Information relating to withholding tax

Details of withholding tax applied to the dividend declared

Details of withholding tax (including type of shareholders and applicable tax rate) applied to the dividends declared are set out in the table below.

Withholding and remitting obligor will withhold and remit personal income tax as per item of 'interest, dividends and bonus income' for dividends and bonus income of overseas resident individual shareholders from domestic non-foreign-funded enterprise by issuing shares in Hong Kong. When domestic non-foreign-funded enterprise issues shares in Hong Kong, its overseas resident individual shareholders shall file applications in accordance with tax convention signed by the country stated in the residential identity and China and tax arrangement of Mainland and Hong Kong (Macau).

In addition, situations in which tax rate for dividends is not 10% will be handled in accordance with the following provisions;

(1) as for residents of conventional country whose tax rate is less than 10%, withholding and remitting obligor can handle application for enjoying relevant convention treatment and excessive tax will be refunded with approval of competent taxation authority;

(2) as for residents of conventional country whose tax rate is between 10% and 20%, withholding and remitting obligor shall withhold and remit personal income tax as per actual conventional tax rate when distributing dividends and bonus and it need not handle application and approval issues;

(3) as for residents of the countries without tax convention and other situations, withholding and remitting obligor shall withhold and remit personal income tax at the tax rate of 20% when distributing dividends and bonus.

H-share companies will not deduct dividend and bonus income tax for dividends and bonus of enterprise investors in the Mainland by investing in listed shares of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange via Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and income tax will be paid by enterprises. Among them, for dividends and bonus income of resident enterprises in the Mainland obtained as they have continuously held H shares for 12 months, enterprise income tax will be exempted according to laws.
