains realized by holders of the Notes that are “non-resident enterprises”, so long as any such “non-resident enterprise” holder does not have an establishment or place of business in China or, if there is an establishment or place of business in China, the relevant gain is not effectively connected with such establishment or place of business in China, to the extent such capital gains are sourced within China. Pursuant to these provisions of the PRC EIT law, despite many uncertainties with respect to their application, if we are considered a PRC resident enterprise, capital gains realized by holders of the Notes may be treated as income derived from sources within China and be subject to the PRC tax.

Tax at a rate of 20% may be imposed on the interest or capital gains received by investors that are “non-resident individuals” (which in the case of interest may be withheld at source) if such interest or capital gains is deemed to be sourced within the PRC. A “non-resident individual” is an individual who neither is domiciled in China nor stays in China or who is not domiciled in China but has stayed in China for an aggregate of less than 183 days of a tax year.

Any PRC tax liability may be reduced under applicable tax treaties. However, it is unclear whether, if we are considered a PRC “resident enterprise,” holders of our Notes might be able to claim the benefit of income tax treaties or agreements entered into between China and other countries or areas.

Stamp Duty. No PRC stamp tax will be chargeable upon the issue or transfer (for so long as the register of holders of the Notes is maintained outside Mainland China) of a Note.

However, they are under no obligation to do so and may discontinue any market-making activities in their sole discretion at any time without any notice. We cannot assure the liquidity of the trading market for the Notes. If an active trading market for the Notes does not develop, the market price and liquidity of the Notes may be adversely affected. If the Notes are traded, they may trade at a discount from their initial offering price, depending on prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, our operating performance and financial condition, general economic conditions and other factors.

Short Positions and Stabilizing Transactions

In connection with the issue of the Notes, the Stabilizing Manager may, subject to applicable laws and regulations, purchase and sell the Notes, over-allot the Notes or effect transactions in the open market with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes during the stabilization period at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail for a limited period after the time of delivery. These transactions may include short sales, purchases on the open market to cover positions created by short sales and stabilizing purchases. Short sales involve the sale by the Stabilizing Manager, or any person acting for it, of a greater principal amount of the Notes than the Initial Purchasers are required to purchase in the offering. The Stabilizing Manager, or any person acting for it, must close out any short position by purchasing the Notes in the open market. A short position is more likely to be created if the Stabilizing Manager is concerned that there may be downward pressure on the price of the Notes in the open market after pricing that could adversely affect investors who purchase in the offering. Stabilizing transactions involve bids to purchase the Notes so long as the stabilizing bids do not exceed a specified maximum.

Similar to other purchase transactions, the purchases to cover the syndicate short sales and stabilizing purchases may have the effect of raising or maintaining the market price of the Notes or preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the Notes. As a result, the price of the Notes may be higher than the price that might otherwise exist in the open market. However, there is no obligation on the Stabilizing Manager to undertake stabilization action and stabilization action may not necessarily occur. Any stabilization action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the Notes is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than 30 days after the date on which the Company received the proceeds of the issue, or no later than 60 days after the date of allotment of the Notes, whichever is the earlier. Any stabilization action or over-allotment must be conducted by the relevant stabilizing manager (or its affiliates) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules and will be undertaken at the offices of the stabilizing manager (or its affiliates). These activities will be undertaken solely for the account of the Stabilizing Manager and not for us or on our behalf.

Neither we nor the Initial Purchasers make any representation or prediction as to the direction or magnitude of any effect that the transactions described above may have on the price of the Notes. In addition, neither we nor the Initial Purchasers make any representation that the Initial Purchasers will engage in these transactions or that these transactions, once commenced, will not be discontinued without notice at any time. No assurance can be given as to the liquidity of, or the trading market for, the Notes.

Other Relationships

The Initial Purchasers and/or their affiliates have in the past engaged, and may in the future engage, in transactions with and perform services, including financial advisory, commercial banking, private wealth management and investment banking services, for us and our affiliates in the ordinary course of business, for which they received or will receive customary fees and commissions and reimbursement of expenses.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their various business activities, the Initial Purchasers and/or their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of ours or our affiliates. The Initial Purchasers and/or their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments. We and our affiliates may enter into hedging or other derivative transactions as part of our risk management strategy with one or more of the Initial Purchasers, which may include transactions relating to our obligations under the Notes. Our obligations under these transactions may be secured by cash or other collateral.

Important Notice to CMIs (including private banks)

This notice to CMIs (including private banks) is a summary of certain obligations the SFC Code imposes on CMIs, which require the attention and cooperation of other CMIs (including private banks). Certain CMIs may also be acting as OCs for this offering and are subject to additional requirements under the SFC Code. Prospective investors who are the directors, employees or major shareholders of the Company, a CMI or its group companies would be considered under the SFC Code as having an Association with the Company, such CMI or the relevant group company. CMIs should specifically disclose whether their investor clients have any Association when submitting orders for the Notes. In addition, private banks should take all reasonable steps to identify whether their investor clients may have any Associations with the Company or any CMI (including its group companies) and inform the Joint Lead Managers accordingly.

CMIs are informed that the marketing and investor targeting strategy for this offering includes institutional investors, sovereign wealth funds, pension funds, hedge funds, family offices and high net worth individuals, in each case, subject to the selling restrictions set out elsewhere in this offering memorandum. CMIs should ensure that orders placed are bona fide, are not inflated and do not constitute duplicated orders (i.e. two or more corresponding or identical orders placed via two or more CMIs). CMIs should enquire with their investor clients regarding any orders which appear unusual or irregular. CMIs should disclose the identities of all investors when submitting orders for the Notes (except for omnibus orders where underlying investor information may need to be provided to any OCs when submitting orders). Failure to provide underlying investor information for omnibus orders, where required to do so, may result in that order being rejected. CMIs should not place “X-orders” into the order book. CMIs should segregate and clearly identify their own proprietary orders (and those of their group companies, including private banks as the case may be) in the order book and book messages.

CMIs (including private banks) should not offer any rebates to prospective investors or pass on any rebates provided by the Company. In addition, CMIs (including private banks) should not enter into arrangements which may result in prospective investors paying different prices for the Notes. CMIs are informed that a private bank rebate maybe payable as stated above, or otherwise notified to prospective investors. The SFC Code requires that a CMI disclose complete and accurate information in a timely manner on the status of the order book and other relevant information it receives to targeted investors for them to make an informed decision. In order to do this, those Joint Lead Managers in control of the order book should consider disclosing order book updates to all CMIs. When placing an order for the Notes, private banks should disclose, at the same time, if such order is placed other than on a “principal” basis (whereby it is deploying its own balance sheet for onward selling to investors). Private banks who do not provide such disclosure are hereby deemed to be placing their order on such a “principal” basis. Otherwise, such order may be considered to be an omnibus order pursuant to the SFC Code. Private banks should be aware that placing an order on a “principal” basis may require the relevant affiliated Joint Lead Manager(s) (if any) to categorise it as a proprietary order and apply the “proprietary orders” requirements of the SFC Code to such order and will result in the private bank not being entitled to, and not being paid, any rebate.

In relation to omnibus orders, when submitting such orders, CMIs (including private banks) that are subject to the SFC Code should disclose underlying investor information in respect of each order constituting the relevant omnibus order (failure to provide such information may result in that order being rejected). Underlying investor information in relation to omnibus orders should consist of:

- The name of each underlying investor;
- A unique identification number for each investor;
- Whether an underlying investor has any “Associations” (as used in the SFC Code);
- Whether any underlying investor order is a “Proprietary Order” (as used in the SFC Code); and
- Whether any underlying investor order is a duplicate order.

Underlying investor information in relation to omnibus orders should be sent to: dcm.camel@gtjas.com.hk, project.camel@htisec.com, DCM.Omnibus@citi.com, ProjectCamel@cls.com, ficcsyndicate@citicls.com, DCMs@cmbi.com.hk.

To the extent information being disclosed by CMIs and investors is personal and/or confidential in nature, CMIs (including private banks) agree and warrant: (A) to take appropriate steps to safeguard the transmission of such information to any OCs; and (B) that they have obtained the necessary consents from the underlying investors to disclose such information to any OCs. By submitting an order and providing such information to any OCs, each CMI (including private banks) further warrants that they and the underlying investors have understood and consented to the collection, disclosure, use and transfer of such information by any OCs and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, including to the Company, relevant regulators and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, for the purpose of complying with the SFC Code, during the bookbuilding process for this offering. CMIs that receive such underlying investor information are reminded that such information should be used only for submitting orders in this offering. The Joint Lead Managers may be asked to demonstrate compliance with their obligations under the SFC Code, and may request other CMIs (including private banks) to provide evidence showing compliance with the obligations above (in particular, that the necessary consents have been obtained). In such event, other CMIs (including private banks) are required to provide the relevant Joint Lead Manager with such evidence within the timeline requested.

By placing an order, prospective investors (including any underlying investors in relation to omnibus orders) are deemed to represent to the Joint Lead Managers that it is not a Sanctions Restricted Person. A “Sanctions Restricted Person” means an individual or entity (a “Person”): (a) that is, or is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a Person that is, described or designated in (i) the most current “Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons” list (which as at the date hereof can be found at: <http://www.treasury.gov/ofac/downloads/sdnlist.pdf>) or (ii) the Foreign Sanctions Evaders List (which as at the date hereof can be found at: <http://www.treasury.gov/ofac/downloads/fse/fselist.pdf>) or (iii) the most current “Consolidated list of persons, groups and entities subject to EU financial sanctions” (which as at the date hereof can be found at: <https://data.europa.eu/data/datasets/consolidated-list-of-persons-groups-and-entities-subject-to-eu-financial-sanctions?locale=en>); or (b) that is otherwise the subject of any sanctions administered or enforced by any Sanctions Authority, other than solely by virtue of the following (i) – (vi) to the extent that it will not result in violation of any sanctions by the CMIs: (i) their inclusion in the most current “Sectoral Sanctions Identifications” list (which as at the date hereof can be found at: <https://www.treasury.gov/ofac/downloads/ssi/ssilist.pdf>) (the “SSI List”), (ii) their inclusion in Annexes 3, 4, 5 and 6 of Council Regulation No. 833/2014, as amended by Council Regulation No. 960/2014 (the “EU Annexes”), (iii) their inclusion in any other list maintained by a Sanctions Authority, with similar effect to the SSI List or the EU Annexes, (iv) them being the subject of restrictions imposed by the U.S. Department of Commerce’s Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”) under which BIS has restricted exports, re-exports or transfers of certain controlled goods, technology or software to such individuals or entities; (v) them being an entity listed in the Annex to the new Executive Order of 3 June 2021 entitled “Addressing the Threat from Securities Investments that Finance Certain Companies of the People’s Republic of China” (known as the Non-SDN Chinese Military-Industrial Complex Companies List), which amends the Executive Order 13959 of 12 November 2020 entitled “Addressing the threat from Securities Investments that Finance Chinese Military Companies”; or (vi) them being subject to restrictions imposed on the operation of an online service, Internet application or other information or communication services in the United States directed at preventing a foreign government from accessing the data of U.S. persons; or (c) that is located, organized or a resident in a comprehensively sanctioned country or territory, including Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Syria, the Crimea region of Ukraine, the Donetsk’s People’s Republic or Luhansk People’s Republic. “Sanctions Authority” means: (a) the United Nations; (b) the United States; (c) the European Union (or any of its member states); (d) the United Kingdom; (e) the People’s Republic of China; (f) any other equivalent governmental or regulatory authority, institution or agency which administers economic, financial or trade sanctions; and (g) the respective governmental institutions and agencies of any of the foregoing including, without limitation, the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Department of the Treasury, the United States Department of State, the United States Department of Commerce and His Majesty’s Treasury.

Selling Restrictions

No action is being taken or is contemplated by us or the Initial Purchasers that would permit a public offering of the Notes or possession or distribution of this offering memorandum or any amendment thereof, any supplement thereto or any other offering material relating to the Notes in any jurisdiction where, or in any other circumstance in which, action for those purposes is required. Accordingly, the Notes may not be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this offering memorandum nor such other material may be distributed or published, in or from any country or jurisdiction except in compliance with any applicable rules and regulations of such country or jurisdiction.

Notice to Prospective Investors in the United Kingdom

This offering memorandum is for distribution only to persons who (i) fall within Article 43(2)(b) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005 (as amended, the “Financial Promotion Order”), (ii) have professional experience in matters relating to investments falling within Article 19(5) of the Financial Promotion Order, (iii) are persons falling within Article 49(2)(a) to (d) (“high net worth companies, unincorporated associations etc”) of the Financial Promotion Order, (iv) are outside the United Kingdom, or (v) are persons to whom an invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the “FSMA”)) in connection with the issue or sale of any securities may otherwise lawfully be communicated or caused to be communicated (all such persons together being referred to as “relevant persons”). This offering memorandum is directed only at relevant persons and must not be acted on or relied on by persons who are not relevant persons. Any investment or investment activity to which this offering memorandum relates is available only to relevant persons and will be engaged in only with relevant persons.

Each of the Initial Purchasers has represented, warranted and agreed that:

- (1) it has only communicated or caused to be communicated, and will only communicate or cause to be communicated, any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the FSMA) received by it in connection with the issue or sale of any Notes in circumstances in which section 21(1) of the FSMA does not apply to the Company; and
- (2) it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to the Notes in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

Notice to Prospective Investors in the EEA

This offering Memorandum has been prepared on the basis that any offer of Notes in any Member State of the European Economic Area (“EEA”) will be made pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Regulation from the requirement to publish a prospectus for offers of Notes. The expression “Prospectus Regulation” means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (as amended or superseded).

Each of the Initial Purchasers have represented and agreed that it has not offered, sold or otherwise made available and will not offer, sell or otherwise make available any Notes to any retail investor in the EEA. For the purposes of this provision: (a) the expression “retail investor” means a person who is one (or more) of the following: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, “MiFID II”); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (as amended, the “Insurance Distribution Directive”), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; and (b) the expression “offer” includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Notes.

Each person in a Member State of the EEA who receives any communication in respect of, or who acquires any Notes under, the offers to the public contemplated in this offering memorandum, or to whom the Notes are otherwise made available, will be deemed to have represented, warranted, acknowledged and agreed to and with each Joint Lead Manager and the Company that it and any person on whose behalf it acquires Notes is not a “retail investor” (as defined above).

Notes to Prospective Investors in the UK

The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom (the “UK”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the “EUWA”); (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the “FSMA”) and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement the Insurance Distribution Directive, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA. Consequently no key information document required by the PRIIPs Regulation as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

RATINGS

The Notes are expected to be rated B- by S&P. The rating reflects the rating agency's assessment of the likelihood of timely payment of the principal of and interest on the Notes. The rating does not address the payment of any Additional Amounts and do not constitute recommendations to purchase, hold or sell the Notes inasmuch as such ratings do not comment as to market price or suitability for a particular investor. The rating should be evaluated independently, on other securities of ours, or on us. In addition, we have been assigned a corporate rating of B with a negative outlook by S&P and a corporate rating of Caa1 with a negative outlook by Moody's. We cannot assure you that the ratings will remain in effect for any given period or that the ratings will not be revised by such rating agencies in the future if in their judgment circumstances so warrant.

Independent auditor's report

To the board of directors of Seazen Group Limited

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Seazen Group Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (together, the "Group") set out on pages F-8 to F-155, which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, and the consolidated statements of profit or loss, the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, the consolidated statements of changes in equity and the consolidated statements of cash flows for the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 (the "Relevant Periods"), and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the Relevant Periods in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA").

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") as issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("the Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern

We draw attention to note 2.1 to the consolidated financial statements, which indicates that as at 31 December 2024, the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by approximately RMB17,743,103,000. As at the same date, the Group had current borrowings amounted to approximately RMB16,071,392,000 in aggregate, while its cash and cash equivalents amounted to approximately RMB6,914,613,000 and restricted cash amounted to approximately RMB3,703,679,000. These events and conditions, along with other matters as set forth in note 2.1 to the consolidated financial statements, indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Key audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

In addition to the matter described in the Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern section, we have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Fair Value of Investment Properties

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Refer to note 2.2.4, note 4.5 and note 7 to the consolidated financial statements.	We performed the following audit procedures:
As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, carrying amount of investment properties of the Group amounted to approximately RMB113,263 million, RMB121,088 million and RMB122,852 million respectively. During the Relevant Periods, the Group recognised fair value changes on investment properties of approximately RMB1,455 million, RMB23 million and RMB39 million respectively.	(1) Understood and evaluated the internal controls over the management's estimation of fair value of investment properties and tested the effectiveness of key controls over the fair value estimation of investment properties.
The Group determined fair value of the investment properties based on the results of valuations done by independent professional qualified valuers. The determination of fair value involved significant accounting judgements and estimates, including selection of valuation method, and usage of key inputs, such as current rental, estimated future rental, term yield, reversionary yield, estimated construction costs to completion, and estimated profit margin required to hold and develop property to completion.	(2) Obtained list of investment properties with detailed information and performed site-visit in person to verify the current lease situation of investment properties under lease arrangement, on a sampling basis.
We consider fair value of investment properties as a Key Audit Matter because the valuation of the investment properties has a significant impact on the Group's consolidated financial position and financial performance. The inherent risk in relation to the fair value of investment properties is considered significant due to the significant judgement and estimates involved.	(3) Assessed the independence, professional qualification and competence of the management expert.
	(4) Understood and assessed the appropriateness of the valuation method adopted and engaged our internal expert to review the reasonableness of valuation methodologies, assumptions and parameters applied in the valuation, where applicable.
	(5) Compared the actual rents applied in the valuation assessment against the lease register and lease agreements, on a sampling basis.
	Based on our audit procedures performed, we consider management's estimates and judgements on fair value of investment properties were supported by the evidence we gathered

Classification of Subsidiary, Joint Venture and Associate

Refer to note 2.2.1, note 4.6, note 9, note 10 and note 39 to the consolidated financial statements.

The Group co-operated with other entities in property development business. As of 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, carrying amounts of investments in associates and joint ventures amounted to approximately RMB12,833 million, RMB12,854 million and RMB10,460 million and approximately RMB12,958 million, RMB11,715 million and RMB10,648 million respectively. At the same time, the Group had a large number of non-wholly owned subsidiaries with total non-controlling interests of approximately RMB48,261 million, RMB44,637 million and RMB40,436 million as at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, respectively.

The Group classified the investments into subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates based on the power and return terms specified in the investment contracts, articles of association of the investee companies and other legal documents. Subsidiaries are consolidated, which means each asset, liability and transaction are shown in the Group's financial statements, whereas investments in associates and joint ventures are shown as a single line item in the consolidated statements of financial position with a single item of income/loss for their net results.

We consider classification of subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates as a Key Audit Matter because the classification of an investment as a subsidiary, joint venture or associate involves significant accounting judgements and the classification determines consolidation scope which further significantly affects the Group's total assets, total liabilities, revenue, costs and expenses.

We performed the following audit procedures:

- (1) Understood and evaluated the internal controls over the Group's classification of subsidiary, joint venture and associate and tested the effectiveness of the corresponding key control execution.
- (2) Examined, on a sampling basis, the legal documents associated with investments, including investment contracts, investee company's articles of association and other relevant legal documents, to assess the key terms, with a particular focus on governance structure, rights of the investors, decision making mechanism, profit-sharing arrangements, exit and termination, etc.
- (3) Assessed the reasonableness of the consideration paid or received in acquisition or disposal of investment.
- (4) When there have been subsequent changes to the existing legal documents or transaction arrangements, assessed whether these changes would lead to a change of classification.
- (5) Sought for confirmations or phone calls on a sampling basis from the Group's co-operating parties to confirm key terms, including governance structure, rights of the investors, decision making mechanism, etc, where applicable.
- (6) Assessed the Group's presentation and disclosures in respect of the classification and carrying values of subsidiaries, joint ventures, and associates.

Based on our audit procedures performed, we consider management's judgements on classification of subsidiaries, associates, and joint ventures were supported by the evidence we gathered.

Provision for Impairment Loss of Properties Held or Under Development for Sale

Refer to 2.2.6, note 4.2 and note 15 to the consolidated financial statements.

As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, the Group's properties held or under development for sale amounted to approximately RMB204,413 million, RMB142,531 million and RMB97,030 million, representing approximately 44.1%, 37.8% and 31.4% of the Group's total assets, respectively.

The Group made provision for impairment loss when the net realisable value of the properties held or under development for sale is lower than their respective carrying amounts. The determination of net realisable value of properties held or under development for sale involves significant accounting estimate, including the estimated selling price, selling expenses to be incurred and costs to completion.

We consider provision for impairment loss of properties held or under development for sale as a Key Audit Matter because of the significance of the amount and the accounting estimate involved are subject to high degree of estimation uncertainty. The inherent risk in relation to the provision for impairment loss of properties held or under development for sale is considered.

We performed the following audit procedures:

- (1) Understood and evaluated the internal controls over the management's estimation of net realisable values of properties held or under development for sale and making provisions for impairment loss and tested the effectiveness of key controls.
- (2) Compared the estimated selling price to the Group's pre-sale price/actual selling price or the prevailing market price of the project's units on a sampling basis.
- (3) For estimated costs to completion of properties under development, compared the estimated costs to completion to the budgets approved by management after netting actual costs incurred on a sampling basis.
- (4) Compared the estimated selling expenses to be incurred to revenue ratio with the actual selling expenses to revenue ratio of the Group.
- (5) Compared, on a sample basis, the actual realisation of properties held or under development for sale with management's estimate made in last year to evaluate the accuracy of management's net realisable value assessment.
- (6) Obtained the net realisable value calculation prepared by the management and tested the accuracy by recalculate the provision for impairment loss of properties held or under development for sale, on a sampling basis.

Based on the procedures performed, we consider management's estimates on provision for impairment loss of properties held or under development for sale were supported by the evidence we gathered.

Other Matter

The Company has prepared a separate set of consolidated financial statements available for public use for each of the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the HKICPA on which another audit firm and us issued a separate auditor's report to the shareholders of the Company dated 31 March 2023, 28 March 2024 and 28 March 2025 respectively.

Responsibilities of Directors for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the HKICPA, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors assisted by the Audit Committee are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

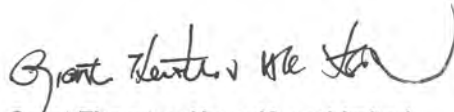

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

Seazen Group Limited was incorporated in the Cayman Islands on 23 April 2010 as an exempted company with limited liability under the Companies Law (2010 Revision) of the Cayman Islands. The address of its registered office is Grand Pavilion, Hibiscus Way, 802 West Bay Road, P.O. Box 31119, Grand Cayman KY1-1205, Cayman Islands.

The principal activities of the Company and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”) are property development and property investment in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”). The Company’s parent company is Wealth Zone Hong Kong Investments Limited (“Wealth Zone Hong Kong”) and the Company’s ultimate holding company is First Priority Group Limited, both of which are incorporated in the British Virgin Islands. The ultimate controlling party of the Group is Mr. Wang Zhenhua (“Mr. Wang” or the “Controlling Shareholder”).

The Company’s shares began to list on the Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“The Stock Exchange”) on 29 November 2012 (the “Listing”).

The consolidated financial statements are presented in thousands of Renminbi (“RMB’000”), unless otherwise stated.

These consolidated financial statements set out on pages F-8 to F-155 have been approved and authorised for issue by the board of directors (the “Board”) of the Company on 9 June 2025.

2. SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 Basis of preparation

(i) Purpose

These consolidated financial statements are prepared for the purpose of preparation of financial information for inclusion in the offering memorandum of the Company in connection with the debt offering of the Group. The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards. All HKFRS Accounting Standards effective for the accounting period commencing from 1 January 2024, together with the relevant transitional provisions, have been early adopted by the Group throughout the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 (“Relevant Periods”).

(ii) Historical cost convention

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss ("FVPL") and financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI") and investment properties, which are carried at fair value.

(iii) Going concern basis

As at 31 December 2024, the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by approximately RMB17,743,103,000. As at the same date, the Group had current borrowings amounted to approximately RMB16,071,392,000 in aggregate, while its cash and cash equivalents amounted to approximately RMB6,914,613,000 and restricted cash amounted to approximately RMB3,703,679,000.

The above events and conditions indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern.

In view of such circumstances, the directors have given careful consideration to the future liquidity and performance of the Group, its available sources of financing, past performance of management and policy trend in assessing whether the Group will have sufficient financial sources to continue as a going concern. With the efforts made in the past year, the Group fully capitalised on the policy support to optimise facility line and structure and reduce financing costs, ensuring the full payment in the open market when maturity. The following measures are formulated to mitigate the liquidity pressure and to improve the financial position of the Group:

- 1) further enhancing the Group's advantages in commercial operation management and increasing the commercial operation revenue as a major source of funds for repayments of principals and interests of interests-bearing liabilities;

- 2) continuing to leverage financial policy support to increase operating property loan financing, increase open market bond financing, actively promote the registration and issuance of consumer infrastructure REITS, actively participate in real estate related innovative financing, and at the same time actively promote equity financing to increase capital and funding, adjust the gearing structure and reduce the gearing ratio. Seizing the opportunity of market stabilisation to restore and enhance principal credit financing to complement asset credit financing;
- 3) seizing the opportunities of implementing resumption policy and adopting various methods to revitalise existing assets to increase cash sources;
- 4) continuing to enhance communications with major constructors and supplier, amicably negotiating the proper arrangements of payment schedules and methods to smooth out the payments for project costs and materials and keep the constructions of projects proceeding as scheduled.

The directors have reviewed the Group's cash flow projections prepared by management, which cover a period of not less than twelve months from the reporting date of the consolidated financial statements. In view of the recovery of industry and market confidence, comprehensive policy support, extensive experience in liquidity management, continuous availability of financing resources, the Boards are of the opinion that, the Group will have sufficient working capital to finance its operations and to meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due within twelve months from 31 December 2024. Accordingly, the Board are satisfied that it is appropriate to prepare the consolidated financial statements of the Group on a going concern basis.

Nevertheless, the Group's ability to continue as a going concern is subject to its ability to consolidate its dominant position in business operations and management, secure new financing or reach necessary arrangements with financial institutions by leveraging financial policy support, capitalize on land acquisition and land bank policies to revitalize existing assets, meet the terms/financial covenants of various loans, and communicate with construction and suppliers to properly arrange payment schedules and methods. Should the Group be unable to achieve the above mentioned measures and operate as a going concern, adjustments would have to be made to the financial statements and write down the carrying values of the Group's assets to their recoverable amounts, to recognise for any further liabilities which might arise, and to reclassify non-current assets and non-current liabilities as current assets and current liabilities, respectively. The effects of these adjustments have not been reflected in the consolidated financial statements.

2.2 Summary of material accounting policies

2.2.1 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting

(i) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity where the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group (refer to note 2.2.2).

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statements of financial position, consolidated statements of profit or loss, consolidated statements of comprehensive income and consolidated statements of changes in equity respectively.

(ii) Associates

Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control or joint control. This is generally the case where the Group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting (see (iv) below), after initially being recognised at cost.

(iii) Joint arrangements

Under HKFRS 11 Joint Arrangements investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures. The classification depends on the contractual rights and obligations of each investor, rather than the legal structure of the joint arrangement. The Group has assessed the nature of its joint arrangements and determined them to be joint ventures.

Interests in joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method (see (iv) below), after initially being recognised at cost in the consolidated statements of financial position.

(iv) Equity accounting

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in profit or loss, and the Group's share of movements in other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from associates and joint ventures are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

When the Group's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates and joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in these entities. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amount of equity-accounted investments is tested for impairment in accordance with the policy described in note 2.2.5.

(v) Changes in ownership interests

The Group treats transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in a loss of control as transactions with equity owners of the Group. A change in ownership interest results in an adjustment between the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests to reflect their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount of the adjustment to non-controlling interests and any consideration paid or received is recognised in a separate reserve within equity attributable to owners of the Company.

When the Group ceases to consolidate or equity account for an investment because of a loss of control, joint control or significant influence, any retained interest in the entity is remeasured to its fair value with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. This fair value becomes the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable HKFRSs.

If the ownership interest in a joint venture or an associate is reduced but joint control or significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss where appropriate.

2.2.2 Business combinations

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations, regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the:

- fair values of the assets transferred;
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired business;
- equity interests issued by the Group;
- fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement; and
- fair value of any pre-existing equity interest in the subsidiary.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The Group recognises any noncontrolling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the noncontrolling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The excess of the - consideration transferred,

- amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity, and
- acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity.

Over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised directly in profit or loss as a bargain purchase.

Where settlement of any part of cash consideration is deferred, the amounts payable in the future are discounted to their present value as at the date of exchange. The discount rate used is the entity's incremental borrowing rate, being the rate at which a similar borrowing could be obtained from an independent financier under comparable terms and conditions. Contingent consideration is classified either as equity or a financial liability. Amounts classified as a financial liability are subsequently remeasured to fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date. Any gains or losses arising from such remeasurement are recognised in profit or loss.

2.2.3 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. The initial cost of an asset comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use.

Properties in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss. Various costs incurred for qualifying assets and borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. Such properties are classified to the appropriate categories of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for intended use. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance costs are charged to the consolidated statements of profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost or revalued amounts, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of leasehold improvements, the shorter lease term as follows:

- Buildings	20 - 30 years
- Transport equipment	3 - 20 years
- Furniture, fitting and equipment	3 - 12 years
- Decoration	3 -5 years

The assets' residual value and useful life are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in profit or loss. When revalued assets are sold, it is group policy to transfer any amounts included in other reserves in respect of those assets to retained earnings.

2.2.4 Investment properties

Property that is held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both, and that is not occupied by the Group, is classified as investment property.

Investment property also includes property that is being constructed or developed for future use as investment property.

The Group is the lessor of certain leased properties. For leased right-of-use assets together with leasehold improvements leased out, the Group classifies them as investment properties and measured them at fair value.

Investment property is measured initially at its cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. After initial recognition, investment property is carried at fair value. Changes in fair value are recognised and presented separately in the consolidated statements of profit or loss.

Fair value is based on active market prices, adjusted, if necessary, for any difference in the nature, location or condition of the specific asset. If this information is not available, the Group uses alternative valuation methods such as recent prices on less active markets or discounted cash flow projections. These valuations are performed at balance sheet date by external valuers.

Property under construction is measured at fair value if the fair value is considered to be reliably measurable. If the fair value cannot be reliably determined, the investment property under construction will be measured at cost until such time as fair value can be determined or construction is completed, whichever is earlier. Any difference between the fair value of the property at that date and its then carrying amount shall be recognised in the consolidated statements of profit or loss. Investment property that is being redeveloped for continuing use as investment property, or for which the market has become less active, continues to be measured at fair value.

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised to the asset's carrying amount only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed when incurred.

When an operating lease contract is entered into with another party on a property originally held for owner-occupation and upon the inception of the lease, the property is transferred from property, plant and equipment to investment property. The property, plant and equipment is fair valued at the date of transfer, and any revaluation gain is credited to other comprehensive income. The revaluation gain included in equity will be transferred directly to retained earnings when the revaluation gain is realised, when the asset is derecognised.

2.2.5 Impairment of non-financial assets

The following items are subject to impairment testing:

- Goodwill;
- Other intangible assets;
- Property, plant and equipment (including right-of-use assets); and
- The Company's interests in subsidiaries.

Goodwill is not subject to amortisation and is tested annually for impairment, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it might be impaired. Other assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

2.2.6 Properties held or under development for sale

Properties held or under development for sale are included in current assets at the lower of cost and net realisable value. The costs of properties held or under development consist of costs of leasehold land, construction expenditure, capitalised borrowing costs and other direct costs incurred during the development period. The costs of properties held are determined by apportionment of the total development costs for that development project attributable to the unsold properties. Net realisable value is based on estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business as determined by management with reference to the prevailing market conditions, less further costs expected to be incurred to completion and selling and marketing costs.

2.2.7 Borrowings and borrowing costs

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently stated at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in the consolidated statements of profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless as at the end of the reporting period, the Group has a right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the end of the reporting period.

Covenants that the Group is required to comply with, on or before the end of the reporting period, are considered in classifying loan arrangement with covenants as current or non-current. Covenants that the Group is required to comply with after the reporting period do not affect the classification.

Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facilities will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the drawdown occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facilities to which it relates.

Borrowings are removed from the statements of financial position when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in profit or loss as other income or finance costs.

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale. Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period when they are incurred.

2.2.8 Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense for the year is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the Company and its subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluate positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

2.2.8 Current and deferred income tax (Continued)

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. The deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss, and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

The deferred tax liability in relation to investment property that is measured at fair value is determined assuming the property will be recovered entirely through sale.

For leasing transactions in which the tax deductions are attributable to the lease liabilities, the Group applies the requirements in HKAS 12 to the lease liabilities and the related assets separately. The Group recognises a deferred tax asset related to the lease liabilities to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary difference can be utilised and a deferred tax liability for all taxable temporary differences.

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

2.2.8 Current and deferred income tax (Continued)

Companies within the Group may be entitled to claim special tax deductions for investments in qualifying assets or in relation to qualifying expenditure. The Group accounts for such allowances as tax credits, which means that the allowance reduces income tax payable and current tax expense. A deferred tax asset is recognised for unclaimed tax credits that are carried forward as deferred tax assets.

2.2.9 Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised when: the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is more likely than not that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount has been reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group. It can also be a present obligation arising from past events that is not recognised because it is not probable that outflow of economic resources will be required or the amount of obligation cannot be measured reliably.

A contingent liability is not recognised but is disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements. When a change in the probability of an outflow occurs so that outflow is probable, it will then be recognised as a provision.

2.2.10 Revenue recognition

- (a) The following is a description of the accounting policy for the principal revenue streams of the Group:

(i) Sales of properties

Control of the property under all the property development and sales contract is transferred at a point in time, revenue is recognised when the property is accepted by the customer, or deemed as accepted according to the contract, which is the point in time when the customer has the ability to direct the use of the property and obtain substantially all of the remaining benefits of the property, and the Group has present right to payment and the collection of the consideration is probable.

In determining the transaction price, the Group adjusts the promised amount of consideration for the effect of a financing component.

(ii) Commercial property management service

The Group provides commercial property management services. Revenue from providing services is recognised in the accounting period in which the services are rendered.

For commercial property management services, the Group billed a fixed amount each month for services provided and recognised as revenue in the amount to which the Group has a right to invoice and corresponds directly with value of performance completed.

If contracts involve the sale of multiple services, the transaction price will be allocated to each performance obligation based on their relative stand-alone selling prices. If the standard-alone selling prices are not directly observable, they are estimated based on expected cost plus a margin or adjusted market assessment approach, depending on the availability of observable information.

A receivable is recorded when the Group has an unconditional right to consideration. A right to consideration is unconditional if only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due.

- (a) The following is a description of the accounting policy for the principal revenue streams of the Group: (Continued)

(iii) Other services

The Group provides various services to its customers at fixed or variable amounts. If the consideration is variable, the Group estimates the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for the promised goods or services. The estimated amount of variable consideration is included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved. The Group recognises revenue associated with fixed fees over time where the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group or when the Group's performance do not create an asset with alternative use and the Group has an enforceable right to perform completed to date, by reference to completion of the specific transaction assessed on the basis of the actual costs incurred up to the end of the reporting period as a percentage of total estimated costs for each contract.

- (b) Contract cost – cost to obtain a contract

The Group recognises the incremental costs of obtaining a contract with a customer as an asset if the entity expects to recover those costs. The incremental costs of obtaining a contract are the costs that the Group incurs in its efforts to obtain a contract that would not have been incurred if the contract had not been obtained.

- (c) Presentation of contract liabilities

Advanced proceeds received from customers are presented as contract liabilities.

- (d) Accounting for significant financing component

Following the adoption of HKFRS 15, the amount of revenue recognised exceeds the amount of cash received from the customers when an arrangement contains a significant financing component.

2.2.11 Leases

Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group.

Contracts may contain both lease and non-lease components. The Group allocates the consideration in the contract to the lease and non-lease components based on their relative stand-alone prices. However, for leases of real estate for which the Group is a lessee, it has elected not to separate lease and non-lease components and instead accounts for these as a single lease component.

Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose any covenants other than the security interests in the leased assets that are held by the lessor. Leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable
- variable lease payment that are based on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise that option, and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising that option.

Lease payments to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liability.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, which is generally the case for leases in the Group, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the individual lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

To determine the incremental borrowing rate, the Group:

- where possible, uses recent third-party financing received by the individual lessee as a starting point, adjusted to reflect changes in financing conditions since third party financing was received
- uses a build-up approach that starts with a risk-free interest rate adjusted for credit risk for leases held by the Group, which does not have recent third party financing, and
- makes adjustments specific to the lease, e.g. term, country, currency and security.

If a readily observable amortising loan rate is available to the individual lessee (through recent financing or market data) which has a similar payment profile to the lease, then the group entities use that rate as a starting point to determine the incremental borrowing rate.

The Group is exposed to potential future increases in variable lease payments based on an index or rate, which are not included in the lease liability until they take effect. When adjustments to lease payments based on an index or rate take effect, the lease liability is reassessed and adjusted against the right-of-use asset.

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received
- any initial direct costs, and
- restoration costs.

Right-of-use assets are generally depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term on a straight-line basis. If the Group is reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option, the right-of-use asset is amortised over the underlying asset's useful life. While the Group revalues its land and buildings that are presented within property, plant and equipment, it has chosen not to do so for the right-of-use buildings held by the Group.

Payments associated with short-term leases of equipment and vehicles and all leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less. Low-value assets comprise IT equipment and small items of office furniture.

Lease income from operating leases where the Group is a lessor is recognised in income on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Initial direct costs incurred in obtaining an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the underlying asset and recognised as expense over the lease term on the same basis as lease income. The respective leased assets are included in the statements of financial position based on their nature.

2.3 Summary of other accounting policies

2.3.1 Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2.3.2 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker.

The board of the Company has appointed a strategic steering committee which assesses the financial performance and position of the Group, and makes strategic decisions. The steering committee, which has been identified as being the chief operating decision maker, consists of the chief executive officer, the chief financial officer and the manager for corporate planning.

2.3.3 Foreign currency translation

(i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ("the functional currency"). Since the majority of the assets and operations of the Group are located in the PRC, the financial statements are presented in RMB, which is the functional currency of the Company and the presentation currency of the Group.

(ii) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in profit or loss. They are deferred in equity if they relate to qualifying cash flow hedges and qualifying net investment hedges or are attributable to part of the net investment in a foreign operation.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings and cash and cash equivalents are presented in the consolidated statements of profit or loss within 'finance income or costs'. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the consolidated statements of profit or loss within 'other gains or losses – net'.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gain or loss. For example, translation differences on non-monetary assets and liabilities such as equities held at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in profit or loss as part of the fair value gain or loss and translation differences on non-monetary assets such as equities classified as financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income are recognised in other comprehensive income.

(iii) Group companies

The results and financial position of foreign operations (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- (a) assets and liabilities for each statement of financial position of the Group entities are translated at the closing date of that statements of financial position;
- (b) income and expenses for each statement of profit or loss and statement of comprehensive income of the Group entities are translated at average exchange rate; and
- (c) all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated as a separate component of equity.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of any net investment in foreign entities, and of borrowings and other financial instruments designated as hedges of such investments, are recognised in other comprehensive income. When a foreign operation is sold or any borrowings forming part of the net investment are repaid, the associated exchange differences are reclassified to profit or loss, as part of the gain or loss on sale.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign operation are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign operation and translated at the closing rate.

2.3.4 Discontinued Operation

A discontinued operation is a component of the entity that has been disposed of or is classified as held for sale and that represents a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations, is part of a single co-ordinated plan to dispose of such a line of business or area of operations, or is a subsidiary acquired exclusively with a view to resale. The results of discontinued operation are presented separately in the consolidated statements of profit or loss.

2.3.5 Intangible assets

(i) Trademarks, patent and client resources

Separately acquired trademarks and licences are shown at historical cost. Trademarks, licences and client resources acquired in a business combination are recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. They have a finite useful life and are subsequently carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses.

(ii) Computer software

Computer software of the Group comprises acquired computer software which is capitalised on the basis of the costs incurred to acquire and bring to use the specific software.

(iii) Amortisation methods and periods

The Group amortises intangible assets with a limited useful life using the straight-line method over the following periods:

Trademarks	10 years
Computer software	5 years
Patent	10 years
Client resources	10 years

The assets' amortisation methods and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period. Intangible assets, with finite and indefinite useful lives, are tested for impairment as described below in note 2.2.5.

2.3.6 Investments and other financial assets

(a) Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value either at FVOCI or FVTPL and
- those to be measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or OCI. For investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at FVOCI.

The Group reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes.

(b) Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at FVPL, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.

Transaction costs of financial assets carried at FVPL are expensed in consolidated statements of profit or loss.

Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Group's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the Group classifies its debt instruments:

- Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition is recognised directly in profit or loss and presented in other gains/(losses), together with foreign exchange gains and losses. Impairment losses are presented as separate line item in the consolidated statements of profit or loss.

- FVOCI: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at FVOCI. Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest income and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit or loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in other gains/(losses). Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method. Foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in other gains/(losses) and impairment loss are presented as separate line item in the consolidated statements of profit or loss.
- FVPL: Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at FVPL. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at FVPL is recognised in profit or loss and presented net within other gains/(losses) in the period in which it arises. Dividend income from these financial assets is included in other income.

Equity instruments

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the Group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in OCI, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends from such investments continue to be recognised in profit or loss as other income when the Group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes of financial assets at FVPL are recognised in other gains/(losses) in the consolidated statements of profit or loss as applicable. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on equity investments measured at FVOCI are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

(c) Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses on a forward looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its debt instrument carried at amortised cost and financial assets at fair value through OCI. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. Note 3.1.2 details how the Group determines whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For trade receivables, the Group applies the simplified approach permitted by HKFRS 9, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

For other receivables, financial assets at amortised cost and financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, the Group applies the general model for expected credit loss prescribed by HKFRS 9, since credit risk has not significantly increased after initial recognition, the loss allowance recognised was therefore limited to 12 months expected losses.

(d) Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

2.3.7 Trade and other receivables

When a trade and other receivable is uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account for trade and other receivables. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to the consolidated statements of profit or loss.

Trade and other receivables are included in current assets, except for those maturing more than twelve months after the reporting period (or out of the normal operating cycle of the business if longer) which are classified as non-current assets.

See note 16 for further information about the Group's aging for trade and other receivables and note 3.1.2 for a description of the Group's impairment policies.

2.3.8 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statements of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Restricted cash is excluded from cash and cash equivalents.

2.3.9 Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities unless payment is not due within 12 months after the reporting period (or out of the normal operating cycle of the business if longer).

Trade and other payables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Debt restructuring is a transaction in which, without changing the counterparty, a new agreement is reached between the creditor and debtor, or ruled by a court, regarding the time, amount, or method of debt repayment.

As a debtor, if the Group repay the debts by transferring assets, the relevant assets and debts should be derecognised when meeting the conditions of derecognition. The difference between the book value of settled debts and transferred assets shall be recognised in the profit and loss.

In addition, if debt restructuring is carried out by modifying other terms which resulting in the derecognition of the original debt, the Group shall initially measure the restructured debt at fair value according to the modified terms. The difference between the initially measurement amount of the restructured debt and the book value of the original debt on the date of derecognition shall be recognised in the profit and loss. If the modification of other terms does not result in the derecognition of the original debt, the original debt shall continue to be measured according to its original classification, and the gains or losses arising from the modification shall be recognised in the profit and loss.

2.3.10 Employee benefits

In accordance with the rules and regulations of mainland China, the mainland China based employees of the Group participate in various defined contribution retirement benefit plans organised by the relevant municipal and provincial governments in the mainland China under which the Group and the mainland China based employees are required to make monthly contributions to these plans calculated as a percentage of the employees' salaries, subject to a certain ceiling.

The municipal and provincial governments undertake to assume the retirement benefit obligations of all existing and future retired mainland China based employees payable under the plans described above. Other than the monthly contributions, the Group has no further obligation for the payment of retirement and other post-retirement benefits of its employees. The assets of these plans are held separately from those of the Group in independently administrated funds managed by the municipal and provincial governments.

2.3.10 Employee benefits (Continued)

Termination benefits are payable when employment is terminated by the Group before the normal retirement date, or when an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits. The group recognises termination benefits at the earlier of the following dates: (a) when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits; and (b) when the entity recognises costs for a restructuring that is within the scope of HKAS 37 and involves the payment of terminations benefits. In the case of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy, the termination benefits are measured based on the number of employees expected to accept the offer. Benefits falling due more than 12 months after the end of the reporting period are discounted to present value.

2.3.11 Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts are recognised as a financial liability at the time the guarantee is issued. The liability is initially measured at fair value and subsequently at the higher of

- the amount determined in accordance with the expected credit loss model under HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments and
- the amount initially recognised less, where appropriate, the cumulative amount of income recognised in accordance with the principles of HKFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

The fair value of financial guarantees is determined based on the present value of the difference in cash flows between the contractual payments required under the debt instrument and the payments that would be required without the guarantee, or the estimated amount that would be payable to a third party for assuming the obligations.

Where guarantees in relation to loans or other payables of associates are provided for no compensation, the fair values are accounted for as contributions and recognised as part of the cost of the investment.

2.3.12 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- the profit attributable to owners of the company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares, by
- the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares, and
- the weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding.

2.3.13 Dividend distribution

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared, being appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the reporting period but not distributed at the end of the reporting period.

2.3.14 Interest income

Interest income from financial assets at FVPL is included in the net fair value gains/(losses) on these assets, see note 12 below.

Interest income on financial assets at amortised cost and financial assets at FVOCI calculated using the effective interest method is recognised in the statements of profit or loss as part of other income.

Interest income is presented as finance income where it is earned from financial assets that are held for cash management purposes, see note 11 below. Any other interest income is included in other income.

Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset except for financial assets that subsequently become credit-impaired. For credit-impaired financial assets the effective interest rate is applied to the net carrying amount of the financial asset (after deduction of the loss allowance).

3. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

3.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including foreign exchange risk, price risk, cashflow and fair value interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

3.1.1 Market risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

The Group is engaged in the development, sale and management of properties solely in the PRC with almost all the transactions denominated in RMB, except for certain financing activities, including the placing, certain borrowings from banks and issuance of senior notes which are denominated in Hong Kong Dollar ("HKD") or United States Dollar ("USD"). As of 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, majority of the Group's assets and liabilities are denominated in RMB except that certain cash and borrowings are denominated in HKD or USD.

Cash and borrowings not denominated in functional currency is subject to foreign exchange risk. Fluctuations in the exchange rates of HKD and USD against RMB will affect the Group's result of operations. The Group currently does not have a foreign currency hedging policy. However, management closely monitors the foreign exchange exposure and will take actions when necessary.

As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, if RMB had strengthened/weakened by 5%, against HKD and USD with all other variables held constant, post-tax profit for the year would have been RMB225,119,000, RMB190,916,000 and RMB362,847,000 higher/lower, respectively, mainly as a result of net foreign exchange gains/losses on translation of HKD and USD denominated bank deposits and borrowings.

3. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (CONTINUED)

3.1.1 Market risk

(ii) Price risk

The Group is exposed to price risk because of investments held by the Group and classified on the consolidated statements of financial position either as FVPL (note 12) or FVOCI (note 12). In the opinion of the directors, the Group's exposure to price risk with regard to its investments is not significant since it is the Group's policy not to invest significant amounts that might have a detrimental impact to the Group's financial results. All investments must be approved by the Chairman of the Board before they may be entered into.

The following table summarises the impact of increase/(decrease) of fair value of the financial assets with all other variable held constant on net profit and other comprehensive income.

- 5 percent higher	45,257	31,885	33,578	32,073	7,430	4,690
- 5 percent lower	(45,257)	(31,885)	(33,578)	(32,073)	(7,430)	(4,690)

(iii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

Except for cash deposits in the bank and certain balances in trade and other receivables and financial assets at amortised cost, the Group has no other significant interest-generating assets.

The Group's exposure to changes in interest rates is mainly attributable to its borrowings. Borrowings at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. Borrowings at fixed rates expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk. The Group has not hedged its cash flow or fair value interest rate risk. The interest rate and terms of repayments of borrowings are disclosed in note 20.

Management does not anticipate significant impact to interest-bearing assets resulted from the changes in interest rates, because the interest rates of bank deposits and certain balances in trade and other receivables are not expected to change significantly.

(iii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk (continued)

As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, if interest rates on borrowings with floating rates had been 50 basis points higher/lower with all other variables held constant, the post-tax profit and capitalised interest of the Group for the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 would have changed as follows:

	RMB'000	RMB'000	RMB'000
Post-tax profit increase/ (decrease)
- 50 basis points higher	(33,925)	(34,595)	(56,572)
- 50 basis points lower	33,925	34,595	56,572
Capitalised interest increase/ (decrease)
- 50 basis points higher	109,387	56,180	23,938
- 50 basis points lower	(109,387)	(56,180)	(23,938)

3.1.2 Credit risk

The Group is exposed to credit risk in relation to its trade and other receivables, cash deposits with bank, financial assets at amortised cost, financial assets at FVOCI and financial guarantee.

The carrying amounts of trade and other receivables, restricted cash and cash and cash equivalents represent the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to financial assets.

Credit risk refers to the risk that the counterparty to a financial instrument would fail to discharge the obligation under the terms of financial instrument and cause a financial loss to the Group. The Group considered the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there's a significant increase in credit risk, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forward-looking information. Especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- internal credit rating
- external credit rating

- actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the borrower's ability to meet its obligations
- actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the borrower
- significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same borrower
- significant changes in the expected performance and behaviour of the borrower, including changes in the payment status of borrowers in the Group and changes in the operating results of the borrower

(a) Risk management

The Group has no significant concentrations of credit risk, with exposure spread over a large number of counterparties and buyers. The maximum extent of the Group's credit exposure in relation to financial assets is represented by the aggregate balance of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, trade and other receivable and derivative financial instruments included in the consolidated statements of financial position and financial guarantees provided to related companies and guarantees on mortgage facilities.

Cash transactions are limited to high-credit-quality banks. The Group has policies in place to ensure that sales of properties are made to customers with an appropriate financial strength and appropriate percentage of down payment. Credit is granted to customers with sufficient financial strength. It also has continuous monitoring procedures to ensure the collection of the receivables as scheduled and follow up action is taken to recover overdue debts, if any.

Certain customers of the Group have arranged bank financing for their purchases of the properties. The Group typically provides guarantees to secure obligations of such customers for repayments, normally up to the time when the customers obtain the legal certificates of the property ownership. Detailed disclosure of these guarantees is made in note 34.

(b) Cash in banks

The Group expects that there is no significant credit risk associated with cash deposits at banks since they are substantially deposited with state-owned banks and other medium or large size listed banks. Management does not expect that there will be any significant losses from non-performance by these counterparties.

(c) Trade receivables

The Group applies the simplified approach to providing for expected credit losses prescribed by HKFRS 9, which permits the use of the lifetime expected loss provision for all trade receivables. To measure the expected credit losses, trade receivables have been grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics and the days past due. The expected credit loss also incorporate forward looking information.

As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, the loss allowance was determined as follows for trade receivables:

	Current RMB'000
As at 31 December 2022

	RMB'000	RMB'000	RMB'000
At 1 January	14,047	15,075	16,021
Increase in loss allowance recognised in profit or loss during the year	1,028	946	77,801
Amount written off during the year	-	-	(78,187)
At 31 December	15,075	16,021	15,635

Trade receivables are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Indicators that there is no reasonable expectation of recovery include, amongst others, the failure of a debtor to engage in a repayment plan with the Group. The Group made no written off for trade receivables during the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024.

(d) Other receivables

The Group uses three categories for other receivables which reflect their credit risk and how the loss provision is determined for each of those categories. These internal credit risk ratings are aligned to external credit ratings.

A summary of the assumptions underpinning the Group's expected credit loss model is as follows:

Category	Group definition of category	Basis for recognition of expected credit loss provision	Basis for calculation of interest revenue
Stage one	Customers have a low risk of default and a strong capacity to meet contractual cash flow	12 months expected losses. Where the expected lifetime of an asset is less than 12 months, expected losses are measured at its expected lifetime	Gross carrying amount
Stage two	Receivables for which there is a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition	Lifetime expected losses	Gross carrying amount
Stage three	Receivables for which there is a credit risk since initial recognition	Lifetime expected losses	Amortised cost carrying amount (net of credit allowance)

The Group accounts for its credit risk by appropriately providing for expected losses on a timely basis. In calculating the expected credit loss rates, the Group considers historical loss rates for each category of receivables and adjusts for forward looking macroeconomic data.

(e) Financial assets at amortised cost

Debt investment at amortised cost mainly include listed debt securities. The Group calculates the expected credit loss based on the default risk exposure and the expected credit loss rate within the next 12 months or the entire duration according to the nature of the investment and the various types of counterparties and risk exposures.

(f) Financial assets at FVOCI

Debt investments at FVOCI mainly include listed debt securities. The loss allowance for debt investments at FVOCI is recognised in profit or loss and reduces the fair value loss otherwise recognised in OCI.

(g) Financial guarantee

The Group has policies in place to ensure that sales are made to purchasers with an appropriate financial strength and appropriate percentage of down payments. The Group has arranged bank financing for certain purchasers of the Group's property units and provided guarantees to secure obligations of such purchasers for repayments. If a purchaser defaults on the payment of its mortgage loan during the guarantee period, the bank holding the guarantee may demand the Group to repay the outstanding principal of the loan and any interest accrued thereon. Under such circumstances, the Group is able to forfeit the customer's deposit and resell the property to recover any amounts paid by the Group to the bank. In this regard, the directors consider that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

The Group also provides guarantees to certain related parties of the Group to obtain borrowings after assessing the credit history and pledge information of these related parties. The Group closely monitors the repayment progress of the relevant borrowings by these related parties. In the opinion of the directors of the Group, the related party transactions were carried out in the normal course of business and at terms mutually negotiated between the Group and the respective related parties. The directors consider that the likelihood of default in payments is not material, as all the related parties are engaged in property development with solid financial position.

3.1.3 Liquidity risk

Management of the Group aims to maintain sufficient cash through internally generated sales proceeds and an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to meet its operation needs and commitments in respect of property projects.

Due to dynamic nature of the underlying business, the management of the Group is closely monitoring the risk of the liquidity and takes the following actions to manage the liquidity risk:

- (i) prepares annual cash flow forecast and updates such forecast on a monthly basis to reflect the latest changes and monitor the liquidity risk closely;
- (ii) maintains strategic cooperation with major banks and other financial institutions to secure credit facilities where appropriate;
- (iii) continues to obtain longer term financing facilities, mainly issuance of senior notes, project bank loans with pledge of the Group's properties or other resources of funding which the Group considers appropriate;
- (iv) proactively promotes the sales of the Group's completed properties and pre-sales of properties under development. The Group also considers the flexibility of adjusting the price and volume on sale of properties for management of liquidity risk.

3.1.4 Capital risk management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

The Group monitors capital on the basis of the gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total capital. Net debt is calculated as total borrowings and lease liabilities less cash and cash equivalents. Total capital is calculated as total equity, as shown in the consolidated statements of financial position, plus net debt.

The gearing ratios of the Group at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 were as follows:

	As at 31 December
	2022 RMB'000	2023 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Total borrowings	79,537,554	63,169,600	57,733,115
Lease liabilities	680,142	1,379,259	1,325,095
Less: Cash and cash equivalents	(22,435,399)	(13,225,030)	(6,914,613)

Gearing ratio	38%	36%	38%

The Group has no significant change in gearing ratio as at 31 December 2024 as compared with that of 31 December 2022 and 2023.

3.2 Fair value estimation

(a) Financial assets and liabilities

(i) Valuation techniques used to determine fair value

The table below analyses financial instruments carried at fair value by valuation method. The different levels have been defined as follows:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1).
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (Level 2).
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (Level 3).

(ii) Fair value hierarchy

Level 1: The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets (such as listed bond etc.) is based on quoted market prices at the end of the reporting period. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price. These instruments are included in level 1.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (such as restricted listed equity securities etc.) is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3. This is the case mainly for unlisted equity securities.

(iii) Fair value measurement using significant unobservable inputs

The following table presents the changes in level 3 items for the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024:

(v) Valuation processes

The finance department of the Group includes a team that performs the valuation of non-property items required for financial reporting purposes, including level 3 fair value. This team reports directly to the chief financial officer (CFO) and the audit committee (AC). Discussion of valuation processes and results are held between the CFO, AC and the valuation team at least once every six months, in line with the Group's half-yearly reporting periods.

Changes in level 2 and 3 fair value are analysed at the end of each reporting period during the half-yearly valuation discussion between the CFO, AC and the valuation team. As part of this discussion, the team presents a report that explains the reason for the fair value movements.

(b) Non-financial assets and liabilities

The Group's investment property is measured at fair value and under level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. Please see note 7 for details of valuation.

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The management makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are outlined below.

4.1 Development costs directly attributable to property development activities

The Group allocates portions of land and development costs to properties held and under development for sale. As certain of the Group's property development projects are developed and completed by phases, the budgeted development costs of the whole project are dependent on the estimate on the outcome of total development. Based on the experience and the nature of the development undertaken, the management makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Given the uncertainties involved in the property development activities, the related actual results may be higher or lower than the amount estimated at the end of the reporting period. Any change in estimates and assumptions would affect the Group's operating performance in future years.

4.2 Provision for impairment of properties held or under development for sale

The management makes provision for impairment of properties held or under development for sale based on the estimate of the recoverable amount of the properties. Given the volatility of the property market in the PRC, the actual recoverable amount may be higher or lower than the estimate made as at the end of the reporting period. Any increase or decrease in the provision would affect the Group's operating performance in future years.

4.3 Land appreciation tax of the PRC

The Group is subject to land appreciation tax in the PRC. However, since the implementation and settlement of the tax varies among various tax jurisdictions in cities of the PRC, significant estimate is required in determining the amount of the land appreciation tax. The Group recognises the land appreciation tax based on management's best estimates according to its understanding of the interpretation of tax rules by various tax authorities. The final tax outcome could be different from the amounts that were initially recorded, and these differences will impact the income tax expense in the periods in which such taxes have been finalised with local tax authorities.

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS (CONTINUED)

4.4 Current and deferred income tax

The Group is subject to corporate income tax in the PRC. Significant judgement is required in determining the provision for corporate income tax. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that we initially recorded, such difference will impact the income tax expense in the period in which such determination is made.

Deferred tax assets relating to certain temporary differences and tax losses are recognised when management considers to be probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences or tax losses can be utilised. The outcome of their actual utilisation may be different.

4.5 Fair value of investment properties

The fair value of investment properties is determined by using valuation techniques. Details of the judgement and assumptions have been disclosed in note 7.

4.6 Classification of subsidiary, joint venture and associate

In the normal course of business, the Group develops properties together with other developers or institutions, through entering into co-operation agreements with these parties. The rights and obligations of the Group and the other parties are stipulated by respective co-operation agreements, articles of associations of the project companies, etc. Because of the complexity of the arrangements, significant judgement is needed in determining whether the project company is subsidiary, joint venture or associate of the Group.

The Group makes judgement based on the substance of the arrangements and the definition of subsidiary, joint venture and associate as disclosed in note 2.2.1.

4.7 Impairment of financial assets at amortised cost and financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

The loss allowances for financial assets are based on assumptions about risk of default and expected loss rates. The Group uses judgement in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Group's past history, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting period. Details of the key assumptions and inputs used are disclosed in the tables in note 3.2.

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS (CONTINUED)

4.8 Revenue recognition

Determining whether revenue should be recognised at a point in time or over time involves judgment. The Group makes judgements based on the specification in contracts with customers, as well as relevant laws and regulations.

For contracts with variable amount, the Group estimates the amount that is highly probable that significant reversal will not occur for determining transition price.

Details of revenue recognition is disclosed in note 2.2.10.

5. SEGMENT INFORMATION

Management has determined the operating segments based on the reports reviewed by the chief operating decision maker (the “CODM”) that are used to make strategic decisions. The board of directors has been identified as the CODM.

The Group manages its business by two operating segments, which is consistent with the way in which information is reported internally to the Group’s CODM for the purpose of resources allocation and performance assessment. No operating segments have been aggregated to form the following reportable segments.

- Seazen Holdings Co., Ltd., a company listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange (the “A share company” or “Seazen Holdings”)
- Other service companies not within the A share company (the “Non-A share companies”)

The A share company is mainly engaged in development of residential properties and mixed-use complexes for sale and investment, while the Non-A share companies are mainly engaged in services. All the property development projects are in the PRC, and accordingly majority of the revenue of the Group are derived from the PRC and most of the assets are located in the PRC.

The CODM assesses the performance of the operating segments based on a measure of revenue and profit before income tax. The measurement basis excludes the effects of income tax expense.

The Group's depreciation charges of RMB4,240,000, RMB7,055,000 and RMB24,216,000 have been included in cost of sales and services, RMB28,002,000, RMB27,728,000 and RMB9,636,000 have been included in administrative expenses and RMB12,899,000, RMB12,899,000 and RMB11,479,000 in construction in progress, respectively.

As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, the Group has property leases with 13, 17 and 23 Wuyue Plazas with variable payment terms that are linked to sales generated from a Wuyue Plaza respectively. For individual Wuyue Plaza, up to 5.67%, 5.84% and 9.37% of lease payments are on the basis of variable payment terms with percentages ranging from 1% to 50% of sales, respectively. Variable payment terms are used for a variety of reasons, including minimising the fixed costs base for newly established stores. Variable lease payments that depend on sales are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which the condition that triggers those payments occurs.

A 10% increase in sales across all stores in the Group with such variable lease contracts would increase total lease payments by approximately RMB21,996,000, RMB23,454,000 and RMB42,986,000 in 2022, 2023 and 2024, respectively.

The total cash outflow for leases in 2022, 2023 and 2024 was RMB86,012,000, RMB131,390,000 and RMB139,963,000, respectively.

Fair value of all of the Group's investment properties are measured at Level 3, with significant unobservable inputs.

There were no transfers between Level 1, 2 and 3 during the years.

(i) Valuation processes of the Group

All investment properties were revalued as at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 by Cushman & Wakefield International Property Advisers, the independent professional qualified valuer.

The Group's finance team will review the valuation performed by the independent valuers, including:

- verifies all major inputs to the independent valuation report;
- assesses property valuation movements when compared to the prior year valuation report;
- holds discussions with independent valuers.

(ii) Valuation techniques

For investment properties to be developed and under development, the Group adopted direct comparison approach and investment approach, respectively. Direct comparison approach assumes sale of each of these properties in its existing status with the benefit of vacant possession. By making reference to sales transactions as available in the relevant market, comparable properties in close proximity have been selected and adjustments have been made to account for the difference in factors such as locations and property size.

Investment approach has taken into account the construction costs incurred and the costs that will be incurred to complete the development to reflect the quality of the completed development on the basis that the properties will be developed and completed in accordance with the Group's latest development plan. For completed investment properties, valuations were based on investment approach by capitalisation of the net rental income derived from the existing tenancy agreements with due allowance for reversionary income potential of the properties and by reference to comparable price in an active market.

The higher the term yield, the lower the fair value
					Reversionary yield	2022, 2023 and 2024: Reversionary yield of 4.5%-7%, taking into account annual unit market rental income and unit market value of the comparable properties.	The higher the reversionary yield, the lower the fair value

					Estimated profit margin required to hold and develop property to completion	2022 and 2023: 5%-25% of property value 2024: 2%-15% of property value	The higher the profit margin required, the lower the fair value
					Sales price	2022: RMB815-RMB3,168 per square metre 2023: RMB2,134 - RMB3,145 and 2024: RMB1,146 - RMB1,340	The higher the adjusted market price, the higher the fair value

Construction costs incurred are based on the actual costs incurred as reflected in the accounting records, while the construction costs to incur are based on the most updated budget for the construction of the properties.

For completed properties, valuations were based on either capitalisation of net rental income derived from the existing tenancies with allowance for the reversionary income potential of the properties or on direct comparison approach assuming sale of each of these properties in its existing state with the benefit of vacant possession by making reference to comparable sales transactions as available in the relevant market.

There's no contractual obligation for purchase, construct or develop investment property as for repairs, maintenance or enhancement.

(e) PRC corporate income tax

Under the Corporate Income Tax Law of the PRC (the “CIT Law”), the CIT rate applicable to the Group’s subsidiaries located in mainland China is 25%.

The CIT Law and its implementation rules impose a withholding tax at 10% for dividends distributed by a PRC-resident enterprise to its immediate holding company outside PRC for earnings generated beginning 1 January 2008 and undistributed earnings generated prior to 1 January 2008 are exempted from such withholding tax. A lower 5% withholding tax rate may be applied when the immediate holding companies are established in Hong Kong according to the tax treaty arrangement between the PRC and Hong Kong. For the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024, the Group accrued for PRC withholding tax based on the tax rate of 5% on a portion of the earnings generated by its PRC entities. The Group controls the dividend policies of these subsidiaries and it has been determined that it is probable that a majority of these earnings will not be distributed in the foreseeable future.

PRC land appreciation tax is levied at progressive rates ranging from 30% to 60% on the appreciation of land value, being the proceeds from sales of properties less deductible expenditures including lease charges for land use rights and all property development expenditures, and is included in the consolidated statements of profit or loss as income tax expense.

29. EARNINGS/(LOSS) PER SHARE

Profit/(Loss) from continuing operations attributable to equity holders of the Company (RMB'000)	280,673	(366,785)	491,312
Profit from discontinued operation attributable to equity holders of the Company (RMB'000)	-	1,246,081	-
	280,673	879,296	491,312
Number/Weight average number of ordinary shares in issue ('000)	6,490,443	7,043,583	7,043,583
Basic and diluted earnings/(loss) per share (RMB)
From continuing operations	0.04	(0.05)	0.07
	0.04	0.12	0.07

For the year ended 31 December 2022, the share options and awarded shares granted by the Company have potential dilutive effect on the EPS. Diluted EPS is calculated by adjusting the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding by the assumption of the conversion of all potential dilutive ordinary shares arising from share options granted by the Company (collectively forming the denominator for computing the diluted EPS). In addition, the profit attributable to equity holders (numerator) has been adjusted by the effect of the share options granted by the A share company, excluding those which have anti-dilutive effect to the Groups diluted EPS. Diluted earnings per share were equal to the basic earnings per share as the impact of the share option scheme had an anti-dilutive effect on the basic earnings per share amounts presented.

For the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2024, diluted earnings per share were equal to the basic earnings per share as the Group does not have any dilutive shares.
