CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Horizon Construction Development Limited
Chairman of the Board and Non-executive Director

KONG Fanxing

Amid various challenges, the year 2025 saw profound changes to the global economic landscape. In the face of profound changes in both domestic and international market environments, Horizon Construction Development Limited (the “Company” or “Horizon Construction Development”) and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) consistently adhered to its core principle of “prudent operations and lean management” throughout the year. In the domestic market, the Group focused on enhancing asset operation efficiency and regional business quality. While continuously expanding its overseas presence, it also prioritized developing local capabilities and systematic operations. The Group fully recognized that at this critical stage of transformation and upgrading, steady and sustainable progress in a complex environment can only be achieved by maintaining a clear strategic focus, optimizing resource allocation, and enhancing organizational resilience. None of this progress would have been possible without the dedicated efforts of the entire workforce and the long-standing trust and unwavering support of the Shareholders, creditors, customers and partners over the years. On behalf of the board of directors (the “Board”), the management and all staff, I would like to hereby express our heartfelt thanks to all of you.

China’s equipment operation service industry faced dual challenges arising from structural adjustments on both the supply and demand sides over the past year. Horizon Construction Development proactively responded to market changes by proactively adjusting its operational pace. Adopting a development strategy centered on “lean efficiency improvement and focus on the core”, it prudently optimized its asset management size, concentrating resources on high-efficiency regions and assets. This approach safeguarded asset health and maximized lifecycle benefits. As at the end of 2025, the number of aerial work platforms under the management of the Group was adjusted to approximately 200,700, the total material assets under management were adjusted to approximately 1.88 million tons, and the number of service outlets in China, including Hong Kong, China was optimized to 485. Through effective adjustments, the Group targeted new customers and scenarios more precisely, and focused on building comprehensive equipment operation service capabilities for customers across a broader range of industries. As at the end of the year, the cumulative number of customers served by the Group increased to over 400,000, thereby strengthening the Group’s business resilience.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

For overseas expansion, Horizon Construction Development adhered to a development strategy of “localized operations and systematic capabilities” in its existing overseas markets in seven countries, deepening local market penetration and customer relationship building while refining operating systems tailored to the characteristics of each market. Through dedicated efforts, as at the end of 2025, the Group had approximately 1,400 overseas employees, with a talent localization ratio of nearly 90%. The number of overseas service outlets increased to 77, having cumulatively served approximately 6,400 overseas customers. In 2025, the overseas operations contributed revenue of approximately RMB1,402 million and net profit of approximately RMB135 million. The scaling of the overseas operations yielded tangible results, and its role in supporting the Group’s steady development became increasingly prominent.

In summary, despite the intricate and volatile global market environment, Horizon Construction Development consistently adhered to the general strategy of prudent operations and pursuing progress while maintaining stability, striving to seek new growth directions amidst structural adjustments.

Looking back at 2025, the Board of Horizon Construction Development continued to strengthen corporate governance with a focus on refining the Board’s systems and operational mechanisms. These efforts were geared toward enhancing strategic leadership and the efficiency of scientific decision-making, thereby solidifying the governance foundation for long-term development. Under the requirements of the Corporate Governance Code of the Stock Exchange, the Company convened four regular meetings of the Board and respective professional committees in 2025 to consider a number of major issues concerning the Company’s long-term development and shareholder returns. The Company remained committed to optimizing governance structures and enhancing the transparency of information disclosure, with a view to effectively safeguarding the legitimate rights and interests of all shareholders through concrete actions.

Looking ahead to 2026, the external environment remains fraught with uncertainties, and yet in every crisis lies the seed of structural opportunities. Horizon Construction Development will persist in its “Three+Three+Three (三+三+三)” strategic framework and focus on achieving large-scale profitability in overseas operations and local penetration in foreign markets, steadily propelling the Group toward its vision of becoming a “a world-class comprehensive equipment operation service provider”. The Group firmly believes that, with the trust and support of the Shareholders, creditors, employees, customers and all partners, Horizon Construction Development will cultivate capabilities through challenges, seize early opportunities amid transformation, and deliver solid business results to honor every trust and expectation placed in the Group.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER'S STATEMENT

Horizon Construction Development Limited
Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer

ZHAN Jing

Dear Shareholders,

For the year under review, 2025 was a pivotal year as China concluded its “14th Five-Year Plan” and transitioned into the “15th Five-Year Plan”. Domestic economy exhibited remarkable resilience, with gross domestic product (GDP) reaching RMB140 trillion and growing by 5.0% year on year. Disparities in growth across industries became more pronounced. The real estate and infrastructure sectors faced adjustment pressures, while the construction industry saw sluggish growth. However, the construction machinery sector picked up with renewed development momentum. Rising infrastructure demand from overseas countries along the “Belt and Road” initiative also presented significant external opportunities.

The year 2025 marked a year of strategic consolidation for Horizon Construction Development centering on “lean operations and resilient perseverance”. Facing sustained pressures posed by the industry adjustment cycle, the Group adopted a market-oriented approach to continuously strengthen its competitive advantages. Through lean operations and upgrades, it reinforced its development foundation and gathered development momentum to navigate against headwinds in the industry cycle. Short-term market volatilities not only tested the resilience of the Company against risks but also created opportunities for industry consolidation and optimization. In order to achieve steady and sustainable development, the Group determined its development directions, namely focusing on high-value sectors and lean efficiency improvement, continuously fortifying risk barriers and adhering to the “Three + Three + Three (三+三+三)” overseas strategy.

For the domestic market, the Group adhered to the development approach of “lean efficiency improvement and focus on the core”. In terms of operational strategies, guided by the principle of high-quality development, the Group optimized its business structure and regional footprint, concentrating on urban operations and major national infrastructure projects. By leveraging synergies between domestic and international markets, the Group realized re-utilization of assets to enhance overall operational efficiency. In asset management, the Group developed a comprehensive “asset life cycle management system” to achieve fully closed-loop management of asset allocation, procurement, operation and disposal, thereby improving asset turnover efficiency and value-creation capabilities. In respect of service capabilities, the Group advanced differentiated and refined management for customers. Leveraging one-stop integrated equipment solutions, the Group actively incubated new products and markets while expanding a diversified urban industrial ecosystem.

For overseas markets, the Group continued to deepen its strategic layout and steadily advance globalization. The “Three+Three+Three (三+三+三)” overseas strategy was implemented in an orderly manner, with a focus on core markets in Southeast Asia and the Middle East. The Group also strengthened its regional competitive advantages in Southeast Asia through the merger & acquisition of TH Tong Heng Machinery Sdn. Bhd. in Malaysia, so as to promote scalable growth of its business in the Middle East and refine its localized operations. It upgraded the global operational management system and accumulated overseas expansion experience, while prudently expanding its footprint to potential markets such as Africa and Central Asia. With steady progress in global asset reallocation, the Group achieved asset reutilization and provided low-cost equipment resources in overseas markets. As at the end of 2025, the global service network comprised a total of 562 outlets in China and across 7 overseas countries. The robust performance of overseas operations played a crucial role in hedging against cyclical fluctuations in the domestic market.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER'S STATEMENT

The Group recorded total revenue of approximately RMB9.359 billion for the year. In particular, benefiting from the rapid growth in revenue from the overseas business segment, revenue from operating lease services increased by 12.3% year on year to approximately RMB5.192 billion, which accounted for approximately 55.5% of the total revenue. As the Group adopted a contraction strategy for its domestic materials business during the year, revenue from engineering and technical services amounted to approximately RMB2.194 billion, which dropped by 41.5% year on year and accounted for approximately 23.4% of the total revenue. In terms of asset management and other services, revenue decreased by 38.5% year on year to approximately RMB1.974 billion, accounting for approximately 21.1% of the total revenue. This decline was attributable to, among others, the proactive reduction of the scale of equipment management from peer leasing companies by the Group. During the year, the Group achieved a net profit of approximately RMB147 million. From a regional perspective, revenue from overseas regions soared by 260.3% year on year to approximately RMB1.402 billion, accounting for approximately 15.0% of the total revenue. This fully demonstrated the Group's accelerated implementation of the "Three + Three + Three (三+三+三)" strategy as well as its positive results.

In 2025, Horizon Construction Development continued to maintain a sound financial structure. As at the end of the year, the total assets of the Group amounted to approximately RMB36.368 billion, down 0.2% year on year. The Group's gearing ratio remained stable at approximately 68.9%. Cash and bank balances were approximately RMB1.610 billion, indicating ample fund reserves.

With fifteen years of accumulated experience and dedicated development, Horizon Construction Development pursued its mission with steadfast commitment and continuously demonstrated its resilience in sustainable development and core competitiveness. Thanks to the strong support and trust from all sectors of society, in 2025, the Company ranked first in the world in Access 50 of Global Aerial Work Machinery Leasing (ACCESS50) and advanced to 11th place globally in the IRN100 list. The Company's rating in the 2025 S&P Global Corporate Sustainability Assessment (CSA) jumped to 58 points, placing it among the top 5% of global peers.

In 2026, corporate development will be confronted with both opportunities and challenges. The 15th Five-Year Plan explicitly calls for the expansion of effective investment and designates consumer infrastructure, urban renewal and major projects as core growth drivers. The "Two Major" and "Two New" initiatives provide clear guidance for the equipment leasing industry to break through boundaries. The cost-saving and efficiency-enhancing advantages of the equipment leasing model are increasingly evident. Internet of things (IoT), artificial intelligence (AI) and other technologies will support equipment electrification and intelligent transformation, thereby accelerating the industry's transition toward a new phase of lean operations. The Group will maintain its strategic focus, deepen its presence in high-value domestic segments, refine one-stop integrated equipment solutions, and consolidate core business competitiveness. It will also upgrade urban operations by empowering urban development through municipal maintenance, community renewal, emergency protection and other dimensions, in a bid to foster differentiated service capabilities. To broaden market boundaries, the Group will deepen its presence in core markets in Southeast Asia and the Middle East and steadily venture into potential regions, such as Africa and Central Asia. It will simultaneously carry out global asset reallocation to build a more resilient portfolio of global businesses. The Group will also consolidate its operational foundation by developing refined management systems, strengthening full lifecycle equipment management, and further enhancing operational efficiency and counter-cyclical capabilities.

Looking ahead, we will transcend cycles with firm determination, pioneer new prospects by breaking barriers and secure future victories through strategic breakthroughs. We are committed to building a sustainable and comprehensive equipment operation and service ecosystem that consistently creates long-term value for Shareholders and society. I would like to hereby express my heartfelt gratitude to all Shareholders, customers, business partners and employees who care about and support Horizon Construction Development. Let's unite in purpose to embark on a new journey for Horizon Construction Development and jointly chart a new blueprint for high-quality development in our industry!

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

1. INDUSTRY ENVIRONMENT AND THE COMPANY'S SOLUTIONS

1.1 National and Regional Environment

Mainland China:

2025 was the concluding year of the “14th Five-Year Plan”, during which the Chinese government implemented proactive macroeconomic policies. China’s GDP reached RMB140 trillion, representing a year-on-year increase of 5.0%. Meanwhile, the economic structure was adjusted and optimized with new quality productive forces developing steadily and more positive progress made in key risk areas. The involution-style competition was also curbed to some extent.

In 2025, China’s manufacturing sector climbed to new heights and further elevated its position and competence as the world’s factory, which served as the foundation for stabilizing China’s economy. The total value of China’s goods imports and exports for the year reached RMB45,468.7 billion, up 3.8% as compared to that of the previous year. In particular, exports reached RMB26,989.2 billion, which grew by 6.1% with high-tech product exports surging by 13.2%. The value-added output of industrial enterprises above the designated size nationwide increased by 5.9% as compared to the previous year. In particular, the value-added output of industrial enterprises above the designated size from the equipment manufacturing industry and the high-tech manufacturing industry accounted for 36.8% and 17.1% of the total value-added output of industrial enterprises above the designated size, respectively. Although the total fixed asset investment nationwide dropped by 3.8% year on year, manufacturing investment still sustained a growth rate of 0.6% on a high base. China is expected to maintain its position as the world’s largest manufacturing leader for sixteen consecutive years, clearly benefiting from its strength in being the country with a complete range of industrial sectors.

In 2025, total infrastructure investment decreased by 1.5% year on year, while infrastructure investment (excluding electricity sector) fell by 2.2% year on year. By sector, investment in transportation, warehousing and postal services declined by 1.2% year on year, investment in water conservancy, environment and public facilities management dropped by 8.4% year on year, and investment in electricity, heat, gas and water production and supply increased by 9.1% year on year. Traditional infrastructure investment was under pressure due to local government debts and other factors. Real estate investment remained at low levels with data on new construction projects and completion of existing projects declining by 20.4% and 18.1% respectively as compared to last year. Real estate investment continued to improve with weak momentum, and a genuine recovery of the real estate industry was yet to be seen.

In 2025, the construction industry realized the added value of RMB8,642.51 billion, representing a year-on-year decline of 2.7% and the first negative growth in nearly two decades. Against the backdrop of investment in real estate constantly reaching new lows and lower investment in infrastructure, industrial investment emerged as a key driver of growth for the construction industry, propelling the development of the domestic construction industry amid these challenges.

In 2025, driven by the unleashed domestic demand for equipment upgrades, the progressive commencement of major national infrastructure projects and robust infrastructure demand in regions such as Southeast Asia, the Middle East, and Africa, the domestic engineering machinery market witnessed continuous recovery. Sales of excavators, a typical engineering machine, reached approximately 235,000 units for the year. Domestic sales amounted to approximately 119,000 units, representing a year-on-year increase of 17.9%, while exports reached approximately 117,000 units, representing a year-on-year increase of 16.1%. However, it should be noted that the recovery in engineering machinery was happening alongside the overall downturn in the construction industry. The Company believed that factors such as the equipment renewal cycle and the demand arising from trade-in activities were the primary drivers of the recovery in the engineering machinery industry.

Overseas:

The outbound direct investment of all industries in China amounted to US$174.38 billion in 2025, representing a year-on-year increase of 7.1%. The turnover of China's foreign contracted engineering business reached RMB1,277.29 billion, up 8.1% year on year. Signed new contracts grew by 8.5% to RMB2,065.87 billion. In particular, Southeast Asia and the Middle East are the two regions where turnover-generating projects and newly signed contracts are most concentrated, which are also the key areas for the Company's overseas business expansion.

In 2025, most countries where the Company had overseas operations had achieved stable economic growth and expansion of the market size of the construction industry. However, some countries faced pressures of low growth or high inflation. The following sets forth the specific market environment in key countries where the Company has overseas operations:

In 2025, Malaysia's general economy experienced rapid growth with GDP growth for the year of 4.9%. The construction industry maintained its high growth momentum since 2024 with its size expanding by approximately 12.4% in 2025. This rapid development in Malaysia's construction industry was primarily driven by the substantial increases in government infrastructure investment and record-level private construction investment, as well as a boom of digital infrastructure construction fueled by technology companies establishing computing centers in Malaysia.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

In 2025, Indonesia's general economy maintained stable and rapid growth with GDP growth for the year of 5.1%, ranking among the top economies globally with a GDP exceeding US$1 trillion. In particular, the growth of the construction industry was 3.8%. To achieve the objectives of the 2025-2029 National Medium-Term Development Plan, the Indonesian government has planned to allocate an overall budget of approximately US$62 billion for infrastructure development. With accelerated construction of Indonesia's new capital, sustained investment in transportation networks and energy infrastructure, and the progressive advancement of multiple national strategic projects, Indonesia's construction industry is projected to maintain steady growth over the medium to long term.

In 2025, Vietnam's economy realized fast-paced growth. The annual GDP expanded by 8.0%, marking the second-highest annual growth rate in nearly fifteen years. In particular, the manufacturing and construction industries collectively grew by 9.0%, ranking first among the top three industries. In respect of infrastructure development, Vietnam continued to push forward a series of major projects, including the construction of Phase I of Long Thanh International Airport, phased opening of the North-South Expressway and the launch of the Lao Cai-Hanoi-Hai Phong railway project. For housing construction, the introduction and advancement of mega-scale development projects, including the Olympic Sports City in Hanoi, will also fuel the rapid and sustainable growth of Vietnam's overall construction industry in the future.

In 2025, Thailand's economy achieved relatively moderate growth. The National Economic and Social Development Council (NESDC) of Thailand projected an economic growth rate of 2.0% for 2025. During the first nine months of 2025, Thailand's construction sector generally grew by 5.6%, which was mainly driven by public investment. Key construction projects included, among others, the high-speed rail project connecting three airports, the power grid upgrade project and the rail transit infrastructure project.

In 2025, Saudi Arabia reported further acceleration in economic growth as compared to the growth rate of 2.0% in 2024, recording GDP growth of 4.5%. Over the past five years, with the implementation of the "Saudi Vision 2030" plan and a series of construction projects, such as the NEOM megacity and the One Million Homes Initiative, having been launched and promoted successively, the construction industry in Saudi Arabia recorded an average annual growth rate of over 10%. Taking into account the demand arising from the preparation for major international exhibitions and events, including the 2030 World Expo in Riyadh and the 2034 FIFA World Cup in Saudi Arabia, as well as the approaching key milestones of "Vision 2030", the investment in Saudi Arabia's construction industry is expected to remain at a relatively high level over the next five years.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The IMF forecasted that the annual economic growth rate of the UAE would stand at 4.8% in 2025. In accordance with the “We the UAE 2031” vision, the UAE will seek to double its GDP from the level of 2022 by 2031. The vision also calls for accelerating the transformation of the energy sector and investments in alternative energy sources, stepping up efforts in developing a green economy. It also aims to promote the development of infrastructure and cutting-edge science and technology, with a focus on developing digital infrastructure.

Turkey’s economy was projected to achieve substantial growth in 2025 despite high inflationary pressures. The IMF projected Turkey’s annual economic growth to be 3.5%. Turkey’s inflation rate reached 30.9% in 2025, marking improvement from 44.4% in the same period of 2024. However, it still imposed significant negative impacts on foreign investment. In the first three quarters of 2025, Turkey’s construction industry achieved rapid year-on-year growth of 13.9%, primarily driven by reconstruction investments in earthquake-affected areas, investments in transportation infrastructure, new energy infrastructure development and the construction of new energy equipment production facilities.

1.2 Company Business Environment

The Group operates in the machinery leasing and service industry, with its main business covering the integrated operations services of products such as aerial work platform equipment, neo-excavation support system, neo-formwork system and road equipment. Meanwhile, the Group actively explores the leasing operation of new products, such as special aerial work equipment (truck-mounted aerial work platforms, glass attachment boom lifts, track-based aerial trucks, etc.), material handling equipment (forklifts, telescopic handlers, etc.), lifting equipment (truck-mounted cranes, spider cranes, etc.) and mining equipment, inside and outside of China.

In Mainland China, with the increasingly aging population, rapidly rising labor costs and stringent requirements for production safety, energy conservation and environmental protection, green, efficient, and safe engineering machinery will continue to gain market recognition. The overall development of the industry is characterized by the following features: First, the leasing industry retains market potential. In 2025, the state explicitly determined the “Two Major” and “Two New” initiatives (major infrastructure, major livelihood projects, new infrastructure and new urbanization) as strategic priorities, opening up high-quality and sustainable development opportunities for the engineering machinery leasing industry. Second, the leasing model offers strong appeal. In the context of declining profitability across the construction industry, the leasing mode has become the preferred choice for enterprises to reduce costs and enhance efficiency. Third, the leasing industry is evolving toward lean operations. The application of internet of things (IoT), artificial intelligence (AI) and other technologies is profoundly shaping the engineering machinery leasing industry. Driven by digital and intelligent restructuring, the industry as a whole is shifting toward lean operations.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

According to IPAF Rental Market Report 2025, the unit volume of the Chinese aerial work platform leasing market amounted to 669,000 units as of the end of 2024, representing a year-on-year increase of 12%. The application fields of aerial work platforms have been expanding and widely applied in various fields, such as construction work, municipal engineering, operation maintenance, landscaping, advertisement installation, and film and entertainment. The penetration rate of the Chinese aerial work platform leasing market is much lower than that in developed markets such as Europe and the U.S. Looking forward, with the increasing acknowledgment of the practical and economical benefits of aerial work platforms by various industries, their market demand will further grow.

The neo-excavation support system mainly refers to the steel structures support system, providing clients with benefits such as a safe and green construction environment, accelerated construction progress and construction cost reduction. The neo-excavation support system has been widely used in municipal pipeline support, construction work, infrastructure construction and other fields. At the policy level, the state's sustained investment in sectors such as water conservancy, electricity and urban renewal, has created stable demand for neo-excavation support systems in specific market segments. Furthermore, the neo-excavation support system offers greater "low-carbon and eco-friendly" advantages. In the context of the carbon-peak and carbon-neutral policies, the industry is poised for accelerated growth.

The ringlock scaffold of the neo-formwork system has the characteristics of high safety, labor saving, convenient installation and disassembly, consumption saving and overall aesthetic appearance. It can be widely used in fields such as the construction of infrastructures, plants and houses. At present, the neo-formwork system lease market is in an increase-slowdown cycle. As estimated based on the statistics from China Construction Materials Rental Contractor Association, as of the end of 2024, the volume of ringlock scaffold in Chinese construction market was 27.00 million tons, representing a year-on-year increase of 4.7%. The growth of the industry exhibited fast-paced deceleration as compared to the previous year. In 2025, the operation and development index of the ringlock scaffold industry in China remained below the boom-bust line (less than 50%). The ringlock scaffold lease market was facing challenges of sluggish demand, price competition and lengthened capital return cycle as a whole, and the market landscape was still looking for further player exit and consolidation. Due to the growth in overseas housing construction and infrastructure investment, the Company sees significant growth potential in its primary overseas markets for scaffolds. Benefiting from the superior performance of its ringlock scaffold, the Company is well-positioned to capture a larger share of the international market in the future.

In overseas market, the demand for infrastructure and industrial investment in countries along the BRI, Africa and Middle East is high, which creates abundant global market opportunities for construction companies and engineering machinery companies. In 2025, the turnover of China's foreign contracted engineering business amounted to RMB1,277.29 billion, representing a year-on-year increase of 8.1%. Signed new contracts amounted to RMB2,065.87 billion, representing a growth of 8.5%. Overseas markets are becoming a crucial strategic front for the sustainable and healthy development of construction companies and engineering machinery enterprises in China.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

1.3 Company's Solutions

In 2025, in the face of a complex and volatile international environment as well as a number of domestic macroeconomic challenges, the Group adhered to its market-oriented approach, countered risks through lean operations, continuously strengthened its competitive advantages, while amidst changes pursuing excellence, innovation, and progress. Upholding the development philosophy of “Be global for shared prosperity”, it solidly advanced its “Three+Three+Three (三+三+三)” development strategy, progressing toward its mission of “becoming a leading global company”.

Domestically, the Group maintained its focus on optimizing operational structures and enhancing the efficiency of lean operations. By dynamically refining its asset structure and regional layout, the Group concentrated its resources on efficient areas. It also leveraged domestic-international synergies to achieve tiered asset utilization and boost general operational efficiency. Meanwhile, a “Full-lifecycle Asset Management System” centering on operational efficiency was established to foster a closed-loop management chain covering allocation, procurement, operation and disposal. The Group comprehensively upgraded customer marketing by deepening refined customer management, launching professional and online marketing and delivering one-stop solutions. In terms of business development, it actively explored new products, industries and models, accelerating expansion beyond the construction industry. In respect of management, the Group promoted streamlined and flattened organizational structures, delegated functions to the front lines and provided services and empowerment that aligned with its businesses. The Group continued to implement lean optimization initiatives based on its business and asset chains, with a view to comprehensively upgrading functional capabilities across all departments and achieving sustainable value creation and enhancement.

The Group continued to deepen its “Three+Three+Three” overseas development strategy. Amidst an intricate and volatile international environment, it steadily reinforced its operational foundations, while promoting the upgrade of its business model toward a dual-engine model driven by “scale expansion” and “operational efficiency improvement”. Based on the developmental stages and potential of each regional market, the Group had systematically established a tiered development framework and implemented differentiated resource allocation strategies. It actively strengthened its business presence in Southeast Asia through investment, mergers and acquisitions, and successfully completed the strategic acquisition of TH Tong Heng Machinery Sdn. Bhd., a leading leasing enterprise in Malaysia, to further consolidate its regional advantage. In the Middle East, focusing on key countries such as Saudi Arabia and the UAE, businesses had entered a phase of rapid volume growth and scaled expansion. Meanwhile, the Group continued to improve operation content, perfect its global management system and summarize and review its overseas expansion experience in a systematic manner, in a bid to build sustainable development advantages. In addition, the Group steadily advanced new market layout by forming business research teams to conduct prudent investigations and preliminary explorations in emerging markets, including Central Asia, Africa and South America, laying a foundation for orderly expansion in the future.

As of the end of 2025, the Group operates 562 service outlets worldwide. Among them, 485 service outlets were located in Mainland China and Hong Kong, China, covering 229 cities, and 77 service outlets were located overseas, covering 7 countries.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Non-HKFRS Measures

To supplement its consolidated results which are prepared and presented in accordance with HKFRS, the Group uses EBITDA, which is not required by, or presented in accordance with HKFRS. The Group believes that such non-HKFRS measures facilitate comparisons of operating performance by eliminating the potential impact of these non-core items. The use of such non-HKFRS measures has limitations as an analytical tool, and you should not consider them in isolation from, as a substitute for, analysis of, or superior to, the results of operations or financial conditions as reported under HKFRS. In addition, such non-HKFRS financial measures may be defined differently by other companies, and may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures used by other companies.

The table below sets forth the reconciliation of the Group's non-HKFRS measures with the most directly comparable HKFRS measures:

| For the year ended 31 December | | | |
|---|------------------|-----------|----------|
| | 2025 | 2024 | |

| EBITDA (a non-HKFRS measure) | 4,116,180 | 4,628,654 | -11.1% |

Note:

- (1) Depreciation and amortization include depreciation of property, plant and equipment, depreciation of right-of-use assets and amortization of other intangible assets.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

2.2 Revenue

In 2025, the Group recorded revenue of RMB9,359,192,000, representing a decrease of 19.2% as compared with RMB11,581,062,000 of the previous year. The decline in the Group's revenue was mainly due to the continued decline in equipment rental rates in the domestic market environment, the proactive reduction of the domestic materials business that was highly related to engineering and technical services, and a decrease of the size of disposal of materials. In 2025, the Group actively deployed overseas outlets and business teams, and achieved overseas revenue of approximately RMB1,401,565,000.

Attributable to its comprehensive and multi-dimensional service model covering the full cycle of projects, the Group has established a diversified, stable and high-quality customer base with years of deep cultivation in the industry. The number of the Group's customers (on a standalone basis) increased from approximately 232,000 in 2023 to approximately 325,000 in 2024 (including approximately 1,700 overseas customers), and further increased to approximately 401,000 in 2025 (including approximately 6,400 overseas customers), covering a wide range of industries such as municipal construction, housing construction, transportation construction, shipbuilding and offshore engineering, industrial manufacturing, green energy, warehousing and logistics, culture and art, business and entertainment.

The following table sets forth key operational information related to the Group's revenue:

|---|--------------------------------|-------|
| | 2025 | 2024 |
| Aerial work platform | | |
| Equipment volume (in thousand units) ⁽¹⁾ | 200.7 | 216.3 |
| Utilization rate ⁽²⁾ | 72.2% | 73.8% |
| Neo-excavation support system | | |
| Equipment volume (in thousand tons) | 1,251 | 1,449 |
| Utilization rate ⁽²⁾ | 70.6% | 72.5% |
| Neo-formwork system | | |
| Equipment volume (in thousand tons) | 631 | 693 |
| Utilization rate ⁽²⁾ | 66.6% | 76.2% |

Notes:

- (1) As at 31 December 2025, among the 200,700 aerial work platforms operated and managed by the Group, 45,979 aerial work platforms were entrusted to the Group by equipment owners outside the Group to operate and manage through the asset management service model. The asset management service model primarily refers to the model in which the Group leases from other equipment suppliers and enters into sub-leases with customers.
- (2) Calculated as the average of total value of assets the Group leased out during the year divided by the average of total value of equipment the Group owned. "Average of total value of equipment" is the total asset value of all equipment, averaged between the beginning and the end of the year.

In 2025, according to the analysis on main product lines of the Group, the utilization rate of the aerial work platform, neo-excavation support system and neo-formwork system was lower than that of last year, which was primarily affected by the factors of the external market environment in Mainland China.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

2.2.1 Revenue analysis by business segment

The Group's revenue is derived from (i) operating leasing services, which primarily include aerial work platform, neo-excavation support system, neo-formwork system and other equipment; (ii) engineering and technical services, which represent the tailor-made one-stop solutions for different business or operation scenarios; and (iii) asset management and other services, which primarily consists of asset management services, and the sales of equipment, materials and spare parts.

The following table sets forth the composition and changes in the Group's revenue by business segment:

|-------------------------------------|------------------|---------------|------------|--------------|----------|
| | 2025 | | 2024 | | |
| | RMB'000 | Proportion % | RMB'000 | Proportion % | Change % |
| Operating lease services | 5,191,671 | 55.5% | 4,620,986 | 39.9% | 12.3% |
| Engineering and technical services | 2,193,527 | 23.4% | 3,751,364 | 32.4% | -41.5% |
| Asset management and other services | 1,973,994 | 21.1% | 3,208,712 | 27.7% | -38.5% |
| Total | 9,359,192 | 100.0% | 11,581,062 | 100.0% | -19.2% |

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

2.2.1.1 Operating lease services

The Group's portfolio of operating lease services includes various types of leased equipment and materials, and operating lease services are provided on a daily, weekly, monthly, annual or project-by-project basis according to customers' needs. In 2025, the Group's revenue from operating lease services amounted to RMB5,191,671,000, representing an increase of 12.3% as compared with RMB4,620,986,000 of the previous year, which was mainly driven by the rapid increase in operating lease services revenue from the overseas business segment.

The downstream application scenarios of the Group's equipment and material leasing services are diverse. For instance, in the manufacturing industry, the neo-excavation support system and neo-formwork system can be used for the construction of inner frames, outer frames and foundation pits of factories, whereas the aerial work platform can be used for the installation of steel structures, lighting, fire-proofing, curtain walls, etc., during the installation phase of factory construction. In the commercial real estate industry, the neo-excavation support system and neo-formwork system can be used for the construction of the foundation pits and frames of commercial complexes and office buildings, whereas the aerial work platforms can be used for the installation of fixtures, billboard installation, cleaning or painting on commercial buildings. In cultural, entertainment and consumer industries, the aerial work platform can be used for high altitude video shooting, concerts and exhibitions or trade shows, and the neo-excavation support system and neo-formworks system can be used for building stadiums and exhibition centers. Meanwhile, the Group's operating lease of various new products can fulfill the diversified needs of customers in construction, production and operation.

According to the statistics of the confirmed turnover derived from the equipment operated and managed by the Group in 2025, approximately 56.1% were served in industrial projects (including industrial plants and logistics warehousing), approximately 24.9% in infrastructure and municipal projects, approximately 5.7% in commercial real estate projects (including shopping malls, hotels and offices), approximately 3.8% in residential projects, and approximately 9.5% in daily operations and other projects.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

2.2.1.2 Engineering and technical services

In 2025, the Group's revenue from engineering and technical services amounted to RMB2,193,527,000, representing a decrease of 41.5% as compared with RMB3,751,364,000 of the previous year, which was mainly because domestic materials business has adopted a contraction strategy as a whole, and has disposed of material assets on a certain scale since the second half of 2024. As such, the Group's revenue from engineering and technical services recorded a year-on-year decrease during the year.

2.2.1.3 Asset management and other services

In 2025, the Group's revenue from asset management and other services amounted to RMB1,973,994,000, representing a decrease of 38.5% as compared to RMB3,208,712,000 of the previous year, mainly due to the Group's proactive reduction in the size of equipment management from leasing peers.

Revenue from asset management services represents the revenue generated by the Group through entrusted management of equipment held by other equipment owners and entering into sublease arrangements with customers. Under this model, the Group first enters into leasing agreements for the right of use of the equipment with financial leasing companies or other equipment leasing companies. During the agreed period, the Group, as the lessee, assumes full responsibility for equipment leasing, scheduling, maintenance and customer service. Subsequently, the Group subleases these entrusted equipment items to end customers for use. Leveraging the Group's nationwide operation network, digitalized management system and profound equipment operation experience, the Group has strong equipment management capabilities and further expands its strength in operational capabilities based on its own resources through entrusted management.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

As at 31 December 2025, among the 200,700 aerial work platforms operated and managed by the Group, 45,979 aerial work platforms were entrusted to the Group by other equipment owners outside the Group to operate and manage through the asset management service model, which decreased as compared with the previous year.

Trading revenue represents revenue generated from sales of equipment, materials and spare parts by the Group. In 2025, the Group sold 1,926 units of equipment and 117,027 tons of materials, thus achieving continuous asset structure optimization.

The following table sets forth the composition and changes in the Group's asset management and other services:

2.3.1.2 Engineering and technical services

In 2025, the gross profit of the Group's engineering and technical services amounted to RMB357,827,000, representing a decrease of 63.9% as compared with RMB990,246,000 of the previous year. The gross profit margin of the Group's engineering and technical services was 16.3%, representing a decrease of 10.1% as compared with 26.4% of the previous year, which was mainly due to the contraction strategy adopted by the domestic material businesses such as the neo-excavation support system and the neo-formwork system during the year, which affected the gross profit margin of the engineering and technical services.

2.3.1.3 Asset management and other services

In 2025, the gross profit of the Group's asset management and other services amounted to RMB441,485,000, representing a decrease of 56.8% as compared to RMB1,021,592,000 of the previous year. In 2025, the gross profit of the Group's asset management services amounted to RMB311,420,000, representing a decrease of 37.4% as compared to RMB497,503,000 of the previous year. The gross profit margin of the Group's asset management service was 25.7%, representing a decrease of 3.1% as compared to 28.8% of the previous year, mainly due to the fluctuation of the market rent of assets under the operation and management of the Group and the Group's proactive reduction in the size of equipment management from leasing peers.

In 2025, the Group actively adjusted the structure of self-owned lease and service assets by disposal of certain equipment and materials assets that did not meet the efficiency requirements of the Group. The gross profit of the Group's sales of equipment, materials and spare parts amounted to RMB86,138,000, representing a decrease of 83.3% as compared to RMB514,895,000 of the previous year. The gross profit margin of the Group's sales of equipment, materials and spare parts amounted to 12.0%, representing a decrease of 23.0% as compared to 35.0% of the previous year, mainly due to a decrease of the size of disposal of materials in 2025.

The total amount of the above costs and expenses was RMB8,565,205,000, representing a decrease of 11.4% as compared with RMB9,672,671,000 of the previous year, which was mainly due to the decrease in staff and labor subcontracting costs, logistics and lifting costs, and trading and re-rent costs.

The following table sets forth a breakdown of the Group's cost of sales and selling and administrative expenses (excluding impairment of repossessed assets) by nature:

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Notes:

- (1) Depreciation and amortization are depreciation of property, plant and equipment, depreciation of right-of-use assets and amortization of other intangible assets, but excluding depreciation and amortization included in research and development expenses. The actual economic life of assets used in operating leases and engineering and technical services in the industry is generally up to 15-20 years after regular maintenance and repair. On 12 March 2024, the Group announced that the expected useful life of the hot-dip galvanizing scaffolds in the neo-formwork system would be changed from 10 years to 20 years and the expected net residual value rate would be changed from 10% to 30%. In 2025, the Group's depreciation and amortization (including the depreciation of leasehold and leased equipment use rights) amounted to RMB3,105,827,000, representing an increase of 17.8% as compared with RMB2,637,430,000 of the previous year, which was mainly due to the fact that the Group's new equipment purchases in 2024 and asset disposals in 2025 were concentrated in the second half of the year, leading to a higher depreciation for the year as compared to the previous year.
- (2) The Group's staff and labor subcontracting costs mainly represent the remuneration expenses of the Group's employees and the labor subcontracting costs incurred in connection with the demand for temporary staff in engineering and technical service projects. In 2025, the Group's staff and labor subcontracting costs amounted to RMB1,852,972,000, representing a decrease of 21.1% as compared with the previous year, which was mainly due to the downsizing of engineering service personnel as a result of the contraction of material business.
- (3) Trading and re-rent costs mainly represent trading costs of sales of equipment, materials and spare parts and the Group's equipment leasing costs. In 2025, the Group's trading and re-rent costs amounted to RMB1,353,538,000, representing a decrease of 31.0% as compared with the previous year. Among these, re-rent costs amounted to RMB720,904,000, representing a decrease of 28.1% as compared with the previous year, which was mainly due to the reduction in subleasing of aerial work vehicles in the current year. Trading costs amounted to RMB632,634,000, representing a decrease of 33.9% as compared with the previous year, which was mainly due to a decrease of the size of disposal of the Group's material assets as compared with the previous year.
- (4) The maintenance and consumable materials costs mainly represent the cost of spare parts for the Group's maintenance and repair of equipment and materials (including the equipment leased under the asset management service model), and the cost of materials consumed by the Group's engineering and technical service projects. In 2025, the Group's maintenance and consumable materials costs amounted to RMB635,035,000, representing an increase of 9.7% as compared with the previous year, which was mainly due to the higher maintenance costs overseas as a result of an increase in the size of equipment overseas.
- (5) The logistics and lifting costs mainly represent the logistics costs of equipment for transfers between different projects under the Group's operating lease services and asset management services, and the lifting costs of equipment on site of engineering and technical service projects. In 2025, the Group's logistics and lifting costs amounted to RMB667,938,000, representing a decrease of 34.7% as compared with the previous year, mainly due to the decrease in logistics costs driven by the decrease in the utilization of the Group's assets. Meanwhile, the Group has established a tracking management system for the rapid delivery of equipment and a cost reduction management system for rapid adjustment of freight rates, which effectively guarantees the timeliness of equipment transportation in all aspects and effectively controls the transportation price of equipment. By continuously improving the logistics monitoring system, improving the delivery mode and capacity structure, and optimizing the allocation and transportation distance, the Group has greatly contributed to the efficiency and cost reduction of the Company's operations, and the unit price of logistics in 2025 decreased by 7.2% as compared with the previous year.
- (6) The Group's research and development expenses are mainly depreciation, materials and staff cost from research and development activities which are used for the upgrade and digitalization of engineering and technical services and internet of things ("IoT"). In 2025, the Group's research and development expenses amounted to RMB272,247,000 (including depreciation and amortization amounting to RMB1,970,000), representing a decrease of 28.6% as compared with the previous year, mainly attributable to fewer research and development projects of the Group for digitalization system.
- (7) The Group incurred transportation, travelling and information expenses of RMB222,276,000, representing a decrease of 25.2% as compared with the previous year, which was mainly due to the decrease in overseas market development projects of the Group as compared with the previous year.
- (8) The Group incurred rental and property management services expenses of RMB112,651,000, representing an increase of 17.0% as compared with the previous year, mainly due to an increase in rental and property management services expenses as a result of the increase in total number of overseas service outlets of the Group.
- (9) The Group incurred professional service fees of RMB73,094,000, representing an increase of 8.8% as compared with the previous year, mainly due to the Group's steady progress in various compliance work, as well as fees incurred by external professional lawyers' team to diversify collection methods and strengthen collection efforts.
- (10) Other expenses mainly include fuel costs consumed by engineering and technical service projects, office expenses and business entertainment and promotion expenses.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

2.6 Provision for Assets

The provision for assets of the Group is expected credit losses (“ECL”) of the financial assets and impairment of repossessed assets under administrative expenses. The Group adopts a prudent strategy to assess the risk of asset provision, to carry out multi-dimensional quantitative assessment on the imported customers and to strengthen the monitoring of the repayment ability of customers through the linkage mechanism of risk review and risk control, so as to ensure the security of assets of the Group.

The following table sets forth a breakdown of the ECL of the financial assets of the Group:

|---------------------------------------|-----------------|---------------|---------|--------------|----------|
| | 2025 | | 2024 | | |
| | RMB'000 | Proportion % | RMB'000 | Proportion % | Change % |
| Trade receivables and contract assets | -74,088 | 67.3% | 175,327 | 163.2% | -142.3% |
| Notes receivables | -18,221 | 16.5% | -72,521 | -67.5% | -74.9% |

| Total | -110,142 | 100.0% | 107,374 | 100.0% | -202.6% |

For details, please refer to the discussion and analysis in 3.3, 3.4 and 3.5 of this section.

2.7 Other Expenses

Other expenses of the Group primarily consist of (i) foreign exchange losses, mainly arising from bank borrowings denominated in foreign currencies of the Group; and (ii) commission expenses, representing commission fees and handling fees charged by banks and non-bank financial institutions in connection with the bank and other borrowings of the Group.

In 2025, the Group’s other expenses amounted to RMB30,974,000, representing an increase of 53.0% as compared with RMB20,241,000 of the previous year, mainly due to the increase in financing handling fees and foreign exchange losses during the year.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

2.8 Finance Costs

Finance costs of the Group primarily consist of (i) interest on borrowings; and (ii) interest on lease liabilities.

In 2025, the Group's finance costs amounted to RMB805,303,000, representing a decrease of 0.1% as compared with RMB805,827,000 of the previous year, mainly due to the decrease in interest on interest-bearing bank and other borrowings of the Group by RMB4,222,000. For details, please refer to the discussion and analysis in 2.8.1 and 3.11 of this section.

2.8.1 Interest on borrowings

The following table sets forth the average balance of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings, interest expense, and average financing rate of the Group:

|--|--------------------------------|------------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------|------------------|---------------------------------------|
| | 2025 | | | 2024 | | |
| | Average balance ⁽¹⁾ | Interest expense | Average financing rate ⁽²⁾ | Average balance ⁽¹⁾ | Interest expense | Average financing rate ⁽²⁾ |
| | RMB'000 | RMB'000 | | RMB'000 | RMB'000 | |
| Interest-bearing bank and other borrowings | 20,615,550 | 773,018 | / | 19,121,064 | 777,240 | / |
| Including: interest-bearing bank and other borrowings, deducting redemption liabilities on ordinary shares | 20,615,550 | 773,018 | 3.75% | 19,121,064 | 777,240 | 4.06% |

Notes:

(1) Average balance = (interest-bearing bank and other borrowings or balance of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings at the beginning of the year + interest-bearing bank and other borrowings or balance of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings at the end of the year)/2.

(2) Average financing rate = interest expense during the year / corresponding average balance.

In 2025, the average financing rate of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings of the Group was 3.75%, representing a decrease of 0.31% as compared with 4.06% of the previous year, mainly due to the improved domestic financing environment as a result of the interest rate reduction by the central bank, and the preferential interest rate continuously available to the Group as the Group's main businesses were encouraged by the country. Meanwhile, the Group actively utilized innovative products such as green loans, supply chain financing, and loans for sci-tech innovation, and proactively optimized its debt structure through the early settlement of the liabilities with higher-than-average costs, thus further reducing its overall financing costs. The Group monitored interest rate trends continuously and managed its interest rate risk by structuring its fixed- and floating-rate borrowings rationally.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

2.9 Income Tax Expenses

In 2025, the Group's income tax expenses amounted to RMB61,890,000, representing a decrease of 79.6% as compared with RMB303,837,000 of the previous year, mainly due to the decrease in profit before tax of the Group; the effective tax rate of the Group was 29.6%, representing an increase of 4.3% as compared with 25.3% of the previous year, mainly due to the fact that the Group did not make provisions for deferred income tax on certain losses for reasons of prudence.

2.10 Profit for the Year

Based on the above discussion and analysis, the Group's profit for the year was RMB146,976,000, representing a decrease of 83.6% as compared with RMB896,322,000 of the previous year.

The following table sets forth the composition and changes in the Group's net profit after tax by region:

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

As at 31 December 2025, the equipment, materials and molds for leasing and services of the Group mainly included aerial work platform of RMB12,178,135,000 (2024: RMB11,739,849,000), neo-excavation support system of RMB4,019,109,000 (2024: RMB4,850,942,000) and neo-formwork system of RMB3,227,967,000 (2024: RMB3,187,393,000). During the year, the Group held products such as material handling equipment (forklifts, telescopic handlers, etc.), lifting equipment (truck-mounted cranes, spider cranes) and mining equipment (wide-body dump trucks, mining excavators, etc.).

Asset distribution by product lines in 2025

Asset distribution by product lines in 2024

The Group researches the operating lease markets by product category and by geography (both domestic and overseas) to estimate appropriate time for further actions. The Group would consider disposing of the equipment and material assets which did not meet the efficiency requirements of the Group to second-hand market after such equipment and material assets have been used for a certain period of time.

For equipment maintenance and management, the equipment asset service and maintenance team of the Group has a comprehensive decision-making and balance mechanism comprising front-end monitoring and handling, middle-office process control and back-end supervision and support, and establishes a management system covering the full life cycle of asset maintenance, which realizes a whole process closed-loop management of "equipment procurement-equipment leasing services flow and process maintenance-equipment overhaul-equipment disposal", with the support of organizational guarantee, technical guarantee and material guarantee to improve the overall efficiency of equipment operation.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

3.3 Trade Receivables and Contract Assets

Trade receivables represent amounts receivable by the Group for services rendered and goods sold to customers.

Contract assets represent the right to receive payment arising from the provision of engineering and technical services by the Group to customers; contract assets are initially recognized for revenue earned from engineering and technical services as the receipt of consideration is conditional on successful completion of services and acceptance by the customer, respectively. Upon completion of services and acceptance by the customer, the amounts recognized as contract assets are reclassified to trade receivables.

The table below sets forth the composition of the trade receivables and contract assets of the Group as at the dates indicated:

| | 31 December 2025 | 31 December 2024 | |
|---------------------------------------|-------------------|------------------|----------|
| | RMB'000 | RMB'000 | Change % |
| Trade receivables and contract assets | | | |
| Gross carrying amount ⁽¹⁾ | 8,661,210 | 7,817,941 | 10.8% |
| Provision ⁽¹⁾ | -1,164,847 | -1,193,167 | -2.4% |
| Net carrying amount | 7,496,363 | 6,624,774 | 13.2% |

(1) In 2025, the reversal of bad debts of trade receivables of the Group amounted to RMB48,660,000 (the previous year: written-off RMB26,155,000).

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

3.3.1 Total trade receivables and contract assets

As at 31 December 2025, the total trade receivables and contract assets of the Group amounted to RMB8,661,210,000, representing an increase of RMB843,269,000 or 10.8% as compared with that of the end of last year, mainly due to the later timing of the 2026 Spring Festival, which delayed payment recovery, resulting in a higher receivable balance at the end of 2025.

3.3.2 Provision for trade receivables and contract assets

As at 31 December 2025, the provision for trade receivables and contract assets of the Group amounted to RMB1,164,847,000 in aggregate, representing a decrease of RMB28,320,000 or 2.4% as compared with that of the end of last year, mainly because the Company started to implement a rating management system for customers in the year, and supplemented and improved the management system for blacklisted customers accordingly. During the year, customers who were classified as high-level customers with good qualifications were removed from the blacklist, so as to better maintain customer relationships and carry out normal business cooperation.

The Group has implemented systematic risk management assessment policies to evaluate the credit and performance of our customers. The Group has a large number of customers, in particular, it needs to deal with a large number of small and medium-sized customers in aerial work platform business, among which the Group used a "Hongxin Score" ("宏信分") model to carry out quantitative risk assessment for such customers. By superimposing historical transaction data, external monitoring data and internal cooperation records accumulated in the course of operation from multiple dimensions, such model performs quantitative analysis on 70 subdivision indicators to screen out the characteristics of high-quality customers, thus realizing intelligent and automatic evaluation of small and medium-sized customers. For large-scale engineering projects, the Group selected customers and projects through quantitative and manual evaluation, fully evaluated the potential risks such as project compliance risk, construction technology risk, supply guarantee risk, HSE risk and credit risk from multiple dimensions, and formulated corresponding solutions. In terms of trade receivables management, the Group strengthened risk awareness through risk review and risk control and debt linkage mechanism, and realized effective isolation of risk customers through management mechanisms such as blacklist, and conducted on-site evaluation of our customer's operation as necessary. The Group reviews the trade receivables balance and follows up with our customers with overdue trade receivables on a quarterly basis. At the same time, the Group classified trade receivables into different risk levels and recognized provisions accordingly with reference to our past recoverability, the quarterly review of ageing of trade receivables and observable changes in economic conditions that correlate with default on trade receivables.

3.3.3 Trade receivables turnover days and ageing distribution

In 2025, the Group's trade receivables turnover days were 248 days, representing an increase as compared with 172 days of the previous year, which is mainly due to an increase in turnover days resulting from the increase in net accounts receivable compared to the beginning of the year and the decrease in the revenue for the year.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

3.11 Interest-bearing Bank and Other Borrowings

In the face of the complex domestic and international financial environment, the Group continued to optimize its debt structure in 2025 with good progress in financing. The Group actively expanded its credit resources in Hong Kong, Macau, and other overseas regions, further enhancing the stability of financing. Moreover, the Group actively promoted the use of innovative products such as green loans, supply chain financing and loans for sci-tech innovation to effectively reduce financing costs.

The decrease in the balance of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings was mainly due to the Group's proactive control of the size of its interest-bearing liabilities and early settlement of the liabilities with higher-than-average costs. The average financing rate for the year was 3.75%, and the financing costs were under effective control.

The following table sets forth the compositions of the Group's interest-bearing bank and other borrowings as at the dates indicated:

| | 31 December 2025 | | 31 December 2024 | | Change % |
|--------------------------------|-------------------|---------------|------------------|--------------|----------|

Changes in the Group's secured and unsecured structure are mainly attributable to the fact that the Group optimized its financing structure and adjusted the proportion of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

3.12 Trade and Bills Payables

Trade and bills payables are amounts payable to suppliers.

As at 31 December 2025, the Group's trade and bills payables were RMB2,924,244,000, representing an increase of RMB528,987,000 or 22.1% as compared with that of the end of the previous year, which was mainly due to the Group's active management of payments to suppliers based on the recovery of payments from business.

3.13 Other Payables and Accruals

The Group's other payables and accruals primarily include (i) deposits, which represent deposits paid by our customers; (ii) salary and welfare payable to our employees; (iii) advanced rentals and contract liabilities, which represent amounts received from customers by the Group in advance for services according to the payment schedule as agreed in the contract; (iv) interest payables relating to bank and other borrowings; and (v) other tax payables, primarily VAT payables.

As at 31 December 2025, the Group's balance of other payables and accruals was RMB995,027,000, representing an increase of RMB108,341,000 or 12.2% as compared with that of the end of the previous year, which is mainly due to the increase in the Group's advances from customers in 2025.

3.14 Lease Liabilities

As mentioned in 3.7, other than part of leases, the right-of-use assets and corresponding lease liabilities are recognized by the Group at the commencement date of the lease. The land leased by the Group has been prepaid and no subsequent payment is required, therefore there is no balance of land lease liabilities. The lease liabilities of the Group mainly arise from leases of office and equipment.

As at 31 December 2025, the lease liabilities of the Group amounted to RMB607,852,000, representing a decrease of RMB25,730,000 as compared with that of the end of the previous year, which is mainly due to the normal amortization of lease liabilities.

3.15 Derivative Financial Instruments

The Group's derivative financial instruments liability is interest rate swap financial instrument, which is used to hedge for interest risk exposure of floating rate borrowings of the Group. The Group adopted hedge accounting, and the change in fair value of interest rate swap financial instrument was recorded in change in equity.

3.16 Financial Liabilities at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss

The Group's financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss arose from the acquisition of TH Tong Heng Machinery Sdn. Bhd. Pursuant to the shareholders' agreement, the Group may purchase the remaining 20% equity interest in TH Tong Heng Machinery Sdn. Bhd. at exercise prices determined based on key metrics, including the average adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization ("EBITDA") from the accounts for the three years ending 31 December 2027 and 31 December 2034, as well as the cash and debt position as of 31 December 2027 and 31 December 2034, respectively. As the Group has practical control or obtainable access over the minority interests, the Group actually controlled 100% equity interests over TH Tong Heng Machinery Sdn. Bhd. as of the acquisition date. The contingent consideration was initially recognized by RMB73,937,000, which is presented under financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

4. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

For the purpose of stable capital management and subject to the changes of economic environment, the Group has adopted prudent capital management strategy. The Group regulates capital structure and financial management efficiency through financial return criteria (i.e. “return on average equity”, “return on average total assets” and others) and leverage ratio (i.e. “gearing ratio”).

The following table sets forth the key financial ratios of the Group:

| | For the year ended 31 December | |
|---|--------------------------------|-------|
| | 2025 | 2024 |
| Return on average equity ⁽¹⁾ | 1.3% | 8.1% |
| Return on average total assets ⁽²⁾ | 0.4% | 2.6% |
| Gearing ratio ⁽³⁾ | 68.9% | 68.6% |

Notes:

- (1) Return on average equity = profit for the year attributable to holders of ordinary shares of the Company/average balance of total equity at the beginning and the end of the year attributable to holders of ordinary shares of the Company.
- (2) Return on average total assets = profit for the year attributable to holders of ordinary shares of the Company/average balance of total assets at the beginning and the end of the year.
- (3) Gearing ratio=the total liabilities at the end of year/the total assets at the end of year.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

4.1 Return on Average Equity

In 2025, the Group's return on average equity was 1.3%, representing a decrease of 6.8% as compared with the previous year, primarily due to the decrease in the Group's profit for the year and the increase in average equity.

4.2 Return on Average Total Assets

In 2025, the Group's return on average total assets was 0.4%, representing a decrease of 2.2% as compared with the previous year, primarily due to the decrease in the Group's profit for the year and the increase in average total assets.

4.3 Gearing Ratio

As at 31 December 2025, the Group's gearing ratio was 68.9%, representing an increase of 0.3% as compared with that of 68.6% at the end of the previous year and a decrease of 0.1% as compared with that as at 30 June 2025.

5. CAPITAL EXPENDITURE

The Group's capital expenditure consisted of additions to property, plant and equipment and other intangible assets. In 2025, our capital expenditure amounted to RMB2,389,791,000, representing a decrease of 66.4% as compared with RMB7,104,623,000 of the previous year. Net capital expenditure after deduction of sales of used equipment and materials amounted to RMB952,204,000, representing a decrease of 80.3% from RMB4,832,205,000 of the previous year. The Group intends to finance future capital expenditure plans through cash flow from operating activities and bank and other borrowings.

6. RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group is exposed to various types of financial risks in the ordinary course of business, including foreign currency risk, liquidity risk, operating cycle risk, etc. Overall risk management strategy of the Group focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on our financial performance.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

6.1 Foreign Currency Risk

The Group primarily conducts its business in Renminbi and its monetary assets and liabilities are principally denominated in RMB. As at 31 December 2025, the Group adopted prudent currency risk management, keeping its foreign exchange exposure under control.

Most of the Group's currencies were denominated in Renminbi, thus effectively controlling its foreign currency exposure risks. For exchange rate risk exposures arising from certain foreign currency borrowings, the Group employed cross-currency swap (CCS) contracts to hedge these positions, locking in future cash flows for principal and interest payments to mitigate uncertainties stemming from exchange rate and interest rate fluctuations. Meanwhile, the Group continuously monitored exchange rate market movements to ensure foreign exchange risks remained under control.

6.2 Liquidity Risk

The Group's objective is to maintain balance between continuity of funding and flexibility by using interest-bearing bank and other borrowings. The Group managed to control the liquidity risk through the following measures: (i) optimize our financing structure by expanding long-term financing products to mitigate the maturity mismatches between assets and liabilities; and (ii) operate effective capital plan and management mechanism and maintain a certain percentage of capital position to ensure safe liquidity.

6.3 Economic Cycle Risk

The Group's equipment operation services are highly correlated with construction and industrial activities, which are cyclical in nature and could be affected, to various extents, by the macro economy. The nature, timing and extent of changes in industry-wide conditions are unpredictable. Any economic slowdown or decrease in general economic activities may result in a decline in construction and industrial activities, which may in turn result in a downturn in activities in our industry. In the event of an industry downturn, unfavorable economic and market conditions may lead to a decline in the demand for our equipment operation services, and an increase in the possibility of our customers' default, which may, in turn, materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

In order to hedge against fluctuations in the economic cycle of a single-country market, the Group accelerated its international expansion in 2024. It also sought to achieve hedging, to a certain extent, against the macro economy by diversifying its business footprint geographically. By establishing a global operational network, the Group can keep pace with the demand from markets at varying development stages and leverage cross-region equipment deployments to optimize asset efficiency globally, with a view to boosting the Group's resilience against fluctuations in a single economy.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

6.4 Seasonality Effect

The Group experiences seasonality in its business. As the operating lease services and engineering and technical services are primarily performed on construction sites, our services are affected by seasonal weather conditions. For example, in northern China, we cannot conduct most of our operating lease services in the first quarter of the year due to the extreme cold weather. Further, we may also experience seasonal fluctuation in our revenue and operating income in the first quarter of the year as a result of the Chinese New Year, which in turn, reduces the business activities and labor force in the market. Our financial condition and results of operations for future periods may continue to fluctuate, from time to time, due to seasonality.

7. PLEDGE OF ASSETS

As at 31 December 2025, the Group had pledged its property, plant and equipment of RMB6,820,439,000 to non-bank financial institutes in order to secure other borrowings, and used deposits of RMB47,933,000 as collateral for bank borrowings.

8. CONTINGENT LIABILITIES AND CAPITAL COMMITMENTS

As at 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024, the Group did not have any material contingent liability, guarantees or any other material litigation or claims outstanding or threatened against the Group that could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition or results of operations.

As at the dates indicated, the capital commitments of the Group are as follows:

| | 31 December 2025 | 31 December 2024 |
|-----------------------------------|------------------|------------------|
| | RMB'000 | RMB'000 |

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Upon completion of the transactions contemplated under the share purchase agreement, the Target Company and TGCore Trading Sdn. Bhd. (“TGCore”, a company controlled by the family of Mr. Chan, being a trading company necessary for the Target Company’s business operations, which is then being acquired by the Target Company) (collectively, the “Target Group Companies”) will become subsidiaries of the Company.

On the same date, the Purchaser entered into the shareholders’ agreement with Mr. Chan, being the remaining sole shareholder of the Target Company after the completion, and the Target Company to regulate the affairs of the Target Company and the respective rights, duties, covenants, and obligations of the Purchaser and Mr. Chan, as shareholders of the Target Company, pursuant to which, (i) Mr. Chan shall grant the call options to the Purchaser for it to purchase 20% of the remaining issued share capital of the Target Company (the “Option Shares”), and (ii) the Purchaser shall grant the put options to Mr. Chan for him to require the Purchaser to purchase the option shares. The shareholders’ agreement will come into effect on the completion date.

Pursuant to Rule 14.74(1) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange (the “Listing Rules”), as the exercise of each of the put options is not at the Group’s discretion, the put options will be classified as if they had been exercised (with reference to the highest possible monetary value) upon the grant of put options under the shareholders’ agreement. As the Acquisition and the put options were entered into by the Group with the same party and involving the acquisition of the interests in the Target Company, they are required to be aggregated in accordance with Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules. As the highest applicable percentage ratio in respect of the transactions contemplated under the share purchase agreement and the put options, on an aggregated basis, exceeds 5% but is less than 25%, such transactions contemplated thereunder constitute discloseable transactions for the Company and are therefore subject to the announcement and reporting requirements, but exempt from shareholders’ approval requirement under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Pursuant to Rule 14.75(1) of the Listing Rules, as the exercise of each of the call options is at the discretion of the Group, on the grant of the call options, only the premium will be taken into consideration for purpose of classification of notifiable transaction. As the Purchaser did not and will not pay any premium for the call options, the call options are exempt from the reporting, announcement and shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules. The Company will comply with all applicable requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules upon the exercise of the call options by the Group as and when appropriate.

On 30 May 2025, all the conditions precedent to the share purchase agreement had been fulfilled (or waived), and therefore the share purchase agreement had become unconditional. Accordingly, the completion of the acquisition of 80% equity interests in the Target Group Companies had taken place on the same day. On the same day, the Purchaser and Sellers entered into a supplemental letter (the "Supplemental Letter"), pursuant to which, the indicative total amount of the consideration was determined at MYR170,951,092 (equivalent to approximately RMB289,502,273, based on the approximate exchange rate of the RMB central parity of MYR1.00 to RMB1.6935 published by the People's Bank of China on 30 May 2025) after arm's length negotiation between the Purchaser and Sellers.

Pursuant to the Supplemental Letter, the consideration, being the total purchase price for the Sale Shares to be acquired by the Purchaser shall be calculated in accordance with the terms of the share purchase agreement (as supplemented) as follows:

$$\text{Consideration} = \text{Completion Enterprise Value} - \text{Completion Debt} + \text{Completion Cash (+Adjusted Net Working Capital (if it is a positive number)) or (- Adjusted Net Working Capital (if it is a negative number))} \times 80\% + \text{Accrued Ticker} - \text{TGCore Agreed Price}$$

As disclosed in the announcement of the Company dated 30 May 2025 (the "Announcement"), the calculation of accrued ticker was based on the period beginning on 1 January 2025 and ended on 30 May 2025 (the "Accrued Ticker Period") and the indicative initial consideration of MYR168,085,367 at a ticker rate of 6.7% per annum. The amount was calculated based on the indicative initial consideration as adjusted based on the earlier effective time of 31 December 2024 (as opposed to the original closing date) pursuant to the Supplemental Letter. Meanwhile, the prevailing base lending rates of major banks in Malaysia were ranged from 6% to 7%, the calculation of which also considered the locked-box mechanism adopted in the Supplemental Letter and the difference between the Accrued Ticker and the incremental cash generated by the Target Company during the Accrued Ticker Period.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

As disclosed in the section headed “Reasons for and Benefits of the Entering into the Supplemental Letter” in the Announcement, parties adopted the locked-box mechanism in the Supplemental Letter after arm’s length negotiation, which locked up the equity value of the Target Company in advance based on the balance sheet of the Target Company as at 31 December 2024. Therefore, the value of the Sale Shares, being the value of 80% equity interests of the Target Company, will also be determined based on such earlier effective time. Besides, under the locked-box mechanism, the Purchaser shall be entitled to the profits and losses of the Target Company during the Accrued Ticker Period, while the Sellers no longer enjoy these economic benefits. As a consideration, the Purchaser agreed to pay the accrued ticker to the Sellers according to the Supplemental Letter, which refers to the accumulated interest calculated based on the locked-box equity value. As a result, the accrued ticker was included in the consideration paid by the Company.

In addition, as disclosed in the Announcement, the comparables were selected based on the following criteria: the companies are mainly engaged in equipment rental businesses for construction-related or industrial projects that fall into the asset-heavy and capital-intensive industry. Such companies provide their customers with a cost-effective alternative to buying pricey equipment, and offer flexibility for short-term needs, allowing clients to adjust equipment types required for specific projects, with maintenance and relevant services such as assistance with the operation of equipment included, and keep projects up-to-date with reliable equipment and services. Therefore, in the acquisition and merger transactions in equipment rental industry, the corporate value of the Target Company to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EV/EBITDA) multiple is generally used as the basis for determining the transaction consideration to avoid the impact of different depreciation methodology, capital expenditure decisions or debt level of the asset-heavy and capital-intensive target company. It can more accurately reflect the cash flow status of the Target Company.

In terms of the comparability, based on the publicly available information on comparable transactions and comparable companies available to the Company through extensive review and taking into account the overall environment of the equipment rental market and the possibility to be affected by factors, including fluctuations in demand, price competition, technological advancement, financing conditions, regulatory requirements and regional market differences (such as the reputation and market position of the Target Group Companies in Malaysia), the Company considered that the selected comparable transactions and companies meet the comparability criteria for the following reasons: (i) given that the acquisition is a transaction conducted by a listed company in the equipment rental industry with a view to acquiring the equity interests of a target company with a leading position in the local market, and considering the industry characteristics referred to above, the selected comparable transactions are more recent precedents in the equipment rental industry; (ii) given that the Target Company is ranked first among local companies in Malaysia in terms of the fleet size of aerial work platforms with the features as disclosed in the Announcement, the Company determined the criteria with reference to such features and selected the comparable companies accordingly. However, such comparables are not the sole basis for the determination of consideration. As disclosed in the section headed “Consideration and the basis of determination” in the Announcement, after arm’s length negotiation, the parties determined the transaction consideration with reference to various factors, including quantifiable factors such as the financial position of the Target Group Companies and non-quantifiable factors such as their future prospects and market condition as mentioned above. In addition, the willingness of the parties to proceed with the transactions and the Company’s bargaining power leveraged by its market position, as well as its strategic development plan in the regional market seeking synergetic investment, are also factors to be considered in determining the consideration.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

In view of the above, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) are of the view that although the above transactions are not conducted in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Company, they are on normal commercial terms, fair and reasonable, and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

As of the end of the reporting period, the Target Group Companies have become the subsidiaries of the Company.

See the announcements of the Company dated 8 May 2025 and 30 May 2025 as well as the subsection headed “Management Discussion and Analysis – Material Investments, Acquisitions or Disposals” in the 2025 interim report, respectively, for details.

For details of the 2024 Share Option Scheme, please refer to the announcements of the Company dated 12 March 2024 and 4 June 2024 and the circular of the Company dated 2 May 2024.

2024 Share Option Scheme

The purposes of the 2024 Share Option Scheme are to reward the participants for their contribution to the Company and to encourage the participants to continue their efforts towards enhancing the value of the Company and its Shares in the interests of the Company and all its Shareholders as a whole. Participants who meet the conditions of participation as set out in the Listing Rules and the 2024 Share Option Scheme Rules, specifically include the directors, senior management, middle management and other key employees of the Company and/or the subsidiaries of the Company who meet the conditions of participation as set out in the Listing Rules and the 2024 Share Option Scheme. The qualification of the selected participants shall be determined by the Board or the administration committee of the scheme at its sole discretion based on their contributions to the Company or any of its subsidiaries. The 2024 Share Option Scheme will remain in force for a period of 10 years commencing 4 June 2024 (i.e. the adoption date), unless otherwise being early terminated. Hence, the 2024 Share Option Scheme will still remain in force for around 8 years.

The total number of Shares to be issued in respect of which the share options may be granted under the 2024 Share Option Scheme shall not exceed 1.5% of the Company's total issued Shares as at the date of approval of the 2024 Share Option Scheme at the general meeting, which is 47,958,660 Shares (representing 1.5% of the issued share capital of the Company (excluding treasury shares) as at the date of disclosure of this report).

The maximum number of Shares which are issued and to be issued upon exercise of options (including exercised and unexercised options) by any participant within any 12-month period must not exceed 1% of the issued Shares from time to time (the "Individual Limit"). In the event the grant of options to such participant will result in the number of Shares issued and to be issued under all options granted to him/her (excluding the lapsed options under the terms of the scheme) within the 12-month period up to and inclusive of the grant date of such option in excess of 1% of the total number of Shares in issue of the Company, the Company shall convene another general meeting to seek the approval of the Shareholders, and such participant and his/her close associates (or his/her associates if such participant is a connected person) shall abstain from voting. In the event the grant of options to any substantial shareholder or independent non-executive Director of the Company or any of their respective associates will result in the total number of Shares issued to him/her within the 12-month period prior to and inclusive of the grant date and Shares to be issued to him/her upon the exercise of all options granted or to be granted to him/her (excluding any lapsed options under the 2024 Share Option Scheme Rules) in excess of 0.1% of the number of Shares in issue, such further grant of options shall require the prior approval of the Shareholders of the Company, and the grantee and his/her associates and all core connected persons of the Company shall abstain from voting. A circular shall be despatched to Shareholders under the Listing Rules.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

In accordance with the 2024 Share Option Scheme Rules, participants who have been granted options should decide whether or not to accept the offer of options within 14 days after the grant date. If the Company receives, within the period of the acceptance date, a letter of offer of share options signed by such participant specifying the number of Shares in respect of which he/she accepts the offer of options and, at the same time, receives from him/her a remittance to the Company of the consideration for the grant of the options in the amount of HK$1.00, the options in respect of the letter of offer of share options shall be deemed to be granted and effective. The consideration of HK$1.00 for the grant of the options is nominal only and taking into account the contributions made or to be made by the participants to the Group, the Board considers that the nominal consideration of HK$1.00 to be paid by each participant for the purchase of each of the options is fair and reasonable and that such arrangement is in line with the purpose of the Share Option Scheme, i.e. it is intended to grant options to the participants as an incentive for their contribution to the Group. Upon fulfillment of the vesting conditions and subject to relevant provisions of 2024 Share Option Scheme, the options will be granted to participants in batches in accordance with the vesting plan: (i) one-third of the options shall be vested on the first anniversary of the grant date, (ii) one-third of the options shall be vested on the second anniversary of the grant date, and (iii) the remaining shall be vested on the third anniversary of the grant date.

The exercise price shall be determined at the sole discretion of the Board or the Administration Committee but shall in no event be less than the higher of: (a) the closing price of the Shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheet on the grant date, which must be a business day; and (b) the average closing price of the Shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheets for the five business days immediately preceding the grant date.

OTHER INFORMATION INCLUDED IN THE ANNUAL REPORT

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor’s report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

OTHER INFORMATION INCLUDED IN THE ANNUAL REPORT (continued)

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors of the Company are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Our report is made solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Cheung Bing Yin Benny (practising certificate number: P06447).

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards (which include all Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards (“HKASs”) and Interpretations) as issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. They have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income and derivative financial instruments which have been measured at fair value. These financial statements are presented in Renminbi (“RMB”) and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand (RMB’000) except when otherwise indicated.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Group”) for the year ended 31 December 2025. A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity), directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee (i.e., existing rights that give the Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee).

Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights results in control. When the Company has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- (a) the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- (b) rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- (c) the Group’s voting rights and potential voting rights.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2025

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control described above. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the related assets (including goodwill), liabilities, any non-controlling interest and the exchange fluctuation reserve; and recognises the fair value of any investment retained and any resulting surplus or deficit in profit or loss. The Group's share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss or retained profits, as appropriate, on the same basis as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES

The Group has adopted amendments to HKAS 21 Lack of Exchangeability for the first time for the current year's financial statements. The Group has not early adopted any other standard or amendment that has been issued but is not yet effective.

Amendments to HKAS 21 specify how an entity shall assess whether a currency is exchangeable into another currency and how it shall estimate a spot exchange rate at a measurement date when exchangeability is lacking. The amendments require disclosures of information that enable users of financial statements to understand the impact of a currency not being exchangeable. As the currencies that the Group had transacted in and the functional currencies of overseas subsidiaries, branches and associates for translation into the Group's presentation currency were exchangeable, the amendments did not have any impact on the Group's financial statements.

Further information about those HKFRS Accounting Standards that are expected to be applicable to the Group is described below.

HKFRS 18 replaces HKAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements. While a number of sections have been brought forward from HKAS 1 with limited changes, HKFRS 18 introduces new requirements for presentation within the statement of profit or loss, including specified totals and subtotals. Entities are required to classify all income and expenses within the statement of profit or loss into one of the five categories: operating, investing, financing, income taxes and discontinued operations and to present two new defined subtotals. It also requires disclosures about management-defined performance measures in a single note and introduces enhanced requirements on the grouping (aggregation and disaggregation) and the location of information in both the primary financial statements and the notes. Some requirements previously included in HKAS 1 are moved to HKAS 8 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors, which is renamed as HKAS 8 Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements. As a consequence of the issuance of HKFRS 18, limited, but widely applicable, amendments are made to HKAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows, HKAS 33 Earnings per Share and HKAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. In addition, there are minor consequential amendments to other HKFRS Accounting Standards. HKFRS 18 and the consequential amendments to other HKFRS Accounting Standards are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027 with earlier application permitted. Retrospective application is required. The Group is currently analysing the new requirements and assessing the impact of HKFRS 18 on the presentation and disclosure of the Group's financial statements.

HKFRS 19 allows eligible entities to elect to apply reduced disclosure requirements while still applying the recognition, measurement and presentation requirements in other HKFRS Accounting Standards. To be eligible, at the end of the reporting period, an entity must be a subsidiary as defined in HKFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements, cannot have public accountability and must have a parent (ultimate or intermediate) that prepares consolidated financial statements available for public use which comply with HKFRS Accounting Standards or IFRS Accounting Standards. HKFRS 19 was amended in April 2025 to include IFRS Accounting Standards in the eligibility criteria for applying the standard. The standard was further amended in October 2025 to (i) remove disclosure objectives from HKFRS 19; (ii) reduce the disclosure requirements relating to supplier finance arrangements and a specific class of financial liabilities; and (iii) replace disclosure requirements relating to management-defined performance measures with a cross-reference to HKFRS 18 for entities that use these measures. Earlier application is permitted. As the Company is a listed company, it is not eligible to elect to apply HKFRS 19 and its amendments. Some of the Company's subsidiaries are considering the application of HKFRS 19 and its amendments in their specified financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7 Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments clarify the date on which a financial asset or financial liability is derecognised and introduce an accounting policy option to derecognise a financial liability that is settled through an electronic payment system before the settlement date if specified criteria are met. The amendments clarify how to assess the contractual cash flow characteristics of financial assets with environmental, social and governance and other similar contingent features. Moreover, the amendments clarify the requirements for classifying financial assets with non-recourse features and contractually linked instruments. The amendments also include additional disclosures for investments in equity instruments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial instruments with contingent features. The amendments shall be applied retrospectively with an adjustment to opening retained profits (or other component of equity) at the initial application date. Prior periods are not required to be restated and can only be restated without the use of hindsight. Earlier application of either all the amendments at the same time or only the amendments related to the classification of financial assets is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7 Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity clarify the application of the "own-use" requirements for in-scope contracts and amend the designation requirements for a hedged item in a cash flow hedging relationship for in-scope contracts. The amendments also include additional disclosures that enable users of financial statements to understand the effects these contracts have on an entity's financial performance and future cash flows. The amendments relating to the own-use exception shall be applied retrospectively. Prior periods are not required to be restated and can only be restated without the use of hindsight. The amendments relating to the hedge accounting shall be applied prospectively to new hedging relationships designated on or after the date of the initial application. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7 shall be applied at the same time. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28 address an inconsistency between the requirements in HKFRS 10 and in HKAS 28 in dealing with the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture. The amendments require a full recognition of a gain or loss resulting from a downstream transaction when the sale or contribution of assets constitutes a business. For a transaction involving assets that do not constitute a business, a gain or loss resulting from the transaction is recognised in the investor's profit or loss only to the extent of the unrelated investor's interest in that associate or joint venture. The amendments are to be applied prospectively. The previous mandatory effective date of amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28 was removed by the HKICPA. However, the amendments are available for adoption now.

Amendments to HKAS 21 Translation to a Hyperinflationary Presentation Currency require the translation from a non-hyperinflationary functional currency into a hyperinflationary presentation currency at the closing rate. The amendments also require an entity whose functional currency and presentation currency are the currency of a hyperinflationary economy to restate the comparative amounts of a foreign operation whose functional currency is that of a non-hyperinflationary economy, by applying the general price index, in accordance with paragraph 34 of HKAS 29 Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies, to the foreign operation's comparative figures. The amendments introduce certain additional disclosures. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Annual Improvements to HKFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11 set out amendments to HKFRS 1, HKFRS 7 (and the accompanying Guidance on implementing HKFRS 7), HKFRS 9, HKFRS 10 and HKAS 7. Details of the amendments that are expected to be applicable to the Group are as follows:

- HKFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures: The amendments have updated certain wording in paragraph B38 of HKFRS 7 and paragraphs IG1, IG14 and IG20B of the Guidance on implementing HKFRS 7 for the purpose of simplification or achieving consistency with other paragraphs in the standard and/or with the concepts and terminology used in other standards. In addition, the amendments clarify that the Guidance on implementing HKFRS 7 does not necessarily illustrate all the requirements in the referenced paragraphs of HKFRS 7 nor does it create additional requirements. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.
- HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments: The amendments clarify that when a lessee has determined that a lease liability has been extinguished in accordance with HKFRS 9, the lessee is required to apply paragraph 3.3.3 of HKFRS 9 and recognise any resulting gain or loss in profit or loss. However, the amendments do not address how a lessee distinguishes between a lease modification as defined in HKFRS 16 and an extinguishment of a lease liability in accordance with HKFRS 9. In addition, the amendments have updated certain wording in paragraph 5.1.3 of HKFRS 9 and Appendix A of HKFRS 9 to remove potential confusion. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.
- HKFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements: The amendments clarify that the relationship described in paragraph B74 of HKFRS 10 is just one example of various relationships that might exist between the investor and other parties acting as de facto agents of the investor, which removes the inconsistency with the requirement in paragraph B73 of HKFRS 10. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.
- HKAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows: The amendments replace the term "cost method" with "at cost" in paragraph 37 of HKAS 7 following the prior deletion of the definition of "cost method". Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any impact on the Group's financial statements.

2.4 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Investments in associates

An associate is an entity in which the Group has a long-term interest of generally not less than 20% of the equity voting rights and over which it has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The Group's investments in associates are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at the Group's share of net assets under the equity method of accounting, less any impairment losses.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2025

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

The Group's share of the post-acquisition results and other comprehensive income of associates is included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and consolidated other comprehensive income, respectively. In addition, when there has been a change recognised directly in the equity of the associate, the Group recognises its share of any changes, when applicable, in the consolidated statement of changes in equity. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Group's investments in the associates, except where unrealised losses provide evidence of an impairment of the assets transferred. Goodwill arising from the acquisition of associates is included as part of the Group's investments in associates.

Upon loss of significant influence over the associate, the Group measures and recognises any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associate upon loss of significant influence and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognised in profit or loss.

Business combinations and goodwill

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred is measured at the acquisition date fair value which is the sum of the acquisition date fair values of assets transferred by the Group, liabilities assumed by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. All other components of non-controlling interests are measured at fair value. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The Group determines that it has acquired a business when the acquired set of activities and assets includes an input and a substantive process that together significantly contribute to the ability to create outputs.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts of the acquiree.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the previously held equity interest is remeasured at its acquisition date fair value and any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss or other comprehensive income, as appropriate.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Contingent consideration classified as an asset or liability is measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured and subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Business combinations and goodwill (continued)

Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred, the amount recognised for non-controlling interests and any fair value of the Group's previously held equity interests in the acquiree over the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If the sum of this consideration and other items is lower than the fair value of the net assets acquired, the difference is, after reassessment, recognised in profit or loss as a gain on bargain purchase.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. Goodwill is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired. The Group performs its annual impairment test of goodwill as at 31 December. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units, or groups of cash-generating units, that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the Group are assigned to those units or groups of units.

Impairment is determined by assessing the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (group of cash-generating units) to which the goodwill relates. Where the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (group of cash-generating units) is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognised. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in a subsequent period.

Where goodwill has been allocated to a cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) and part of the operation within that unit is disposed of, the goodwill associated with the operation disposed of is included in the carrying amount of the operation when determining the gain or loss on the disposal. Goodwill disposed of in these circumstances is measured based on the relative value of the operation disposed of and the portion of the cash-generating unit retained.

Fair value measurement

The Group measures its derivative financial instruments and certain investments at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either in the principal market for the asset or liability, or in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability. The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2025

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Fair value measurement (continued)

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 – based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 – based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is observable, either directly or indirectly

Level 3 – based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by reassessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required (other than inventories, contract assets, deferred tax assets, financial assets and non-current assets), the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash-generating unit's value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal, and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, a portion of the carrying amount of a corporate asset (e.g., a headquarters building) is allocated to an individual cash-generating unit if it can be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis or, otherwise, to the smallest group of cash-generating units.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2025

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Impairment of non-financial assets (continued)

An impairment loss is recognised only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises.

Property, plant and equipment and depreciation

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. When an item of property, plant and equipment is classified as held for sale or when it is part of a disposal group classified as held for sale, it is not depreciated and is accounted for in accordance with HKFRS 5. The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Cost may also include transfers from equity of any gains or losses on qualifying cash flow hedges of foreign currency purchases of property, plant and equipment.

Property, plant and equipment and depreciation (continued)

Expenditure incurred after items of property, plant and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, is normally charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where the recognition criteria are satisfied, the expenditure for a major inspection is capitalised in the carrying amount of the asset as a replacement. Where significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciates them accordingly.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line basis to write off the cost of each item of property, plant and equipment to its residual value over its estimated useful life. The principal annual rates used for this purpose are as follows:

| | |
|---------------------------------|---|
| Buildings | 4.75% to 4.85% |
| Leasehold improvements | Shorter of the remaining period of the leases and the useful life of the assets |
| Equipment, materials and moulds | 3.50% to 32.33% |
| Office and other equipment | 9.00% to 32.33% |
| Motor vehicles | 18.00% to 24.25% |

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of that item is allocated on a reasonable basis among the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Residual values, useful lives and the depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at least at each financial year end.

An item of property, plant and equipment including any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss on disposal or retirement (other than the sales of second-hand equipment, of which the sales proceeds are recorded as revenue) recognised in the statement of profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognised is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset.

Intangible assets (other than goodwill)

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is the fair value at the date of acquisition. The useful lives of intangible assets are assessed to be either finite or indefinite. Intangible assets with finite lives are subsequently amortised over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation period and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at each financial year end.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment annually either individually or at the cash-generating unit level. Such intangible assets are not amortised. The useful life of an intangible asset with an indefinite life is reviewed annually to determine whether the indefinite life assessment continues to be supportable. If not, the change in the useful life assessment from indefinite to finite is accounted for on a prospective basis.

Software

Software is stated at historical cost less any impairment loss and is amortised on the straight-line basis over its estimated useful life of 5 to 10 years.

The software mainly comprises Enterprise Resource Planning system (the "ERP system") and Systems Applications and Products in Data Processing system ("SAP financial system"). The management estimates the useful life of ERP system and SAP financial system as 10 years based on historical experience and estimated lifecycle of the software according to the Group's business plan.

Research and development costs

All research costs are charged to the statement of profit or loss as incurred.

Expenditure incurred on projects to develop new products is capitalised and deferred only when the Group can demonstrate the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale, its intention to complete and its ability to use or sell the asset, how the asset will generate future economic benefits, the availability of resources to complete the project and the ability to measure reliably the expenditure during the development. Product development expenditure which does not meet these criteria is expensed when incurred.

Deferred development costs are stated at cost less any impairment losses and are amortised using the straight-line basis over the commercial lives of the underlying products, commencing from the date when the products are put into commercial production.

2.4 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Leases

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Group as a lessee

The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

(a) Right-of-use assets

Right-of-use assets are recognised at the commencement date of the lease (that is the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease terms and the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

| | |
|----------------|----------------|
| Leasehold land | 40 to 50 years |
| Offices | 1 to 6 years |
| Motor | 5 years |
| Equipment | 3 to 5 years |

If ownership of the leased asset transfers to the Group by the end of the lease term or the cost reflects the exercise of a purchase option, depreciation is calculated using the estimated useful life of the asset.

(b) Lease liabilities

Lease liabilities are recognised at the commencement date of the lease at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for termination of a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate the lease. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as an expense in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

(b) Lease liabilities (continued)

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in lease payments (e.g., a change to future lease payments resulting from a change in an index or rate) or a change in assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

(c) Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of equipment and offices (that is those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the recognition exemption for leases of low-value assets.

Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Sale and leaseback transactions with variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate where the Group acts as a seller-lessee

For sale and leaseback transactions with variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate, lease liabilities are recognised at the commencement date of the leasebacks at the present value of expected lease payments to be made over the lease term. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the expected lease payments. Any differences between the payments made for the lease and the lease payments that reduce the carrying amount of lease liabilities are recognised in profit or loss.

Group as a lessor

When the Group acts as a lessor, it classifies at lease inception (or when there is a lease modification) each of its leases as either an operating lease or a finance lease.

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. When a contract contains lease and non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each component on a relative stand-alone selling price basis. Rental income is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease term and is included in revenue in the statement of profit or loss due to its operating nature. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same basis as rental income. Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

Leases that transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee are accounted for as finance leases.

When the Group is an intermediate lessor, a sublease is classified as a finance lease or operating lease with reference to the right-of-use asset arising from the head lease. If the head lease is a short-term lease to which the Group applies the on-balance sheet recognition exemption, the Group classifies the sublease as an operating lease.

Reposessed assets

Reposessed assets are initially recognised at fair value on the date of repossession, and the related trade receivables together with the related impairment allowances are derecognised from the statement of financial position. Subsequently, reposessed assets are measured at the lower of their cost and fair values less costs to sell and are presented as other assets.

Investments and other financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income, and fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value plus in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price determined under HKFRS 15 in accordance with the policies set out for "Revenue recognition" below.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest ("SPPI") on the principal amount outstanding. Financial assets with cash flows that are not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both. Financial assets classified and measured at amortised cost are held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows, while financial assets classified and measured at fair value through other comprehensive income are held within a business model with the objective of both holding to collect contractual cash flows and selling. Financial assets which are not held within the aforementioned business models are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss.

Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace are recognised on the trade date, that is, the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the asset is derecognised, modified or impaired.

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (debt instruments)

For debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income, interest income, foreign exchange revaluation and impairment losses or reversals are recognised in the statement of profit or loss and computed in the same manner as for financial assets measured at amortised cost. The remaining fair value changes are recognised in other comprehensive income. Upon derecognition, the cumulative fair value change recognised in other comprehensive income is recycled to the statement of profit or loss.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the statement of financial position at fair value with net changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

This category includes derivative instruments and equity investments which the Group had not irrevocably elected to classify at fair value through other comprehensive income. Dividends on the equity investments are also recognised as other income in the statement of profit or loss when the right of payment has been established.

A derivative embedded in a hybrid contract, with a financial liability or non-financial host, is separated from the host and accounted for as a separate derivative if the economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to the host; a separate instrument with the same terms as the embedded derivative would meet the definition of a derivative; and the hybrid contract is not measured at fair value through profit or loss. Embedded derivatives are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit or loss. Reassessment occurs if there is a change in the terms of the contract that significantly modifies the cash flows.

A derivative embedded within a hybrid contract containing a financial asset host is not accounted for separately. The financial asset host together with the embedded derivative is required to be classified in its entirety as a financial asset at fair value through profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e., removed from the Group's consolidated statement of financial position) when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a "pass-through" arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if, and to what extent, it has retained the risk and rewards of ownership of the asset. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises an allowance for expected credit losses ("ECLs") for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

General approach

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12 months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2025

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information. The Group considers that there has been a significant increase in credit risk when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group.

A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subject to impairment under the general approach and they are classified within the following stages for measurement of ECLs except for trade receivables and contract assets which apply the simplified approach as detailed below.

Stage 1 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECLs

Stage 2 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition but that are not credit-impaired financial assets and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Stage 3 – Financial assets that are credit-impaired at the reporting date (but that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired) and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Simplified approach

For trade receivables and contract assets that do not contain a significant financing component or when the Group applies the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group applies the simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Under the simplified approach, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

For lease receivables, the Group chooses as its accounting policy to adopt the simplified approach in calculating ECLs with policies as described above.

2.4 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and bills payables, other payables and accruals, derivative financial instruments, interest-bearing bank and other borrowings, financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

The Group classifies financial liabilities that arise from a supplier finance arrangement within trade and bills payables in the statement of financial position if they have a similar nature and function to trade payables. This is the case if the supplier finance arrangement is part of the working capital used in the Group's normal operating cycle, the level of security provided is similar to trade payables and the terms of the liabilities that are part of the supply chain finance arrangement are not substantially different from the terms of trade payables that are not part of the arrangement. Cash flows related to liabilities arising from supplier finance arrangements that are classified in trade and bills payables in the statement of financial position are included in operating activities in the statement of cash flows. Otherwise, the financial liabilities are classified in interest-bearing bank and other borrowings in the statement of financial position and the related cash flows are included in financing activities in the statement of cash flows.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. This category also includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by HKFRS 9. Separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in the statement of profit or loss. The net fair value gain or loss recognised in the statement of profit or loss does not include any interest charged on these financial liabilities.

Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss are designated at the initial date of recognition, and only if the criteria in HKFRS 9 are satisfied. Gains or losses on liabilities designated at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in the statement of profit or loss, except for the gains or losses arising from the Group's own credit risk which are presented in other comprehensive income with no subsequent reclassification to the statement of profit or loss. The net fair value gain or loss recognised in the statement of profit or loss does not include any interest charged on these financial liabilities.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost (trade and other payables, and borrowings)

After initial recognition, trade and other payables, and interest-bearing borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost. Gains and losses are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the effective interest rate amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. The effective interest rate amortisation is included in finance costs in the statement of profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled, or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and a recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Derivative financial instruments and hedge accounting

Initial recognition and subsequent measurement

The Group uses derivative financial instruments, such as forward currency contracts and interest rate swaps, to hedge its foreign currency risk and interest rate risk, respectively. Such derivative financial instruments are initially recognised at fair value on the date on which a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured at fair value. Derivatives are carried as assets when the fair value is positive and as liabilities when the fair value is negative.

Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of derivatives are taken directly to the statement of profit or loss, except for the effective portion of cash flow hedges, which is recognised in other comprehensive income and later reclassified to profit or loss when the hedged item affects profit or loss.

Derivative financial instruments and hedge accounting (continued)

For the purpose of hedge accounting, hedges are classified as:

- fair value hedges when hedging the exposure to changes in the fair value of a recognised asset or liability or an unrecognised firm commitment; or
- cash flow hedges when hedging the exposure to variability in cash flows that is either attributable to a particular risk associated with a recognised asset or liability or a highly probable forecast transaction, or a foreign currency risk in an unrecognised firm commitment; or
- hedges of a net investment in a foreign operation.

At the inception of a hedge relationship, the Group formally designates and documents the hedge relationship to which the Group wishes to apply hedge accounting, the risk management objective and its strategy for undertaking the hedge.

The documentation includes identification of the hedging instrument, the hedged item, the nature of the risk being hedged and how the Group will assess whether the hedging relationship meets the hedge effectiveness requirements (including the analysis of sources of hedge ineffectiveness and how the hedge ratio is determined). A hedging relationship qualifies for hedge accounting if it meets all of the following effectiveness requirements:

- There is “an economic relationship” between the hedged item and the hedging instrument.
- The effect of credit risk does not “dominate the value changes” that result from that economic relationship.
- The hedge ratio of the hedging relationship is the same as that resulting from the quantity of the hedged item that the Group actually hedges and the quantity of the hedging instrument that the Group actually uses to hedge that quantity of hedged item.

Hedges which meet all the qualifying criteria for hedge accounting are accounted for as follows:

Cash flow hedges

The effective portion of the gain or loss on the hedging instrument is recognised directly in other comprehensive income in the cash flow hedge reserve, while any ineffective portion is recognised immediately in the statement of profit or loss. The cash flow hedge reserve is adjusted to the lower of the cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument and the cumulative change in fair value of the hedged item.

The amounts accumulated in other comprehensive income are accounted for, depending on the nature of the underlying hedged transaction. If the hedged transaction subsequently results in the recognition of a non-financial item, the amount accumulated in equity is removed from the separate component of equity and included in the initial cost or other carrying amount of the hedged asset or liability. This is not a reclassification adjustment and will not be recognised in other comprehensive income for the period. This also applies where the hedged forecast transaction of a non-financial asset or non-financial liability subsequently becomes a firm commitment to which fair value hedge accounting is applied.

For any other cash flow hedges, the amount accumulated in other comprehensive income is reclassified to the statement of profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment in the same period or periods during which the hedged cash flows affect the statement of profit or loss.

If cash flow hedge accounting is discontinued, the amount that has been accumulated in other comprehensive income must remain in accumulated other comprehensive income if the hedged future cash flows are still expected to occur. Otherwise, the amount will be immediately reclassified to the statement of profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment. After the discontinuation, once the hedged cash flow occurs, any amount remaining in accumulated other comprehensive income is accounted for depending on the nature of the underlying transaction as described above.

Other borrowings on ordinary shares with redemption obligation

For the redeemable ordinary shares issued by the Company as detailed in note 33, financial liabilities are recognised based on the net present value of the redemption amount and debited to equity. Changes of net present value during the reporting periods are recognised in profit or loss. When the redemption rights related to the redeemable ordinary shares are terminated, redemption liabilities on ordinary shares are extinguished and credited to equity.

Treasury shares

Own equity instruments which are reacquired and held by the Company or the Group (treasury shares) are recognised directly in equity at cost. No gain or loss is recognised in the statement of profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Group's own equity instruments.

Inventories

Inventories are goods valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value at the end of each of the reporting period. The cost of inventories issued is determined on the weighted-average basis and specific identification basis, in the case of work in progress and finished goods, comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of overheads. The difference between the cost and the lower net realisable value is stated as a provision. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs to be incurred to completion and estimated expenses and related taxes necessary to make the sale.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the statement of financial position comprise cash on hand and at banks, and short-term highly liquid deposits with a maturity of generally within three months that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value and held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks, and short-term deposits as defined above, less bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management.

Provisions

A provision is recognised when a present obligation (legal or constructive) has arisen as a result of a past event and it is probable that a future outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, provided that a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of discounting is material, the amount recognised for a provision is the present value at the end of the reporting period of the future expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The increase in the discounted present value amount arising from the passage of time is included in finance costs in the statement of profit or loss.

Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes, except that deferred tax is not recognised for the Pillar Two income taxes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of any unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if and only if the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

Government grants

Government grants are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed.

Where the grant relates to an asset, the fair value is credited to a deferred income account and is released to the statement of profit or loss over the expected useful life of the relevant asset by equal annual instalments or deducted from the carrying amount of the asset and released to the statement of profit or loss by way of a reduced depreciation charge.

Revenue recognition

The Group is principally engaged in the operating lease services, engineering and technical services and asset management and other services. Asset management and other services include asset management services (mainly referring to subleasing services and related maintenance services) and sale of goods (mainly referring to the sale of new equipment, second-hand equipment and materials).

Revenue from operating lease income

Operating lease income, for which the Group provides operating lease services and subleasing services, covers income from the leasing of various types of equipment and materials on a daily, weekly, monthly, yearly or project-by-project basis based on customers' needs. Rental income is recognised on a time proportion basis over the lease terms. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as income in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when control of goods or services is transferred to the customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

When the consideration in a contract includes a variable amount, the amount of consideration is estimated to which the Group will be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods or services to the customer. The variable consideration is estimated at contract inception and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

When the contract contains a financing component which provides the customer with a significant benefit of financing the transfer of goods or services to the customer for more than one year, revenue is measured at the present value of the amount receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction between the Group and the customer at contract inception. When the contract contains a financing component which provides the Group with a significant financial benefit for more than one year, revenue recognised under the contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. For a contract where the period between the payment by the customer and the transfer of the promised goods or services is one year or less, the transaction price is not adjusted for the effects of a significant financing component, using the practical expedient in HKFRS 15.

(a) Sale of goods

Revenue from the sale of goods, including sales of materials and sales of second-hand equipment, is recognised at the point in time when control of the asset is transferred to the customer, generally on delivery of the goods.

(b) Engineering and technical services

Revenue from the provision of construction services is recognised over time, based on the quantities of work completed, because the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced.

Contract assets

If the Group performs by transferring goods or services to a customer before being unconditionally entitled to the consideration under the contract terms, a contract asset is recognised for the earned consideration that is conditional. Contract assets are subject to impairment assessment, details of which are included in the accounting policies for impairment of financial assets. They are reclassified to trade receivables when the right to the consideration becomes unconditional.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised when a payment is received or a payment is due (whichever is earlier) from a customer before the Group transfers the related goods or services. Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Group performs under the contract (i.e., transfers control of the related goods or services to the customer).

Contract costs

Other than the costs which are capitalised as inventories, property, plant and equipment and intangible assets, costs incurred to fulfil a contract with a customer are capitalised as an asset if all of the following criteria are met:

- (a) The costs relate directly to a contract or to an anticipated contract that the entity can specifically identify.
- (b) The costs generate or enhance resources of the entity that will be used in satisfying (or in continuing to satisfy) performance obligations in the future.
- (c) The costs are expected to be recovered.

The capitalised contract costs are amortised and charged to the statement of profit or loss on a systematic basis that is consistent with the transfer to the customer of the goods or services to which the asset relates. Other contract costs are expensed as incurred.

Share-based payments

The Company operates a share option scheme and a restricted share award scheme. Employees (including directors) of the Group receive remuneration in the form of share-based payments, whereby employees render services in exchange for equity instruments ("equity-settled transactions"). The cost of equity-settled transactions with employees is measured by reference to the fair value at the date at which they are granted. The fair value is determined using appropriate valuation models, further details of which are given in notes 31 and 32 to the financial statements.

The cost of equity-settled transactions is recognised in employee benefit expense, together with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period in which the performance and/or service conditions are fulfilled. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at the end of each reporting period until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The charge or credit to the statement of profit or loss for a period represents the movement in the cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period.

Service and non-market performance conditions are not taken into account when determining the grant date fair value of awards, but the likelihood of the conditions being met is assessed as part of the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. Market performance conditions are reflected within the grant date fair value. Any other conditions attached to an award, but without an associated service requirement, are considered to be non-vesting conditions. Non-vesting conditions are reflected in the fair value of an award and lead to an immediate expensing of an award unless there are also service and/or performance conditions.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2025

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

For awards that do not ultimately vest because non-market performance and/or service conditions have not been met, no expense is recognised. Where awards include a market or non-vesting condition, the transactions are treated as vesting irrespective of whether the market or non-vesting condition is satisfied, provided that all other performance and/or service conditions are satisfied.

Where the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, as a minimum an expense is recognised as if the terms had not been modified, if the original terms of the award are met. In addition, an expense is recognised for any modification that increases the total fair value of the share-based payments, or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification. Where an equity-settled award is cancelled, it is treated as if it had vested on the date of cancellation, and any expense not yet recognised for the award is recognised immediately.

This includes any award where non-vesting conditions within the control of either the Group or the employee are not met. However, if a new award is substituted for the cancelled award, and is designated as a replacement award on the date that it is granted, the cancelled and new awards are treated as if they were a modification of the original award, as described in the previous paragraph.

The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of earnings per share.

Employee benefits

Salaries and bonuses, social security contributions and other short-term employee benefits are accrued in which services have been rendered by the employees of the Group.

The employees of the Group's subsidiaries which operate in the Chinese Mainland are required to participate in a central pension scheme operated by the local municipal government. These subsidiaries are required to contribute a certain percentage of these payroll costs to the central pension scheme. The contributions are charged to profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the central pension scheme.

Termination benefits

Termination benefits are recognised at the earlier of when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits and when the Group recognises restructuring costs involving the payment of termination benefits.

Contributions to these plans are recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

2.4 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, i.e., assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets. The capitalisation of such borrowing costs ceases when the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Events after the reporting period

If the Group receives information after the reporting period, but prior to the date of authorisation for issue, about conditions that existed at the end of the reporting period, it will assess whether the information affects the amounts that it recognises in its financial statements. The Group will adjust the amounts recognised in its financial statements to reflect any adjusting events after the reporting period and update the disclosures that relate to those conditions in light of the new information. For non-adjusting events after the reporting period, the Group will not change the amounts recognised in its financial statements, but will disclose the nature of the non-adjusting events and an estimate of their financial effects, or a statement that such an estimate cannot be made, if applicable.

Dividends

Final dividends are recognised as a liability when they are approved by the shareholders in a general meeting. Proposed final dividends are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements. Interim dividends are simultaneously proposed and declared, because the Company's memorandum and articles of association grant the directors the authority to declare interim dividends. Consequently, interim dividends are recognised immediately as a liability when they are proposed and declared.

Foreign currencies

These financial statements are presented in RMB, which is the Company's functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions recorded by the entities in the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured. The gain or loss arising on translation of a non-monetary item measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation difference on the item whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss, respectively).

In determining the exchange rate on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to an advance consideration, the date of initial transaction is the date on which the Group initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, the Group determines the transaction date for each payment or receipt of the advance consideration.

The functional currencies of certain overseas subsidiaries are currencies other than the RMB. As at the end of the reporting period, the assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into RMB at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period and their statements of profit or loss are translated into RMB at the exchange rates that approximate to those prevailing at the dates of the transactions. The functional currency of the Company is RMB.

The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the exchange fluctuation reserve. On disposal of a foreign operation, the cumulative amount in the reserve relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the cash flows of overseas subsidiaries are translated into RMB at the exchange rates ruling at the dates of the cash flows. Frequently recurring cash flows of overseas subsidiaries which arise throughout the year are translated into RMB at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Group's financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and their accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets or liabilities affected in the future.

Judgements

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements:

Significant judgement in determining the lease term of contracts with renewal options

The Group has several lease contracts that include extension and termination options. The Group applies judgement in evaluating whether or not to exercise the option to renew or terminate the lease. That is, it considers all relevant factors that create an economic incentive for it to exercise either the renewal or termination. After the commencement date, the Group reassesses the lease term if there is a significant event or change in circumstances that is within its control and affects its ability to exercise or not to exercise the option to renew or to terminate the lease (e.g., construction of significant leasehold improvements or significant customisation to the leased asset).

The Group includes the renewal period as part of the lease term due to the significance of these assets to its operations. These leases have a short non-cancellable period (i.e., one to five years) and there will be a significant negative effect on production if a replacement is not readily available.

Classification between finance leases and operating leases

A lessor shall classify each of its leases as either an operating lease or a finance lease. A lease is classified as a finance lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset. A lease is classified as an operating lease if it does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2025

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES (continued)

Judgements (continued)

Classification between finance leases and operating leases (continued)

Situations that would normally lead to a lease being classified as a finance lease include the following:

- the lease transfers ownership of the asset to the lessee by the end of the lease term;
- the lessee has the option to purchase the asset at a price which is expected to be sufficiently lower than the fair value at the date the option becomes exercisable and, at the inception of the lease, it is reasonably certain that the option will be exercised;
- the lease term is for the major part of the economic life of the asset, even if title is not transferred;
- at the inception of the lease, the present value of the minimum lease payments amounts to at least substantially all of the fair value of the leased asset; and
- the leased assets are of a specialised nature such that only the lessee can use them without major modifications being made.

If it is clear from other features that the lease does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset, the lease is classified as an operating lease. The determination of whether the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership depends on an assessment of the relevant arrangements relating to the lease and this involves critical judgements by management.

Determining the timing of satisfaction of construction services

The Group concluded that revenue from the construction services is recognised over time, based on the quantities of work completed, because the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced. The fact that the Group is building on the customer's construction site and the customer generally controls any work in progress arising from the Group's performance demonstrates that the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced.

Classification of transactions which contain a financing element

Transactions for the purchase of materials and equipment contains financing elements such as extended payment terms. Under such arrangement, the banks will pay upon delivery of product by the supplier and the Group will subsequently settle the liability directly with banks. Management considers the underlying economic substance of the transaction and the significance of the financing element to the transaction. Judgement is required to determine the most appropriate classification and presentation of these transactions within the statements of cash flows and financial position. The economic substance of the transaction is determined to be financing in nature as the financing element is significant and the time frame in which the arrangement is extended by over 9 to 10 months within original supply terms. As a result, the entire cash flow is presented as operating and financing in the statement of cash flows. Therefore, the supplier finance arrangement was significantly different from the one in the original invoice and the liabilities were included in interest-bearing bank and other borrowings, with a total amount of RMB121,972,000 as at the end of the reporting period (31 December 2024: RMB105,340,000). There are non-cash changes showed in the consolidated statements of cash flows.

Deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets are recognised for unused tax losses to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the losses can be utilised. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and the level of future taxable profits, together with future tax planning strategies.

The tax losses carried forward by the Group related to subsidiaries that have a history of losses, have not expired, and may not be used to offset taxable income elsewhere in the Group. The subsidiaries have neither any taxable temporary difference nor any tax planning opportunities available that could partly support the recognition of these losses as deferred tax assets. On this basis, the Group has determined that it cannot recognise deferred tax assets on the tax losses carried forward. Further details on deferred taxes are disclosed in note 19 to the financial statements.

Estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below:

Provision for expected credit losses on financial assets ("ECLs")

The measurement of impairment losses under HKFRS 9 across debt instruments recorded at financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, trade receivables, financial assets included in prepayments, other receivables, other assets and contract assets require judgement, in particular, the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by a number of factors, changes in which can result in different levels of allowances.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2025

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES (continued)

Estimation uncertainty (continued)

Provision for expected credit losses on financial assets ("ECLs") (continued)

The Group's ECLs calculations are outputs of appropriate models with a number of underlying assumptions regarding the choice of variable inputs and their interdependencies. Elements of the ECL models that are considered accounting judgements and estimates include:

- (i) The Group's internal credit grading model, which assigns the probability of defaults (PDs) to the individual grades
- (ii) The Group's criteria for assessing if there has been a significant increase in credit risk and so allowances for financial assets should be measured on a lifetime ECL basis and the qualitative assessment
- (iii) Development of ECL models, including the various formulas and the choice of inputs
- (iv) Determination of associations between macroeconomic scenarios and economic inputs, and the effect on PDs, the exposure at defaults (EADs) and the loss given defaults (LGDs)

The Group will regularly review the expected credit loss model in the context of actual loss experience and adjust when necessary.

Impairment of non-financial assets (other than goodwill)

The Group assesses whether there are any indicators of impairment for all non-financial assets (including the right-of-use assets) at the end of each reporting period. Non-financial assets are tested for impairment when there are indicators that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. An impairment exists when the carrying value of an asset or a cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. The calculation of the fair value less costs of disposal is based on available data from binding sales transactions in an arm's length transaction of similar assets or observable market prices less incremental costs for disposing of the asset. When value in use calculations are undertaken, management must estimate the expected future cash flows from the asset or cash-generating unit and choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows.

Share-based payments

Estimating the fair value for share-based payment transactions requires determination of an appropriate valuation model, which is dependent on the terms and conditions of the grant. This estimate also requires determination of the most appropriate inputs to the valuation model including volatility, the expected exercise behaviour and dividend yield, etc, and making assumptions about them. The assumptions and models used for estimating the fair value for share-based payment transactions are disclosed in notes 31 and 32.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

4. OPERATING SEGMENT INFORMATION

For management purposes, the Group is organised into business units based on their products and services and has three reportable operating segments as follows:

- (i) Operating lease services: Leasing of equipment and materials to customers and generating revenue mainly from rental fees payable by customers. The equipment and materials remain the property of the Group and are leased out to different customers with same or similar requirements;
- (ii) Engineering and technical services: Provision of construction services, electric power supply services, equipment repair and maintenance services and logistics services, and related value-added services, and generating revenue mainly from service fees charged to customers; and
- (iii) Asset management and other services: Subleasing and sale of equipment and materials.

Management monitors the results of the Group's operating segments separately for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. Segment performance is evaluated based on reportable segment profit, which is a measure of adjusted profit before tax. The adjusted profit before tax is measured consistently with the Group's profit before tax except that other income and gains (other than gain on disposal of items of property, plant and equipment and early termination of right-of-use assets), non-financial lease-related finance costs, ECLs of other receivables, as well as other expenses (other than loss on scrapped and physical items of property, plant and equipment).

Segment assets exclude investment in associates, deferred tax assets, derivative financial instruments, restricted bank balances, cash and cash equivalents as well as other receivables and other assets.

Segment liabilities exclude other payables and accruals (other than lease deposits, salary and welfare payables, advances from customers, contract liabilities and dividend payables), interest-bearing bank and other borrowings, tax payables, derivative financial instruments, deferred tax liabilities, financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss and deferred revenue.

13. EARNINGS PER SHARE ATTRIBUTABLE TO ORDINARY EQUITY HOLDERS OF THE PARENT

The calculation of the basic earnings per share amount is based on the consolidated profit for the year attributable to ordinary equity holders of the parent, and the weighted average number of ordinary shares of 3,134,061,656 outstanding during the year (2024: 3,176,285,333).

The calculation of the diluted earnings per share amount is based on the consolidated profit for the year attributable to ordinary equity holders of the parent, adjusted to reflect the effects as if the dilutive potential ordinary shares do not exist at the beginning of the year. The weighted average number of ordinary shares used in the calculation is the number of ordinary shares outstanding during the year, as used in the basic earnings per share calculation, and the weighted average number of ordinary shares assumed to have been issued at no consideration on the deemed conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares into ordinary shares.

The calculations of basic and diluted earnings per share are based on:

| | 2025 | 2024 |
|--|----------------|---------|
| | RMB'000 | RMB'000 |
| Earnings | | |
| Profit attributable to ordinary equity holders of the parent, used in the basic earnings per share calculation | 146,976 | 896,322 |

| Shares | | |
| Weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the year, used in the basic earnings per share calculation | 3,134,061,656* | 3,176,285,333 |
| Effect of dilution – weighted average number of ordinary shares: Share options | – | 90,640 |
| Weighted average number of ordinary shares for diluted earnings per share | 3,134,061,656 | 3,176,375,973 |

* The weighted average number of shares was after taking into account the effect of shares held for the share award scheme.

 The details of the share option scheme are disclosed in note 31 to the financial statements. As the exercise price of the share options was higher than the average market price of the Company during the period, no adjustment has been made to the diluted earnings per share as of 31 December 2025.

14. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT (continued)

At 31 December 2025, certain of the Group's property, plant and equipment with a net carrying amount of RMB6,820,439,000 were pledged to secure other borrowings granted to the Group (31 December 2024: RMB8,985,210,000).

Movement in provision for impairment of property, plant and equipment in the year is as follows:

| | Equipment, materials and moulds for leasing and services |
|--|---|
| | RMB'000 |
| At 1 January 2024 | 101,805 |
| Disposals | (42,608) |
| At 31 December 2024 and 1 January 2025 | 59,197 |
| Disposals | (1,314) |
| At 31 December 2025 | 57,883 |

Measurement basis and major assumptions for determining the recoverable amount of the above asset groups are as follows:

The recoverable amount is determined based on the higher of the net amount of fair value of the cash-generating unit ("CGU") less costs to sell and the present value of the estimated future cash flows of the CGUs ("VIU").

The VIUs were calculated by discounting the estimated future cash flows based on the forecast rentals earned from the CGUs, which is determined based on management's best estimate. The cash flows over the forecast period had been determined based on historical rental arrangements such as rental income, occupancy rate. The estimated future cash flows were discounted to their present values using pre-tax rates of 10.5% as at 31 December 2025, which reflected the market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the CGUs (31 December 2024: 11%).

The calculation of the fair value less costs to sell was based on observable market prices for the equipment with similar conditions and incremental costs for disposing of the asset.

Lump sum payments were made upfront to acquire the leased land from the owners with lease periods of 50 years, and no ongoing payments will be made under the terms of these land leases. Leases of offices generally have lease terms between 1 and 6 years, while equipment generally has lease terms between 3 and 5 years or 12 months or less and/or is individually of low value.

The Group as a lessor

The Group mainly leases its equipment, materials and moulds in the Chinese Mainland under operating lease arrangements. The terms of the leases generally require the tenants to pay security deposits and provide for periodic rent adjustments according to the then prevailing market conditions. Rental income recognised by the Group amounted to RMB6,446,893,000 for the year ended 31 December 2025, details of which are included in note 5 to the financial statements (2024: RMB6,357,409,000).

16. GOODWILL

Reconciliation of the carrying amount of the Group's goodwill at the beginning and end of the reporting period is presented below:

| | RMB'000 |
|--|----------------|
| Gross carrying amount | |
| At 1 January 2025 | – |
| Acquisition of a subsidiary (note 34) | 173,979 |
| At 31 December 2025 | 173,979 |
| Accumulated impairment losses | |
| At 1 January 2025 | – |
| Impairment losses recognised during the period | – |
| At 31 December 2025 | – |
| Net book value | |
| At 1 January 2025 | – |
| At 31 December 2025 | 173,979 |

The goodwill arose from the acquisition of TH Tong Heng Machinery Sdn. Bhd., a Malaysia based leading company in equipment leasing, repairing and trading, on 30 May 2025. This acquisition aligns with the Group's strategic initiative to expand its market share in Malaysia's equipment leasing sector.

Goodwill acquired through business combinations is allocated to each acquired subsidiary as the cash-generating units ("CGUs") within the operating lease services for impairment testing.

The recoverable amount of CGU within the operating lease services has been determined based on a value-in use calculation using cash flow projections based on financial budgets covering a five-year period and approved by senior management. The pre-tax discount rate applied to the cash flow projections is 15.8% (2024: Nil). The post-tax discount rate applied to the cash flow projections is 12.0% (2024: Nil).

Assumptions were used in the value-in-use calculation of each CGU within the operating lease services for 31 December 2025. The following describes each key assumption on which management has based its cash flow projections to undertake impairment testing of goodwill.

Expected gross margin – the basis used to determine the value assigned to the expected gross margin is the gross margin achieved in the current year, adjusted for expected growth and other changes, and expected market development.

Discount rates – the discount rates used reflect specific risks relating to the units.

The values assigned to the key assumptions on market development of the operating lease services, and the discount rates are comparable to external information sources.

Related allowance for impairment was RMB118,057,000 (31 December 2024: RMB66,329,000). The reposessed assets amounting to RMB12,748,000 (2024: RMB9,389,000) and RMB24,522,000 (2024: RMB504,145,000) were disposed of and settled by trade and bills payables for the year ended 31 December 2025, respectively. The Group plans to dispose of the reposessed assets held at 31 December 2025 by auction, bidding or transfer. The application of the certificates of some properties with a carrying amount of RMB370,631,000 (31 December 2024: RMB356,675,000) is still in process and the directors of the Company believe there is no significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

A credit loss analysis was performed at the end of the reporting period by considering the probability of default of comparable companies with published credit ratings. At the end of the reporting period, the ECLs of the financial assets included in prepayments, other receivables and other assets were measured based on the 12-month ECLs if they are not past due and there is no information indicating that the financial assets had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. Otherwise, they were measured based on the lifetime ECLs.

| | RMB'000 | RMB'000 |
| At the beginning of year | 49,856 | 45,288 |

| ECLs | (1,095,812) | (1,117,651) |
| Net carrying amount | 6,836,100 | 5,870,926 |

Trade receivables mainly represent rentals and services receivables from tenants and engineering services. The Group seeks to maintain strict control over its outstanding receivables. Overdue balances are reviewed regularly by management. In view of the aforementioned and the fact that the Group's trade receivables relate to a large number of diversified individual customers, there is no significant concentration of credit risk. The Group does not hold any other credit enhancements over its trade receivable balances. Trade receivables are non-interest-bearing.

As at 31 December 2025, trade receivables of RMB700,000,000 (31 December 2024: RMB15,481,000) were factored out but were not derecognised. In the opinion of the directors, the Group has retained the substantial risks and rewards, which include default risks relating to such factoring trade receivables, and accordingly, it continued to recognise the full carrying amounts of the trade receivables and the factoring amount was recognised as borrowings.

The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

Set out below is the information about the credit risk exposure on the Group's trade receivables using a provision matrix:

| ECLs rate | 11.06% | 12.06% | 25.84% | 34.77% | 42.99% | 15.99% |

In 2025, the Group intensified collection activities for customers classified within the risk pool, leading to the recovery of a substantial portion of the outstanding carrying amounts. As a result, the previously recognized expected credit losses (ECL) were reversed. Concurrently, the implementation of stricter credit assessment criteria and the expansion of overseas operations contributed to an improved overall credit risk profile of the receivables portfolio. Following comprehensive risk assessment and approval, several customers were removed from the risk pool. These developments collectively led to a decline in the Group's overall ECL provision rate.

Transferred financial assets that are not derecognised in their entirety:

During the year, the Group endorsed certain notes receivable accepted by banks in the Chinese Mainland to certain of its suppliers in order to settle the trade payables due to such suppliers (the “Endorsement”). In the opinion of the directors, the Group has retained the substantial risks and rewards, which include default risks relating to such endorsed bills, and accordingly, it continued to recognise the full carrying amounts of the endorsed bills and the associated trade payables settled. Subsequent to the Endorsement, the Group did not retain any rights on the use of the endorsed bills, including the sale, transfer or pledge of the endorsed bills to any other third parties. The incurred amount of the trade payables settled by the endorsed bills as at 31 December 2025 was RMB337,842,000 (31 December 2024: RMB209,972,000).

During the year, the Group discounted certain notes receivable to banks in exchange for cash (the “Discounted Bills”). In the opinion of the directors, the Group has retained the substantial risks and rewards, which include default risks relating to such Discounted Bills, and accordingly, it continued to recognise the full carrying amounts of the Discounted Bills and the associated interest-bearing bank borrowings.

Transferred financial assets that are derecognised in their entirety:

During the year, the Group endorsed/discounted certain notes receivable accepted by banks in the Chinese Mainland to certain of its suppliers or in exchange for cash (the “Derecognised Bills”). The incurred amount of the notes receivable as at 31 December 2025 was RMB102,122,000 (31 December 2024: RMB178,615,000). In the opinion of the directors, the Group had transferred substantially all risk and rewards relating to the Derecognised Bills. Accordingly, it had derecognised the full carrying amount of the Derecognised Bills. The maximum exposure to loss from the Group’s continuing involvement in the Derecognised Bills and the undiscounted cash flows to repurchase these Derecognised Bills is equal to their carrying amounts. In the opinion of the directors, the fair values of the Group’s continuing involvement in the Derecognised Bills are not significant.

As at 31 December 2025, bank borrowings of RMB121,972,000 arose from supplier finance arrangements (31 December 2024: RMB105,340,000). The Group has established supplier finance arrangements that are offered to some of the Group's key suppliers in the Chinese Mainland. Participation in the arrangements is at the suppliers' own discretion. Suppliers that participate in the supplier finance arrangements will receive early payments or payments at the original due dates on invoices sent to the Group from the Group's external finance provider. If suppliers choose to receive early payments, they pay a fee to the finance provider. In order for the finance provider to pay the invoices, the goods must have been received or supplied and the invoices must have been approved by the Group. Payments to suppliers ahead of or at the invoice due date are processed by the finance provider and, in all cases, the Group settles the original invoice by paying the finance provider in line with the original invoice maturity date or at a later date as agreed with the finance provider. Payment terms with suppliers have not been renegotiated in conjunction with the arrangements. The Group provides no security to the finance provider. The original payment terms these financial liabilities that are part of the Group's supplier finance arrangements included in the trade and bills payables are normally settled on terms of 30 to 60 days terms, whereas the payment terms for the above amounts of the Group's supplier finance arrangements for which included in interest-bearing bank and other borrowings are normally extended to no more than 1 year, and in a few instances, are extended to five years.

All financial liabilities that are part of the supplier finance arrangements are included in interest-bearing bank and other borrowings in the statement of financial position, with RMB121,972,000 (31 December 2024: RMB99,284,000) included in the current portion of unsecured bank loans and no amount included in the non-current portion of unsecured bank loans (31 December 2024: RMB6,056,000).

31. SHARE OPTION SCHEME (continued)

The fair value (measured as at the grant date) of the share options that were outstanding as at 31 December 2025 was RMB9,818,000 (31 December 2024: RMB8,091,000). The weighted average fair values were RMB0.62, RMB0.67, and RMB0.66 per option for each of the three tranches with one-year, two-year, and three-year vesting periods, respectively (31 December 2024: RMB0.64, RMB0.70, and RMB0.73). The Group recognised a share option expense of RMB1,850,000 (2024: RMB2,409,000) during the year ended 31 December 2025 in employee benefit expense.

The fair value of the share options was estimated as at the date of grant, using a binomial model, taking into account the terms and conditions upon which the options were granted. The following table lists the main inputs to the model used:

| | 31 December 2025 | 31 December 2024 |
|---|------------------|------------------|
| Expected dividend yield (%) | 3.36 | 6.90 |
| Expected volatility (%) | 81.40 | 103.96 |
| Risk-free interest rate (%) | 2.97 | 3.11 |
| Validity period of the share options (year) | 10 | 10 |
| Share price (HKD per share) | 1.34 | 1.45 |
| Expected exercise trigger multiple | 2.00 | 2.00 |

Estimation of the value of the share options is subjective and uncertain as such values are subject to a number of assumptions and the limitation of the model. The expected volatility is based on the historical volatility reflecting the assumption that the historical volatility is indicative of future trends, which may also not necessarily be the actual outcome. The expected exercise trigger multiple is also estimated and is not necessarily indicative of the exercise patterns that may occur.

All significant features necessary to be considered for the measurement of fair values of the share options granted in the year were incorporated into such measurement.

At 31 December 2025, the Company had 15,165,335 (31 December 2024: 11,420,000) non-vested share options outstanding under the 2024 Share Option Scheme, including 3,156,667 (31 December 2024: 610,000) non-vested share options granted to certain executive directors, 690,000 (31 December 2024: 1,830,000) non-vested share options granted to certain employees among five highest paid employees (not include executive directors) and 11,318,668 (31 December 2024: 8,980,000) non-vested share options granted to certain key management personnel. Should all of them be vested, the exercise in full of the outstanding share options would, under the present capital structure of the Company, result in the issue of 15,165,335 (31 December 2024: 11,420,000) additional ordinary shares of the Company.

Financial instruments not measured at fair value

Management has assessed that the fair values of cash and cash equivalents, restricted bank balances, trade receivables, financial assets included in prepayments, other receivables and other assets, trade and bills payables, and financial liabilities included in other payables and accruals approximate to their carrying amounts largely due to the short-term maturities of these instruments. Interest-bearing bank and other borrowings are mostly on floating rate terms and bear interest at prevailing market interest rates and their carrying values approximate to their fair values.

41. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE HIERARCHY OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Fair value hierarchy

The Group uses the following hierarchy for determining and disclosing the fair values of financial instruments:

- Level 1: fair values measured based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2: fair values measured based on valuation techniques for which all inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value are observable, either directly or indirectly
- Level 3: fair values measured based on valuation techniques for which any inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs)

41. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE HIERARCHY OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (continued)

Fair value hierarchy (continued)

The fair values of debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income have been calculated by discounting the future cash flows using rates currently available for instruments with similar terms, credit risk and remaining maturities.

The changes in fair values as a result of the Group for debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income as at 31 December 2025 and 2024 were assessed to be insignificant.

The fair value of the cross-currency interest rate swap, forward currency contract and interest rate swap were calculated by discounting the future cash flows using the forward exchange rate and RMB risk-free rate that are observable market inputs.

The significant unobservable input to the valuation of financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss is discount for lack of marketability ("DLOM").

42. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Group's principal financial instruments comprise interest-bearing bank and other borrowings, lease liabilities, and cash and cash equivalents. The main purpose of these financial instruments is to raise finance for the Group's operations. The Group has various other financial assets and liabilities such as trade receivables, trade and bills payables, debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income, restricted bank balances, financial assets included in prepayments, other receivables, and other assets, and financial liabilities included in other payables and accruals, which mainly arise directly from its operations.

The Group also enters derivative transactions, including principally forward currency contract, interest rate swap and cross-currency interest rate swap. The purpose is to manage the interest rate and currency risks arising from the Group's operations and its sources of finance.

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are interest rate risk, foreign currency risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Board reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks and they are summarised below.

42. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rate (without considering the cross-currency interest rate swap with Ping An Bank and the interest rate swap with China Construction Bank), with all other variables held constant, of the Group's profit before tax.

| | Increase/(decrease) in profit before tax | |

(b) Foreign currency risk

The Group's monetary assets, liabilities and transactions are principally denominated in RMB. The Group has transactional currency exposures. Such exposures mainly arise from the Group's cash and cash equivalents that are denominated in foreign currency and interest-bearing bank borrowings that are denominated in JPY. Bank borrowings of RMB153,402,000 equivalent as at 31 December 2025, which are denominated in JPY (31 December 2024: RMB55,364,000, which were denominated in USD and RMB135,500,000, which were denominated in JPY). As at 31 December 2025, the Group has three forward currency contracts (31 December 2024: one).

42. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

(c) Credit risk

The Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties. It is the Group's policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures. In addition, receivable balances and contract assets are monitored on an ongoing basis. In 2025, following a comprehensive credit assessment and approval, several customers were removed out of the risk pool, reflecting a genuine improvement in their repayment capacity and financial stability.

Maximum exposure and year-end staging

The tables below show the credit quality and the maximum exposure to credit risk based on the Group's credit policy, which is mainly based on past due information unless other information is available without undue cost or effort, and year-end staging classification as at 31 December 2025 and 2024.

42. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

(d) Liquidity risk

The Group's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings and lease liabilities.

Due to the Group's supplier finance arrangements, the relevant trade payables are due to a single counterparty rather than individual suppliers. This results in the Group being required to settle a significant amount with a single counterparty, rather than less significant amounts with a number of suppliers. However, the Group's payment terms for most of the trade payables covered by the arrangements are extended to not more than 1 year while the normal payment terms for trade payables range from 30 to 60 days, except for trade payable covered by the amount of RMB6,057,000, of which the payment terms are extended to five years. Management does not consider the supplier finance arrangements to result in excessive concentrations of liquidity risk given the payment terms are not significantly extended. Details of the arrangements are disclosed in notes 28 and 35 to the financial statements.

The maturity profile of the Group's financial liabilities as at the end of each of the year, based on the contractual undiscounted payments, is as follows:

As at 31 December 2025

| | On demand | Less than 1 year | 1 to 5 years | More than 5 years | Total |
